Married at First Sight Chapter 2268-Liberty's ambition was to develop All You Can Eat restaurant into a national chain restaurant, so it had to develop its own characteristics.

Therefore, Liberty still needed to study hard and work hard to move forward.

He was her strong backing.

After she left, Duncan settled his own breakfast in twos and twos.

After eating and drinking enough, his mood also improved.

He reached out and picked up the mobile phone from the table, and called Zachary. After Zachary answered the phone, he said to Zachary: "Liberty brought me breakfast just now, and she mentioned something to me about the house.

Zachary, Liberty insists on giving you the money so she can live in peace, so please accept it. The residence she purchased with her own funds feels like home. When she resides in the home of another, she always has the feeling that it is not her home."

Zachary held the mobile phone in one hand and played with the signature pen in the other. He smiled lowly, "I thought you would tell me not to accept my sister's money, or you can help my sister give the money."

Duncan said: "I'd be happy to help her with money, but she doesn't want to, and I'm helpless. Who told me that I love her, so I can only do what she wants."

Zachary said: "I don't want to take my sister's money. Seren and I honor my sister, but she just refuses to accept it, and my wife and I have nothing to do. No, we have been frozen. This is the first time I have given money to my sister. The house is given to others, but cannot be given away."

Duncan smiled and said, "That's right. She has such a temperament, what can she do? She can do whatever she wants, as long as she is willing to move. I don't worry about her living there. The drunk man she met last night actually looked for her all night. That drunk man must have his eyes on her. Who knows if he will do anything in the future. If something happens to her or Sonny, I will have a heart attack. For the safety of the mother and child, you will sell your house in to her.”

Zachary suddenly said, “It turned out that you had a sense of crisis and worried that others would snatch my sister away, so you called me. Duncan, you used to always say that Josh and I value s-e-x over friends, and you are not much better. How long has it been since you took the initiative to contact me or Josh? It’s rare to call me, or It’s for my sister.”

Duncan: “...”

After a long while, Duncan said with a smile: “The three of us are veterans and good buddies. You two value s-e-x more than friends. If I don’t learn from you, it will appear that I am out of tune with you.”

Zachary choked.

Why did he think that Duncan had become very smart? He was just a fool before!?

Zachary: “I have to go back and discuss this matter with my wife. She is her own sister. She has the final say on whether to charge or not. In our house, she is also the one who has the final say.”

Duncan smiled: “I know, Liberty told me. I said you are now a well-known strict wife.

I will learn from you in the future. I will treat Liberty the same way you treat your wife. If you do not do well, I will learn a lesson. I cannot follow your example.”

Zachary: “...”

After a while, Zachary asked him: “Is there anything else you need to call me?”

Duncan: “No, why, I can’t call you if I have nothing to do? In the past, I called you ten times a day, and you didn’t think I was annoying. I was always there for you.”

Zachary: "I'm going to a meeting right away."

Duncan: "Okay, you go to the meeting. I know you are very busy. You are going to be the groom soon. It is understandable that you are busy. Zachary, I envy you. I don't know when I will be the groom."

In Zachary's wedding, he couldn't be the best man yet.

He used to be the best man in the best man group, and now he still had his position. He felt that he couldn't walk and needed a wheelchair, so he refused to be Zachary's best man.

Zachary had a lot of cousins, and Duncan was not the only one in the best man team.

Zachary: "One day, you will be the bridegroom."

Duncan smiled, "I hope there will be that day. I won't bother you anymore, you should go to the meeting quickly, and pay attention to your health, don't get tired, your wife loves you."
