

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2403

Chapter 2403

"Yeah, Iris is right!" "You've defeated the Southern Boss and taken down the Spears and Hiltons!"

"No one would ever dare to come looking for troubles!"

Cynthia, Snow, and Ruth all beamed and decided that they worried too much.

Indeed, with Leon reaching the invincible state of Intermediate Almighty State, no one other than Arthur could rival him.

Even without the Potential Energy Forces, no one could harm him.

"I hope so," Leon sighed, clearly not as optimistic as the others.

Though he eliminated the Spears and the Hiltons, the Southern Boss escaped alive.

Considering the grudges between him and the Southern Boss, he knew that the Southern Boss would return, seeking revenge.

So long as the Southern Boss was still alive, he could not rest.

Just as he was absorbed in his thoughts, footsteps approached and Mason hurried inside.

"Mister Wolf, Mister Glasby from the Dragon Corps is here to see you," Mason reported respectfully.

"Oh, let him in," Leon said. He cast his thoughts about the Southern Boss aside and tried to get up.

Iris and Cynthia reacted immediately and helped him up.

Snow brought and propped a pillow behind his back thoughtfully.

With that, Mason left the room and let Alfred inside along with a few Dragon Guards.

There were a few unfamiliar faces next to Alfred, including an old man dressed in green and a few other men.

They strode into the room.

"Leon, what happened to you? Are you alright?" Alfred was shocked when he saw the pale look on Leon's face.

Leon seemed fine earlier, so he could not understand why Leon suddenly weakened to such an extent.

"I'm fine. Just my injuries acting up. A few days of rest will help," Leon answered briefly.

"I'm glad," Alfred relaxed.

"Iris, you should all excuse yourself." Leon knew that he should not let others know that he was a Dragon Guard, so he signaled the others to leave.

Soon, Leon was left in the room with Alfred and his companions.

"Mister Glasby, who's this?" Leon glanced at the old man standing next to Alfred in confusion.

"Oh, allow me to introduce you; This is a second-level Platinum Dragon Guard from the central region, Mister Jubert. The others are all skilled martial artists from the central region as well. Mister Jubert, this is a level- five Platinum Dragon Guard from our region, Leon Wolf," Alfred introduced.

"Mister Jubert, it's a pleasure to meet you." Leon greeted, all the while feeling surprised.

In the Dragon Corps of all regions, a second-level Platinum Dragon Guard was considered an extremely rare existence. Only martial artists in the Peak Almighty State could be assigned such a title.

Since Zach was a second-level Platinum Dragon Guard, he had much higher authority than Leon, so Leon dared not to show any disrespect.

Furthermore, since the Demon Lord and Hades both fled to the southern region, Leon assumed that Zach and the others tracked the two here.
