

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2382

Chapter 2382

"Haha! That's right. It's me! Alfred, I didn't expect you to reach the Peak Almighty State. It's no wonder you and your Dragon Guards manage to kill so many members of the criminal list!" Hades smirked.

The Southern Boss reached out to the Demon Lord and Hades, and Hades did not agree to the request at first.

However, he soon recalled something important.

Criminals on the criminal list perished one after another recently, leaving only three criminals on the list.

The southern branch especially took the Poisonwielder down, the Scarlet Thief, and Asmodeus alone. Though he did not know how the Dragon Guards from the southern region managed to do so, he knew that if this continued, the Dragon Corps would soon turn their focus on the top three criminals.

This alerted Hades and he decided at the last minute to sneak his way to the southern region and spy on the Dragon Guards to investigate the death of the other criminals so that he could avoid suffering the same fate.

Because of that, he followed Alfred when he hurried to Leon's rescue. Upon seeing the Southern Boss in danger, Hades decided to help the Southern Boss after a moment of hesitation.

"Hades, why are you here? Are you here to help me?" The Southern Boss asked in anticipation, the despair within him fading within an instant.

"Hades, how dare you come to the southern region and work with the Southern Boss? Since you're here, today will be the day you die!" Alfred snapped out of the initial shock in rage.

He already learned from Arthur that the Southern Boss formed an alliance with the Demon Lord, and upon seeing Hades, he instantly concluded that Hades was also hired by the Southern Boss.

Without hesitation, he waved his arm and the Dragon Guards immediately surrounded Hades and the Southern Boss.

"Like the few of you can harm me. What a joke!" Hades scoffed and stared at the Dragon Guards in contempt.

He ranked second on the criminal list and reached the Peak Almighty State a few years ago.

With his strength, even the Dragon Corps in the central region struggled to deal with him, so he had no fear of Alfred and his subordinates.

"Very well! You asked for this! I shall have your head! Dragon Guards, eliminate the Southern Boss and Hades!" Alfred laughed and commanded an attack.

Hades was an infamous criminal and the Southern Boss partnered with two criminals to commit murder, so Alfred saw no reason he should hold back.
