

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2399

Chapter 2399

"But," Reluctant to give up, the Southern Boss tried to argue, only to be interrupted by Hades.

"End of discussion! Tressures may be tempting, but my life matters most! If you want to manipulate me into retaliating against Leon on your behalf, you should just give up now!" Hades sneered.

He was no fool and could tell the Southern Boss wanted to use him.

The Scarlet Thief and the Demon Lord were used by the Southern Boss and both ended up killed by Leon.

Considering what happened, Hades had no intention of repeating their mistakes.

"Hades, I have no intention of using you. I'm telling the truth. I can assure you that Leon ran out of Potential Energy Forces and with his injuries now, this is the best time to take him out. If you miss this chance, he will recover and might even obtain another Potential Energy Force. If that happens, he'll be a great threat to you," The Southern Boss assured.

He conflicted with Leon numerous times in the past and had a general understanding of the kind of person Leon was.

Considering the grievances between him and Leon, Leon would have used another Potential Energy Force on him if he possessed one instead of letting him go and the Southern Boss was confident with his belief.

"Your promise means nothing to me! Southern Boss, the Demon Lord, and I have both come to the southern region, and the Dragon Corps in the central region must have heard of this. If I'm not mistaken, the Dragon Guards from the central region are probably on the way here to capture us. If Alfred and the Dragon Guards here join them and locate where I am, both of us will be dead!" Hades said.

He narrowly escaped the Dragon Guards, but he knew that they would not give up so easily and were likely following his trail to find him.

With his power in the Peak Almighty State, he had nothing to fear from them, but he could not say the same about the Dragon Guards from the central region, who were far more powerful than the ones in the southern region.

There were martial artists in the Peak Almighty State and even the Semi-Saint State amongst the Dragon Guards from the central region and if they joined forces with Alfred and the others, the situation would be far more dangerous.

With that in mind, Hades knew that he needed to leave the area as soon as possible.

It did not matter if Leon possessed another Potential Energy Force, and he did not have the time to help the Southern Boss with his revenge; if he was seen again, he would be killed on sight.

"What? But," The Southern Boss was stunned, before realizing that he was not out of the woods just yet.

The most pressing issue was whether he could escape the Dragon Guards, so he was in no position to think about fighting Leon.

"Southern Boss, I'm heading back to the central region to look for Brahma! You have one chance. Are you staying here or coming to the central region with me?" Hades asked.

Brahma was the person who ranked first on the criminal list.
