

An Understated Dominance By Marina Vittori

Chapter 1551 -

“Miss Lancaster, don’t move around. Be careful that bullets don’t have eyes.”

An indifferent voice sounded from behind, Hazel looked back subconsciously, and happened to meet the black muzzle of the gun and a fierce face.

“Who are you? How dare you run wild in the Lancaster Family?!” Hazel shouted sharply.

“Miss Lancaster, don’t be so angry, we are just following orders.” The man with the gun said calmly.

“By order? Whose order?” Hazel asked.

“On my orders, of course.”

At this time, outside the meeting hall, a thin man wearing a suit and a mean face suddenly walked in.

It was Gary Montgomery from the Montgomery Family!

“It’s you?!”

After seeing the person coming, Hazel’s expression immediately changed.

She had just escaped from danger and escaped from the slum not long ago, but she didn’t expect Gary Montgomery to come to the door so quickly.

“Miss Lancaster, we meet again.”

Gary Montgomery walked forward with a smile, stretched out his fingers, picked up Hazel’s chin, and praised, “She is indeed a great beauty. I can’t help but be moved.”

“Young Master Montgomery, I have no grievances with you, why are you so aggressive?” Hazel frowned.

“No injustice or enmity?”

Gary Montgomery smiled: “You make a lot of money selling Jade Dew Ointment, but you refuse to cooperate with me. Is this considered a holiday?”

“Young Master Montgomery, if it’s a business matter, we can discuss it carefully, so why would we be unhappy?” Hazel tried to calm the other party.

“What’s business? It’s just making less money. What I really care about is that you made me lose face on the opening day!”

At this point, Gary Montgomery’s face suddenly turned fierce: “I am a dignified young master of the Montgomery Family, but I was treated like a dog by you and suffered all the humiliation. If I don’t avenge this revenge, I will be a useless person!”

“Young Master Montgomery, Miss Nicolson has promised not to pursue this matter again. Don’t you even want to give her face?” Hazel frowned.

“Haha...Dahlia?”

Gary Montgomery sneered: “Before, she was the chief housekeeper of Montgomery Palace, and she was highly valued by her adoptive father. I was really afraid of her, but unfortunately, she is now in trouble and can’t care about you people at all. So, your current fate, It’s all in my hands.”

“Young Master Montgomery, this matter has nothing to do with our Lancaster Family. It was all done by that boy Dustin. Every wrong is his fault and his debt is his fault. If you want to find trouble, just find him. It has nothing to do with us!” Fourth Uncle Lancaster prayed humbly.

“Yes, Master Montgomery, we are all innocent, will you let us go?” The other members of the Lancaster Family begged for mercy.

The Lancaster Family is just a second-rate family, not even a wealthy family, let alone a royal family like the Montgomery Family.

With Gary Montgomery’s identity, it would not be difficult to destroy their family with a little manipulation.

“Don’t worry, I will settle Dustin’s account with him. Now, let’s deal with the matters between us first.”

Gary Montgomery walked to the main seat and sat down, leaning back in a comfortable position, just like a cat playing with a mouse.

“Master Montgomery, what do you want?” Hazel asked in a deep voice.

“Originally, I wanted to use the Black Bear Gang to quietly deal with Dustin, but I seem to have underestimated him a little.”

“Being able to easily kill all the elites of the Black Bear Gang, I have to say, he does have something.”

“So now, I have to be more serious and treat him as a strong enemy.”

“Of course, in order to avoid alerting the enemy, I need your help.”

“As long as you do things beautifully for me, we will be friends from now on, how about it?” Gary Montgomery said with a smile.

Chapter 1552 -

Although he was smiling, his appearance showed that he was not a good person at first glance.

“What does Master Montgomery want me to do?” Hazel suddenly felt uneasy.

“It’s very simple. Tomorrow you find an excuse to invite Dustin to your home for dinner, and then pour this bottle of soft tendon into the wine. After the medicine takes effect, you can leave. The rest is up to you. Let me handle it.”

Gary Montgomery said, took out a black medicine bottle and put it on the table.

What’s inside is Shixiang Ruanjin Powder, which is specially used to deal with martial arts masters.

For those below the level of Grandmaster, once they are attacked, their whole body will become weak, unable to raise any strength, like a lamb waiting to be slaughtered.

“Young Master Montgomery, you have to be merciful and merciful, why don’t you do it so ruthlessly?” Hazel’s face looked a little ugly.

Any fool knows what Gary Montgomery is going to do.

By drugging Dustin, wouldn't she become an accomplice?

"Jue?"

Gary Montgomery smiled, with a hint of teasing in his smile: "Miss Lancaster, what are these tricks? I have something even better, do you want to see it? For example, use some tricks to make your Lancaster Family bankrupt; another example, what do you think about placing a charge on you people and putting them all in jail?"

"Gary Montgomery! Don't go too far! Stonia is not a place without royal law!" Hazel was a little angry.

"Wang Fa?"

Gary Montgomery laughed so hard: "Hazel, Hazel, you are not a child anymore. You can say such childish words. I am very disappointed in you."

The king's law protects the powerful, and those who are powerless will only be suppressed by the king's law.

If civilians commit crimes, they will be sent to jail immediately; but if powerful people commit crimes, they can still get away with it.

This has been true throughout the ages.

"Gary Montgomery! If you want to use me to kill people with a borrowed knife, I will never agree. If you have the ability, just kill me!"

Hazel had a cold face and determined eyes.

Naturally, she would not betray a friend, especially this friend, who had other feelings.

"You can't tell that Miss Lancaster is still a hero among girls."

Gary Montgomery stood up, stared straight at Hazel, and said with a smile: "But I am a little curious. Is it worth risking my life for a pretty boy?"

"It's not worth it. Dustin has saved me and helped me. I will never betray him!" Hazel said firmly.

“oh?”

Gary Montgomery raised his eyebrows slightly, quite surprised: “Could it be that you already like that pretty boy?”

“It’s none of your business!” Hazel said with a cold face.

“Interesting...so interesting.”

Gary Montgomery said with a joking face: “It’s a wonder in the world that a woman who can do everything for her husband can actually have true feelings!”

“Kill if you want, don’t talk nonsense!” Hazel regarded death as home.

With Gary Montgomery’s character, even if Dustin is dealt with, he will never let her go easily.

“Miss Lancaster, I admire your courage. You are indeed not afraid of death, but what about your family members? Are they willing to accompany you to death?”

Speaking of this, Gary Montgomery suddenly looked at the Lancaster Family members and said with an evil smile: “I will give you three minutes to think about it. If you don’t agree, I will kill one Lancaster Family member every minute after that until I kill them all. “

“Now, the timer starts!”

Chapter 1553 -

Hearing Gary Montgomery’s threatening words, everyone in the Lancaster Family panicked instantly.

They obviously didn’t do anything, but they became victims inexplicably. It was a disaster that fell from the sky.

“Master Montgomery! Master Montgomery, please have mercy!”

Fourth Uncle Lancaster was so frightened that he knelt on the ground and began to beg for mercy: “We, the Lancaster Family, have always obeyed the law and abided by the law. You can’t kill innocent people indiscriminately!”

“Young Master Montgomery! Your Excellency has a lot of people, please let us go!” Everyone in the Lancaster Family panicked and wailed.

However, Gary Montgomery was unmoved and said calmly: “It’s useless for you to beg me. Just ask Miss Lancaster. Whether you live or die is in her hands.”

“Hazel! What are you still doing? Hurry up and agree!”

Fourth Uncle Lancaster became anxious and shouted: “Are you going to watch our relatives being killed?”

“Fourth uncle! Dustin is my savior, I can’t betray him!” Hazel frowned deeply.

“What a bullshit savior!”

Fourth Uncle Lancaster yelled: “If you don’t do it for yourself, heaven and earth will destroy you. How can Dustin’s life be compared to that of our whole family?!”

“Fourth uncle, our Lancaster Family is not a small family. I don’t believe that Gary Montgomery really dares to mess around!” Hazel said.

After all, the Montgomery Family was a famous family, and even if Gary Montgomery wanted to take revenge, he couldn’t kill someone blatantly.

“Don’t you dare?”

Gary Montgomery smiled and snapped his fingers.

“boom!”

The next second, gunfire rang out.

A young man from the Lancaster Family trembled. He subconsciously looked down and saw a bloody hole in his chest.

A large amount of blood kept gushing out.

“Boom...”

The man opened his mouth, but before he could say anything, his vision went dark and he fell to the ground, dying suddenly on the spot!

Seeing this scene, the whole place was dead silent.

Everyone was stunned, their eyes widened, and some couldn't believe it.

They knew that Gary Montgomery was not a good person, but they didn't expect that the other party would be so ruthless and kill people without any hesitation.

How terrible!

"how so?"

Hazel was also stunned.

Only then did she realize that Gary Montgomery was not trying to scare people, but actually dared to commit murder in public.

"Miss Lancaster, you don't think I'm joking with you, do you?"

Gary Montgomery sneered: "I always keep my word. If you don't agree, I will shoot the Lancaster Family members present one by one!"

"Gary Montgomery! You beast!"

Hazel was furious, suddenly took out a knife and stabbed Gary Montgomery fiercely.

As a result, before he even got close, he was kicked in the abdomen by the bodyguard next to him, sending him flying two to three meters away. He was so painful that he was sweating profusely and could not stand up.

"Miss Lancaster, I advise you not to do stupid things. If I hurt a hair, your whole family will die." Gary Montgomery grinned.

"You come after me if you have the ability. What kind of man are you bullying the weak here?" Hazel shouted through gritted teeth.

The rules of the rivers and lakes do not bring harm to the family, but the person in front of you is obviously unethical.

"I'm a very strange person. The more you want to die, the less I will let you die. On the contrary, the more those who are afraid of death want to live, the less I will let them live."

Gary Montgomery smiled and said, “Now, make a choice. Should you continue to protect Dustin, or should you protect your family?”

“I.....”

Hazel hesitated, her face full of confusion.

On the one hand, it's the person she likes, and on the other hand, it's her family. She really doesn't know how to choose.

“Looking at you, it seems like you haven't made up your mind yet, so I'll help you again.” Gary Montgomery snapped his fingers again.

“boom!”

Chapter 1554 -

There was another gunshot.

The second Montgomery Family member fell in a pool of blood.

For a time, the entire conference hall screamed and wailed all over the sky.

Cries, shouts, and begging for mercy came and went.

“Beast! I'll fight you!”

Hazel's eyes were red. She picked up the knife on the ground and prepared to go forward and fight.

As a result, as soon as he stood up, he was kicked to the ground again by Gary Montgomery's bodyguard.

“Miss Lancaster, it seems that the weight of these ordinary relatives is not as important as Dustin in your heart. Okay, I will add some more information to you.”

Gary Montgomery said and clapped his hands.

Soon, two sturdy bodyguards in suits walked in dragging a middle-aged man.

It is Hazel's father, Waylon Lancaster.

“dad!”

Seeing the person coming, Hazel’s expression changed instantly, and her face was filled with fear.

She didn’t expect that her father would be arrested.

“Miss Lancaster, I admit that you are very brave, but if your father and Dustin can only live together, what choice will you make?” Gary Montgomery asked.

“No...don’t...don’t!”

Hazel kept shaking her head, tears streaming down her face.

Gary Montgomery waved, took the gun handed over by his subordinate, then put it against Waylon Lancaster’s temple, and said again: “I’ll ask you one last time, will you answer or not? My patience is limited, and I don’t have time to waste. I’m counting down to three now, if you don’t answer, I’ll shoot.”

“three.....”

“two.....”

“one.....”

Before the word was finished, Hazel panicked and said in shock: “Promise! I promise everything! Please let my dad go!”

“This is the right thing to do.”

Gary Montgomery smiled, threw the gun to his subordinate, walked forward slowly, stretched out his fingers to lift Hazel’s chin, and said jokingly: “Miss Lancaster, I will wait for your good news tomorrow. I can only succeed, not Failure, if Dustin hadn’t died, I would have come back again, and by then, I wouldn’t have been as polite as I was tonight.”

After saying that, he turned around and left with satisfaction.

He loved this feeling of manipulating people’s hearts the most, it was so wonderful.

“thump!”

Hazel's legs went weak and she collapsed directly on the ground, tears welling up in her eyes.

She did like Dustin, but she couldn't harm her father because of him.

She must make a choice between family affection and love.

Very painful and helpless.

"Hazel! It's all your fault! It was you who killed two members of the Lancaster Family. If you had made a decision earlier, wouldn't everything have been fine?" Fourth Uncle Lancaster roared repeatedly.

The fright just now made it difficult for him to stay calm and he had to vent his inner emotions.

"That's right! You, an ungrateful woman, are willing to sacrifice our Lancaster Family for a pretty boy. You are really a shame to our Lancaster Family!" Everyone yelled angrily.

In their eyes, Hazel's behavior just now was simply a traitor.

Facing the scolding and scolding, Hazel seemed not to hear it and sat on the ground blankly, as if she had lost her soul.

Looking at the drugs on the table, she felt confused.

Gary Montgomery's subordinates were still watching eagerly, monitoring him all the time.

If she makes the slightest move, it will lead to death for her family.

Now, it seems that she can only obey orders and become a puppet manipulated by Gary Montgomery.

However, letting her poison Dustin with her own hands was even more uncomfortable than killing her.

She really didn't know what to do, it was so hard to make a choice.

The next morning.

Hazel, who had not slept all night, was forced to call Dustin helplessly and invite him to his home for lunch.

Dustin did not become suspicious and readily agreed.

After hanging up the phone, Hazel seemed to have lost all her strength and slumped on the chair, her face pale and her eyes dull.

In just one night, she became much more haggard.

"How are you, daughter? Have you contacted Dustin?"

At this time, Waylon Lancaster walked in the door.

Hazel didn't speak, but nodded slightly.

Seeing his daughter's devastated expression, Waylon Lancaster couldn't help but sigh and comforted: "Daughter, I know you are sad, but we have no choice now."

"Gary Montgomery is powerful and has the support of Montgomery Palace behind him. We can't afford to offend him."

"And many people in the Lancaster Family have been controlled by Gary Montgomery. Once we resist, those people will die."

"So this time, we can only be the villains for once."

At the end of the sentence, Waylon Lancaster's face turned gloomy.

His impression of Dustin has always been very good.

Young and promising, neither arrogant nor impetuous, is a potential stock.

But I didn't expect that the other party would actually offend someone from Montgomery Palace.

It is such a pity that it has led to death now.

"Dad, is there really no other way? Can we ask someone to help resolve this grudge?" Hazel asked tentatively.

"I tried, but it didn't work."

Waylon Lancaster shook his head: "My friends were so frightened that they hung up the phone as soon as they heard the words Montgomery Palace. You should know the power of Montgomery Palace. Looking at the entire Stonia, few people dare to offend Montgomery Palace."

Among the four major royal families in Stonia, the Spanner Family currently ranks first.

Next is Montgomery Palace, followed by the Chen Family and the Bryant Family.

And in terms of power and influence, Prince Eugene Montgomery's Palace is not much worse than the Spanner Family.

The reason why he was pushed down was simply because of the Spanner Family twins.

In other words, apart from the royal relatives in the Forbidden City, the only ones who can really support Prince Eugene Montgomery's family are the Spanner Family.

Therefore, facing Gary Montgomery's oppression, the Lancaster Family had no choice.

Once you resist, you will only end up with your whole family destroyed.

This is reality, this is the gap.

"Why? Why does it become like this?"

Hazel bit her lip and clenched her fists, her face full of humiliation and unwillingness.

But in the end, all her emotions turned into helplessness and despair.

As his father said, no one dares to offend Montgomery Palace.

The most important thing is that Gary Montgomery still has a large number of hostages in his hands. If she doesn't do as she is told, then her father and her family will all die.

"Daughter, get ready. Dustin will be here in a moment. Don't show any flaws, otherwise we will be doomed." Waylon Lancaster said seriously.

"Um."

Hazel nodded heavily and said nothing.

When things got to this point, she had no choice but to make the mistake.

...

At noon, Dustin drove to the Lancaster Manor.

Hazel and his father Waylon Lancaster stood at the door to greet him.

"Dustin, are you here? Please come inside."

Seeing Dustin get out of the car, Waylon Lancaster immediately said hello with a smile.

Chapter 1556 -

On the other hand, Hazel, who was next to her, was glum and a little distracted. It wasn't until Waylon Lancaster bumped her with his shoulder that she suddenly reacted and forced a smile: "Dustin, I have prepared wine and food, please."

"Please." Dustin responded with a smile.

The three of them exchanged pleasantries and walked in the door.

Different from the past, the Lancaster Family today seems a little calm, and no one can be seen in the huge manor.

The three of them walked and chatted, and finally sat down in the living room.

Soon, plates of delicious food were served on the table one after another.

“Miss Lancaster, you invited me over, not just for a meal, right? Is there anything you want to discuss?” Dustin asked.

“I...” Hazel was speechless for a moment.

She had been in a state of despair all day, how could she have thought about this?

Fortunately, Waylon Lancaster reacted quickly and came to the rescue in time: “Dustin, what are you saying? Why can’t I treat you to a meal if you have nothing to do? Your Jade Dew Ointment has done a lot for our Lancaster Family and given us the opportunity to be promoted to a wealthy family. Naturally, we I have to thank you.”

“Uncle Lancaster, you’re welcome. This is a win-win situation. Let’s just make each other successful.”

Dustin smiled modestly and said, “Besides, Hazel and I have become friends. There will be more opportunities for cooperation in the future, and Uncle Lancaster will need to take care of us.”

“OK!”

Waylon Lancaster laughed loudly, then made a gesture and shouted: “Come here! Bring me the jar of fine wine that I have treasured. Today I want to have a drink with Dustin!”

Following his shout, a jar of old wine was placed on the table.

Open the lid and the aroma of wine overflows, refreshing your soul.

“This rich fragrance must be wine that is more than fifty years old, right?” Dustin sniffed.

“That’s right! This jar of old wine has been treasured for eighty years. I got it with great difficulty. I had never been willing to drink it before. Today I am entertaining distinguished guests, so I brought it out to make the scene.” Waylon Lancaster said with a smile.

“Oh? So, I’m in a good mood today?” Dustin smiled.

“Come on, I’ll fill it up for you!”

Waylon Lancaster was very enthusiastic. He poured three glasses of wine, one for each person, and then toasted to each other: “Dustin, I wish us a happy cooperation in the future, let’s do it!”

“Dry.”

Dustin immediately picked up his wine glass and responded.

But when he was about to reach his mouth, he suddenly stopped, glanced at Hazel, and asked with some doubts: “Miss Lancaster, what’s wrong with you today? You’ve been distracted. Are you feeling uncomfortable somewhere?”

“Ah? Oh, I’m fine.” Hazel forced a smile.

“Hazel has been very busy recently, maybe she is too tired?”

Waylon Lancaster immediately smiled and smoothed things over: “Come on, come on... I’ll get drunk today. All the worries will be forgotten. The three of us have a drink together!”

After saying that, he winked at Hazel.

Hazel struggled to pick up the wine glass, her arms shaking slightly uncontrollably.

Inside, there is a colorless and odorless drug, Shixiang Ruanjin Powder.

Once you drink it, you will be exhausted and unable to exert any strength. At that time, you can only be at the mercy of others.

“Miss Lancaster, please.”

Dustin smiled and raised his glass to toast, then put it into his mouth with a calm expression.

“etc!”

Hazel’s heart tightened and she couldn’t help but stop her.

“What’s wrong?” Dustin was a little strange.

“No, it’s nothing...you must be busy today, right? It’s best to drink less.”

Hazel hesitated, not knowing how to explain.

This reaction made Waylon Lancaster frown slightly, but he couldn't show it clearly.

"It's nothing, I have a good drinking capacity, a few drinks won't be a problem."

Dustin smiled, didn't care, and picked up the wine glass again.

Seeing this scene, Hazel's complexion changed drastically, and she quickly knocked away Dustin's wine glass and exclaimed: "You can't drink it! There is medicine in the wine!"

Chapter 1557

"Snapped!"

There was a crisp sound.

Dustin's wine glass was knocked to the ground, and the wine overflowed.

Hazel was stunned and stood there at a loss. She just reacted purely subconsciously and was completely out of control.

When she saw Dustin was about to drink, she immediately chose to stop him.

She doesn't even know why?

At this moment, not only Hazel, but also his father Waylon Lancaster was pale and sweating.

What he worried about most finally happened.

Originally, he could ensure the safety of his family by sacrificing Dustin.

As a result, my daughter's behavior directly ruined the entire plan.

Once Gary Montgomery is investigated, the Lancaster Family will be in disaster!

"Miss Lancaster, what did you just say? The wine was drugged?"

Dustin raised his eyebrows slightly, looking a little strange.

"Gollon!"

Hazel swallowed her saliva, struggled for a few seconds, and finally gritted her teeth, as if she had made a decision, and said hurriedly: "Dustin, today is a Tylermen banquet. The wine is drugged. Someone wants to harm you. Hurry up." Walk!"

With that said, he grabbed Dustin's arm and started to pull it out.

"Hazel! You are crazy!"

Waylon Lancaster was so angry that he slammed the table and shouted: "Do you know what you are doing? You will harm the whole family!"

"Dad! I don't care about this anymore. As long as Dustin is alive, I can't push him into the fire pit!" Hazel had tears in her eyes.

"If Dustin lives, we have to die. Don't you understand? We have no choice at all!" Waylon Lancaster roared.

"We can escape and stay away from Stonia, so there may be a glimmer of hope." Hazel said.

"Don't be naive! The people from Montgomery Palace have already targeted us, where can we escape?" Waylon Lancaster looked like he hated iron.

He didn't expect that his daughter turned out to be a love brain, and she would risk the safety of the entire family for a man.

"I don't know, I don't know, I'm going to take Dustin away anyway!" Hazel cried.

Now she was so distraught that she completely lost her sense of proportion.

"Hazel! You can't make the decision in this family! No matter what, Dustin must stay here today!"

Waylon Lancaster suddenly shouted.

Immediately afterwards, a group of bodyguards rushed in aggressively, surrounding Dustin and the other two.

Just in case, he made two preparations in advance.

If Dustin drinks, then everything will be fine; if he doesn't, he can only use force.

"Uncle Lancaster, what are you doing? What happened?" Dustin frowned.

"Dustin, I'm sorry, I don't want to do this, but for the safety of our Lancaster Family, I have to do this." Waylon Lancaster looked complicated.

"Uncle Lancaster, if you encounter any trouble, you can tell me and I will help you solve it. Why did it get to this point?" Dustin said.

"You can't solve it. Either you die today or we die. There is no other choice. Take it for me!" Waylon Lancaster gritted his teeth and finally gave the order.

"Stop! Stop it all!"

Hazel suddenly took out a knife and put it on his neck: "Dad! If you dare to mess around, I will kill you immediately!"

"You, you... you stinky girl, what are you doing? Put the knife down quickly!" Waylon Lancaster was startled.

"Let us go, otherwise, I will die here with Dustin!" Hazel regarded death as home.

As he spoke, the knife in his hand was slightly raised, and the sharp blade easily cut through the skin.

A trace of blood slowly overflowed from the wound.

"Girl! Don't act recklessly, someone will be killed!" Waylon Lancaster was anxious.

He only has one daughter, and he has been doting on her since she was a child. Naturally, he feels very distressed when he sees his daughter bleeding.

"Dad, I'm sorry, my daughter is unfilial, please allow me to be willful this time."

Hazel burst into tears, but her eyes were very firm.

Chapter 1558 -

The knife he was holding was getting harder and harder, and the wound on his neck was getting bigger and bigger.

Seeing this scene, Waylon Lancaster felt distressed and helpless, and finally chose to compromise.

"Okay, I can let you go."

"But from today on, you will no longer be a member of the Lancaster Family."

"From now on, we will never be estranged from each other. I will pretend that I never gave birth to a daughter like you!" Waylon Lancaster said solemnly.

"dad?"

Hazel was trembling all over, her face full of pain.

"Don't call me dad! Get out of here!"

Waylon Lancaster waved his hand to the bodyguards to step back, then turned his back and stopped looking at Hazel.

Unknowingly, those tiger eyes were filled with tears.

Girl, live well and stay away from Stonia, a place of right and wrong. I wish you happiness.

"Dad, I'm sorry."

Looking at her father's stooped back, Hazel felt guilty.

After a slight hesitation, she shed tears, pulled Dustin and ran out.

“Miss Lancaster, what’s going on?”

After walking out of the living room, Dustin couldn’t help but asked curiously.

“It’s too late to explain! There are spies from Montgomery Palace everywhere here. We have to leave here quickly, otherwise if they find out, you won’t be able to leave today!”

Hazel pulled Dustin and trotted all the way, looking around, looking very nervous.

“Montgomery Palace?”

Dustin frowned slightly, could it be Gary Montgomery who was up to something again?

The accounts from last night haven’t been settled yet, and I didn’t expect that the other party would start retaliating again so soon.

“Let’s go through the back door!”

After making sure that they were not discovered, Hazel took Dustin and carefully reached the back door of the manor.

I opened the door and looked around, nothing unusual.

Hazel looked back at Dustin and quickly warned: “You keep walking along this road, and you will see the main road soon. When you go back, pack your luggage immediately and stay away from Stonia. We can’t stay here anymore!”

“Miss Lancaster, it’s not that serious. If you are afraid of Gary Montgomery, I can deal with him.” Dustin said.

“I know you know Miss Natasha, but the War God stone standing behind Gary Montgomery is the entire Montgomery Palace. Even Miss Natasha can’t afford to offend him. Listen to me and leave quickly!” Hazel looked serious. .

“I’m leaving, what will you do?” Dustin asked.

“I will find a way to deal with it and protect myself.”

Hazel forced out a smile: “Gary Montgomery is going to deal with you. He shouldn’t do anything to me. You don’t have to worry about me. Let’s go quickly.”

After speaking, Dustin didn’t wait for a response and pushed him out of the door.

“Miss Lancaster, I...”

Dustin opened his mouth and was about to explain.

Hazel seemed to have seen something, and her expression suddenly changed.

“careful!”

Hazel exclaimed and tried her best to push Dustin away.

Immediately afterwards, a burst of gunfire rang out.

“Bang, bang, bang...”

The dense bullets shot directly into Hazel’s body, leaving more than a dozen bloody holes.

Everything was so unpredictable that even Dustin didn’t have time to rescue him.

“Quick...run away...”

Hazel looked at Dustin, blood pouring out of her mouth.

She stretched out her hand, as if she wanted to grab something, but couldn’t grab anything. In the end, her body went limp and she fell directly into a pool of blood.

Chapter 1559

“Miss Lancaster!”

Looking at Hazel who was shot and fell to the ground, Dustin's expression changed and he quickly helped him up.

At this moment, Hazel's body was bleeding profusely, her complexion became pale at a speed visible to the naked eye, and even her pupils began to dilate.

Dustin didn't have time to think, so he immediately took out the silver needle and sealed Hazel's acupuncture points to stop the bleeding.

Just as he was about to instill internal energy and perform treatment, gunshots came from behind him again.

"Bang, bang, bang, bang, bang..."

More and denser bullets roared from outside the door, like a violent storm, directly swallowing Dustin and the two of them.

For a moment, gravel splashed and dust flew.

After all the bullets were poured out, a heavily armed killer team finally appeared from behind the tree.

"I thought it was so powerful, but it only took me a long time to do this. It's really disappointing!"

The leading muscular man lit a cigarette and started puffing away.

All the entrances and exits of the food manor have been ambushed by a large number of killers.

"Boss, who can withstand our powerful firepower?" A killer brother said with a smile.

"That's true."

The muscular man grinned and said with a smile: "Okay, collect the body and go to Master Montgomery to receive the reward. Let's have a good drink tonight!"

As soon as these words came out, the killers instantly became energetic.

The price offered by the sponsor this time was extremely generous. With this money, they could eat, drink and have fun for several years.

"Boss! There's a situation!"

At this time, the killer brother seemed to see something, and his expression suddenly became serious.

Everyone followed his line of sight and saw a man covered in blood walking out of the smoke and dust with a gloomy face.

It was Dustin!

"How is it possible? This kid is not dead!"

The muscular man frowned, shocked.

The other killers also looked at each other, some in disbelief.

They grabbed more than a dozen shots and emptied the magazines directly. Even the hard-hitting people were shot into a hornet's nest just now.

However, Dustin was basically uninjured except for some tattered clothes.

The blood stained was that of the woman before.

"Gan! What a ghost! How did this kid survive?"

The muscular man threw the cigarette butt to the ground and stamped it out.

"All of you will die today." Dustin highlighted a few words coldly.

There was no anger, no scolding, just bone-deep indifference.

"Quick! Shoot!"

The muscular man suddenly felt uneasy and quickly began to change the magazine.

The other killers did not dare to hesitate and raised their guns to shoot.

"Bang, bang, bang..."

Intensive gunfire rang out again.

However, the next second, Dustin's figure suddenly disappeared on the spot.

When he reappeared, he was among the crowd.

With a wave of his knife, he cut a killer in half with his gun.

Then came another punch, which instantly penetrated the chest of the other killer before he could react.

In the blink of an eye, two heavily armed killers were killed on the spot.

However, Dustin did not stop killing and continued to harvest the lives of the killers crazily.

At this moment, he has completely transformed into a demon, and his methods are cruel, violent and extremely bloody.

Not a single corpse of anyone he attacked was intact.

"He's there! Shoot!"

The muscular man panicked and roared.

It's just that his speed was too slow and he couldn't catch Dustin at all. In the end, he had no choice but to shoot randomly with his gun.

As a result, not only did Dustin not get hurt, but he also hurt one of his own.

In just ten seconds, all the killers were wiped out, leaving only the muscular man standing there.

The gun in his hand was out of bullets.

His entire face was ashen, he was terrified, and his body was shaking uncontrollably.

"How can it be?!"

Looking at the corpses on the ground, the muscular man was frightened.

He had been licking blood from the edge of his knife for half his life, and he had never met anyone as scary as Dustin.

Chapter 1560

No! To be precise, the other party can no longer be called a human being.

His speed is as fast as lightning, his body is as strong as steel, and he completely ignores the threat of bullets. Killing people is like picking out objects from a bag, and his methods are cruel.

This guy in front of me is simply a devil!

"Where is Gary Montgomery?"

Dustin, who was covered in blood, stared directly at the muscular man, his eyes as cold as ice.

"Hero, spare your life! We are just following orders and have no grudges against you. As long as..."

While talking, the muscular man suddenly took out a grenade and threw it directly at Dustin.

He had already timed it, and the grenade exploded almost instantly.

No matter how powerful the opponent is, it is impossible to block the huge explosion impact.

He will definitely win!

Just when the muscular man was secretly proud, thinking that his sneak attack had succeeded.

Dustin suddenly took action and grabbed the grenade.

The next second, there was only a muffled "bang" sound, and the grenade exploded instantly.

However, the bloody scene that the muscular man expected did not appear.

The grenade in Dustin's hand was like a fart. The terrifying explosion power was directly squeezed back.

A wisp of green smoke exuding the smell of gunpowder slowly rose from between the fingers.

With that simple and relaxed look, it seemed as if he was pinching an egg instead of a bomb.

"How...how could this happen?"

The muscular men were all stunned, their eyes widened with disbelief on their faces.

He can squeeze a grenade with his bare hands and still be unscathed. Is he still a human being? !

"Heroes, spare their lives! Heroes, spare their lives!"

The muscular man panicked, and with a bang, he knelt on the ground and began to kowtow to beg for mercy.

When encountering such a monster, resistance has no effect and can only beg for mercy.

"Where is Gary Montgomery?" Dustin asked coldly.

"I don't know... I don't know anything. I just obey orders. Please spare my life!" the muscular man cried.

"Don't know? Then you can die."

Dustin didn't talk nonsense. He suddenly raised his hand and slapped the muscular man's Tianling Cap with his palm.

"boom!"

The muscular man's body trembled, and his head exploded instantly like a watermelon hit by a cannonball.

After dealing with the killer team, Dustin walked to the door again.

At this moment, Hazel was lying quietly on the ground, motionless.

Her beautiful eyes were slightly open and seemed to be shining.

But his chest has stopped rising and falling, and his pulse has stopped beating.

She was shot in multiple places on her body and her heart was punctured.

The blood gushing out was like a huge red rose, slowly blooming, beautiful and coquettish.

Dustin knelt on the ground, looking at Hazel's body, without moving for a long time.

He didn't know what to say or how to make up for the woman in front of him.

He was devastated, confused, and his thoughts were wandering to nowhere.

In a daze, he seemed to see Hazel standing up again and looking at him with a sweet smile.

All the past experiences came to mind one by one.

"Little handsome boy... I wonder if you are interested in being my one hundred and eight boyfriend?"

"Why don't you go to sleep at my sister's place tonight? My sister's bed is big and soft, guaranteed to make you linger forever."

"Young handsome boy, you are here at the right time. Let me introduce you. This is my dad, your future father-in-law."

"Little handsome boy, I'm a little scared to live here alone, how about you stay with me tonight."

"Actually, those rumors are half true and half false. Many people say that I am a playboy and like to keep male pets in captivity. I don't admit that I am a playboy, but it is true that I have male pets in captivity."

"I will find a way to deal with it and protect myself. You can leave quickly. Don't worry about me."

"Quick...run away..."

Recalling the scene of the two meeting each other, Dustin's eyes turned red, his lips trembled, and his heart felt inexplicably tingling.

Hazel's words before she died still echoed in her ears and did not disappear for a long time.

"Dustin...what should I do? I seem to really like you a little bit."

"It's a pity that we are not destined to meet each other in this life, so we can only meet again in the next life."

"Don't forget me... okay?"

"In the next life...I will wait for you..."
