

An Understated Dominance By Marina Vittori

Chapter 1912

After lunch, Dustin suddenly received a call from Margaret, saying that he had something important to discuss, and the location was at his old house in the west of the city.

Dustin had bought the old house in the west of the city and used it specifically to train spies.

The girls who had been harmed by Su Peng before joined West Lucozia's spy camp with the determination to die.

Their ambition is that they don't want anyone to suffer like them.

Dustin deeply admired this kind of righteousness and helped these girls.

After being trained by Sun Tong, these girls have already started, but it will take at least three years of training before they can actually perform their tasks.

Dustin hopes very much that he will never need them in his life.

Because this means that the world is peaceful, and the spies will only take action when encountering potential threats.

But most of them narrowly escaped death.

Half an hour later, Dustin arrived at the old house in the west of the city and walked into the meeting hall.

At this moment, Margaret has been waiting for a long time.

Today, Margaret is dressed in Tsing Yi, and still has a hat and veil on her head, covering her beautiful face.

But even if you don't look at the appearance, just look at the figure, she is still so attractive.

Especially the mysterious and mysterious special temperament of the other party, which is completely natural and charming, and it is easy for people to imagine.

"Here? Sit down." Margaret poured a cup of tea for Dustin himself.

"Her Royal Highness the Princess suddenly came to me. I wonder if I have any advice?" Dustin calmly sat down.

"We are so familiar with each other. Doesn't it seem a bit unfamiliar to call her Princess? How about changing the title?" Margaret said with a half-smile.

"What to change? Miss Li? Ms. Li?" Dustin was a little confused.

"Hey, do you need to be so polite? Will you die if you call me Margaret?" Margaret rolled his eyes.

"Aren't I afraid that you will mind? Okay, okay, just love the city." Dustin shrugged.

The two of them are now considered life-and-death friends, so it's normal for them to become more familiar with each other.

"Hmph! Why do I look at you, you seem very unhappy?" Margaret's beautiful eyes narrowed slightly.

"I'm happy, of course I'm happy. It's my honor to be friends with the Princess of Dragon Kingdom." Dustin showed a professional fake smile.

"Not sincere!"

Margaret snorted and did not care too much. Instead, he got down to the topic and said, "I invited you here today mainly to discuss what we should do next. Now that West Lucozia has stabilized, All the remnants of the Dragon Protection Pavilion have been wiped out. According to the agreement between you and me, now you should find the Dragon Source Qi for me." "Don't worry, I will do what I promised you, as long as there is something related to the Dragon Source Qi. News, I will accompany you immediately to find out." Dustin said seriously.

From the moment he received the call, he roughly guessed Margaret's intention.

But now, the whereabouts of Longyuan Qi are unknown, and there is no news at all.

He can't just run around the world like a headless fly.

"Okay, with your words, I feel relieved."

Margaret smiled with satisfaction: "To be honest, my people have been looking for the dragon source energy, and just the day before yesterday, we finally got relevant clues ." "Oh?"

Dustin raised his eyebrows, quite surprised: "You mean, you have found one of the Dragon Origin Qi?" "It's not even close to finding it. I can only say that there is a great chance." Margaret shook his head.

"What do you mean?"Dustin was a little surprised.

"According to my people's investigation, not long ago, a strange phenomenon occurred somewhere on the northwest border. An oasis suddenly appeared in the desert that was originally uninhabited. The strangest thing is that the area of this oasis continues to expand, and its vigorous vitality , it is simply incredible, so I suspect that there should be a dragon source energy hidden under this oasis. As for whether it is there, we need to investigate carefully." Margaret explained.

"The desert suddenly turned into an oasis? This is indeed strange."

Dustin touched his chin and asked tentatively: "Do your people have any other clues?" "

No."

Margaret's tone became serious: "This This oasis is like another world. After my people enter, they will completely lose their traces and cannot be contacted. So far, I have sent three waves of people in, but without exception, they have all disappeared. So far, no one has been found. Whereabouts."

"So powerful?"

Dustin's eyelids twitched: "According to what you said, wouldn't this oasis be very dangerous?"

Three waves of spies have lost their traces, and they are probably cold.

What kind of oasis is this? This is clearly the mouth of the abyss that eats people.

“If it’s not dangerous, why would I look for you?” Margaret said matter-of-factly.

“Ah...” Dustin’s mouth twitched, and he was speechless for a moment.

“As the tenth strongest man on the world-shaking list, looking at the entire world, except for those dangerous places, there are very few things that can threaten you, so you don’t have to worry about safety at all.” Margaret smiled.

“Fewer is less, but it doesn’t mean there is none.” Dustin muttered.

The world is so big and full of wonders, so what if it’s tenth on the world-shaking list?

Even the fifth-ranked Ji Yuanzun died from the God-Destroying Poison, what else could happen?

“Lu Changge, aren’t you afraid anymore?” Margaret said suspiciously.

“What a joke! How can I, a seven-foot tall man, be afraid? Let alone an oasis, even if it is a dragon’s pond or a tiger’s den, I will accompany you for a walk!” Dustin said loudly.

The previous words have been released, so naturally we cannot give in at this time.

“Very good! Let’s make an agreement then!” Margaret smiled, her beautiful eyes turning into crescent moons.

“When should we set off?” Dustin asked.

“Without further ado, we’ll leave tonight.” Margaret said.

“So fast? Why don’t you make preparations or something?” Dustin was startled.

“I have already prepared everything that should be prepared. Now all forces are eyeing this oasis. Many people think there is a treasure in it. We must hurry up. If someone gets there first, it will be bad. ." Margaret's tone was serious.

Hearing this, Dustin nodded: "Okay, then I'll do as you say. I'll go back and let you know, and pack your luggage accordingly. Let's head to the northwest desert tonight!"
