An Understated Dominance by Marina Chapter 1930

Chapter 1930

“Now, do you still want me to make friends with you?”

Dustin Rhys stepped forward and looked at Mark condescendingly, his eyes were indifferent, and his face was neither happy nor sad.

“Ahem...”

Mark coughed up blood and staggered up from the ground, shouting viciously: “You...who are you? How dare you challenge our Wandering Dragon Sect?” !”

“You don’t have the right to know who I am.”

Dustin Rhys said calmly: “Now, before I get angry, get as far away from me as possible, otherwise, you won’t just vomit blood. ”

You——!”

Mark gritted his teeth and wanted to take action, but he held back.

The opponent’s strength is obviously superior, so fighting desperately at this time is obviously not a wise choice.

When the elders of the sect arrive, it will not be too late to settle accounts with the other party.

“Boy! I remember you! Just wait for me. One day, I will get back the shame of today ten times and a hundred times!”

After saying these harsh words, he led the group of people with him in despair. leave.

“Why are you still standing here? Are you waiting for me to treat you to dinner?”

Dustin Rhys turned his eyes and looked at the Flying Snow Sect again.

“Boy! Don’t be too arrogant. If things don’t change, you will be in trouble soon!”

Jason glared at Dustin Rhys fiercely, and then walked away with his younger generation brothers and sisters.

As the saying goes, a good man will not suffer the immediate consequences, even if he has escaped from the strict ban, it will be of no use if he stays here.

As soon as Wandering Dragon Sect and Flying Snow Sect left, the other forces also dispersed one after another.

Although they were a little reluctant, they all knew that it was not easy to snatch people from Dustin Rhys.

Even Strict Prohibition has failed, who can be Dustin Rhys’s opponent?

Now they only have two choices, either to play dirty or to invite a more powerful master to appear.

“Brother Dustin, I didn’t expect you to be so strong. It really opened my eyes!”

Mason walked forward with a smile and cupped his hands.

Before, he did it out of enthusiasm, but now, it’s more out of admiration.

“They are all trivial tricks, not worth mentioning.” Dustin Rhys smiled.

“Brother Dustin is so humble. With your talent and strength, no matter which sect you join, you will be highly regarded.” Mason said sincerely.

Being able to easily defeat the strict ban and scare away Jason, once his reputation spreads, he will definitely be attracted by all forces.

“Boy, don’t be too happy yet. Although you are quite capable, I’m afraid you won’t get any good results if you offend the Wandering Dragon Sect.” At this time, a middle-aged man wearing a cloak and a straw hat suddenly spoke.

The person who spoke was none other than the desert dragon, Brutus.

“It turns out to be Senior Brutus, nice to meet you.” Mason immediately raised his hands and saluted.

There were too many people just now, so he didn’t notice Brutus’s presence.

“I wonder if Senior Brutus has any advice?” Dustin Rhys said calmly.

“Wandering Dragon Sect is the number one sect in the southwest. There are many masters in it. The strict prohibition you just defeated is just a disciple of Wandering Dragon Sect. The truly powerful protectors and elders have not shown up yet. Once these masters appear, with your strength, you will not be able to defeat them at all. If you can’t resist, you will only die.” Brutus hammered.

“Senior Brutus, what do you mean by these things?” Dustin Rhys asked.

“Wandering Dragon Sect is very strong. You can’t handle it alone. Fortunately, you met me, and I can help you resolve this disaster.” Brutus said confidently.

“There is no free lunch in the world. Senior Brutus must have some conditions, right?” Dustin Rhys raised his eyebrows.

“Smart!”

Brutus smiled faintly: “I think you have good talents, are not afraid of power, and have a temper that suits me very well. It just so happens that I have no successor. As long as you agree to be my disciple, I can not only keep you safe, I can also teach you everything I have learned throughout my life!”
