

Read Married at First Sight Chapter 2711

Married at First Sight Chapter 2711-Marco walked up to Liberty with his brothers and Shiloh, and introduced himself politely: “Miss Hunt, I’m Marco, the eldest son of the Farrell family. I heard my mother talk about you. In terms of seniority, you should call me eldest uncle.

And this is my second brother, and this is my third brother. This lady is Shiloh. I think you already know them.”

Marco also introduced his younger siblings to Liberty.

Liberty just nodded to them and called Mr. Janzen politely.

She didn’t call Marco uncle.

When she saw Matriarch Farrell, she didn’t even call Matriarch Farrell Grandma, let alone Marco.

Matriarch Farrell did not publicly admit that Audrey and Liberty’s mother were her nieces.

Last time, when Matriarch Farrell went to the Stone family and met Audrey, her attitude towards the enemy was obvious.

Enemies, why bother talking about family ties?

Besides, there was no family relationship between them.

There was hatred and resentment.

Shiloh said: “Children without parental upbringing are always lacking in etiquette, and they don’t even say a word when meeting their elders.”

Liberty looked at her and asked her, “Who are you, my elder? Matriarch Farrell has never asked me to call her elder in front of me, so who are you? You are not a member of the Farrell family! Why are you barking here?”

After a few words, Shiloh was choked up and turned pale and speechless.

If she wants to show her respect as an elder in front of Liberty, it would be weird if she didn’t get criticized by her.

“Liberty, let’s go in; my mother has been waiting for you inside.”

Kathryn ignored Shiloh and led Liberty towards the main house with a smile.

While walking, introduce the beautiful scenery in the Farrell family mansion to Liberty.

The four brothers and sisters stood there and did not follow immediately.

After Kathryn and Liberty walked away, and it was certain that even Liberty's bodyguards could not hear their words, Shiloh angrily said to Marco, "Brother, you see Kathryn is paying less and less attention to us.

And that sea spirit, what the h*ll! She's just an orphan, a divorced woman; do you think she's the queen? She came here and asked us to come out to greet her, but she didn't give us a face. We are her elders, but she only called you Mr. Janzen, which is so unfamiliar, and there is no tutor at all."

Marco said, "Mom didn't tell everyone that she was my aunt's granddaughter. Naturally, she won't mistake her relatives.

Mom is hosting a banquet for prominent members of the family tonight, and she's also invited Liberty over. I think what she means is to publicly acknowledge Liberty's identity as her aunt and granddaughter, and maybe wait until it's made public before letting her recognize her relatives."

This was what Marco said.

Sage, the third young master Farrell, said, "Logically speaking, Mom wouldn't do this. If Liberty's identity is recognized, wouldn't the people in the clan automatically gather around her? There is a rumor that her mother is our auntie. Even if it is spread that her mom was killed, if it spreads for a long time and spreads to more people, some people will believe it."

Marco pondered for a moment and then said, "What Mom wants to do or what she does is not something we can control or change. Just look at it. Even if Mom means that, it has nothing to do with us. The one who should be worried is Kathryn."

Kathryn was now the successor of the Farrell family.

If the clan members gathered around Liberty and formed a force with Liberty as the leader, they would definitely compete with Kathryn for the position of head of the family.

Liberty was a descendant of the previous head of the family. If she wanted to fight for the head of the family, it was natural for her to fight for it.

Therefore, Kathryn was the one who should be anxious, not her brothers.

Their surname was Janzen, not Farrell.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2712-Regardless of whether Liberty fights for it or not, it is not their turn to take the position of head of the Farrell family. Unless all the women of the Farrell clan die, they will have a chance to take the position of head of the Farrell family.

“It seems that Kathryn is very enthusiastic about Liberty, like a sister.”

Although there was a generation gap between the two, Kathryn’s attitude towards Liberty seemed to be like that of sisters.

Liberty also gave Kathryn a face and was gentle and polite to Kathryn.

Shiloh’s jealousy toward Kathryn showed up again. The power, status, and identity that Kathryn had originally belonged to her.

Without Kathryn, she would still be the person in the Farrell family who was second only to her mother and could call the shots.

When she went outside, others flattered and fawned over her.

It’s not like when she went out; no one pays attention to her now.

Her former best friends gradually drifted away from her because of her change of status.

Only then did Shiloh realize that the friends who had once surrounded her were all there for their status. After she became her mother’s goddaughter, even if her surname was Farrell, she was already a fake daughter in the eyes of others.

Those people were all real rich ladies in their families. With different levels and statuses, the distance from her was gradually getting farther and farther.

Even the second-generation ancestor, who had missed her a lot in the past, also turned his attention to Kathryn.

Kathryn’s appearance was not as good as hers, but society was too realistic.

“Kathryn is used to acting. She has tricked us all before. Let’s go in. Mom asked us to come out to receive the guests. The guests have gone in, and we are still outside. Who knows if Kathryn will say bad things about us in front of mom? Dad also won’t show up tonight. We’ll have to go and persuade him later.”

At this point, Marco sighed and told his brothers and Shiloh, “Anyway, we have to keep our tail between our legs these days. Don’t make any more mistakes; otherwise, Mom will really kick us out of the Farrell family mansion.”

Sage whispered, “I really can’t bear to let go of that beauty of mine.”

The mistress Marco kept must have good looks, a good figure, and be much more charming than his wife, not as old-fashioned and boring as his wife.

After his wife gave birth to two children, her figure became even worse than the wild flowers outside.

Matriarch Farrell ordered the three sons to get rid of their mistresses and cut off contact with them. Otherwise, they would be kicked out of the family and could no longer interact with others as the young masters of the Farrell family, which was equivalent to severing their relationship with the Farrell family.

Sage said: “Let a friend of yours support her on the surface, but in fact we have to pay for it, and then when you get together with your friends, you can relieve the pain of lovesickness.”

That’s what Marco did.

On the surface, Marco was no longer with the woman outside, but in fact, he was still living happily.

This kind of cheating was very difficult to change.

No matter how well-born or good-looking the wife at home was, they would get tired of it after looking at her for a long time.

Men, how many of you don’t like novelty?

Sage had kept eight mistresses instead of ten. When he got tired of them, he would introduce his mistress to other men and let others take care of them. This way, he ensured his mistress’s material life and would not break up with her.

Anyway, those women who were not on stage are pursuing a material life. It didn’t matter if men changed one after another, as long as they could still ensure that they continued to live a good life.

Shiloh said to Sage, “Third brother, please lower your voice; otherwise, others can hear it. If you poke it in front of my third sister-in-law, the third sister-in-law will have to make trouble again. If they make trouble, mom will attack you again. Will the redness and swelling on your face disappear, and you will not be able to remember it?”

