

Read I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2848

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2848-“B-But my father hasn’t come back after being gone for so long. Who knows what happened?”

“Miss, I think you’re a little possessed. Mayor and Master David are both powerhouses, so if they want to fight, they will surely overturn the entire Townlet Pescado, right? How come there is no movement at all?”

After Jade heard this, she realized that what Cherry said made sense.

So, she relaxed.

Not long after, the two saw a figure flying towards them.

Jade and Cherry rushed to greet him as soon as the figure landed.

“Father!”

“Mayor!”

Kian nodded.

“So?” Jade asked expectantly.

“So what?” Kian asked knowingly.

‘You know what I’m asking!’

“Alas, a grown girl can’t be kept at home indeed!” Kian sighed.

“Father, if you keep doing this, I will ignore you from now on.” Jade started to act coquettishly.

“Okay! Okay! I won’t tease you anymore! I have met and talked with David. How should I put this? He should be the most talented young man I have ever seen, and he’s not inferior to those extremely talented people on Planet Gorgon. I can’t see through him, but I have a feeling that if we were to fight, I wouldn’t be a match for him.”

Kian’s words immediately shocked Jade.

Did her father just say that he was no match for David?

How old was David?

He was about the same age as her!

So, how could he be so strong?

Cherry was also shocked and speechless.

Although she was not strong, she had always been with Jade. Therefore, she understood a little about the powerhouse division under Jade's influence.

The mayor's strength was not unknown on the entire Planet Gorgon.

So, if Master David had reached the mayor's level at such a young age, his future achievements would be limitless. No wonder he looked down on Jade.

"Alright, let's return to Hive City," Kian said.

"Father, you should go back first! I want to stay in Townlet Pescado," Jade suddenly said.

"Jade, are you sure?"

"Yes, I'm sure! Father, this is the first time I am interested in a man. I hope you can support me."

"I can do that, but I'm afraid you'll be wronged. David is different from those men who flatter you. You have to be mentally prepared."

"I know! It's been so long, and David still hasn't even given me a chance to be alone with him. I knew he was different. Anyway, I wouldn't leave Townlet Pescado without seeing him," Jade said seriously.

"Okay, you can stay then. After I return, I will send someone to protect you. You should be careful," Kian agreed.

Young people like David were indeed rare.

If Jade could succeed, Hive City's strength would be greatly enhanced.

"Thank you, Father!"

Kian left.

This was the first time in her life that she had suffered a defeat on a man, so this made Jade have serious doubts about her charm.

She wanted to see if David genuinely had no feelings for her.

Time passed day by day.

David was still racking his brains every day, but it was still useless no matter how hard he tried.

He could not even dream about what happened before.

In the blink of an eye, three years had passed.

Since Townlet Pescado had a strong man like David in charge, those who came here to cause trouble never got a chance to leave alive.

Slowly, his reputation spread and attracted countless people around.

Townlet Pescado grew to more than double its size.

David rarely showed up and would only appear when Townlet Pescado was in danger.

During this period, Ouro also sought refuge with a mayor and wanted to take back Townlet Pescado.

However, when the mayor arrived, he was seriously injured by David, so he ran away and never dared to come back again.

At the same time, Ouro became a cripple and could never make trouble again.

Just when David was staring into space in boredom, a midlevel civilization not far from Leila...

“Ah! David! Sylvio! You are all going to die!” A roar spread throughout the civilization.

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2849-The rise of Townlet Pescado gradually attracted the attention of some powerhouses, especially the appearance of the young man David.

He was able to injure an experienced mayor with just one blow seriously.

Even if the mayor was not very strong, he was still a mayor.

So, rumors began to spread slowly.

It was fine at first and was relatively normal.

They said that David must have a good background because he was so strong at such a young age.

However, it slowly became more and more outrageous.

There were even rumors that David personally admitted that he was the number one among the younger generation of Planet Gorgon, and other geniuses could only kiss his feet.

As soon as this rumor came out, it immediately aroused the anger of the young people, and they all wanted David to come forward and explain.

However, David ignored all of them. So, in the end, this directly offended all the younger generations on Planet Gorgon.

Everyone was eager to fight. They were hoping to defeat David and show him what they got. They wanted to replace David and become the number one among the younger generation of Planet Gorgon.

After David easily defeated several young geniuses who challenged him, this rumor became increasingly true, and more and more people believed it.

Regardless of the rumors, there was no doubt about David's strength.

If someone could defeat him, they would immediately become famous.

So, after discussion among several top geniuses, they finally reached a consensus and decided to join forces to attack David.

The team of geniuses set off from all over Planet Gorgon grandiosely and began to gather at Townlet Pescado.

It did not take long for Cy, the chief of Townlet Pescado, to get the news that all the young people in Planet Gorgon had united to attack David. Hence, he could not wait to tell David so he could come out and refute the rumors.

After all, David never said he was the number one among the younger generation of Planet Gorgon.

Someone was setting him up, and yet David remained unmoved.

Recently, he felt something in his body was slowly awakening, which might cure his amnesia.

One month later, countless geniuses from Planet Gorgon gathered outside Townlet Pescado, but they were kept from entering because those who wanted to take credit were thrown out in dire straits before entering.

After a few times, no one dared to go in, so they were all waiting for the arrival of some of the most powerful geniuses recognized by Planet Gorgon.

Today's Townlet Pescado had undoubtedly become the focus of the entire Planet Gorgon.

Cy was in a dilemma.

He never dreamed that Village Pescado would have such a day.

He once dreamed of developing Village Pescado, and now it came true.

However, this was not because Village Pescado was stronger but because of David's contribution.

What if, one day, David regained his memory and left Townlet Pescado? What would they do then?

Even if Cy had been vigorously training the original villagers of Townlet Pescado in the past three years to try to improve their strength, his qualifications and results were minimal.

After three years of hard work, Jade had already integrated into Townlet Pescado and had become good friends with Peach.

There were so many things in common between beautiful women.

Coupled with Peach's innocence, the two quickly got along.

However, Jade had yet to achieve her goal. David continued to ignore her.

This greatly affected Jade's self-confidence.

At first, she thought David and Peach were dating, but later, she found out they were not.

Jade even once wondered if David did not like women.

It would be a shame if such a good man did not like women.

In addition, she also tried to convince her father to help David.

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2850-However, even if Kian wanted to help, he could not. The entire younger generation of Planet Gorgon had united to fight David, and yet, who was he?

Kian was just a mayor of Hive City on Planet Gorgon.

Many cities were larger than Hive City, and more people were stronger than Kian.

Kian did not dare to risk the world's disapproval and go against all the young people on Planet Gorgon. He would be seeking death.

A few more days passed.

Several top geniuses on Planet Gorgon arrived at Townlet Pescado at the same time.

Often, when something important happened, those with high status would be the last to arrive.

Even if they were just close by, they would not arrive first.

Their status did not allow them to wait for those minor characters far away.

More than 90% of the younger generation at Planet Gorgon had arrived. The rest were either in retreat or had missions and could not come.

A young man flew into the air and roared, "Now that everyone is here, let's go! I want to see who this David is.

How dare he claim to be the number one. Is he not worried that he'll become a laughingstock?"

Then, someone else rose into the air.

“That’s right! How dare a young boy from nowhere not to take us seriously? He is really asking for it! Today, I’ll let him know who is the number one among the younger generation of Planet Gorgon.”

“I am the number one among the younger generation on Planet Gorgon!” A handsome young man holding a folding fan rose into the air.

At this time, a female voice suddenly chimed in, “Can you three stop talking so much nonsense? If you want everyone’s approval, take down David first.”

Then, a woman in green clothes floated over from a distance, which immediately caused a stir and a discussion below.

“Fairy Eden is here! Isn’t she practicing in seclusion?”

“Since we’re fighting to be the number one among the younger generation on Planet Gorgon, Fairy Eden should come! If not, it will be very hard to get it back after someone else takes the title.”

“I see!”

The competition in Planet Gorgon’s younger generation was extremely fierce, and many of them were evenly matched, and no one was convinced of the other.

As a result, the younger generation of Planet Gorgon had never had a recognized leader.

They were all working hard secretly to reach the top and become the one that attracted everyone’s attention.

David was just an excuse.

The purpose of this was to attract the attention of the younger generation of the entire Planet Gorgon, gather them, and decide who was number one.

The number one among the younger generation on Planet Gorgon was more than just a name.

This was also related to luck.

Legend had it that whoever could get this title would be recognized, have endless chance encounters, and have smooth sailing.

Although it was just an imaginary legend, the people who had received this title in the past were all big shots now, so people started to believe it.

“Eden, you’re here. I heard you have gained a special skill this time. I would like to know how powerful it will be,” said the man holding a folding fan.

“If you want to try it out, I can satisfy your request later,” Eden replied expressionlessly.

“Haha! Coincidentally, I want to ask you for advice too.”

“Okay, I believe you all understand the purpose of our gathering here! No matter what, let’s get down to business first! To avoid being laughingstocks, we will then determine a victor among us after we take down David. We’ll see who’s the number one among the younger generation in Planet Gorgon later.”

“I have the same thought.”

It was apparent that they did not take David seriously at all.

The four of them were the most talented people among Planet Gorgon’s younger generation.

Not only were they powerful, but they also came from powerful backgrounds. On the contrary, David was just an unknown boy from nowhere. So, how would they take him seriously?

At this time, David was closing his eyes tightly. His face was distorted as if he was suffering great pain.

A lot of memories flooded into his mind.

Then, his dormant mind power awakened.