

Chapter 1558 She Is A Fake

Audrey's sinister smile grew wider and wider. "If it weren't for you, I would never have had the chance to get close to Brandon and live in his villa. I will definitely pay visit to your grave after I kick that woman out."

As it turned out, the woman was not the real Audrey.

The real Audrey had already died from an illness, and she was only someone who looked similar to the real Audrey. She even underwent plastic surgery to reduce her chances of being recognized as a fake. With her new look, she inherited millions of dollars from Alina, Audrey's mother.

She had planned to leave Alina's ashes in the crematorium before leaving with the huge fortune. However, a mysterious person found her out as she was about to leave.

"I know you are not the real Audrey. Audrey died a long time ago. You are just a fake," said the mysterious person.

Audrey was stunned. If this person exposed her secret, The wealthy life she dreamed of would be instantly ruined. Not only would she not get the inheritance, but she would also likely be jailed!

She trembled in fear and plopped down on her knees, begging the mysterious person shamelessly, "Please don't expose me! I will give you half of the inheritance. No. I will give you 70% if you don't expose me!"

The mysterious person was not interested in Alina's wealth. Instead, he sneered disdainfully, "I don't care about the money. I need you for something else."

"What do you need?"

A cruel smile appeared on the mysterious person's face. Greediness flashed across his narrowed eyes as he asked her slowly, "Do you know Brandon Larson?"

Audrey was stunned. "Brandon Larson? Are you talking about the billionaire?"

"Yes," the mysterious person replied while chuckling. He then stared at her meaningfully and asked, "Do you know Audrey's real identity?"

Audrey shook her head blankly. She only knew that Audrey's mother had left her millions of dollars of inheritance and that she had no other close relatives. That was why she dared to take Audrey's and inherit the wealth. As for further details, she didn't delve into them.

A sudden thought occurred to her, and she asked in disbelief, "Is she Brandon's relative?"

"Bingo!" the mysterious person exclaimed as he snapped his fingers. "Audrey is Brandon's cousin, and Alina, her dead mother, is Brandon's aunt."

Audrey widened her eyes in disbelief. Although she had guessed that Audrey and Brandon were related, she wouldn't have thought they were cousins by blood!

"The millions of inheritance Alina left for Audrey is nothing compared to what you can get if you stick by Brandon's side. If you can make him believe you are the real Audrey, you can inherit greater assets from the Larson Group!" the mysterious person said, tempting her to do his bidding.

Audrey started trembling in excitement. The mysterious person described her prospects as if he was gradually unfolding a scroll and drawing her bright future.

Although his words excited her, her rationality was not lost. She asked hesitantly, "As far as I know, Brandon is married. As long as they have a child, I would be deemed as unimportant. Wouldn't that mean that I'm useless to the Larsons?"

The mysterious person sneered, "A child? Don't worry. That wife is infertile. You will be the sole inheritor of the Larson Group."

Audrey's hear rate accelerated at the news.

She had seen Brandon in magazines. He looked like a perfect man, cold but charismatic. He was someone people usually admired from a distance.

She had fallen in love with him the moment she laid eyes on him in the magazine. Now that she had a chance to get close to Brandon, how could she settle to be only his cousin?

Since Janet was infertile, let her bear Brandon's child instead! 3
