An Understated Dominance by Marina Chapter 2000

Chapter 2000

This, this... what kind of monster is this? How can it be so huge?!"

Everyone was shocked when they looked at the giant monster that looked like a dragon or a python.

Everyone's eyes widened with shock on their faces.

No one expected that such a strange beast was hidden in this palace.

That huge body, those scarlet blood-like eyes, that bloody mouth, and that extremely terrifying pressure.

Just taking a look at it can make people tremble with fear and make their scalp numb.

At this moment, whether it is an acquired martial artist, an innate master, or Billy Ruso, the martial arts master, all feel as if they are facing a formidable enemy.

Even the pack of wolves and tigers that had been fighting crazily with humans couldn't help but stop their movements.

Shocked by the dragon's breath, his whole body started to tremble.

That comes from the suppression of blood and the fear from biological instinct.

"Empty——!"

The black dragon looked up to the sky and roared, and a row of bone spurs suddenly stood up on the back of its head.

In an instant, strong winds raged, flying sand and rocks.

A terrifying coercion burst out from his body.

The dozens of giant wolves around them howled and collapsed on the spot, with their feces and urine flowing out.

Even the Silver Wolf King had his tail between his legs, shivering and howling.

As for the red mutated tiger, it turned around and ran away as if it had encountered a natural enemy.

In an instant there was no trace.

The majestic king of beasts was so frightened that he fled.

Although the perception of human warriors is not as sharp as that of alien beasts, their minds are still trembling and panicked.

The oppressive feeling of the black dragon is too strong.

The huge body looked like a train.

“Damn it! This monster looks very powerful. What should I do now?”

“What can I do? This monster is guarding the entrance of the palace. If you want to go in and get the treasure, you must kill it!”

“Heroes! Let’s all come together. , Whoever is coward is such a grandson!”

Although the black dragon looked very scary, due to the trend of interests, everyone quickly raised their will to fight.

Everyone is gearing up and ready to make a move.

However, even though everyone screamed fiercely, no one dared to be the first to go.

After all, they still don’t know what the black dragon’s strength is.

The only thing that is certain is that this black dragon is more powerful than the previous mutated tiger.

“Senior Ruso, you are the master of martial arts and the strongest. Why don’t you go up first and give us a try?” A man in gray clothes said suddenly.

Ordinary warriors rushing forward are no different from seeking death.

It would take a strong man like Billy Ruso to take action.

“What? Are you ordering me?”

Billy Ruso narrowed his eyes slightly, looking a little unkind.

“Junior dare not.”

The man in gray said with an apologetic smile: “Junior just thinks that it is safer to have you take action. After the thing is completed, you will be the first to take the lead. You can choose the treasures at will, just leave some soup for us. ”

Hmph! You are really good at persuading me. With just two words, you asked me to step forward and sacrifice my life. What a good plan!” Billy Ruso said with a sullen face.

He never liked being told what to do, let alone being robbed.

This guy had evil intentions, so naturally he was particularly unhappy if he was asked to take the lead.
