

Chapter 393 Blue Lake Restaurant

In a low voice, Orion muttered, "Damn it!"

It seemed that he would have to spend a large sum of money today.

In fact, his family wasn't that rich. His father worked at the stock exchange and his mother was just an ordinary editor.

Honestly, it wasn't easy for him to book a table in the Blue Lake Restaurant. After all, the price of the meal was equal to his living expenses for several months.

He was willing to spend so much money just because he wanted to please his new girlfriend and have sex with her. ③

Now, in order to show his superiority in front of Trevor, he had no choice but to play along with his girlfriend.

"You can order whatever you want to eat once you go in, honey. I'm not as poor as that guy. He doesn't have money yet he even brings a girl to a Michelin-starred restaurant. Maybe he is here to see the scenery nearby."

However, what Luisa said next made him feel extremely depressed before he could have a sense of superiority again.

At that time, Luisa stamped her feet and gritted her teeth as she said angrily, "So what? I'm willing to enjoy the scenery with him here!" ①

In Trevor's eyes, Luisa was so beautiful and hot even when she was furious.

He was moved since the girl he loved was willing to defend him.

With a smile on his face, Trevor pulled Luisa to his side and tightened his grip on her fingers.

Then, he said, "We are not here to enjoy the scenery. We have already booked a table. So, we only need to go in and have a taste of the delicious food."

Honestly, Trevor could take Luisa there to eat three times a day with his savings.

With that thought in mind, Trevor glanced at Orion indifferently and pushed his hand away. Then, he led Luisa and the two kids into the Blue Lake Restaurant.

For a moment, Orion was stunned. Finally, he recovered from his shock and embarrassment.

Since he was refuted by Luisa again and again, he became angry.

With his eyes filled with resentment, Orion said, "Damn it! Let's go inside, Tillie. I don't believe that someone like Trevor can afford to eat here!"

Once Orion and Tillie entered the restaurant, they saw that Trevor and the others were talking to the waiter at the counter.

Even though he couldn't hear what they were talking about, the only thought that came to his mind was that the waiter stopped them as Trevor came in abruptly.

A smug look appeared on his face as he thought that he finally got a chance to show off.

The whole time, he thought that Trevor would come to a disgraceful end.

Thinking about it, he took his girlfriend's hand and walked towards the counter. Then, he took out the appointment information on his mobile phone and snapped his fingers while saying, "Waiter, I booked Table Number 8 here. Please lead us there."

At that moment, Orion felt very pleased.

However, he didn't think it was enough. Therefore, he pointed his finger at Trevor and mocked, "Waiter, these people here are really poor. I can't believe they dared to come to this kind of restaurant. How could they come in so casually? Don't even bother listening to their nonsense. Just call the security guards to kick them out!" ①

As soon as Orion finished saying, Tillie also echoed, "That's right. These poor people will only ruin our mood to eat. You have to think about it clearly. We are the regular guests of this restaurant. If you can't deal with this matter, we are not going to come here next time!"

Truth be told, this was their first time having a meal in such a high-end place as the Blue Lake Restaurant. Nonetheless, it didn't stop them from talking nonsense. The waiter who was talking to Trevor was stunned and looked a little confused.

In the end, he gave Trevor an apologetic look and then said to Orion and Tillie, "Sir, miss, table 8 is over there. Have a nice meal."
