

Chapter 917 A Gunshot

Trevor secretly rejoiced. Fortunately, he let Bradley investigate in advance, and Bradley found this man suspicious. Otherwise, the man would have fled.

"By the way, have you seen this person calling or texting?"

Trevor asked Bradley hurriedly.

While searching the man's body, Bradley replied, "No. He hid in the dark corner and didn't dare to take out his phone. You'd find him when the screen of his phone lit up."

But still, Bradley quickly look for the man's phone from his pocket.

He checked the call and text logs and found nothing suspicious.

It seemed that Rudolph had no idea yet that Trevor was investigating the warehouse.

Trevor felt relieved.

"Phew! The situation has not gotten to the worst yet." Trevor leaned against the iron shelf and crossed his arms over his chest. "Bradley, interrogate him."

"What? I'll tell you. I'll tell you everything I know. Just don't beat me," the man screamed in horror, struggling hard.

When Bradly put his hand on the man's shoulder, the man was so scared that he almost wetted his pants.

"My name is Aelfric Figueroa. I'm the forklift operator of this warehouse. I didn't call or text anyone. So please let me go."

Aelfric was trembling all over because of fear.

Trevor stared at him coldly and asked, "Who sent you here? Why are you spying in the warehouse? What did your boss ask you to do?"

Aelfric replied quickly, "It's Isaias from the Sanderson family. He promised to give me two thousand dollars as long as I watched the warehouse for a day."

"Only one day?" Trevor pondered for a while and seemed to have figured out something.

Tomorrow would be the family gathering of the Sanderson family.

If Rudolph wanted to play any tricks, he would take action tomorrow.

At the thought of this, Trevor immediately felt a sense of urgency.

"Bradly, contact the professional testing agency. Tell them to immediately do a radiation test in the warehouse. But make sure they do it secretly. I will call Dad and let him contact the leasing company to prevent any news about the warehouse from being leaked."

Trevor immediately made arrangements and called Ronald.

The Sanderson family had a business partnership with the Wright family, so it was not difficult for the Sanderson family to request to have the warehouse closed for a day.

When Ronald was the one to contact them in person, the Wright family would cooperate in no time.

The professional testing agency finished testing soon and quickly submitted the report. Sure enough, the warehouse was under Isaias' name, and all the bronze statues were detected to have excessive amounts of nuclear radiation.

"We can't delay any longer." When Trevor stared at the test report, he became more anxious.

He remembered Nola told him not long ago that Isaias had taken away a batch of heavy lockboxes.

Those goods were very likely the key element of Rudolph's conspiracy.

"Willis, help me get the surveillance footage."

Trevor grabbed Aelfric and hurried over to find the manager of the warehouse leasing company.

Aelfric seemed to realize that he was in trouble.

He was so nervous that his face turned deathly pale. He stared at the footage on the screen and shouted, "That's it! That's the truck! I know because I unloaded the goods myself. And I recognize the hat of the driver."

Trevor quickly wrote down the license plate number of the truck and sent it to Ronald.

The traffic footage in Zayden was not accessible to outsiders. But with Ronald's power and connections, he could get someone from the police to help with the investigation.

Soon, Ronald called Trevor. "Son, I found out that the truck headed south. It should have left the city."

Ronald paused for a while before he continued, "How about I send someone to chase after it?"

Trevor gritted his teeth and said, "Dad, it's too late. Bradley and I will go now. We are running out of time, so we have to hurry up. Otherwise, we may lose their whereabouts and the Sanderson family will be in danger."

Ronald felt relieved and gratified upon hearing this. "Go ahead, Trevor. I'm proud of you."

After hanging up the phone, Trevor and Bradly headed south of the city.

After searching the roads for a long time, they finally found the truck outside a remote house in the outskirts of the city.

"There it is. Let's go and check." Trevor and Bradly stealthily approached the house.

But at this moment, there was a loud bang.

Trevor was startled.

He could not be mistaken. It was a gunshot.
