

Chapter 926 Mother's Whereabouts

---

Upon hearing this, Elwood coughed and his eyes widened.

The Wright family.

Like the Sanderson family, the Wright family was also one of the world's top wealthy families.

Although the two families were not hostile to each other, they had many conflicts in the business.

So it was inappropriate for the core members of the two families to get married.

"Cecelia, right? How has your grandfather been doing recently?" Elwood quickly changed the topic to Cecelia's grandfather, trying to cover up his embarrassment.

Cecelia replied to Elwood respectfully, "Thank you for your concern. My grandfather is doing great. He is still very healthy. I heard that he went to play golf a few days ago."

After a brief chat, the awkward atmosphere in the villa finally faded away.

Evie secretly stuck out her tongue to Trevor.

Afraid of being punished afterward, she said a little guiltily,

"Now that Dad and Grandpa are here, we must treat them well. We need to buy some ingredients, so we can cook delicious food for them. You guys just wait here. I'll take the girls out shopping."

Before the three men could react, Evie had already left the villa with the women.

Watching Evie's receding figure and looking at the confetti on the floor, Trevor could only smile helplessly.

Since the three men stayed at home, they decided to clean the house. Even Elwood was busy.

They were so busy that they didn't notice it was already dark.

The three of them moved some old and useless furniture next door, where the material girl named Karan used to live.

Trevor looked out of the window and watched the prosperous urban area in the distance. The tranquility of the surroundings seemed a bit lonely.

Inexplicable emotions surged in his heart. In a few days, it would already be Christmas.

"By the way, Dad, I have something to ask you."

"What is it?" Ronald asked, taking a deep breath.

Trevor licked his lips and asked the question he had always wanted to know. "Where is my mother? Before, I thought you were all just busy abroad. But she never showed up at our family gathering. Christmas is approaching. My mother should be reuniting with us, right?"

Ronald was stunned for a while. Then he sighed with a complicated expression on his face.

Elwood also lowered his head in silence. After a few moments, he said, "Ronald, tell him. Trevor's performance at the family gathering has already proved that he is capable enough to be on his own."

Trevor was shocked. Judging from Elwood's words, he felt that his mother's situation was very complicated. They hadn't seen each other for so many years, and there seemed to be some secrets.

Ronald heaved a deep sigh again and said slowly, "Okay, Trevor. Since you ask, I won't hide it from you anymore. Your mother's situation is very complicated. But I can't explain it clearly, so please contact her so that she can tell you."

Then he gave Trevor a series of weird numbers. He explained solemnly, "If your mother doesn't take the initiative to contact other people, then you can only use this secret number to contact her."

Trevor was even more shocked. Such strict confidentiality sounded inconceivable.

What did his mother do?

Trevor swallowed his saliva before trying to make a phone call.

There was only a long busy tone on the phone, and no one answered.

"I can't get through. My phone seems to have no signal." Trevor was stunned for a moment. Then he seemed to realize something. "Could it be that my mother's situation is special?"

Elwood also took out his phone, and he frowned.

"My phone has no signal either. This is weird. It could have received the satellite signal."
