Married At First Sight Chapter 2786-Duncan hurried to Jensburg and stayed in Jensburg for one night.

“Well, I’m going back tomorrow. Liberty is also busy. I can’t take up too much of Liberty’s time. I should go back and take good care of Sonny so that Liberty doesn’t have to worry about anything. He can help Sonny and me in Jensburg, haha.”

At the end of the sentence, Duncan laughed.

Liberty heard it from the side and said funnyly, “What I’m most afraid of is that I will be in debt in the end.”

Duncan said domineeringly, “What are you afraid of? I’m here. As long as you don’t owe hundreds of billions of dollars in debt, I can help you pay them off. You can go ahead and go for it. If the sky falls, I will support you. Don’t worry about losing money. Don’t worry about the deep debt.”

Liberty: “...”

Hundreds of billions in debt?

She couldn’t even think about it.

Judging from her current wealth, even if she owes tens of millions of dollars in debt, her hair will turn gray.

Zachary sent another voice message: “My sister has you as her backing. She has no worries. She will definitely be able to conquer the world in Jensburg.”

Duncan played it to Liberty and said to her, “Listen, your brother-in-law is full of confidence in you.”

Liberty said, “You always trust me so much. I have to work harder to live up to your expectations.”

Duncan said, “Don’t be tired. When you encounter a problem, remember to ask me for help as soon as possible. Although my legs are disabled, my brain is not disabled. I can still help you solve the problem.”

Liberty didn't like to hear him say, 'My legs were disabled.' She said, "Your legs will get better. I don't like to hear you say that you are disabled. You are not allowed to say it in the future. I am still waiting for you to stand up again and marry me."

Duncan smiled happily. "With your words, I will definitely get better."

Liberty's face turned red, and she said a little embarrassedly, "Don't chat with Zachary for too long. Go to bed early. I've also gone back to my room to rest. I still have to run company matters tomorrow. "

"Well, go ahead and have a good night."

Duncan said, touching his face and signaling for Liberty to give him a goodnight kiss.

Liberty came closer, bent down, and kissed the scarred side of his face.

After the kiss, she gently touched the scar on his face. The scar on his face alarmed both mother and son when they first saw him, but because she was a mother and had to protect her son, she showed no fear of him.

At the time, she thought he was a gangster who looked vicious when he was angry.

Mainly because she accidentally collided with his car. She was frightened when she saw the tall and powerful man who got out of the car with scars on his face. The car she collided with was a luxury car. She thought it would cost her everything.

In the end, she only lost nearly $10,000.

Later, she found out that it was her brother-in-law who told Duncan that Duncan knew that she was Zachary's eldest sister, so Duncan didn't let her pay the full compensation.

"Did it hurt at that time?" Liberty asked him gently.

Duncan grabbed her hand, pressed it on his face for a moment, then pulled her hand down and said, "Pain is pain. It's a profound lesson, and it reminds me all the time that the person who loves me the most, Grandma, passed away because of an unfilial grandson, which made her elderly family worried and aggravated her condition.

My mother always advised me to have plastic surgery to remove this scar. Sonny was very afraid of me at that time, so I wanted to go and have it removed. But thinking about my grandma, I decided not to do it.

I'm sorry for my grandma.”

When it came to grandma, Duncan's mood was low.

He regretted his impulsive, ignorant, and rebellious youth.
