

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 1943

Chapter 1943

"Lucius, those two killed Darius! Hurry up and kill them to avenge him!" Dawn said sadly. She pointed right at Leon and Snow, and her eyes were filled with limitless hatred!

"Dawn is right! Lucius, you have to kill the two of them quickly. Rip them apart!" Gordon agreed viciously.

In contrast to Dawn and Lucius' sadness, Gordon was incredibly relieved after finding out that Darius already died from the poison!

Furthermore, he knew that Leon was not that strong. He was just at the initial Emperor State at most!

Lucius was already in the Semi Almighty State. He was far stronger than Leon!

With Lucius' skills, it would be incredibly easy to get rid of Leon and Snow!

As long as Leon and Snow were both dead, no one would know that he killed Darius.

Then, he would be free from any worries!

"Yes!" Lucius handed Darius 'corpse' over to Dawn.

After that, he did not hesitate at all to charge Leon and Snow with an imperious attack!

It was obvious that he was using his full might, planning on killing Leon and Snow!

"You're really stupid!" Leon was incredibly furious.

With a flick of his wrist, the Cuff of Doom appeared in his hand!

The Cuff of Doom still had one Almighty State attack inside. It would not be hard to deal with Lucius with such a powerful attack!

However, the only thing that was hurting his head was the fact that the Hughes Group was a business partner of Elegante. They were friends, not foes.

If it was a foe, he would have used the Cuff of Doom to get rid of them!

Yet, since they were not enemies and were merely misunderstanding things because of Gordon's despicable tricks, the Cuff of Doom might be too strong!

If he used the Cuff of Doom and accidentally threatened Lucius' life, the misunderstanding between them would only deepen!

That was not something he wanted to happen!

Of course, Lucius already wanted to kill Snow and Leon. For the sake of self-preservation, Lucius could not bother with that anymore!

"Stop!" Just as Leon was prepared to use the Cuff of Doom, a cold shout was heard.

Right after that, two luxury cars quickly stopped nearby.

After that, the doors opened, and Yuri walked out with an old man in green clothes and several guards. They looked incredibly imposing as they walked out.

At the same time, without Yuri even saying anything, that old man in the green clothes quickly sped forward and stopped in front of Leon!

After that, he quickly faced Lucius' attack!

Bang!

With an intense clash, their attacks met each other.

The old man in the green shirt did not move at all!

Lucius instead took a few steps back before he managed to stabilize himself.

It was obvious from that exchange that the old man in the green shirt was much stronger than Lucius!
