

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 1953

Chapter 1953

"Leon, let me go find you a wheelchair," Damian said before Iris could answer.

Before, when his legs were crippled, he needed to move around with a wheelchair.

Ever since his legs recovered, the wheelchair was in the living room.

In just a moment, he quickly pushed the chair out. After that, Snow and Iris helped the weakened Leon into the seat.

"Mister Wolf, how is Darius right now? Why isn't he showing signs of waking up?" Yuri could not help but ask with some worry when he saw that Darius was still not moving at all on the bed.

"Oh, Mister Hughes's body is more or less already purged of the poison. However, he was just too heavily poisoned this time, so his energy was greatly damaged. He'll need some rest before he can wake up," Leon explained.

"That's good,"

Yuri let out a sigh of relief after he realized that Darius' life was no longer threatened.

Of course, it was not just him. Iris and Snow looked happy as well.

Snow in particular no longer needed to worry that she burdened Leon since Darius was already cured!

Just as Yuri and the others were feeling happy, they suddenly heard some frantic footsteps. Penny rushed inside with a panicked look on her face.

"Dad, this is bad. I just received news that the Hiltons and the Golans have sent a lot of experts and barged in. They've injured quite a lot of our guards,

" Penny hurriedly said to Damian.

"What? The Golans and the Hiltons? What are they doing here?"

Damian was shocked to hear that.

"They said that Leon was too ruthless this time. He not only broke Seth Golan's feet but even crippled his power. They said they're here for justice for Seth. Other than that, they said that they would destroy our family unless we hand over Leon in three minutes," Penny said truthfully.

"They are here for me"! Leon's expression sank when he heard that.

After he heard that the Hiltons and the Golans forced their way in, he already guessed that they were probably targeting him!

He was not surprised when it turned out to be the truth!

Other than that, Seth attacked and kidnapped Iris. It was completely dishonorable!

Seth deserved everything he did not Seth!

Yet, the Golans and the Hiltons were still trying to use the fact that they were more powerful to threaten the Scammells and try to cause him trouble!

They were going too far!

It was obvious how angry he was!

"The Hiltons and the Golans are something else! Since ancient times, it's been custom to never drag the family into any grudges. Seth was the one responsible for everything that happened, but they're still asked for Justice?! Are they not shameless?!"

Yuri was furious. He stood right up and looked at Damian, saying, 'Mister Scammell, I'll go see them with you later! Let's see what they can do!'"

"Yes, alright!" Damian nodded without any hesitation.

He knew how strong the Golans and the Hiltons were. The Hiltons were one of the major forces in the Southern region, but even the Golans were much more powerful and influential than the Scammells!

The two families were nothing the Scammells could stand up to!

Yuri was planning on interfering and supporting Leon and the Scammells.

It suited Damian perfectly!
