

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2414

Chapter 2414

"Well, that's true!" Realization dawned on Angus at Arthur's words.

He only agreed to let Roanne stay with Leon to prevent the Southern Boss from attacking Leon without holding back. That was his way of protecting Leon, Iris, and the others.

However, the Spears fell and the Southern Boss was missing with severe injuries. Without the threat of the Spears, there was no reason for Roanne to continue staying with Leon.

On top of that, Angus witnessed the true extent of Leon's strength after the battle with the Southern Boss. Even the Demon Lord, who was in the Advanced Almighty State, was killed by Leon.

With that considered, Leon did not need the Thompsons' protection.

For the sake of the Thompsons' reputation and Roanne's name, he had to urge her to move away from Leon's house and stop living with them. Otherwise, both Roanne and the Thompsons would suffer.

"Roanne, you're a woman@ Gather your things and move out of Mister Wolfs place later!" Angus said to Roanne.

"What? No way!" Roanne was stunned.

Ever since Leon defeated the Southern Boss, she followed

Angus and Yuri home.

Arthur and Angus were busy arranging the funeral for Yonas, and as a blood relative of Yonas, she must remain in the Thompsons' mansion.

She remained there for days and did not go to the office, or Leon's house.

With Yonas's funeral over, she originally planned to return to Leon's place the next day.

To her bewilderment, Arthur and Angus demanded that she move back home, which caught her by surprise.

After spending time with Leon, she grew fond of him and closer to Iris, Cynthia, Snow, and Ruth.

Because of that, she did not want to move out.

"Why not?" Angus asked in confusion.

He did not know that Roanne was in love with Leon, so he could not understand why she would be reluctant to leave.

"I told you that Leon has a treasure that helps with training. I want to stay there and train with Iris and the others," Roanne blushed.

She was not all that interested in training and merely wanted to stay there. That way, she could always see Leon and spend more time with other women her age, who shared her hobbies and interests.

She enjoyed the fulfilling life she lived with them and could not bring herself to come home.

"No way! Training might be important, but Mister Wolf is a man who already has a girlfriend! If you continue to stay with him and Iris, it would be inappropriate! You must come home as soon as possible!" Angus shook his head.

The world of martial artists valued strength and for someone as talented as Roanne, Angus wished that she could learn from Leon and accomplish greatness in martial arts.

However, her virtuality and the family's reputation were far more important and he could not allow his daughter to stay with Leon and the others.
