

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2430

Chapter 2430

Before Leon could say anything, Henry explained, "Chandler, the Sun Pills can help martial artists practice light methods and increase their power! Considering how powerful you are already, you might get to the Intermediate Almighty State with the Sun Pill's help."

Henry used the Sun Pill and reached the Almighty State from the Semi-Almighty State in the past. Since Chandler was far more powerful than he was, and was close to reaching the Intermediate Almighty State, he concluded that Chandler would get to the Intermediate Almighty State in an instant.

"What? Henry, did you just say that I can get to the Intermediate Almighty State after taking this pill? What kind of joke is that?!" Chandler was utterly stunned.

According to his experience, it was extremely difficult to have a breakthrough, and it would become increasingly challenging the higher one's level was.

Apart from that, Chandler aged and his chance of ascending to the next power level was slim.

Yet Henry claimed that a mere pill could help with that, so Chandler instantly brushed it off as a joke.

"Henry's messing with you! Considering your current power level, the Sun Pill can indeed get you to the Intermediate Almighty State!" Leon nodded in agreement.

He already tested the effect of the new Sun Pills in the Thompsons' mansion, and Arthur successfully ascended to the Peak Almighty State with the help of the Sun Pill.

If the pill was effective for Arthur, who was far more powerful than the others, it would also work on Chandler and get him to the Intermediate Almighty State.

Leon was confident that Chandler would succeed with him around.

"But, how's that possible?" Chandler gasped in disbelief, struggling to believe that the Sun Pills contained such tremendous power.

"You just need to give it a try and find out!" Leon said and took out two clear jadeite plates from the bag. He then threw the other plates to Mason, Leo, and Austin. Mason, the three of you will bury these jadeite plates at the spots I point to! I'll help Chandler first!"

"Yes, sir!" Mason and the other two said.

Under Leon's guidance, they planted thirty-six jadeite plants to form a Light Convergence Circle that followed the Nine Palaces and Eight Trigrams.

The Light Convergence Circle could gather the light energy from the atmosphere and aid Chandler in his training.

Though the sun was setting and the Light Convergence Circle could not reach its peak effect, it was better than nothing.

Leon then signaled Mason and the others to form an Energy Convergence Circle using the remaining eighteen pieces of jadeite.

The Energy Convergence Circle gathered spiritual energy from the air and since spiritual energy worked the same way as true energy, it had a positive impact on martial artists, making their training more effective.

Since the Thompsons' mansion lacked spiritual energy, an Energy Convergence Circle would not do much, so Leon did not waste his time building one.

However, the situation was different at the moment, as Leon specifically gathered his subordinates near the mountain to plant an Energy Convergence Circle.

Though the spiritual energy at the bottom of the mountain was not as pure as it would be at the top of the mountain, the forest that surrounded them provided enough energy for the Energy Convergence Circle to gather.

On top of that, the spiritual energy on top of the mountain was redirected to the mansion by Leon, so it would not be effective for him to set up an Energy Convergence Circle there. Hence, he decided to take his subordinates to the bottom of the mountain instead.

With the help of both the Energy Convergence Circle and the Light Convergence Circle, Chandler should be able to have a breakthrough.