

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2034

Chapter 2034

"Scott, you're being too kind! I was just lucky!"

Leon smiled calmly at the praise.

He was not lying at all. He never expected Poisonwielder to have been so heavily poisoned, and that he would be able to kill Poisonwielder so easily!

It was the perfect opportunity for him!

Otherwise, he would not have been able to win so easily!

"Alright, since Poisonwielder is already dead, our task is complete! Oliver, Abraham, two of you bring the corpse away! Let's go make our report!" Leon changed the topic as he said.

"Yes!" Oliver and Abraham acknowledged the order as they picked up the corpse.

Right after that, Abraham's attention was caught by the motherwort on the ground as well as that small and intricate box.

So, he put the motherwort back into the box and handed it to Leon.

After that, they did not dwell for another second as they left the place.

With the Tiddertons, after over an hour of rest and trying to expel the poison, Fletcher, the western region Dragon Corps as well as Elder Tidderton, and the others managed to recover from the poison.

At that moment, cars could be heard, and two black colored sedans stopped close by!

Right after that, the door opened, and a middle-aged man who was about fifty years old walked out with two impressive-looking old men and five other subordinates out of the cars!

They were the reinforcements from the western region of Dragon Corps!

The middle-aged man was the person with the most power in the western region's Dragon Corps, Thorin Orpwood!

After he received Fletcher's report, he found out that the Dragon Corps could have actually managed to deal with Reaper's Breath, and heavily injured Poisonwielder as well!

He quickly realized that this was an amazing chance to deal with Poisonwielder!

So, he led the squad, bringing two intermediate Almighty State Platinum Dragon Guards and a few other experts, immediately hurrying over!

He was prepared to get rid of Poisonwielder as soon as he could!

"Greetings, Mister Orpwood!"

Seeing Thorin bringing the reinforcements personally, Fletcher and the others from the Dragon Corps were shocked. They hurriedly scrambled over to greet him.

"At ease! Fletcher, you reported that someone from the southern region was able to deal with Poisonwielder's Reaper's Breath! Where is that person? I want to see how he did it!" Thorin asked immediately with some wonder.

Even though Poisonwielder was only at the initial Almighty State, and not that strong for the western region's Dragon Corps, he was still a poison expert. His Reaper's Breath was completely indefensible and very hard to deal with!

Other than that, Poisonwielder was within the western region for the past half a year. He was doing evil everywhere, leaving behind a lot of bloodshed!

As the person in charge of the Dragon Corps in the western region, he was unable to apprehend Poisonwielder after so long. It was a bit of an embarrassment!

Yet, someone from the Southern region's Dragon Corps was able to deal with Poisonwielder's Reaper's Breath!

Without his strongest trump card, Poisonwielder was nothing to be afraid of!

He led the squad over himself both because he wanted to immediately deal with Poisonwielder and also because he wanted to see that genius who managed to cure Reaper's Breath himself!
