

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2036

Chapter 2036

"Mister Wolf? He's so young!"

Thorin was very shocked when he heard Fletcher's introductions. He never expected the leader from the southern region's Dragon Crops to be such a young man!

Furthermore, the man was wearing a mask to hide half his face!

It caught him off guard!

"Mister Orpwood, Mister Wolf is the man you wanted to see. The Essential Detox Pill he made can cure Poisonwielder's Reaper's Breath.'

Fletcher hurriedly explained the situation when he saw that Thorin seemed to be underestimating Leon.

Of course, Fletcher looked down on Leon a little because Leon ng so young initially as well, so he could understand what Thorin was feeling!

It was completely normal!

"What? Is it actually him?!"

Thorin was shocked to hear that!

He thought that someone with the ability to deal with Reaper's Breath would have been an incredibly experienced poison master or a medical savant!

He never would have expected it to be someone as young as Leon!

It completely shattered his initial impression of Leon!

"Whatever! Mister Wolf, you came back at the perfect time! Let's talk about how we're going to catch Poisonwielder! It's a very rare chance. No matter what we do, we have to make sure to kill him for the sake of the public!"

Thorin said seriously after he snapped back to reality.

Since Leon was able to handle Reaper's Breath, he was forced to reevaluate Leon. At the same time, he put some of his hope on Leon, hoping that Leon would be able to help the western region's Dragon Corp to kill Poisonwielder!

"No need! He's already dead!" Leon shook his head and said.

"What?"

Those words were like a bomb that almost sent Thorin, Fletcher, and the, others flying!

"Mister Wolf, don't joke around! Didn't Poisonwielder already run away? Why would he die for no reason?!" Thorin asked in disbelief.

Of course, it was not just him, Fletcher, Randall and the others exchanged puzzled looks as well!

Even though Poisonwielder fled in a hurry this time, they did not know that Poisonwielder was already by the Deadly Veratrum Poison, which threatened his life!

All they knew was that Poisonwielder was strong and knowledgeable in the use of poisons. He was cunning and sinister as well. It would be very hard for Leon and his men to pursue the man!

Even if they managed to catch up to Poisonwielder, they would not be able to kill him unless a miracle happened!

Yet, before they could even finish their thoughts, something that completely shocked them happened!

"I'm not joking! Oliver, hand over Poisonwielder's corpse!" Leon ordered.

"Yes!" Oliver acknowledged the order. After that, he took out Poisonwielder's corpse from the car and dropped it in front of Thorin and the others.

"That-"

Thorin, Fletcher, and the others were all shocked to see Poisonwielder's corpse. They rubbed their eyes in disbelief!

None of them expected that Leon and his men would actually catch someone so cunning, and even killed him!

It caught them completely off guard!

Suddenly, the whole place fell into a strange and unusual silence!
