

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2108

Chapter 2108

"It's fine, Dad! I have Grandpa John here. He can follow me to Leon's place! With him protecting me, nothing's going to happen!" Roanne said, before turning to look at John with a sweet smile. "Right, Grandpa John?"

"Um, yeah," John said hesitantly.

Angus and Yuri were never in Leon's mansion before and did not know much about the detail, but John knew that Leon was surrounded by women of breath-taking beauty.

He had the intention of reporting it to Angus so that Angus could keep Roanne from being too close to Leon.

However, Leon offered a precious Sun Pill to John two days ago and helped him reach the Almighty State.

Since John was yet to come across the chance to repay the favor, he could not bring himself to say anything negative about Leon.

After observing Leon for the past two days, he noticed that Leon was a virtuous man who was not overly intimate with Cynthia, Snow, and Ruth, so John felt that it would be alright for Roanne to move in with them.

Instantly, he felt assured and swallowed his words.

"Um, alright, then. Move in with them!" Angus thought about it for a moment and agreed in the end.

He knew that Roanne had a point. Since John reached the Almighty State, he was far more powerful than in the past and should be more than capable of protecting Roanne from harm.

Since the Thompsons were the head of all families in the southern region, the Southern Boss and the Hiltons would not dare to cross the Thompsons directly.

If Roanne moved in with Leon, the Southern Boss and the Hiltons would hesitate before scheming against Leon.

"Great! I'll pack now!" Overjoyed, Roanne ran off gleefully.

Meanwhile, in the chairman's office of Cynthion Group, Leon and the others finally went through all the finance reports.

Upon calculation, Cynthion Group made a profit of at least 780 million from the sales drive.

At the moment, the overall assets owned by all families in the southern region would make a profit not exceeding a billion annually, yet Cynthion Group made a combined profit of over a billion by hosting two sales drives.

This proved the potential Cynthion Group held and that was precisely the reason why the Southern Boss wanted it so badly.

Just as Leon and the others celebrated their success, Mason hurried into the office from outside.

"Mister Wolf, there's an old man who claims to be in the Semi-Almighty State waiting for you. He said he wants to work for Cynthion Group," Mason said respectfully.
