

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2162

Chapter 2162

After over half an hour.

Frantic footsteps were suddenly heard. The Southern Boss and the others looked up and saw that the Second and Fourth Guardians already returned.

"We greet the Southern Boss."

The two of them bowed respectfully to the Southern Boss.

"Second Guardian, Fourth Guardian, how did your task go? Did the two of you find any clues?" The Southern Boss asked. He wanted to figure out if the Thompsons had anything to do with the situation!

"Sir, we've looked into it and found a piece of information. Leon managed to recruit a martial arts expert to join Cynthion Group in the afternoon."

"His name is Henry Yates, and is a wandering expert. He's also very possibly at the Almighty State."

The two of them reported the situation, explaining what they learned.

The two of them guessed that Henry probably interfered with the three guardians killing Leon, so they immediately returned to report it.

"Henry Yates? Who is he?" The Southern Boss looked uncertain when he heard that.

Leon announced in the sales drive that Cynthion Group was looking for Semi Almighty and Almighty State experts to join them. He heard about that as well.

However, that was just during the afternoon. He never expected Leon to actually manage to recruit an expert in such a short time!

It caught him offguard!

"Sir, Henry used to be a famous treasure hunter. His skills are top-notch! Around ten years ago, he and Scarlet Thief, as well as another hunter, formed a temporary team. They were lucky enough to find an amazing Ultimate Power Class method. The three of them fought each other for the sake of that technique, and Scarlet Thief managed to take it away, but one of his eyes was lost. The two sides ended up with a deep grudge against each other," The Second Guardian explained.

Even though the relationship between Henry and the Scarlet Thief was a secret that happened over ten years ago, and not many people knew of it, he was an exception.

He was from the same generation as them, and all of them were famous wandering experts at the time. So they met each other quite a few times before!

He knew of Henry's grudge against Scarlet Thief quite well.

"Scarlet Thief? You're talking about one of the eight Criminals?"

The Southern Boss was surprised to hear that.

"Yes, that's right!" The Second Guardian nodded.

"I can't believe this is related to him! That's interesting!

Second Guardian, how strong is this Henry?" The Southern Boss asked.

He did not hear about Henry before, but Scarlet Thief of the Eight Criminals was incredibly notorious. He heard of the man before.

At the same time, he knew that Scarlet Thief was at the intermediate Almighty State, and it was hard to find those at his level in the region!

Since Scarlet Thief was an enemy of Henry, he guessed that Henry was no slouch!
