

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2168

Chapter 2168

"Fine then, since you want to move in, go ahead," Leon sighed and said, agreeing to Roanne staying with them.

Even though men and women were different, Snow, Cynthia, and the others were staying with him anyway. It was not just Roanne!

Furthermore, since Roanne did not care about the rumors, he had nothing to worry about!

In the end, it was all down to his moral integrity!

He did not need to worry about what anyone else said!

"Alright, that's great! I knew you would say yes!" Roannesmiled happily, hugging Leon!

Her disappointment completely disappeared!

Leon was speechless at Roanne's embrace. He hurriedly squirmed out of the hug.

"Could Roanne be?"

Seeing that, Iris and Cynthia looked strange.

Iris in particular was suddenly starting to regret things. She wondered if she rushed into letting Roanne stay with them!

If Roanne ended up getting closer to Leon after staying with Leon every day and developed mutual feelings just like Cynthia, would she not have just invited trouble herself?

However, she thought about it. Leon was someone who knew where to draw the line. Even at this point, he did not completely accept Cynthia!

With Leon's character, there was no need for her to worry so much about the matter!

Thinking about that, she suddenly found all her worries disappear!

"That's right! Leon, I have a small request," Roanne thought about it and quickly changed the topic.

"What is it?" Leon asked curiously.

"It's like this. Our family wants to buy a few Nine Suns Pills from you," Roanne explained, telling him about what Angus asked her to do.

"The Thompsons want to buy the Nine Suns Pills?" Leon could not help but be surprised to hearthat.

He did not sell the Nine Suns Pill during Cynthion Group's sales drive, but the Thompsons were suddenly asking to buy them.

It caught him a bit off guard.

"Yes! Leon, do you still have some Nine Suns Pills? Are you willing to sell them to us?" Roanne asked expectantly.

"I do, but I'm left with just one right now," Leon said with some hesitation

The Nine Suns Pills were just too valuable and rare. He only managed to make twelve.

He deliberately refrained from selling them because he wanted to leave the best pills for his people!

Sure enough, he distributed the Nine Suns Pills to his men before giving them out to Patrick, Alfred, and some others!

After what he gave away, he had more or less used it all up. He only had one left!

"Only one? That's very little!" Roanne was disappointed.

Angus told her to buy three, giving them to Yuri and Yonas.

Yet, Leon only had one left at that moment, it was not enough for them at all!

"It's fine then! Leon, since you only have one left, I don't think I'll take it. You should save it for yourself," Roanne said after some thought.

He knew that the Nine Suns Pills were very valuable. Just one pill would not be enough for the Thompsons.

So, she would not force things.
