

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2173

Chapter 2173

"What brings you here today, Henry?" Chandler decided to change the topic. Usually, whenever Henry popped by for a visit, he would be delighted to welcome his old friend, but this time, Henry brought over some uninvited guests, and it was clear they had ulterior motives.

This made Chandler a little displeased, and it was evident in his attitude toward Henry.

"Well, President Wolf here intends to recruit some SemiAlmighty or Almighty Warriors to join his corporation, Cynthion Group. Now that I've already joined his forces, I was wondering if you'd be willing to join us as well," Henry explained truthfully.

"Join him? I'm not interested in that!" Chandler shook his head and turned him down without a moment's hesitation.

All his loved ones died at the hands of the cruel Scarlet Thief, leaving him the only survivor. All these years, he spent lonesome days planning the perfect revenge, intending to avenge his family's deaths!

This was the only thing keeping him alive, and now that he was yet to carry out his perfect revenge, he had no time to dally in nonsense like this!

Besides, Leon was a young man, and did not appear at all like anyone he could rely on for help!

Therefore, no matter how attractive of an offer Leon was willing to make, Chandler would not accept it at all!

"Chandler, although Leon's a young man, single-handedly established a powerful corporation, and his talent and potential are unmatched. He's not afraid of the Scarlet Thief at all and is willing to take us in and give us everything we need. This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity," When he sensed Chandler's hostility, Henry quickly tried to persuade Chandler into changing his mind, but before he could even finish his sentence, Chandler interrupted him.

"So what?" he scoffed. He was familiar with the Scarlet Thiefs capabilities, and his cruelty and malice were unmatched!

Chandler did not think that a young, naive man like Leon would not fear someone as ruthless as the Scarlet Thief. He was probably just cocky as a result of never having witnessed such cruelty in his life before!

Chandler could not seem to wrap his head around why Henry would be willing to join Leon's forces and even appear to admire this young man very much!

Could Henry have gone crazy out of his desperation for revenge?

"Listen to me, Chandler! Mister Wolf is a kind and generous host; ever since I joined Cynthion Group, he not only passed on the methods of the Ultimate Power class to me but even helped me advance my training to the Almighty State. If you wish to join us, he will gladly do the same for you. When that happens, you and I will finally be able to join forces and defeat the Scarlet Thief once and for all!" Henry could not help panicking a little when he sensed Chandler's ongoing hostility and decided to come clean with the truth.

"Methods of the Ultimate Power class? Almighty State?" Chandler echoed in shock. He knew just how valuable the methods belonging to the Ultimate Power class were; these were the most priceless of all the powerful methods in the Southern region!

He never once imagined that a young, nameless man like Leon would not only have such great power but even be willing to pass it on to Henry!

This was unbelievable!
