

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2186

Chapter 2186

"Rats!" the color drained from the Scarlet Thief's face when he sensed Leon charging toward him. He knew full well that if he did not retreat now, although he would be able to kill Chandler right on the spot, he would also highly likely fall into Leon's trap.

It was not worth making this shot just to wind up hurt in someone else's hands!

Therefore, the Scarlet Thief had no choice but to give up trying to attack Chandler and instead turned to swipe Leon's needles out of the way.

With that, he leaped into the air, nimbly dodging Leon's attack from the back, and placed a safe distance in between him and his other three opponents for fear that Henry, like Leon, would try to ambush him from the back as well.

Seizing the opportunity to escape, Chandler got up from the ground, stifling the excruciating pain in his chest, and picked up his cane.

'Are you okay, Elder Quinn?" Instead of chasing after the Scarlet Thief, Leon turned his attention to Chandler in concern.

"I'm fine. I sustained some injuries, but I'll be okay," Chandler replied, shaking his head.

"That's good to hear! Here, take this. It's called a Circulation Pill and can help aid recovery," Leon said as he took out one of his Circulation Pills and handed it to Chandler.

"Thank you, President Wolf," Chandler took it from his, his face etched with gratitude. Not only did Leon help him cure his leg, but he even saved his life during this moment of crisis. He did not know how to even begin repaying Leon for his kindness!

All of a sudden, footsteps rang out as Henry approached them. "Mister Wolf, Chandler and I can temporarily hold the Scarlet Thief off while you and Sherlyn escape. You'd better go soon!" he said worriedly.

It was clear that until now, he still did not think Leon was capable of taking on the Scarlet Thief on his own!

"Yes, Henry's right! You'd better run while you can, President Wolf!" Chandler agreed. He, like Henry, did not think that a young and inexperienced man like Leon would be able to match up against the Scarlet Thief, especially after seeing the Scarlet Thief's exceptional display of power.

He knew that he and Henry would not be able to escape their inevitable fate, but he did not want Leon to pay the same price!

No need! Didn't I already say I can handle him? Sirs, please get some rest and look after Sherlyn and Mason. We can't let the Scarlet Thief hurt them," Leon replied solemnly.

Knowing that the Scarlet Thief was one of the higher-ranking criminals on the list, it was likely that he would extend his wrath to the others, especially defenseless Sherlyn. This was the reason he was reluctant to attack the Scarlet Thief with his full power-he was worried that the Scarlet Thief would try to harm Sherlyn and Mason in retaliation!

Therefore, he wanted Henry and Chandler to keep an eye on Sherlyn and Mason while he took on the Scarlet Thief!

"But," Henry and Chandler were still hesitant. They wanted to continue convincing Leon otherwise, but Leon interrupted them before they could even say anything.
