

Chapter 817 Taking Action Indiscriminately

Liam, his expression cold, kicked Shane again. He said in a chilling voice, "It appears this kindergarten isn't suitable for my son, especially with scoundrels like you around."

His gaze shifted to Hannah, and he mockingly remarked, "It's quite effortless for a school board member to engage in an affair with a female teacher. I wonder if you both mind your love affair becoming public knowledge."

Shane and Hannah's faces became pale as they absorbed Liam's words. Shocked, they scrambled to defend themselves. "Don't make baseless accusations. We'll take legal action against you for defamation."

After speaking up, Shane and Hannah glanced at Liam, anxious. With their own families in the picture, the thought of their affair getting out filled them with dread, knowing it could lead to serious trouble.

Liam scoffed, "Is that so? The truth will surface when I check the surveillance footage, Room 808, Ocean Hotel. Am I correct?"

Shane and Hannah paled further. Liam knowing about the hotel room implied that their affair might have been discovered.

After a moment of shock, Shane swiftly replied, "Don't throw accusations around. And do you think you can access that surveillance footage?"

Just then, hurried footsteps echoed from the teaching building. Terry, the headmaster of the school, and security guards, summoned by Hannah, arrived, encircling Liam.

Terry addressed Liam coldly, "How dare you cause chaos here? You've disrupted the peace of our kindergarten. I've alerted the authorities. I'm going to take legal action against you!"

Liam, unfazed, offered a disdainful smile.

He was in no hurry, eager to see who Terry could call to their aid. He intended to make them all pay once they arrived.

Soon, several police cars arrived, accompanied by sirens.

Ethan, the head of the police officers, had a touch of gray in his hair, indicating possible seniority. Judging by his rank, he appeared to be the chief of the local police station.

Smiling, Ethan greeted Terry, "Mr. Gibson, Mr. Ortiz, what's the matter?"

Terry lit a cigarette to Ethan and explained casually, "A troublemaker showed up at the school. Apologies for bothering you with such a small matter."

Ethan dismissed the apology, stating, "It's my duty to serve the people."

He then adopted a serious demeanor, inquiring about the situation.

It was apparent that Ethan's involvement in this altercation hinted at potential corruption, suggesting he might have received bribes from the school.

Upon hearing the school's account, Ethan adopted an indignant expression. He glared coldly at Liam and declared, "How could you carry out such actions in broad daylight? Officers, cuff this troublemaker and take him to the police station. Wait for me to interrogate him!"

Several police officers approached Liam cautiously. Unwilling to be apprehended, Liam resisted, causing the officers to step back. He retorted, "Is this how you handle a case?"

Ethan sneered, "The facts are clear. Why shouldn't I arrest you? Resisting arrest? You're in for a rough day. The suspect is resisting violently and may be armed. Officers, you have the authority to arrest him, and if he

Chapter 817 Taking Action In Liam  +120 Points at most resists further, you can use lethal force."

Upon hearing Ethan's command, all the officers simultaneously drew their firearms, aiming at Liam as they advanced toward him cautiously.

 I want no ads >