

The Divorced Billionaire Heiress Boss Chapter 2050

Don't Be So Shameless Nicole walked over, expressionless.

"Why are you two..."

Before Luke could speak, Tina said with a smile, "You know that I have so much free time now, so I came here to participate in the exhibition. Coincidentally, I met Mr. Youngblood here, and he promised to be my male companion."

Luke frowned and wanted to shrug Tina's hand away, but he held back.

Tina probably had many acquaintances in this event, so it was not good for Luke to offend her at this time.

Nicole raised her eyebrows and glanced at Shane.

Enter title...

"This is Shane Libb, you guys have probably heard of him. This is Mr. Youngblood from Z Technologies, and this is... Still Mrs. Gilbert."

Luke Youngblood breathed a sigh of relief upon Nicole's introduction.

However, Tina felt embarrassed. Tina glanced at Nicole disapprovingly and reluctantly let go of Luke's arm. Then, she looked at Shane playfully.

"Shane almost became a famous actor. Nicole, you have quite a broad range of preferences. Why didn't you bring Mr. Sloan here?"

Nicole smiled.

"My husband is a busy man. If he doesn't make money every day, how will I be able to squander it?"

She glanced at Shane and Luke casually.

"You guys should go in first."

Shane nodded slightly and did not refute Nicole's words.

Luke also breathed a sigh of relief and tidied up his clothes.

Soon, Nicole and Tina were the only ones left. Tina's face sank.

"Nicole, what were you doing? I didn't meddle in your affairs, so why are you meddling in mine?" Nicole paused.

Her face was calm.

"Luke Youngblood is my subordinate, so if he has a messy private life, it affects the company's image. I'm not meddling in your affairs."

Tina was on the verge of refuting, but Nicole did not give her a chance to speak.

"Besides, Luke has a fiancée who is also his high school sweetheart for more than ten years. They're about to get married, so what are you trying to do? Is it necessary for you to do this? I don't think that you fell in love at first sight with a man you've only met twice. Don't forget that you're not officially divorced yet!"

Tina's face turned red from embarrassment.

She took a deep breath, held back her emotions, pursed her lips.

"I've thought it through. Since Zach is keeping a mistress, why can't I do the same?"

"So, you want to be a homewrecker?"

Nicole looked at Tina in ridicule and thought that Tina was really pitiful and hateful. That little sympathy she had for Tina disappeared because of Tina's actions.

Tina pursed her lips, and her eyes flickered slightly.

“Screw being high school sweethearts! Once he’s successful, he’ll still abandon that girl. Am I not a living example? I’m just pre-empting that girl. Moreover, men always forgo their old partners when they’re successful.”

Nicole was exasperated and speechless. She rolled her eyes.

“Don’t generalize all men because of Zach, and don’t project your own pain onto others. What did that girl do wrong to suffer your fate?”

Tina was angry.

“Who are you to lecture me? Leave me alone!” Nicole sneered.

“I’m not bothered about you, but don’t touch my people.”

She took two steps out, suddenly remembered something, and turned to look at Tina.

“You were just screaming about divorce a few days ago, yet now, all you want is to get revenge. Are you planning not to get divorced and watch as they grow their little family of three? Are you crazy to put up with that?”

Tina faintly glanced at Nicole and said nothing.

She paused for a few seconds and said frankly, “No, I won’t put up with it anymore. After she gives birth to their child, I can completely kick him out without giving him a penny. I’ll just let him live in his beautiful dream of having a wife and a mistress for a while.”

Nicole frowned slightly and wanted to say something, but she kept her mouth shut. Forget it. Since Tina had already made up her mind, Nicole could not persuade Tina. Nicole pursed her lips speechlessly.

After all, Tina was also a victim, so there was no reason to keep lecturing her.

“Forget it. Look for someone else if you want to take revenge. Don’t ”

Before Nicole could finish her sentence, she saw that Tina’s expression had changed slightly.

Nicole followed Tina’s line of sight. Her expression also changed.

Coincidentally, the people standing opposite them were Zach and his new lover, Kirsi.

Kirsi was dressed extravagantly in branded clothes from top to bottom. It was obvious that Zach was very fond of her. She was carrying an expensive bag.

Zach smiled, held Kirsi’s shoulders, and said something softly.

In the next second, Zach and Kirsi saw Tina and Nicole.

Immediately, Zach’s expression changed dramatically, and his eyelids twitched.

Zach thought that Tina was still unaware of Kirsi’s pregnancy. He was about to leave Kirsi and walk over to Tina, but Kirsi grabbed Zach’s arm tightly and looked at him aggrievedly as if she was about to cry.

She looked so pitiful.

Zach could not bear to see Kirsi sad, so he was conflicted.

Tina’s face instantly turned glum.

Nicole could feel Tina’s coldness and stiffness.

She whispered, “Why? Do you want to hit them?”

Tina took a deep look at the couple in the distance and gritted her teeth.

“No need. I’m the best at putting up with his sh*t for so long.”

Then, she looked at the couple and said in a cold voice, “Zach, get over here!”

Even when Tina already knew about their affair, Tina still had to defend her dignity in front of that mistress.

As long as Tina and Zach did not get a divorce, Tina would still be Mrs. Gilbert. Tina would not put up with Zach pampering another woman right in front of her. When Zach heard Tina's words, his expression changed immediately. He looked at Kirsi and coaxed her.

"Kirsi, she and I aren't divorced yet. Right now, the lawyer has frozen the company's accounts. If they investigate further, they'll find out about the transfer of property sooner or later."

Kirsi was a little upset.

"So what if they find out? We have enough money anyway!"

Zach whispered, "Nonsense! I want the best for you and our child. How is that bit of money enough? As long as she lets down her guard and doesn't mention divorce, I'll continue to transfer all the property to your name. That way, I can divorce her with confidence!"

Kirsi snorted coldly, turned around, and went to the entrance by herself.

Zach ran up to Tina.

"Wifey, don't get me wrong. I broke up with her, but she said that she wanted me to accompany her outside for one last time. That's why I came out. I'll never have anything to do with her again!"

Zach raised his hand in a swearing gesture.

Tina looked at Kirsi's departing back with a glum face, let out a deep breath to hold back her anger, and looked at Zach.

However, Zach looked at Nicole, who was next to Tina, and asked Tina meaningfully, "Wifey, you've been very close to Ms. Stanton recently, huh?"

Nicole was not bothered to respond to such a person, so she turned around to leave without so much as a glance at him.

Tina immediately followed Nicole.

Zach hesitated for a moment and chased after them.

"Wifey, Stanton Corporation has a project that I'm interested in. Since you have a good relationship with Ms. Stanton, can you help out?"

Tina looked at Zach with cold eyes.

"Don't be so shameless!"