

After Prison 431

Chapter 431

Lucy smiled awkwardly. “No, no. I’m just overwhelmed to see so many old classmates all of a sudden.”

“Alright. Since everyone is here, let’s go in. I haven’t had fun in quite a while. Let’s have fun and drink more tonight!” Timothy announced and gathered everyone.

“Yeah. Let’s go in.” Matthew nodded and agreed. They entered the bar.

“Good evening. What kind of room do you prefer? We have the standard room and...”

As soon as they walked in, a server came over and asked.

Quinn was going to say they would take the standard room. However, Lucy was at the front and she was so used to her lavish lifestyle that she said, “We want the supreme VIP room.” Timothy and Quinn frowned. The minimum spending of the supreme VIP room was fifteen thousand dollars. Although this bar was an adequate size bar, the supreme VIP room was the best room there. The spending was not something they could afford. When they came with Easton, they were not afraid because Easton would be the one paying the bill. Too bad, Timothy and Quinn were the ones paying tonight and it was a different situation. It slipped out of Lucy’s mouth because she had gotten so used to her previous lifestyle. She only realized later that she and Easton were not the ones paying tonight.

Immediately, she smiled shyly. “Gosh, I’m just kidding. Timothy, what room should we get?”

Cain could feel the embarrassment and chuckled, “We’ll take the supreme VIP room. Don’t worry. I’m really happy you guys are willing to come out to meet me when I come back here. I’ll take care of the bill tonight!”

“What? That’s not good.” As a matter of fact, Timothy was glad to hear that. Yet, he pretended that was inappropriate. “But I already said it’s going to be on me tonight!”

“Come on. We’re old classmates and let’s not bother about it. You can treat me next time!”

Cain acted very generously by waving his hand.

“Then thank you very much!” Timothy smiled.

“Let’s go. Bring us to the supreme what room? Since Lucy was the one who picked it, it must be pretty good,” Cain flattered.

Lucy smiled, “It’s the best room in this bar. But it’s a little expensive. The minimum spending is fifteen thousand dollars. Let’s just order something that meets the minimum spending.”

“Gosh! Fifteen thousand dollars minimum spending! That’s like my annual salary!”

Walter was shocked to hear that. As a middle-class worker, he never thought it was possible to spend that much money in just one night..

Chapter 432

“Hey, Walter, aren’t you a programmer?” I remember you have excellent programming skills. Are you still earning a few thousand dollars per month after working for so many years? Isn’t that too little? I think you should totally seek a better opportunity. Your company pays you too little.”

Hannah heard that and expressed her opinion, “Look at me. I’m just a sales but I earn more annually. You are a grown man and you’re earning just barely enough.”

Walter felt embarrassed. “I don’t have a choice. I know my company is paying me too little and I know I can get a better offer if I look for a better opportunity. But I don’t dare to quit as I like. I don’t have any savings. I have a mortgage to pay and a family to feed. I’m not allowed to act as I like. I can’t put food on the table if I quit and fail to find a job.”

Sophia chuckled. “You got married too soon. I remember you married your wife shortly after we graduated. That’s what got you into this mess now. If you waited a few longer before you get married and saved more, it’s going to be a lot better!”

Walter smiled helplessly. “My parents force me to go on a blind date after I graduated. I didn’t want to get married so soon too. But I fell in love with the girl on the blind date and she shared the same feeling as I did. She’s not highly educated but she’s very hardworking. That’s why I got married so soon. I’m already a father!”

Naturally, Severin could tell Walter was living poorly. Among all of them, he was the lesser of them. Thus, the others started to talk about Walter’s situation.

Severin smiled and said, “It’s alright. Walter, I will ask around if there’s any job that suits you. I’ll recommend them to you if there is.”

“Really? Haha. Thank you in advance!” Walter laughed out loud when he received Severin’s kindness.

Soon, they arrived at the room. After they sat down, Cain announced, “Hey, guys. I’ll take care of the bill tonight. Just order anything you want to drink and eat. Don’t be shy. It’s just a piece of cake to me!”

He showed off his pride with his words. Obviously, he was doing very well not and the way he spoke was different from before. Severin could not be bothered to deal with him. All he wanted was to come for a while and drink a little before he left. If the others allowed, he thought of leaving now.

In spite of what Cain said, everyone was being subtle and did not order too much. All in all, the bill was roughly over fifteen thousand dollars.

Cain did not know what went on between Severin and Lucy. After a few glasses, he asked, Hey, Severin. How are you doing? Where are you working at?”

He did not know Severin’s current situation nor did he see Severin drive to the bar. He thought. Severin was working in a company just like everyone else after graduation. Especially since he knew Severin did not have a strong family background and Severin came from a poor family. The best Severin could do was find a good job after graduation.

Severin smiled faintly and drank the red wine before answering, “Now? I’m not working.”

“You’re not working?” Cain was stunned. He looked at Severin’s outfit and said, “Your clothes looked expensive. Can you afford to buy it if you are not working?”

Later, he looked at Lucy who was sitting beside him, and said, "You're lucky to be together with Lucy. You better don't make her suffer with you. Everyone is envious that you have such a beautiful wife."

Severin sneered after listening. "Hmph! I don't want that kind of luck. Plus we broke up ages ago!"

Cain's eyes sparkled. "Really? You two broke up? Don't lie to me, Severin. If you don't want her, I'm going to chase after her!"

Chapter 433

"I have nothing to do with that. We two are basically strangers now!"

Severin glanced at Lucy and smirked. Lucy was so angry that she ground her teeth and finished.

up

the glass of red wine in one go. She said, "Severin, do you have to be so harsh? I already told you I made a mistake choosing Easton over you! I hope we can get back together!"

Severin said, "That's impossible. My heart dies the night I came back. Have you forgotten so quickly the expression you showed me? How you look at me with disgust and how superior you think you are?"

"Severin. I'm sorry. I beg you. Please get back together with me!" Lucy replied.

After that, she could not care anymore. She sat over to Severin's side and grabbed his hands to press over her bust. "Severine, please forgive me. I beg you!"

Cain watched nervously but he did not say anything. His attention was attracted by Lucy's long sexy legs.

"What the hell is wrong with Severin? Why is he rejecting such a beautiful woman? Look at that body and how delicate she was. Regardless of what mistakes she did, she deserves to be forgiven," he thought.

Nevertheless, it was actually a good thing if Severin refused to forgive Lucy. That gave him the opportunity. He used to court Lucy for two to three years while they were still studying. Albeit, he failed.

Lucy chose to be together with Severin. It made him so annoyed when he found out. Thus, he was really very delighted to know they had broken up. Finally, his chance had arrived.

Severin was sick of talking to Lucy. He continued drinking with a calm face. "I don't want to repeat myself again. Stay away from me. I have a wife. She's a good person and treats me very well. Even if I want to find a woman, I will never consider you. Get it?"

Lucy's face looked terrible when she heard that. "Severin, I don't mind being your mistress. I promise I will never get in the way of your relationship with your wife nor will I fight with your wife. I just want to be with you again. Please."

Severin sneered. He knew Lucy would never come back to him if he was still poor. What a shameless woman.

"I'm sorry but I'm not interested in you!"

Severin smiled and pushed Lucy away.

“You really don’t love me anymore? Severin, tell me the truth. I know you still have feelings. for me.”

Lucy refused to give up because she knew this was her last chance.

Severin gave her a serious look. “I’m going to tell you one last time. I’m never going to get back together with you and I don’t love you anymore. I used to think you are a simple girl. I thought you will wait for me. But then I found out I was wrong and you’re exactly not the girl I think you are!”

After that, he stood up and walked toward where Walter and Matthew were to exchange phone numbers with them.

“Argh!” Lucy let out an angry roar. She poured two glasses of wine for herself out of frustration and finished both glasses consecutively.

Chapter 434

Cain knew he got his chance. He went over to sit together with Lucy with the wine in his hand and said, “Lucy, don’t be upset. I don’t know what happened between you and Severin. But if he said he doesn’t love you anymore, no matter what you say or do is going to change his mind.”

He paused for a while before continuing, “Besides, isn’t it better if you give me a chance? I will treat you with all my heart. I’ll buy you anything you want and bring you anywhere you want!” Lucy looked at Cain with a weird expression. Cain was a chubby guy and not as handsome as Severin. He may have earned a buck load of money from overseas and could afford to drive a Ferrari but from Lucy’s point of view, he definitely was not as rich as Severin was now. Severin was totally different from his past situation. With Diane’s permission, maybe he would take Sheila in too. By then, Brookbourn Mansion would be well under Severin’s control too. Thus, it was obvious Cain and Severin were both on different levels.

Lucy forced a smile on her face as she cheered with Cain. “Sigh. Why can’t he forgive me and accept me? Is it because I’m not pretty enough?”

Cain placed his hand on Lucy’s thigh and chuckled, “No, you’re so pretty and sexy. Why would you think you’re not? You’re already in my heart. I can give you anything you want.”

Lucy heard and smirked. “Don’t bluff. I want a villa. Can you buy me one?”

“Haha!” Cain laughed out loud hearing that. “Lucy, if you agree to be my girlfriend, I can buy you not just one villa. Ten villas are not a problem to me if that’s what you want!”

It surprised Lucy. Was Cain richer than she imagined? At that moment, Severin was texting Diane.

After a while, he said to Walter, “Hey, Walter. My wife is the General Manager of Shanahan. Corporation. I just asked and she said they are looking for a programmer. If you are willing to take the job, they are willing to pay you three thousand dollars per month. In addition, the company will also reward you with probably a few thousand annual bonuses too. But I don’t know if you are willing to accept the job.”

“Three thousand dollars per month and an annual bonus?”

Walter was delighted to hear that. Shanahan Corporation was a huge organization. They offered exceptional salaries and benefits to their employees. Based on his calculation, his annual income could triple if he accepted the job.

Severin nodded. "My wife said if you accept the job, you can quit your current job tomorrow and start work the day after tomorrow!"

"Yes. Of course, I'm going to accept it! With pleasure!"

Walter was so excited about the opportunity. He poured a glass of wine for Severin and himself. "Old classmate, I have no idea how to repay you for this. Let's have a toast together!"

"Haha. You're welcome. It's no big deal. I know what kind of person you are and what situation you are in." Severin laughed and continued to drink with Walter.

Hannah looked at the other side and whispered, "Hey, Severin. Look over there. Cain placed his hand on Lucy's leg. Are you sure you're not angry with that?"

Chapter 435

Severin looked over and smiled faintly. "It just proves that this woman does not deserve my love. Believe it or not. You just need to be rich to have her allow you to put your hand on her leg."

Hannah frowned. "Why did Lucy become like this? She's so materialistic. Sigh. I don't recall us being so realistic when we were studying."

Severin smiled. "It's not a big problem. I mean I can forgive her for betraying me. But I can't bear or tolerate when she ganged up with Easton to bully my parents!"

Hannah nodded. "Sigh. I never expect you two to end up like this. Come, Let's cheer!"

Severin smiled faintly. "We are classmates. Feel free to come to look for me if you need any help in the future. If it's within my power, I'll definitely lend a helping hand!"

He continued to drink for a while before feeling bored staying there. Although he did not have any feelings for Lucy anymore, it was disgusting for him to see her flirting together with Cain. By using the excuse to go to the bathroom, Severin left the room. He went to the reception and asked to see the manager of the bar.

"Who is looking for me?" The manager came over with a few other people.

When he saw Severin, he quickly went over and said respectfully, "Mister Severin, you're here!"

This bar was actually owned by Draco Hall. Larry and Blade had informed them earlier that they could not charge Severin if he ever came to the bar because Severin was their boss.

Severin smiled and said, "I was drinking with my friends just now. The room number is 606. Tell the cashier that the bill is on me. I'll get going now."

"Alright. Please take care. You should have informed me earlier. I would send more wines in for you!" The Manager said with the intention to please Severin.

Severin was stunned and laughed. "Haha. That's a good idea. Matthew and Walter are my buddies. I didn't have the chance to treat them in the past. Give them twenty bottles of wine that cost roughly around 860 dollars per bottle. Let them keep those wines here if they can't finish. They are still drinking. I'm going to leave now!"

"Yes, Mister Severin," the manager nodded.

"Why is Severin taking so long? Did he get stuck in the toilet bowl?" Cain started to make fun of Severin knowing Severin had not come back after a while.

Just now he had agreed to buy a villa for Lucy and put Lucy as the sole owner of the villa. In addition, he was going to pay in full. Thus, Lucy agreed to be his girlfriend. He was really thrilled with that. He was going to announce it to everyone when Severin returned. Lucy also said she would give him a kiss in front of everyone just to annoy Severin.

Chapter 436

Cain was feeling delighted and was looking forward to seeing how badly Severin's face was going to look later. All this while, he held a grudge against Severin because Lucy chose Severin instead of him when he had been chasing after Lucy for a long time. Now that he was rich and powerful, it was time for him to take back the things he lost.

Matthew was sick of seeing Lucy and Cain cuddling together. He stopped singing and said, "Hey, Cain, Lucy. Don't you think you two have gone too far? Yes, Severin and Lucy have broken up. But can you at least think about his feelings when you two cuddle together?"

Walter also joined Matthew, "That's right. It's probably very annoying for him to see you two cuddling together and it's normal if he likes to go out to take a smoke so he doesn't have to see it."

Lucy did not agree. "Hmph! You guys saw it too. I begged him so we could be together again. What did he do? He refused to give me a chance. I got my head clear now. I'm only going to be with those who treat me nicely. Cain has been chasing after me and he's the one who loves me the most. So from now on, he's boyfriend!"

Hannah had a weird look on her face. It seemed like Severin was right. Lucy only wanted to be together with Severin because she realized Severin was rich now. When Severin rejected her, she immediately agreed to be with Cain because Cain was rich. No longer was she looking delicate and remorseful.

Walter and Matthew knew it too. They scorned Lucy. At first, they really thought Lucy had turned over a new leaf and really wanted very badly to be back together with Severin. It took her just a while after Severin went out to agree to become Cain's girlfriend. No wonder Severin refused to get back together or bothered with her anymore.

Timothy smiled awkwardly. "Hehe. Are you two chasing the train?"

"We didn't rush anything. I started chasing after her when we were studying and I finally got her now!" Cain said.

At that time, he was hugging Lucy. He gave Lucy a kiss on the cheek and said, "Lucy is a beautiful woman and Severin did not treasure her. So now I have the honor to pamper her!"

Lucy was looking awfully pleased. "Cain is just a little chubby. He's actually a nice guy. After all these years, he still has feelings for me. It proves that he really loves me. I hope you guys can wish us happily ever after."

After that, she purposely said with a pretentious baby tone, "Cain, you promise me that you are going to buy a villa for me tomorrow. Everyone knows about it and they are my witness. You have to keep your promise!"

"Haha. Don't worry. It's just a villa. I will keep my promise. I can easily afford it!" Cain laughed out loud as he hugged Lucy by placing his hand on her waist happily.

Quinn who was feeling sorry for Lucy just now frowned. She realized Lucy did not love Cain but the villa that Cain was going to buy for her. Previously, she thought Lucy finally discovered Severin was a good man. She thought Lucy had turned a new leaf after those experiences. Now she realized Timothy was correct.

Lucy chose money. She only wanted to be with a rich man because of his money. Her eyes thinking Lucy was very scary.

Just then, the door was opened. A few waiters came in with a trolley full of wines. The expensive one. There were a total of twenty bottles.

"We already have all our bottles served. Why did you guys bring so many here? This costs around eight hundred dollars each, isn't it?"

Lucy looked and was surprised. She was a regular customer here and could barely tell how much the wine cost with just one look.

Chapter 437

Cain took a look at the trolley and his face looked sullen. "Did you guys send them to the wrong room?"

"No. We're sure it's this room." The waitress looked at the paper in her hand before answering.

"This must be Severin's work! He ordered it without asking us and I presume he has already gone back after ordering them!" Lucy got an idea and said, "He has gone too far! Cain! Severin must have done this on purpose just to annoy you! Those bottles cost nearly seventeen thousand dollars!"

Cain had a sullen look on his face after hearing that. "The amount is nothing to me! But he has gone too far with this! We used to be classmates. Is it necessary to play me like this?"

Walter frowned. "I doubt that. Severin will never do something like this!"

"Hoho," Lucy sneered. "He's capable of doing anything! Easton and I were going to get married and that guy went to the wedding and screwed my wedding! My wedding was a disaster because of him!"

Cain continued to place his hand on Lucy's waist. "Really? Then I should thank him. Otherwise, I'll marry someone's ex-wife."

"That makes sense. I won't even see you again if it wasn't for him!"

Cain giggled. "But he better stayed away from me after what he did tonight. Otherwise, I'm going to make him pay me more when I see him."

Suddenly, a beautiful supervisor walked in and said, "What are you guys waiting for? Go on and put the bottles on the table!"

"Hey, we didn't order those Did Severin order them?" Lucy asked.

The supervisor smiled. "Yes. Our boss was the one who ordered them. Mister Severin is our boss. He said his friends are here but he has to leave first. So he ordered these bottles for you. guys. All of your expenses are free tonight. If you can't finish these bottles, you can keep them here and come back to finish them next time!"

"What? He paid for those bottles?" Matthew was shocked. "Oh my god. This bar is not very big but it's not very small either. Severin is the owner of this bar?"

Walter smiled. "See Lucy. I told you Severin is not what you said. He gave us those bottles and we don't even have to pay anything tonight!"

Lucy was speechless and no longer acted arrogant as previously after knowing what she claimed was false.

Cain also smiled awkwardly. "Alright, alright, alright. Put them down. I think we have misunderstood him. He actually owns this bar and he didn't even say goodbye to us before leaving."

Lucy sat down unhappily. She was going to wait until Severin was back to announce her relationship with Cain and kissed him just to annoy Severin. Yet, she did not expect Severin to leave so soon.

Timothy smiled. "Haha. It's kind of Severin to take care of the bill. We did order quite a lot

Quinn quickly said, "Regardless of everything, we're going to wish you and Cain happily together since you two decide to be together!"

"That's right. Lucy, Cain, I wish you happiness in the future!"

The others raised their glasses together. Lucy and Cain smiled and raised their glasses to toast together. After Severin left the bar, he headed back home. Just when he was reaching the house, he saw a middle-aged woman and a young and beautiful lady spying on his house. They saw his car coming and quickly hid behind a tree.

Chapter 438

Severin parked the car and got down. Then he walked to where they were hiding and smiled faintly. "Come on. You don't have to hide anymore. I already saw you two when I was driving." Candy and Lauren of Mus Hall walked out from behind the tree.

Candy saw Severin and sneered. "Haha! We didn't expect you to come home so late. I think luck is on our side now that we bump into you. We were wondering if this villa belongs to you!"

Severin looked at them and said, "I just killed an old man this morning. Did they send you two again? Why are there so many assassins? I mean who has so much money to keep on hiring assassins to let me kill?"

"Assassin?" Candy frowned. "We're not assassins. Umm...to be more exact, someone did send us here to kill you. We don't want to kill you but we don't have a choice!"

After that, she said to Lauren, "Aunt Lauren, I'll go first and test how strong he is!"

Lauren nodded and reminded her, "Be careful!"

"Will do." Candy nodded. Immediately, she leaped into the dark sky and used the dark night as camouflage to dash toward Severin. She clenched her fist tight and gave Severin a punch. Severin smiled faintly and also clenched his fist tight to tackle Candy's punch.

After their punches met, Candy got blasted several feet away before she could stand steadily.

"Urgh!" Candy splurged a mouthful of blood with a shocked expression.

"Candy! Are you hurt? I don't think he's a grandmaster and not a level nine grandmaster. He's at least a level one profound master! You better let me handle him!"

Lauren clenched her fist tight with faint spiritual energy covering her fist.

"Level three profound master?" Severin said faintly after seeing that.

"Aunt Lauren! No!" Suddenly, Candy reacted weirdly and stopped Lauren by pulling her.

"What is it, Candy?" Lauren turned around and looked at Candy with shock.

Candy said, "When I fought with him, I saw, I saw the ring. The ring my father showed to me! After that, she strode forward excitedly to ask, "Is the ring on your finger the Dracodeus. Ring?"

Severin touched the ring and frowned. "You know the Dracodeus Ring? Who are you?"

"Supreme Leader! He's our Supreme Leader!" Candy got so excited that her eyes turned red.

She knelt down, "Supreme Leader. I'm Candy, the daughter of the Hall Master of Mus Hall!"

"Supreme Leader!"

Lauren also responded by kneeling down. The word, shock, could not describe the feeling she felt right now. It was just too unbelievable to find out this young guy here was the Supreme Leader of Dracodeaus Temple, their boss!

Chapter 439

"Mus Hall?"

Severin looked at them. They were very sincere and he did not think they were lying. "Please stand up!"

Candy and Lauren stood up and their eyes were filled with excitement when they looked at Severin.

"I have been living in Brookbourn for quite some time now. How come I never hear of Mus Hall before? And why are you guys trying to kill me?"

Severin thought about it and said curiously, "I believe I never offended anyone from Mus Hall before."

Candy explained, "Supreme Leader. Mus Hall is not situated in Brookbourn. Our headquarter is in Riverson. There are far too many gangs over there. In the past, Mus Hall had always been progressing very well. After the old Hall Master died, there were not many elite fighters left. Now, everyone in Mus Hall is barely surviving."

She paused to take a breath before continuing, "Mus Hall accidentally stepped on Blood- Drinker Gang's toe. So they started to look for our trouble and forced us to yield under them and became their subsidiary gang. My father had no choice. In order to protect Mus Hall, he agreed to make a contribution to them every month and promise to do their dirty work for them!"

Lauren added, "We were forced to come to kill you by Blood-Drinker Gang. We don't have a choice and so here we are."

Severin nodded his head while he was listening. "Blood-Drinker Gang again. Hoho. I killed. many of their elite fighters because they helped Cedar Gang to destroy Draco Hall. That's why they are coming after me!"

At this point, he clenched his fist and said, "I thought I warned them by killing many of their members so they know better than to look for my trouble. Geez, they are so annoying. I guess I have no choice but to kill all of them!"

Candy was overjoyed to hear that. "Supreme Leader, we finally found you. My father told me Mus Hall will not be bullied if you are still around and if we managed to find you. We're not going to be afraid of Blood-Drinker Gang anymore!"

On the contrary, Lauren was frowning. "Supreme Leader, are you confident enough to kill all of them? Tharan, the Gang Leader of Blood-Drinker Gang is a level seven profound master. Most importantly, they have three elders who are all very strong. I think they have reached. level eight of the profound master's level. Not anyone could defeat them. Unless! You are a level nine profound master!"

"Gosh, I didn't know there are so many strong fighters in Blood-Drinker Gang!"

Severin was shocked to find out. It seemed like Blood-Drinker Gang was so much stronger than Draco Hall. Riverson was definitely different than Brookbourn. The gangs were far stronger than those in Brookbourn. No wonder they were trying to expand their territories here.

She frowned. "Supreme Leader. Do you have the confidence to annihilate Blood-Drinker Gang?"

Severin smiled faintly. "Don't worry. It's not going to be a problem. But I'm quite busy. Can we do it two days later?"

Candy nodded. "Of course!"

Finally, Lauren looked excited. "That's great! If Hall Master knows we found the Supreme Leader, he's going to be so happy!"

Severin smiled. "Please keep my identity a secret for now. The more people know about it, the easier I will be exposed. It's not good if we inadvertently alert the enemy."

He gave it a thought and asked, "Oh. What's your name? I'm Severin. I think you guys know it."

"I'm Candy!"

Chapter 440

"I'm Lauren and Candy calls me Aunt Lauren." Candy and Lauren introduced themselves.

"Oh. My father's name is Mick Wheatly," Candy said.

"Mick Wheatly?" Severin was stunned upon hearing the name. He let out a wry smile. "Why Mick?"

"Is there a problem with the name Mick?" Lauren asked curiously.

"Oh, nothing!" Severin smiled embarrassingly. The name Mick reminded him of a cartoon character in the form of a rodent and coincidentally, Mick was the Hall Master of Mus Hall. Thus, the question.

"Are you saying that we shouldn't tell my father that we found you yet? What if he calls and asks?" Candy asked.

Lauren added, "That's right. I presume he's going to call us and ask about the progress tomorrow. We just told him this evening that we found where you are living."

Severin thought about it and said, "What about this? You guys go ahead and find a place to stay. Lauren, you can call back tomorrow and tell him neither of you can kill me. You're badly hurt and I have captured Candy. Ask him to bring some men with him to rescue Candy. Say that I'll be waiting for him in the woods. I will kill Candy if he does not come to rescue you and Candy."

"What? That's going to scare my father!" Candy was shocked to hear that. How could the Supreme Leader make out this story just so he could keep his identity a secret?

Lauren took time to consider and said worried, "It's possible that he will bring the member of the Mus Hall with him. But I worry if he's going to seek help from Blood-Drinker Gang if he knows you have captured Candy?"

Candy thought otherwise, "I don't think that's possible. Blood-Drinker Gang only wanted us to help them with their dirty work. Even if my father went to look for them, they won't help us too. My father is not that weak. On the contrary, if he knows that I was captured, I'm sure he would quickly rush over here with the others to find Aunt Lauren."

Severin nodded. "But just in case, it's better that you don't show up together with Lauren tomorrow. I will go find you when it's the evening and we shall go to the woods together. After that, we can tell Mick about the situation."

Lauren thought and said, "Supreme Leader, are you afraid there's a spy in Mus Hall? And it's going to make it worse when Blood-Drinker Gang found out about it?"

Severin nodded. "Yes. We need to prevent that. Besides, Blood-Drinker Gang would think you guys are really working for them if Mick brought more people here. They won't be aware of anything. After that, I will go to Riverson with you guys the day after tomorrow and find a chance to kill them."

"Alright. We'll act according to your plan!" By now, Lauren thought Severin's plan was perfect. She nodded.

Candy looked at Severin and smiled. "I thought the Supreme Leader is an old fellow. I'm really surprised to see it's you instead! A young and handsome fellow."
