

After Prison 541

Chapter 541

Severin was in awe looking at Diane, his beautiful, gentle, sweet wife who had a fabulous curve. He said, "Of course. My wife told me I can do anything I want tonight if I let Quintus go!"

Diane closed the door and gave Severin a helpless look. "He's from a second-tier upper-class family. Riverson is much bigger than Brookbourn and they are more powerful than us too. Maybe after today, he will learn his lesson and head back to Riverson very soon."

Then she added after a pause, "No one in Riverson is going to know he had humiliated himself here. So maybe he won't retaliate against us anymore. And he also mentioned that his cousin is a junior general!"

Severin smiled ruefully, "Honey, I know. You know I'll always listen to you especially since you hardly request anything from me."

He stood up and wrapped his hands around Diane's waist. "But I don't think it's highly impossible that that guy will keep his promise and stay out of our way in the future."

"Why? Are you saying he's going to retaliate against us in the future again?" Diane frowned and started to get worried.

Severin chuckled. "Of course. If he was angry when he left, I'm quite certain he's going to stay far away from us. But he looked so calm when he left. It was too unusual. Because of that, I'm certain he did not learn his lesson after today."

Diane thought about it and felt worried. "But if you really cut his balls off, he's definitely going to retaliate. His family is going to get involved in this too. But there's a 50-50 chance that they would do as they promise after you let him go today. I do hope they have learned their lesson and stopped any evil plan they had."

"Anyway, it doesn't matter. You don't have to worry about anything. Junior general, is it? Perhaps he won't help them. Even if he does, there's nothing we should be afraid of. Remember to bring at least two bodyguards with you when you guys go out," Severin said.

Diane nodded. "Wendy and Lillie are really very powerful. Those people from Cherridom were very powerful too. But Wendy and Lillie finished them off so quickly that I didn't even manage to take a glimpse of how they did it!"

Diane sighed. "When will I be powerful like them?"

Severin smiled and tapped Diane's nose with his finger softly. "Don't worry. You are going to be powerful just like them in the future. You have me. I will help you achieve it!"

"Aww!"

That was very romantic of Severin. Diane was touched by his sweet words. "Hey, do you know how tight you're holding me now?"

A smirk appeared on Severin's face. "Oh, really? This is nothing. I'm going to show you what tight really means later. Hey, how do you feel lately after drinking the reishi mushroom? Do you feel your strength is building up after the martial art I thought you?"

Diane chuckled. "I do feel different from before. Although I'm not gifted to train, I do feel something different about my power. I can see and listen clearer too!"

"Why don't you try to give me a punch?" Severin thought about it, stepped two steps away, and stood straight.

"Why do I need to punch you?" Diane frowned and looked puzzled. "I'm not going to punch you!"

Severin chuckled. "I just want to test your strength so I can tell which level you're at."

"I think my strength has increased quite a lot. But I'm afraid you're going to get hurt." Diane expressed her concern. "Isn't there another way to test?"

Severin smiled. "Haha. This is the easiest way to test it. Don't worry. You're not going to hurt me even if you use all of your strength."

Chapter 542

"Really? Then I'm not going to hold back!" Taking a step back, Diane balled up her fist and joked.

Severin waved his hand. "Come and punch me!"

"Severin, I still don't feel like doing it." In the end, Diane could not do it.

"You have to! Hurry up!" Severin urged. "Don't worry. You're not going to hurt me!"

"Alright. I'm going to do it!" Diane said with her gritted teeth.

She gathered her courage, clenched her fist, and threw a punch at Severin's abdomen. A muffled thud rang in the air. A second later, Diane swung her hand left and right over and over again. "Gosh! Your body is so tough. My hand hurts!"

Severin smiled happily. "This is great. The reishi mushroom works like a wonder. You're getting close to being a level one grandmaster after drinking it for several days."

"Seriously? How wonderful! I'm really going to be a level one grandmaster soon?" Diane was so excited that she jumped up and down on the very spot she was standing.

"For real! I'm sure you're going to be a grandmaster when I return from my trip. I wonder what level you are going to reach. I hope you can give me a big surprise!" Severin smiled seeing how happy his wife was.

"It's going to be autumn soon. When are you leaving?" Diane felt sorrow knowing Severin was going to leave soon.

Severin walked toward Diane and held her hand. "I'm probably leaving tomorrow. I'm sorry I don't have a | choice. The old wacko specifically requested me to go there. He said I'm going to be in a surprise. How could I miss this chance?"

"Alright. Go then. I will take care of your parents and Selene." Diane nodded.

Severin was touched so he leaned forward and kissed Diane. After a while, his body was burning with lustful desire.

Suddenly, Diane chose that time to push him away. "Why are you in such a hurry? I haven't had my shower yet!"

Her face blushed. "I was thinking of showering together with you but who knows you are already here. waiting for me."

Severin's eyes lit up upon hearing that. "Diane, I can take another shower again!"

Chapter 543

"Get lost, you pervert!"

Diane grabbed her clean nightgown and gave Severin a seducing look.

Despite what Diane said, Severin could tell that was not what Diane really feel. He could feel it from her seducing eyes that she was inviting him to join her in the shower.

Diane entered the bathroom, softly closed the door, and left a gap.

Severin laughed evilly and headed inside the bathroom. "Diane, I'm coming. You're right. I'm a pervert. I'm leaving tomorrow morning so I'm going to make good use of tonight and show you what kind of pervert I am!"

He shut the bathroom door and quickly took off his pajamas. Moaning and panting breath spread across the bathroom where both of them enjoyed each other's company.

The next morning, Diane's face looked extremely radiance and glowing.

"We're going to miss you while you're gone and we're be here waiting for you!"

After breakfast, Diane walked together with Severin to his car and expressed how dearly they would miss him while he was gone.

Severin smiled. "Don't worry. I'll try to come back as soon as possible!"

After that, he got into the car and left Brookbourn. He was not worried about Diane and his family's safety. After all, there were six beautiful bodyguards protecting them and every single one of those warrior king level bodyguards was a junior general. Although they were only at the entry-level of warrior kings, no one in Brookbourn could lay a finger on them. Thus, he was not worried.

The Novaks were nothing to him either. The only concern he had were the people from Slasher Gang that Cain contacted. He had limited information about Slasher Gang that originated from Cherridom.

Nonetheless, Cherridom was quite far away from Brookbourn. Even if Cain continued to seek help from Slasher Gang, it was unlikely that they would send too many people over when they did not know how strong Lillie and Wendy were. Therefore, that should not be a big problem too.

When he was at the border of Brookbourn, he stopped his car at the side and started to look at the map.

From the map, he could tell Dracodeus Isle was actually very far away from Brookbourn. The last city he could arrive at by car was a city called Lupool. After that, he had to hike across a mountain and entered a forest. Beyond the forest was the ocean. Dracodeus Isle was situated in the middle of other small islands in that part of the ocean.

“I guess I have to drive to Lupool. That’s the closest route. I only have four days left. I don’t think I can make it if I take another route. Gosh, Dracodeus Isle is situated in a forbidden area. The old wacko must be the one who wrote the name of these islands on this map!”

After reading the map, Severin continued driving.

In fact, he was well aware the spiritual energy in this world was depleting. However, there were some places that had a vast amount of spiritual energy. Very often, those places had many powerful people residing there.

Nonetheless, a profound master was regarded as a powerful person in this world. Whereas, there were basically no matches available for the warrior king.

Just like the Four Great War Gods. The only reason they were the powerful War Gods was that they had reached the ultimate level of the warrior king, the maximum level, level nine. Hardly there was anyone else in this world who could beat them.

Severin could probably be the only one that had surpassed them. It had been a long time since he had made a breakthrough and entered a level higher than a warrior king. A level where he could fly in the air without any help.

Of course, the warrior kind was adequate to fly in the sky as well but only for a short distance. To be more exact, they could glide.

Chapter 544

Flying took up a lot of spiritual energy. Thus, the amount of spiritual energy in their bodies was not sufficient for them to fly a long distance.

The night arrived. Severin arrived in a town called Junca. Since it was getting late, Severin decided to take a rest in the town and continued driving tomorrow morning.

This was the first time Severin came to Brookton. He did not know his way so he found a spot to park his car. After that, his tummy was growling with hunger. He decided to look for a restaurant to fill his tummy before checking into a hotel to take his rest.

“Gosh, the amount of spiritual energy in this town is way much better than Brookbourn. This is a nice place!” Severin was surprised after he tried to feel the spiritual energy in the air while walking on the street at night.

Brookton almost had an identical name to Brookbourn. Yet, the difference was huge. This small town was actually seven or eight times smaller than Brookbourn and the air was filled with a full-bodied of spiritual energy.

Severin reckoned there was a high possibility that someone in this town must have reached the warrior king level.

Of course, that was just Severin's assumption. This was his first time here and all he could do was assume based on the level of spiritual energy in the air.

Just then, Severin saw a beautiful woman dressed in a mini skirt getting out after parking her Porsche by the roadside. She looked extremely chic with a big and loose curls hairstyle.

"Vroom!"

Suddenly, a Mercedes-Benz accelerated abruptly and headed toward the beautiful girl from Severin's direction.

Severin looked and frowned. There was no time for him to think. He dashed forward at super speed and jumped away as soon as he held the beautiful woman in his arms.

By then, the Mercedes-Benz brushed past them and continued to speed forward before disappearing after a turn.

"Ahh!" The beautiful woman shrieked out of fear when Severin grabbed her. This was the first time a man ever hug her so it freaked her out dearly.

The fragrance smell from the beautiful woman enticed Severin. However, he let the beautiful woman go immediately.

"Sh*t! What's wrong with that car? Is the driver racing? F*ck! Did he drink and drive?" The beautiful woman scolded after she realized what just happened.

She looked a little over twenty.

Severin frowned and said, "The driver did it on purpose. He sped up when he was there and clearly, he was heading for you. This is an attempted murder."

"No way!" The beautiful woman gasped. A shiver ran up her spine.

Chapter 545

"Hey, handsome. What's your name? Thank you for saving me!"

It took a while for the beautiful woman to react. She smiled at Severin revealing two dimples on her cheeks and looking exceptionally pretty.

Severin smiled. "I'm Severin Feuillet. And you?"

The beautiful woman giggled. "I'm Winnie and my last name is Feuillet too!"

She continued. "How coincident is it that we have the same last name and you just saved my life just now?"

Followed by a frown, she said, "Severin, you just saved my life. How am I going to repay you?"

Severin smiled. "You don't have to thank me. It just happened I was there to come to your rescue. It's nothing really."

Winnie started to check up on Severin now. "You must be an elite fighter! You're so young but you have incredible speed. I'm guessing I'm dead by now if you are a second too late to come to my rescue. Only the captain of the bodyguard in my family has that kind of speed. The others are not as fast as you!"

Severin looked at Winnie. Her outfit and the Porsche both showed Winnie must be rich, At the very least, she was born into a wealthy family.

However, Severin was curious why Winnie was not accompanied by any bodyguards during her outing. It was definitely a bold decision.

"Since you mentioned that the captain of your bodyguard is as fast as me, why didn't you have him protecting you?" Severin frowned and asked.

Winnie smiled embarrassingly. "I figure I was never anyone's enemy. Besides, It's very late now. My best friend invited me out for dinner at that restaurant and I will be on my way back after I finish eating so I didn't have my bodyguard out with me."

She frowned and continued, "Geez, this is so annoying. Who hates me so much that he or she wants to kill me in a car accident?"

Since Severin did not plan to stay long here, he had no intention to get involved. He smiled, "You need to be careful in the future. It would be best if you call your bodyguard and ask him to come here now. The killer might try to find another chance to kill you since he failed just now."

Winnie nodded. "Thanks for the reminder."

She took out her phone and called her bodyguard to ask him to come here to meet her.

After the call, she said, "Hey, I'm going to give you a-hundred-and-fifty-thousand dollars for saving me. Is that enough?"

That was a huge amount of money to many people. From Winnie's prospect, she expected to see Severin in excitement.

However, that was not the case. Severin remained calm and shook his head. "I already told you it's just happened that I'm there to save you. You really don't have to thank me for it."

"What? That's unacceptable! You save my life. Surely I must repay your kindness. Otherwise, I'm going to feel bad about it," Winnie said with a frown.

Severin felt helpless. In the end, he suggested, "I was going to get my dinner. Why don't you just buy me

“Damn it!” A woman’s voice came from the other end of the phone and she finally said, “Fine. Since that’s the case, we can just find another opportunity in the future. You can head home now. It’ll be difficult now that we’ve spooked them.”

“Understood, miss!” The person hung up and drove away.

Winnie smiled slightly and said to Severin, “What line of work are you in, handsome? Or are you the kid of some rich family?”

Severin smiled lightly. “Me? I’m an unemployed wayfarer!”

“You must be joking? Those clothes you’re wearing don’t seem cheap at all.”

Winnie then brought Severin into the restaurant and said to him, “My two best friends are inside, along with some other good friends of mine. They all invited me out for dinner! I’m going to introduce you to them in a bit!”

Severin smiled wryly. “There’s no need for that, is there? I’m just passing by. My destination is Lupool!”

“Just passing by?” Winnie smiled and said, “Then it’s even more certain that our fate was written in the stars, Don’t you think it’s destiny that you happened to save me even though you were just passing by?”

Winnie then paused and said, “Why don’t you leave your contact information with me? You can always look for me if you need my help in the future!”

Severin felt bad to refuse the friendly gesture of such a beautiful woman. He nodded politely and then exchanged phone numbers with her. They had already arrived outside the VIP room by then.

“What took you so long, Winnie?” A man stood up and asked Winnie when she opened the door and walked in with Severin.

“Yeah, Winnie, didn’t you say long ago that you were leaving home already? Why did you only arrive now?” A woman asked her a similar question.

After Severin went in, he glanced at the people inside and saw five people—three women and two men. One of the women frowned and had a slightly odd expression.

That woman finally smiled and said to Winnie, “You’re late, Winnie! Your punishment is to drink three more glasses later!” Though her smile was pretty, Severin could sense a brief flash of reluctance from her smile.

Severin then smirked, and he finally confirmed his suspicions. That Winnie would show up downstairs and get off from her ride was a fact that was probably known by the five of them who were present there. By that logic, the one who tried to kill Winnie must have been hired by one of them. Try as they may, it would have been difficult for that person to contain their expression when they saw Winnie showing up safely in the VIP room.

Severin to tell who it was at a glance.

“This is Shayna, this is Calvin, this is…” Winnie introduced Severin to all the people there.

Severin frowned. Shayna was Winnie's best friend, and they were remarkably close friends judging from the that Winnie introduced her. It was thus all the more puzzling as to why Shayna would want to harm Winnie!

Chapter 547

Shayna knew that Severin saved Winnie because she had gone out to answer a phone call before Winnie and Severin went upstairs. Nevertheless, she still asked intentionally, "Who's this handsome guy here? Is he your boyfriend? He's quite the charmer! Aren't you going to introduce him to us?"

Winnie blushed instantly and rolled her eyes at Shayna before saying, "What are you babbling about? We just met!"

Severin has been silently observing everyone there, and though the guy named Calvin was a little anxious. at first, he seemed to be instantly relieved after hearing Winnie's explanation.

Severin could tell that Calvin might have feelings for Winnie.

"For real, Winnie? This is supposed to be a gathering between friends. Why'd you bring him when you both just met? Are you trying to pull our leg or something? Why are you so shy to tell us that he's your boyfriend? Do you plan to keep it a secret?" Another man asked with a smirk, and he seemed to lack any sort of tactfulness whatsoever.

Sure enough, Calvin's complexion turned sour as soon as he heard that.

"Stop talking nonsense, Wesley. His name is Severin, and he's was the one who saved me downstairs earlier! I would've been killed in a car crash If it weren't for him!"

Winnie then told everyone about the incident from earlier, and her friends were all taken aback when they heard that.

Shayna pretended to show concern. She ran over, looked worriedly at Winnie, and held Winnie's hand as she said, "Who would want to kill you, Winnie? Are you okay? Let me check. You scared me to death when you told us that! Who would want to kill our innocent and adorable Winnie? If I ever find out who it was, I'll make them pay!"

Severin felt sick in his heart when he saw how Shayna acted. Winnie, on the other hand, was so kind at heart that she did not think much of it and said to Shayna, "Don't worry, Shayna, I'm fine. I'm fine!"

Shayna let go of Winnie's hand, and said to Severin, "Thanks so much for saving her, handsome. Would've if it wasn't for you, Winnie would have been hit to death by that car."

Severin smiled wryly, and said, "Sigh, you don't have to thank me, because you would've been better off if I didn't show up here. Now I've caught you red-handed!"

The smile on Shayna's face froze in an instant, and there was a flash of panic in her eyes. Then, she put on a firm attitude and said with a smile, "I don't follow. What are you trying to say?"

Severin smiled. "It's not that difficult to understand. The five of you are the only people who know that Winnie will be here tonight, so the person who instigated the attempted murder could only be one of you!"

"What?" Everyone was shocked to hear that and they involuntarily distanced themselves from each other.

Calvin stood up, looked at the other people, and said, "Who could it be? We're all good friends who drink with each other all the time. Why would we want to harm Winnie?"

Shayna's lips twitched a few times and she took two steps back before pointing to Severin and saying, "Don't believe a word he says! He's spouting nonsense! How can he accuse us when he doesn't have any proof at all? He's just trying to drive a wedge between Winnie and us!"

Wesley glared at Severin. "Don't make wild accusations, kid. You wouldn't want to piss me off. I'll break your legs if you keep talking nonsense!"

"Don't get mad, Wesley. He's not worth getting angry at!" Another woman stepped forward to persuade Wesley.

Chapter 548

Severin could tell that Wesley was the richest among the five, which would explain his domineering character.

"You're just joking, right?" Winnie was similarly aghast that one of her friends was the culprit. After all, she was very close friends with them because they all grew up together. Even so, she felt that Severin made perfect sense because she went there only after receiving a phone call, and the only people who could have known that she would be there were the five people in the room.

Severin look at Shayna and said, "Me? Talking nonsense? Well, the easiest way to know is to show us your cell phone! I believe you would've contacted the person who tried to kill Winnie before she came here." Upon hearing that, Shayna was terrified and immediately said, "Who do you think you are? And why should I show you my cell phone? I have to right to privacy!"

"Hehe, you wouldn't be afraid to show it to us if you have nothing to be afraid of. Why do you look so guilty?"

Severin chuckled. "I never thought you'd harm Winnie too, especially when she thinks of you as her best friend. It truly boggles me!"

"Shayna...is he telling the truth?" Winnie was confused too, because she saw Shayna's panicked look, and it was difficult for anyone to mask such an expression. "If Shayna didn't do anything wrong, then why is she afraid of someone looking at her phone? Why is she so scared to show it to us?"

"You have nothing to fear if you didn't do it, Shayna. Just take your phone out and show it to us. If you never contacted the assassin, then I'll ask my bodyguard to kill Severin for spreading lies!" Wesley said. "I believe you, and I'm sure you wouldn't do such a thing."

Calvin already had some doubts about Shayna. "Show us the phone, Shayna!"

“You doubt me? I didn’t expect you to believe him over me!” Shayna shook her head in dismay and took out her cell phone. “You wanted to see my phone, didn’t you? Take it then!”

Everyone was taken aback for a moment because they felt that they had suspected the wrong person. After all, Shayna would not have dared to take her phone out if she had done it.

However, after Shayna finished speaking, she tossed the cell phone on the ground and said, “Take it, then! Take it and look at it! I can’t believe all of you doubted me!”

Severin frowned because of how cunning she was. Shayne feigned anger and acted as if she was going to smash her phone in frustration. Had that happened, it would have been tricky to find the evidence.

Unfortunately for her, she was facing none other than the mighty Severin. With sharp eyes and nimble hands, he rushed out in a blink of an eye and squatted down to grab the cell phone merely a fraction of a second before it hit the ground.

“Think you destroy the evidence that easily? Well, think again!” Severin stood up with the phone in hand. and smiled coldly before handing it to Winnie.

Chapter 549

“Ah, I’ve had it with you!” Shayna froze when she saw that the phone was caught in her hands. It could not have been humanely possible for anyone to react in such a short time, yet Severin-by all odds-managed to catch the phone.

In that instant, Shayna felt as if her entire head was buzzing. Had it not been for Severin’s sudden appearance, Winnie would have been dead already, and she would have already had the upper hand. She rushed forward to try and smack the phone off Severin’s grip, but he was not about to her give her another chance. With a slight push, Shayna fell to the ground.

Winnie was stunned when she looked at the call records on the phone. She never dreamed that the last person Shayna contacted was a contact that was named ‘Assassin’. Then, when she looked at the chat records on Shayna’s messaging apps, she saw a conversation discussing the various plans to kill her, and there was even a seventy-five thousand dollar bank transfer made to the other party!

Her eyes turned red and then she handed the phone to Wesley and the others. She looked at Shayna and asked, “I didn’t want to believe that it was you. Why did you do this?” Before she knew it, her tears had already dripped down. “I treated you like a sister. Why did you have to do this to me?”

“You’re a b*tch, Shayna! Why did you do something like this?” After reading the chat records, everyone gritted their teeth angrily because they never imagined Shayna to be that kind of person.

Calvin took it a step further and went up to slap Shayna.

“You slapped me? I knew it. I knew I was nothing to you. Winnie’s the only one you love, and you ignore me even when I was so nice to you! It’s like I don’t exist at all! I’m nothing in your eyes!” Shayna covered her face and burst into tears.

Calvin gritted his teeth and was speechless.

“Are you crazy, Shayna? Did you want to kill me just because Calvin likes me? You’re insane! I’m not in love with Calvin at all!” Winnie lashed out.

“You might not be in love with him, but you’re the reason he’s not in love with me. If you’re gone, he has no choice but to love me! Hahaha! Right? Right?” Shayna laughed like a madwoman.

“Bitch!” Wesley could not stand it anymore and stepped forward to kick her.

“You’re going to kill me, then? Do it! I dare you!” Shayna knew that she had been exposed, so she decided to stop pretending and laugh arrogantly instead.

“Think I’m afraid of doing that?” Wesley gritted his teeth angrily. “My family might not be a third-tier family, but small-time business famous like yours don’t scare me. I’ll call my bodyguards over right now, and I’ll have them kill you before tossing your body into the river to feed the fish!”

The other two girls did not bother persuading him because they were too frightened. Shayna and Winnie had such a good relationship, yet Shayna was cruel enough to hatch a plot to kill Winnie. There was no telling if Shayna would go against them in the future. After all, such people were truly terrifying, especially when they recalled the worried facade Shayna put on earlier when they found out that Winnie was almost hit by a car.

Chapter 550

Calvin could only sigh. His longtime feelings for Winnie were an open secret, and he felt that there was no reason for him to persuade Wesley against it because Shayna had almost killed the love of his life.

However, Winnie persuaded Wesley kindly. “Maybe you could just let this one slide, Wesley? We could just stop being friends with her from now on!”

Wesley, however, said, “I know that you’re her good friend, but you need to be objective here. She has her mind set on killing you, and if you don’t nip this in the bud now, she’ll do the same to you again in the future!”

Though Winnie still wished to protest, Shayna stood up and threatened Wesley. “Are you sure you want to go ahead with this, Wesley? How condescending of you. Hahaha! Sorry, but I recently got to know a godbrother who treats me really well. He’ll come for you if you kill me!”

“Godbrother?” Wesley frowned instantly when he saw that Shayna seemed to be telling the truth. After all, his family might be strong, but he was not even considered a third-tier family in Brookton. As a result, he needed to be cautious when doing things, or else his family would be dragged into the situation if that so-called godbrother was a powerful person.

“We don’t seem to have heard of him before. When did you get a godbrother?” One of the women frowned.

Hehe, I just met him a few days ago.” Shayna chuckled, then threatened Winnie again. “I didn’t want to trouble him, but since we’re all enemies today, I might as well let you know that you won’t get out of this alive! My godbrother is Humbert from Equus Hall. Have you heard of him before?”

“Him?!” Wesley was startled to know that it was Humbert and could not help but say, “He’s one of the most ruthless people in Equus Hall, but he’s a huge pervert! How did you get to know him?”

Calvin's lips twitched slightly and he stared somewhat disappointedly at Shayna as he said, "I didn't expect you to be that kind of woman. Humbert's a notorious person and a pervert. Why would he treat you like a sister unless you had some sort of relationship with him?"

"Hold on a second. Did you just say 'Equus Hall? Severin frowned in surprise. 'Aren't the halls of the Dracodeus Temple named after animals in Latin? There's even the word "hall". Is Equus Hall also one of my subordinate halls?"

Severin did not know whether to laugh or cry, because the old wacko told him that there were several halls without telling him the exact location of those halls. He did not expect there to be one in Brookton.

"Hehe, are you scared now?" Shayna chuckled with a smug expression on her face. "I'm going to tell my godbrother to take action, and then we'll see if Winnie will be able to survive it. You're going to be next too!

"Me? Why?" Severin feigned confusion.

Shayna looked at them and said, "Hehe, Winnie would have died by now if you haven't ruined my plan today, and I wouldn't have been exposed either. You're too young, kid. You shouldn't have meddled in other people's business!" Shayna then paused for a moment before continuing. "This is what you get for being nosy!"
