

After Prison 791

Chapter 791

“Great! It looks like being Severin’s bodyguard is actually very beneficial!” Lillie jumped excitedly.

“Don’t worry. All of you have been working very hard and did a good job. I will make sure your effort is well rewarded.”

Severin chuckled. “Alright. Be on your way and train hard. If I have a sufficient supply of medicine, everyone will get it too!”

The others were extremely excited to hear that. Severin looked at the time and realized it was late. Thus, he did not go upstairs to continue with the alchemy and had dinner with his family first. After dinner, he went upstairs to take his shower and went to Diane’s room. Diane had just finished her shower and was ready to head to bed. When she looked back and saw Severin, she was shocked.

“You’re not busy producing medicine today?” Diane looked at Severin, smiling faintly.

Severin approached and placed his hand on Diane’s waist. “How could I produce medicine all the time? It’s important to balance between life and alchemy.”

“Oh, then you should rest early tonight.” Diane smiled. Her face blushed as Severin hugged her intimately.

“Honey, let’s make out before we sleep.” Severin coughed twice.

Redness appeared on Diane’s cheek as she glared at Severin. “Hey, who’s the one who said he needs to balance between life and alchemy? I don’t want to tire you out.”

Severin laughed evilly and rubbed Diane’s back with his hand. “Honey, why do you think it’s going to be tiring? I’m a person with high attainment and I have a good physique. So don’t worry you are going to make me tired easily.”

After that, he lowered his head and kissed Diane’s red lips. “Okay.”

Diane closed her eyes and enjoyed the affection from Severin.

Time passed quickly. It was nine in the morning when Severin and Diane woke up.

“Hey! Heh! Ha!”

After Severin and Diane finished their breakfast, they went out walking. As they passed by the woods beside the rockery, they heard a child’s voice.

He looked over happily. “Isn’t Selene studying in kindergarten? Why is she here and training together with Lillie?”

Due to his hectic schedule, he had appointed Wendy, Lillie, and the others to train Selene.

Diane laughed after hearing it. “Oh, boy. You don’t know it’s Saturday today, don’t you?”

It struck Severin and he smiled embarrassingly. "I think I was so busy that I forget it's Saturday today."

After that, he said, "I'm taking a rest today. Let's go out after Selene finishes her training."

"Alright. It's been a long time since we bring Selene out!"

Diane looked happy after hearing the suggestion.

"Yeah. I know there are a couple of nice attractions around here. It's good that the three of us go out. I have been feeling stressed with producing medicine. It's time to relax."

Severin nodded.

"Dad! Mom!"

Chapter 792

Selene finished her training. Although she was still very young, she did not fool around during her training. Kiera, Abigail, and the other four pretty bodyguards loved to play with her and all of them loved her cute baby face.

As Selene was running toward them, Severin quickly went forward and carried his daughter into his arms. "Selene. How is your training? Did you make any improvement?"

"Hehe. They said I'm a genius!" Selen covered her mouth and giggled.

"Really? They are also geniuses. If you receive compliments from them, that means you are really a little genius," Severin praised.

By then, Abigail walked over. "Master. Selene is really a genius. She started her training not too long ago. and she's no longer a fighter. She already possesses the same strength as a level one grandmaster!"

Severin's eyes lit up. "Wow. Not bad at all. That's quite an improvement. I guess my precious daughter is really a genius! You girls have worked hard these few days. We're bringing Selene out later. You girls can take this opportunity to rest well."

"Master, we like Selene a lot and we don't think it's hard work," Wendy said.

"That's right. We have so much fun when we are together with Selene. She's very funny and playful!" Lillie said with a smile.

Shortly, Severin brought Diane and Lillie out. Although it was going to make his schedule busier than usual, he thought resting and spending the day with his wife and daughter was worth it. By the time they reached home, it was five in the evening.

"Selene, Diane, how was it? I heard you guys went out. Did you have fun?"

When they were at the door, Sheila came over with a smile on her face. Severin frowned seeing Sheila was still here. After all, Zachariah did tell him that he was going back to Brookbourn this morning. He did not expect to see Sheila here. He wondered if they had not left yet.

"Aunty Sheila! Dad brought us out and we had lots of fun today!" Sheila answered before she hopped into the house like a little bunny.

Severin smiled at Sheila. "Sheila, where's your dad? Didn't he say he's going back this morning?"

Sheila pursed her lips. "They drove back this morning but I didn't follow them."

Obviously, she felt shy and had to lower her head when she said that. Diane saw the situation and explained. "Sheila is going to stay with us for a while. She's like my little sister. We often talk about the training. And we improve faster when we train together."

"Okay. At least you have someone to keep you accompany while I'm busing with alchemy." Severin accepted the explanation and nodded his head.

"That's right. We can also go out shopping when we are free. At least I won't feel bored with her around," Diane replied.

Severin smiled and reminded her. "You two are two beautiful women. Remember to bring more bodyguards with you when you go out. I don't want to see you two in danger especially if some guys try to harass you two. Alright, I'm going upstairs and continuing with alchemy now!"

He left after finishing his sentence. Diane smiled at Sheila and said, "Did you hear that? Severin said we are two beautiful women. Do you know what that means? At least he thinks you are very beautiful."

Hella feel shy. She rolled her eyes and said, "Diane, what nonsense are you talking about? Don't make fun of me!"

"It wasn't me who said that. It was Severin!" Diane chuckled.

Chapter 793

After Severin went upstairs, he took a shower, rested for a while, and took out the cauldron. Later he took the ingredients to make the second-grade low-rank medicine and put them aside to attempt to make the medicine. Since this was the first time, the level of difficulty was very high. Thus, Severin did not dare to produce two medicine at a time and only produce one at a time. In this way, he would not waste two sets of ingredients if this was a failed attempt.

He inhaled deeply, calmed himself down, and went through the alchemist process in his head one more time before he started. After that, he heated the cauldron and threw in the ingredients one by one as instructed. It went well when he slowly extracted the essence from the spiritual herbs. He was already very good at this process.

However, the cauldron blew up during the last step..

Severin did not give up and continued on making it four more times. Although those attempts failed too, he looked surprised because he could clearly feel he had gathered experiences through each attempt and made improvements. Every improvement was remarkable and commendable.

"Based on this progress, I think I will success after trying a few more times."

He looked confident because the improvement he made had well exceeded his expectation. Moreover, he could feel that he was not too far from success. It was really important to Severin if he could produce a second-grade low-rank medicine. After all, the second-grade low-rank medicine would benefit level one to level three warrior kings greatly. Once he succeeded, there would be more time for him to attempt second-grade medium-rank and high-rank medicine.

He knew very well that he needed to be a level two high-rank alchemist in order to help the hall masters to become level nine warrior kings within eleven months. That was not all. He had to be very good at producing the medicine so he had to become a level two high-rank alchemist within six months. Since he had not found every hall master, he needed to allocate time to search for them and time for them to train and level up when he found them. Thinking about it gave Severin a headache.

"I don't have much time left. Uncle-master, you have given me a difficult task. I don't even dare to rest at night. Luckily with my high attainment, I can last without sleeping for one or two months."

Severin smiled bitterly, recuperated, and started with the alchemy again.

Half an hour had passed. Sweat were dripping off from Severin's forehead. It was definitely not an easy task to stay concentrated for a long time during the alchemy process. His mind could have blown up by now if he did not have high attainment and a strong mind.

"Up!"

Finally, Severin shouted and raised his hand. A round pill flew up and hovered in front of Severin.

"It's done! I did it! Haha! I'm a level two low-rank alchemist!"

Severin looked at the pill. The color of the pill was not balanced and bright which suggested the pill was less desirable. He was still very satisfied with the result. He knew this success would mean that he could quickly increase the success rate and become a real level two low-rank alchemist.

"I heard that some of the upper-class families have an alchemist here in South Link City. The strongest of them is a level one high-rank alchemist. Which means I'm the strongest alchemist in this city because I'm now a level two low-rank alchemist!"

Chapter 794

That thought had brought much happiness and excitement to Severin. However, he did not dare to continue because he was feeling dizzy. He tidied up and went to bed to admire the pill he made. After looking at it for a while, he finally put the pill aside and dozed off happily. He woke up very early the next morning. After his breakfast, he quickly went upstairs to continue making more pills.

After last night's successful attempt, he was getting the hang of it. Although he failed the first two times, he succeeded on the third attempt. Looking at the successful pill, he was feeling delighted. The color of this pill was obviously better than the pill from last night. Although it also belonged to a low grade, it was a big improvement and he felt like he was not far from producing a medium grade pill.

"I have to produce two more pills before lunchtime. Then I'll ask Rachel, Gracie, and two more people to come over and give them one each. At least those with stable attainment could consume it and try to increase their level."

Severin thought about it and started to produce again. Before lunchtime, he produced two more pills. He then stored them respectively in an individual bottle before he went downstairs. When he was downstairs, he bumped into Diane and Sheila who had just returned from shopping.

“Severin, you’re in a good mood today!” Sheila smiled when she saw the smile on Severin’s face.

Severin smiled. “You’re right. I’m in a very good mood today!”

He paused and continued, “Because I’m a level two low-rank alchemist now!”

“What?”

The two beautiful women opened their mouths shockingly.

“You’re already a level two low-rank alchemist? That’s a big improvement!”

“He hardly sleeps at night because he had been producing medicine. I think he’s an alchemist freak. He’s born to be an alchemist!” Diane explained.

“Alchemist freak! I like that name!”

Severin giggled after hearing that. “I’m going to call Larry and the others later and ask them to come over during the evening. I had already produced four pills and I’m going to give them one each.”

“You have four pills already? That means you have a high success rate!” Diane was surprised to hear that.

“You have only four and you’re giving all to them? Why don’t you keep it for yourself? Why are you so good to them?” Sheila said.

Severin shrugged his shoulder. “The second-grade low-rank pill is still too low for me. I won’t get any benefits from consuming it.”

Chapter 795

That simple sentence shocked Sheila. She wondered how strong Severin was that a second-grade low-rank pill actually could not provide any benefit to him.

She gave it a thought. “Severin. Tell me, have you fallen in love with Rachel and Gracie? I know you treat Larry well because you’re the master of Draco Hall. But why are you also treating the hall masters of Mus Hall, Equus Hall, and Serpent Hall well too?”

Since there was no one else around, Severin answered, “Because they are under me too. They are also my subordinates. Mus Hall, Equus Hall, and Serpent Hall are part of the Dracodeus Temple’s hall too!”

“What?” Sheila gasped.

After a while, she smacked her thigh. “No wonder they had shifted from their original cities to here. So that’s why!”

Diane chuckled looking at Sheila's reaction. "I'll explain to you in a while when I'm free. There're more halls under him and eight are still missing."

"What? Missing? You need to search them by yourself?"

It created more questions for Sheila as she completely did not understand it.

At that moment, Zachariah and the others had returned to Brookbourn Mansion.

"Everyone in Brookbourn is so happy today..." Zachariah was sitting on the garden chair, drinking tea, singing, and enjoying his life.

Now that the Shanahans were gone, the Ballards were in control and he had faith that his family had a bright future ahead. Moreover, the relationship between his daughter and Severin was getting stronger and stronger. Chances were Severin could be his son-in-law in the future. There was nothing he needed to be afraid of when Severin became his strong support.

"Of course. Diane is a nice girl. She allows Sheila to stay with them. Now Sheila and Severin live together, the chances of Sheila being together with Severin are high!"

Zachariah laughed out loud. "Severin is truly a talented person. It will bring me much honor and glory to tell everyone he is my son-in-law!"

At that time, a bodyguard came in and reported. "Mister Zachariah, there are people asking to see you!"

"Who?" Zachariah frowned and sat down.

"They said they are from Yusky and you guys met before!" the bodyguard said.

"Yusky?"

Zachariah frowned and exchanged looks with Zenoah, "Bring them in!"

Chapter 796

After the bodyguard left, Zachariah asked, "They're from Yusky? Do we know them? I don't seem to recall having any contact with the forces there."

Zenoah thought for a moment and said, "The only people we've met from Yusky are those from Yusky Mansion during Severin's appointment in South Link City. Could it be them? We've never contacted any other forces in Yusky before that."

"That's odd. Why would they come to look for us then? They had a grudge against Severin and offended him before knowing that he was the current governor, but later knelt to apologize to him. It was pretty embarrassing at the time. I wonder why they're here to see us."

Zachariah could not wrap his head around why Yacob and Manny would come to meet them.

Zenoah pondered over it and took a guess. "Do you think they're here because we have a good relationship with Severin? Perhaps they saw that we were in South County Mansion at the time, so now they're planning to cooperate with us on projects and do some business together. They might be expecting to use this as a means to mend their relationship with Severin and get on his good side too!"

"It's possible," Zachariah said with a nod, "but it's unlikely. Since they're already here, we'll go with the flow later."

At that point, Yacob and Manny walked over with some of their family's strongest men.

"I didn't expect you to drop by, Mister Yacob!" Zachariah stood up with a smile and walked over with Zenoah.

"I'm very pleased to be able to drink some tea here!" Yacob said with a laugh. After exchanging some pleasantries with Zachariah, he frowned and remarked, "It seems your daughter isn't around."

"You mean Sheila?" Zachariah knitted his brows. "She's still at South Link City. May I ask why you're here?"

"Oh? She hasn't come back yet?" Yacob was a little surprised. After some thought, he finally said, "I'll be frank, Mister Zachariah. My son, Manny, fell in love with your daughter when he first laid eyes on her the other day. We're here today to ask if you would be willing to consider letting Sheila marry him."

Manny stepped forward from behind and said with a smile, "Uncle Zachariah, I fell in love with your daughter at first sight, and I hope our two families can forge a good relationship through this marriage. Your family will benefit a lot from this arrangement, and you can rest assured that I will treat Sheila well."

Zachariah and Zenoah looked at each other with odd expressions. Though Sheila's relationship with Severin still had a way to go, both Zachariah and Zenoah could feel that things were progressing on a positive note and there was some glimmer of hope for Sheila.

Meanwhile, they both knew that the Ladds were very arrogant, so it was understandable that they did not want Sheila to marry Manny.

"Marriage is a very serious matter, Mister Yacob. I will have to discuss this with Sheila and seek her opinion," Zachariah said after some thought..

An old man behind Yacob had a gloomy expression as he stepped forward and said, "Mister Zachariah, what else is there to discuss about this kind of matter? Parents usually have the final say over marriage, and the Ladds are one of the best families in the entire south county. Even our city, Yusky, is one of the more famous cities!"

He then paused before remarking coldly, "Or do you think that Mister Manny isn't good enough for your daughter?"

W

Ok a step forward and advised, "You ought to be more sensible, Mister Zachariah. You're lucky that Mister Manny took a fancy to your daughter, and your family will benefit from this marriage!"

Zachariah did not expect the Ladds' people to be so shameless and rude toward them by relying on Ladds power. His expression soured and he said, "My daughter isn't a commodity that you can buy and sell by force."

Chapter 797

"Haha, you're right, Mister Zachariah!" Jacob laughed and took out a spatial ring. "I've brought all the betrothal gifts here though. There's gold, silver, and plenty of jewelry, not to mention spiritual herbs. I can't understand why you would refuse when my son is so handsome that even many other mansions or wealthy businessmen would jump at the chance to marry their daughters off to him?"

Manny then said, "Uncle, perhaps you can call Sheila first and ask her. I believe she'll agree to it once she knows about this."

Zachariah thought about it and replied, "To be honest, I don't think she'll agree even if I called her."

Those remarks instantly made Jacob feel as though he had been given a slap, and his expression soured tremendously as a result. As he and his son were making their way to Brookbourn Mansion, he had already imagined in his heart how happy and excited Zachariah and Sheila would be when they found out that he had brought his son to propose marriage.

Alas, Zachariah rejected them outright without even bothering to ask Sheila.

"Do you look down on us, Mister Zachariah? Do you think my family isn't worthy of yours?" Jacob got angrier with each passing thought and immediately threatened her with a cold expression. "If that's the case, then I hope you won't blame us if we go against you in the future!"

Zachariah was taken aback, and hurriedly explained, "Not at all. I would never think that your son isn't good enough for my daughter. On the contrary, my daughter is stubborn, and it is she who isn't good enough for your son!" An awkward expression appeared on his face as he said, "The reason I feel that my daughter won't agree even if I call her is because she already has a boyfriend!"

"What?! She has a boyfriend?" Manny's expression darkened when he heard that and he immediately asked, "Who's her boyfriend? And why should I care if she has a boyfriend? She can still break up with him, can't she?"

Zachariah hastily explained, "Well, they have a very good relationship, so it'll probably be very difficult."

"Who's this boyfriend of hers?" Jacob gritted his teeth and said to Zachariah, "Don't lie to me, Zachariah. I will destroy your family if I find out that you're lying!"

Zachariah and Zenoah gasped in shock and exchanged glances with each other. Jacob was simply too ruthless.

When they saw the two brothers' subtle expressions, Jacob sneered and believed that they were trying to fool him.

Zachariah immediately pretended to be calm and said, "Why would I lie to you? Your son is an excellent individual, but my daughter's boyfriend is just as good, I'm sorry, but there's nothing more we can do about it!"

Yacob's lips twitched a few times. "Who is it? I bet it's someone from Brookbourn. How can they compare to us?"

Zachariah said with a smile, "My daughter's boyfriend is none other than the governor. I believe you've met him before."

"Severin!" Manny and Yacob gasped. It would be very troublesome if the boyfriend turned out to be Severin, since he was probably the only person that they did not dare to provoke.

"You're lying." Manny's lips twitched as he said, "He has a wife. What you said is a blatant lie!"

"Hehe, I'm sure you know that the rich and capable do tend to marry several wives. Isn't that common Jckled and placed his hands behind his back. "They're not just a normal couple, you know. They've even reached the point where they're talking about marriage. So, as I said earlier, there's no need to call my daughter to ask for her opinion. I'm certain that she will refuse!"

"But Dad..." Manny looked at Yacob and felt it difficult to accept what was happening. Severin taught him. a lesson when he tried hitting on Diane, and Severin even snatched Sheila away when he came to the Ballards to propose marriage to Sheila. The world was a very small place indeed!

Chapter 798

Yacob put away the spatial ring and looked intently at Zachariah, as if he wanted to see through Zachariah's inner thoughts. He then said, "If your daughter is already in a relationship with Severin and has reached the point where they're considering marriage, then we won't go ahead with the marriage proposal anymore and vie for her with the governor."

Then, Yacob paused as a little grin appeared on the corner of his mouth. "But you'd better not let me find out that you're lying to me, otherwise I won't show you any mercy!"

"W-why would I fear you? That's impossible." Zachariah replied immediately, but he felt frightened in his heart because he did not seem to be lying.

"We're leaving." Yacob shot Zachariah another look before waving his hand and leading his men away.

Zachariah and Zenoah finally had a look of relief when the Ladds left.

"Yacob doesn't seem to trust us, Zachariah. Do you think he'll try to find out whether that's true?" Zenoah could not help but ask when that thought came to mind.

Zachariah nodded. "He might be afraid of Severin, but he isn't afraid of us. For safety's sake, I think it's best to call Sheila and inform her about the situation."

Sheila was walking in the garden within the villa when she received a call from Zachariah.

“What?! So, Yacob brought his men over to propose marriage, and he even...” Sheila was surprised to hear that. Before hanging up, she said, “Okay, Dad. I understand!”

“What happened, Sheila? I heard you mention something about Yacob bringing his men over to your house to propose marriage?” Diane was walking with Sheila when the call came and immediately asked Sheila what was wrong after ending the call.

Sheila then explained everything that happened to Diane and said with a frown, “My dad was forced into a corner by the Ladds, and in the end, he had no choice but to tell them that Severin is my boyfriend... And that we’re going to get married soon. My dad just called because he’s worried that the Ladds might not give the matter a rest and decided to come and verify his claims!”

“I see!” Diane then remarked, “The Ladds are just too domineering. They probably don’t stop to think about the consequences because they have a level seven warrior king in their ranks!”

Severin had just finished his alchemy session when he chanced upon the two of them chatting from a distance. He decided to go over and ask, “What are you two talking about?”

Diane smiled and told Severin what Sheila had told her.

“I didn’t think something like that would happen. Yacob’s got some guts to make such threats!” Severin’s face was extremely gloomy when he heard that. “They’ll have it coming for them!”

Diane thought about it for a while before saying to Severin, “But it’s going to be troublesome for you to deal with that sort of thing. It won’t be good if word gets out that you killed them just because they threatened the Ballards after proposing marriage with the Ballards’ daughter.”

Sheila looked at Severin, bit her red lips, and said, “What should we do if they come to us and ask for proof one day?”

Severin’s expression sank a little and he finally touched the bridge of his nose before saying helplessly, “Don’t worry. We’ll just put on an act and I’ll pretend to be your boyfriend. That’s the only way we can fool them after what your father said!”

Chapter 799

“But wouldn’t this be unjust for you?” Sheila was overjoyed in an instant, and she immediately hoped that the Ladds would come over to verify her relationship with Severin.

Although Severin said that they were just going to put on a charade, she was looking forward to it even though it was just play-pretending.

“Hehe, there’s nothing unjust about that. True injustice is getting you to pretend to be my girlfriend!” Severin chuckled and remarked off the top of his head.

“It’s not an injustice at all! I’ll never feel that way even if I pretend every day!” Sheila said hurriedly, but after she finished speaking, she soon realized that she was a bit too forthright in his statement. She lowered her head, blushed, and said, “I’d feel honored to be able to pretend to be your girlfriend!”

Severin was speechless. He had completely forgotten that she was a very forward woman and did not know what else to say when she made that remark. In addition, Sheila was around him most of the time, which made Severin unable to stop himself from having wild thoughts on occasion. Worse still, Diane was the one who took the initiative to ask Sheila to stay, saying that it would be nice to have a companion to train together with her. As a result, Severin was unable to tell her to leave.

“Hehe, Mister Zachariah even claimed to the Ladds that you and Sheila are a passionate, loving couple who are already in talks to get married. If you want to pretend, you need to act a little more intimate with -her, otherwise, they might suspect that it’s all a lie!” Diane joked when he saw how embarrassed Severin was.

“What are you talking about, Diane?” Severin smiled wryly before saying, “I’m only agreeing to that in case something happens. Besides, the Ladds probably just made that threat in a heated moment. I am the governor after all, and they won’t try to get proof from me because they’re still afraid of me. Everything I mentioned earlier was just a contingency plan, okay?”

“Mister Severin!” At that moment, Larry, Mick, Rachel, and Gracie came in a group and walked in from outside.

“You’re here!” Severin smiled, and said to them, “I’ve already told the Shanahans that you’re the leaders of the halls under Dracodeus Temple. There’s no need to hide it from them in the future.”

“Haha, that’s great to hear!” Larry laughed, and then said to Severin, “Why’d you call us here this afternoon? Do you have something important to announce?”

“Yes, Supreme Leader, do you need our help with anything?” Rachel asked curiously too. After all, Severin called all of them together at once instead of just one of them.

Severin smiled and said, “You don’t need to do anything. I just have something good for you!” After saying that, he took out a small porcelain bottle and poured out four second-grade low-rank pills. “Each person gets one.”

Rachel gasped when she saw the pills. “Isn’t this a second-grade low-rank pill? I’ve always only heard of such things, and this is the first time I’ve ever seen them in person!” She was very excited because she had reached peak-stage level four warrior king, and the pills could enable her to break through to the next level.

“Wow, Supreme Leader! You’re amazing! If you were able to refine a second-grade low-rank pill, does that mean you’re already a second-grade low-rank alchemist?” Mick’s voice trembled in excitement and he wondered if he was seeing things. However, there was no doubt that the pill in front of him was the real deal.

Chapter 800

“We just had a breakthrough not too long ago, and it’ll take a few days for us to stabilize at our current level. We’ll use this pill to break through once that stabilization has occurred. I can’t help but wonder what level I’ll be able to break through after eating this pill!” Larry said with a smile.

Rachel said, "You're a level one warrior king, so this sort of pill will be most effective for someone of your attainment. There's a chance you and Mick can break through to level three warrior king! Gracie is already a level two warrior king, so it might be difficult for her to break through to a level four warrior king. However, I believe she will easily be able to break through to peak-stage level three warrior king."

She then paused for a moment and reiterated, "Of course, these are just speculation on my end. I can't say for sure what sort of attainment you'd be able to get in the end."

"Stop talking and take the pills. I've been stretching my hand out for so long that it's getting sore!" Severin smiled wryly as he looked at the pills in the palm of his outstretched hand.

"Hehe, don't mind if I do then!" Mick chuckled and chose one at random.

"Yeah, thanks a bunch, Supreme Leader! With your guidance, we're well on the road to becoming the strongest version of ourselves!" Larry laughed out loud. He probably never dreamed that he could break through to level one warrior king so quickly, or that he would soon be able to enjoy a precious second-grade low-rank pill.

The two women were also very grateful to Severin and took one each before expressing their gratitude. Severin smiled and said, "No thanks necessary. We're all friends here. If you really want to show your gratitude, then you should all break through to level nine warrior king as soon as possible so I don't need to worry so much."

Severin then sighed again and said, "There are eight halls left to locate and I don't know where any of them are. Hopefully, we'll get some news soon."

All of a sudden, Rachel's cell phone rang.

"Excuse me. I'll have to answer this call." Rachel smiled awkwardly and walked to one side to answer the call.

By the time she came back, she was grinning from ear to ear as she said to Severin, "Speak of the devil, Supreme Leader! I have some good news for you! We've found Tigris Hall."

"Really? That's great!" Severin had an overjoyed look on his face as soon as he heard that. "Well, where are they?"

"Drackham," Rachel answered.

"I didn't think you'd send your people to a place as far as Drackham!" Severin remarked with a smile. Rachel said, "Well, the people I sent haven't started searching at Drackham yet. It was by chance that one of our members has an online girlfriend. The girl was someone from Drackham, and when our guy went there, he happened to find out that Tigris Hall was there."

Rachel then paused to take a breath before continuing, "But he isn't sure whether this Tigris Hall is the same Tigris Hall that we're looking for, or if it is some duplicate name. He's afraid to make any contact with them just yet, and he called me to inform me about the situation and send me the address."

Severin nodded, "That's still positive news! Send me the address of Tigris Hall later. I'm going to have to visit Drackham then. The Dracodeus Ring is the token for Dracodeus Hall, and since I'm the only one who has it, they'll only believe me once they see it for themselves!"

"Okay, I'll text you the address right now." Rachel forwarded the message and asked Severin again, "Do you need us to accompany you there?"

Severin smiled and said, "There's no need for so many people to come with me. You can just train hard and improve your attainment level. Those who have yet to stabilize their level and are unable to use any pills should focus more on technique to enhance combat strength."
