

After Prison 801

Chapter 801

“Understood. We’ll stay back here then.” Rachel nodded, looked at her phone again, and frowned. immediately before saying to Severin, “Sir, our guy just relayed some new information about the situation. in Tigris Hall. The hall is apparently in a complicated situation right now, so it’ll probably be best for you to get a lowdown before proceeding any further.”

Severin nodded, and said again, “It’s all thanks to his efforts that we were able to locate Tigris Hall. Make sure to reward him when he returns. Anyone who has successfully located the other halls must be given a reward.”

Rachel smiled and said, “Not to worry. I’ll make sure he’s rewarded handsomely.”

“Okay then, if there’s nothing else, you may all head back and continue training hard.” Severin waved his hand and dismissed everyone.

The four hall masters then left happily after taking their respective pills.

It was still early, and Severin was in no rush to leave. Therefore, he decided to refine some more pills which he could give to Lillie and the girls.

Their attainment state was already very stable, and Kiera, Abigail, and Bailey—who had reached peak-stage level three warrior king—needed only a second-grade low-rank pill to aid them in breaking through to level four warrior king.

Despite knowing the whereabouts of Tigris Hall, Severin felt that it was necessary to prioritize refining some pills for Abigail and Wendy to help them improve their attainment. After all, South Link City was not as small a place as Brookbourn, and although Wendy and the girls were rather strong already, it would be even better if they could improve more.

After returning upstairs, Severin spent the entire afternoon refining those pills, and the repeated practice allowed the success rate of his second-grade low-rank pills to increase little by little. Once he had eaten dinner, he continued from where he left off without stopping to take a rest.

By the next morning, he already had fifteen pills in hand. “I’ll give two each to the girls since it will surely be of some help in improving their attainment. That leaves me with three more.”

Severin smiled as he looked at the pills in his hand. After dividing them, he went downstairs and called Abigail and the girls over.

“Is everything okay?” Naomi could not help but ask when she saw that Severin called all six of them over to meet him.

After all, they went shopping with Judith, Megan, and the others the afternoon before, so they were unaware that Severin had given Larry and the others a second-grade pill. They also had no idea that Severin had broken through to a second-grade low-rank alchemist, or that he had refined pills which were effective even for them.

Severin nodded. "You've all been working very hard recently, so I've decided to give you some rewards!" "Rewards? Hehe. I wonder what they could be?" Lillie's eyes lit up instantly when she heard that there was a reward, but she then immediately said, "It's not something as lame as money, right? That's so insincere." "Yeah, we'd rather you reward us with some clothes instead of giving us a couple of grand. Money is too tacky for us, and we're not interested in that. Besides, we have enough money to spend, and it's not like we tend to overspend the cash," Wendy said in agreement.

Severin was speechless for a moment, and he was glad that he did not embarrass himself by giving them

Chapter 802

With a smile, Severin took out six small porcelain bottles and handed them to the girls. "Don't worry, I'm not going to give you something as crude as money for your first reward! Each of you will get one bottle."

Severin smiled and said, "I'm leaving for Drackham tomorrow, and I'll leave it to you six to ensure my family's safety."

"Rest assured we'll do our best." Lillie smiled, then opened the porcelain bottle to take a peek inside. "No way! Aren't these second-grade low-rank pills? Am I seeing this correctly? There are two of them too. This is the kind of thing that is difficult to get even if you have money." Lillie gulped excitedly.

Naomi and the others were initially a little shy to open the porcelain bottle and see the contents, but they went ahead and did so as soon as they heard what Lillie said. As soon as they saw that they were also given two second-grade low-rank pills, their faces turned pale for a moment before it was overtaken by a look of surprise.

"You're amazing, sir! It looks like you've broken through to a second-grade low-rank alchemist, or else you wouldn't have been able to get so many pills." A sudden thought occurred to Wendy and she immediately covered her mouth in surprise.

"Yeah, you're... You're extremely talented! Some people might not even have a breakthrough after practicing for an entire year, but you... you did it." Lillie and the others were also taken aback by Severin's talent in alchemy.

"Hehe, is that so? I haven't met other alchemists before, so I don't know how difficult it could be." Severin chuckled, and his remark nearly made the six girls in front of him faint.

"Okay then, I've given you the pills, so I can finally take the rest of the day off. I've bought the flight ticket for my journey tomorrow too." Severin smiled one last time before leaving the six women standing in awe of him as he left.

"What?! You're going to Drackham? Diane and Sheila uttered in unison when they heard that Severin was going to Drackham the next day.

"Yeah. Tigris Hall is in Drackham, so I have no choice but to go there!" Severin nodded, and said somewhat excitedly, "I don't know the attainment level of Tigris Hall's master, but I hope he or she is already a warrior king. Hopefully, they're not just a profound master, or else it'll take even more time for them to have a breakthrough in attainment."

Diane smiled and said, "Drackham is a big city, and one could say that it's about the same level as South-Link City. It's also a very prosperous city with a lot of strong people. If they could establish themselves there, then it's almost certain that they won't be too weak. As the hall master, I believe he or she would already be a warrior king."

Severin could not help but smile bitterly and say, "We can't be certain. After all, there are always smaller forces in every big city, and the big forces often take time to develop themselves from a fledging force. It will always be difficult for smaller forces to survive among the many big forces."

"What if Manny or Yacob come looking for me to find out whether or not you and I are in a relationship? What should I do then?" Sheila frowned when she thought of that possibility.

Severin thought about it and said, "Don't worry. They won't have anything to say if you just tell them that we're boyfriend and girlfriend. Besides, I don't think they'll be so unreasonable as to come here just to find out if your father lied to them."

Chapter 803

Sheila nodded. "Okay. Hearing you say that fills me with reassurance."

Diane smiled and said, "Sheila and I were planning to go shopping, so since you're leaving tomorrow, why don't you go shopping with us today if you have nothing else to do?"

Severin agreed without hesitation. "Sure. I've done everything I needed to do today anyway. I'll be happy to go shopping with you two and relax a little too."

"Yay!" Sheila jumped for joy and clapped her hands when she heard that Severin was going to go shopping with her and Diane. However, she soon realized that her reaction was not too appropriate and lowered her head shyly.

Sheila's demeanor prompted Diane to roll her eyes at Severin and say, "Can't you see how much Sheila cares about you? She's more than happy that you agreed to go shopping with her."

Severin's heart finally could not help but soften, as if a certain heartstring had been tugged. Sheila was undoubtedly a very good-looking woman, and he could see Sheila's affection for him during the past few days.

It was also because of Sheila's persistence and the way she stayed true to her feelings that Diane accepted her and even spoke up for her.

Having processed all that in his mind, Severin felt a flurry of emotions in his heart. "What did I do to deserve love from two women at the same time?"

"Okay, let's go then. Why are you both spacing out there? Everything's on me today!" Severin then laughed out loud and headed out.

"Come on, Sheila!" Diane tugged Sheila's arm as she walked up to Severin. They were like the best of friends, and they got along very well with each other too.

“We’ll hold you to your promise to treat you to a nice big meal later,” Sheila said with a smile after catching up to them.

The three of them then went out together. Since Severin’s home was situated in the center of South Link City, the three of them did not need to drive out and simply went shopping on foot. After walking for a while, Diane then secretly whispered something to Sheila.

“But... are you sure that’s okay?” Sheila’s face blushed as soon as she heard what Diane said.

“Of course. Come on, just do as I say.” Diane smiled proudly. “Let’s see if he feels awkward about it.”

Chapter 804

“Okay. I’ll do as you say.” Sheila nodded, and the two of them immediately went up to either side of Severin and held his arm.

“Wait a second, Sheila. This doesn’t seem like a good idea.” Severin was not flustered when Diane held him, but he felt incredibly awkward when two beautiful women held one arm each. The envious looks from all around him made him feel even shier. After all, it was his first time encountering such a thing, despite being the master to the war gods.

Before Sheila could say anything, Diane remarked from the side, “Do you have any idea how many people are jealous of you because you get to have two women? Why are you feeling all embarrassed? Hehe, I suppose you’re not as brave as I thought even though you’re the master of the four war gods.”

Diane then paused and said again, “Besides, since the three of us are out shopping, it’d be more awkward for Sheila if I held your hand but Sheila doesn’t. She’ll be like a third wheel then.”

Sheila’s heart was beating non-stop. It was her first time going shopping with Severin with her arm around his, and her heart was filled with happiness and nervousness because everyone around them thought that she was Severin’s wife.

“I...” Severin did not know how to refute Diane’s reasoning because he felt that her words made sense.

“Okay, I won’t tease you anymore. You look so flustered!”

Fortunately, the two women let go of him after walking for several minutes with their arms around him. Severin felt much more relaxed as a result.

Without a doubt, the odd looks all around him made him feel super embarrassed, and he was never the kind to flirt with women all the time. Unlike Stanley or some of the rich young kids who have their hands around several women whenever they are out, Severin was not unaccustomed to it just yet.

“We’ve already arrived at South Link City, Dad. What’s our next course of action?” At that moment, Manny looked at Jacob and asked inside a car that was parked by the roadside.

After being slapped twice by his father, Manny had a newfound admiration for his old man. He felt that his father was a wise man who kept things close to his chest and was as wily as he was calculating. Manny still had much to learn from him.

“Let’s try and test them to see if they’re a real couple. If they’re not, then we can proceed to put pressure on Zachariah.” Following a brief pause, Yacob then said, “If they are, then we might have to bring forward the plan to let our grand-elder and second elder assassinate Severin. After all, we wouldn’t want to wait until after Sheila is married before we take any action, because that means you’d be marrying a widow. Our family is a prestigious one, and I wouldn’t want us to be the butt of jokes when people find out that my daughter married a widow.”

Manny was overjoyed when he heard and immediately agreed. “You’re right, Dad. It doesn’t matter whether or not Sheila’s relationship with Severin is genuine, because we’re still going to kill him sooner or later. I won’t be able to get over the humiliation of being bullied by him unless he dies. Besides, if he’s still alive, you probably won’t get the chance to become the governor. Even I feel that it’s unfair that he snatched that position away from you.”

A flash of viciousness appeared in Yacob’s eyes. “Hmph, I’ll always take back what’s rightfully mine. I just felt that it was too soon after the appointment to take any action, and it would have been unwise to kill him because we might be the prime suspects. However, if he is together with Sheila, then perhaps we can bring forward the plan a little earlier.”

Manny nodded. Whatever it is, that kid will never be a match for our grand-elder and second elder. As long as he isn’t given the chance to escape, he’ll be dead in an instant, and there will be no evidence to link us to his death. No one will be the wiser if we keep our lips sealed. If worse comes to worst, we can just kneel, apologize, and pay some money to Regan so he can testify for us and help corroborate our innocence.”

“Hey, sir, isn’t that Severin?” The driver had a look of surprise as he pointed to a plaza some distance ahead.

Chapter 805

“It is him! He’s with his wife, and the woman looks like Sheila! Is he going shopping with two women?” Manny’s expression turned glum when he saw the situation. “Darn him! Why must the women I like be so into him?”

He then paused for a while before saying to his father, “Judging from the looks of it, Severin and Sheila might be a genuine couple, otherwise she couldn’t have gone shopping with him and his wife. It would’ve been awkward for her in that situation. She even stayed behind at South Link City all by herself even though her family had already returned to Brookbourn.”

The driver nodded in approval. “When you put it that way, Zachariah couldn’t have lied to us, and there’s no need for us to test them anymore. Their relationship has probably progressed to the point where they will be married soon. Severin is lucky to get two beautiful wives.”

Manny clenched his fist, and said viciously, “I wish I could kill Severin right now, Dad. I feel so frustrated right now.”

Yacob shook his head. “As much as you can’t wait to kill him, now is unfortunately not a good time. Killing him right now means you will have to kill Diane and Sheila too, otherwise, they’ll know that we were the ones who killed him. What are we supposed to do if they inform one of the war gods? Besides, our two elders aren't prepared yet. If they are to kill him, they will have to do so under the cover of night while wearing masks. It would be best to ensure that no one sees the two elders' faces so nothing will go wrong.

Although Manny was very upset, he understood the logic in Yacob's reasoning. In the end, he could only grit his teeth and say, "Okay. We'll just have to let him live for another day or two then."

"Then again, you could go ahead with testing them to see if they're really in a relationship. For all we know, Zachariah might have lied to us and immediately informed his daughter about it. Sheila could just be out for a stroll with Severin and his wife, and that's not evidence of their relationship. There's still a possibility that she decided to be the third wheel just to avoid our suspicion." Yacob voices his opinion to Manny.

Manny's eyes lit up after hearing that. "You're right, Dad! I'll go over and see what's going on!"

Manny and his bodyguards then quickened their paces and walked in Severin's direction. He then acted as if he ran into them by chance as he went up to Severin, Diane, and Sheila.

"Ah, if it isn't the governor! It's been a while, sir!" Manny smiled politely and greeted Severin.

"Manny? Why are you here?" Severin frowned instantly. After all, Zachariah just called the day before to inform Sheila about the Ladds' visit to the Ballards. With Manny showing up all of a sudden, it seemed quite certain that he came to test Severin's relationship with Sheila.

Although Severin did not fear the Ladds, he did not want to have any more Sheila-induced trouble to deal with. After all, every single second of every day was extremely precious to him.

Sheila confronted him and asked, "Yeah, Mister Manny, why are you here? I heard from my dad yesterday that you went to our house to propose marriage to me. Hasn't my dad made things quite clear already?"

Chapter 806

Manny could not help but say with a chuckle, "Don't get me wrong here, I came to South Link City because I have a friend who's getting married in two days. I was invited to the wedding, so I decided to just come a couple of days in advance."

He then smiled at Sheila and said, "Well, it's quite a surprise that you're already in a relationship with the governor, Miss Sheila. You're such an adorable, pretty, and gentle woman. I would have wanted to grow old with someone as adorable, pretty, and gentle as you, but I never imagined that you were about to get married to Mister Severin soon."

A bodyguard behind him then cooperated with Manny by saying, "Yeah, back at the appointment ceremony the other day, we noticed that the relationship between yourself and the governor was unlike that of a couple. I say that because you didn't interact much with him that day, so we never would have thought that you two were together."

When Severin heard that, he sneered coldly and explained, "Did you expect us to hug each other at such a formal occasion? That doesn't seem proper, does it?"

“Yeah! Besides, it’s none of your business whether he and I are together.”

Sheila then rolled her eyes at Manny. “I’ll never be attracted to someone like you, regardless of whether Severin and I are together.”

Manny’s lips twitched violently a couple of times before he forced an awkward smile. “Nothing’s for certain, right, Miss Sheila? You’re probably not attracted to me now because you’re already in a relationship, but there might be a chance that you’d like me if you weren’t with him. Besides, you don’t like me because you don’t understand me, and your view of me might change once you get to know me better.

“Hehe, why would I need to get to know you? You’re just a bully and a pervert who preys on weak girls. If Severin wasn’t the governor, you would’ve tried to take Diane away from him!” Sheila chuckled and hated the guy in front of her even more.

Severin then smiled coldly and said, “Please don’t stand in our way, Mister Manny.”

“What did you all just say?” Manny gritted his teeth angrily and wanted nothing more than to strangle Severin right away. The corners of his lips twitched violently a couple of times, and he gritted his teeth before saying, “Don’t think that you’re great just because you’re the governor. Try not to burn so many bridges so life will be easier on you in the future.”

“Sorry, but I have no interest in building bridges with trash like you.” Severin became a little impatient and walked past them with the two women. To further drive his point home to Manny, Severin took the initiative to put his arms around Diane and Sheila’s waist in an extraordinarily intimate manner.

Sheila’s heart began to beat wildly after Severin placed his arm around her waist, and her heart was overwhelmed with happiness.

“Judging from the way they carry themselves, I’m pretty certain that they’re a couple. Sheila addressed him as ‘Severin’ instead of ‘governor’ or ‘Mister’ or ‘sir’.”

“He’s right. He walked away with his arm around her too, so it looks like Zachariah didn’t fool us. Severin is a man, so unless he’s stupid, it’s more than reasonable for him to keep such a beautiful woman around him.”

Two of Manny’s bodyguards reminded him.

Chapter 827

“Of course, I’m sure! I’m already giving it to you!” Severin was delighted to see how happy Yasmin was.

“Amazing! It’s undoubtedly a first-grade high-rank pill. Eating this should probably make it very easy for me to break through to level one warrior king.” Yasmin took the pill with a smile, put it away, and then bowed in a gesture of thanks. “Thank you for the reward, Supreme Leader!”

“That’s a very valuable reward, sir.” Zoheb, who was standing beside them, felt ecstatic too. He had never thought that Severin would just hand over something so precious without even batting an eye.

Severin smiled and said, “It’s no big deal. You’ve worked very hard all these years, and I’m very thankful that you were able to keep Tigris Hall going.”

Zoheb immediately said, "Tigris Hall might not be very strong, but I can give you my word that I will never merge into the other factions. I am indebted to the previous hall master, and he wouldn't want something like that to happen to the hall."

Severin nodded and he could tell that Zoheb was a very loyal person.

"I notice that you and your four elders have probably been stuck in your current level for a pretty long time, right? Since your foundation is very stable, we can try to achieve a breakthrough." Severin pondered for a moment and said, "I don't have any more pills, but since it's still early, I'll refine some pills for you in the afternoon and give them to you by evening."

"Refine some pills?" Zoheb and Yasmin looked at each other and were left stunned by what Severin said. After a while, Zoheb gulped and said, "Did you just say that you were going to refine some pills? Are you an alchemist? Wow... just wow... alchemists are very rare, and there aren't many in Drackham, let alone elsewhere!"

Yasmin then had a sudden realization. "Did you refine the first-grade high-rank pill you just gave me?"

Severin shrugged his shoulders, spread his palms open, and said, "Where did you think I got them from?"

"Wow! You're... you're amazing! Does that mean you're now a first-grade high-rank alchemist? There aren't many of them here in Drackham," Yasmin remarked excitedly.

Severin smiled and did not bother to explain too much to her. After thinking for some time, he said, "Okay then, Zoheb, I believe it's time you arrange a room for me. I'll be refining the pills in the afternoon, and having a room to myself would be best so no one comes and bothers me."

"Ah, you're right! I can't believe I forgot something so important!" Zoheb immediately slapped his forehead and said, "We have an empty villa at the back that you can use."

Severin nodded. "Notify me as soon as possible if the Wild Blood Gang's leader brings his men here."

"Okay." Zoheb then brought Severin to the villa at the back. "Here you go."

Severin thought for a moment before saying, "I need to meet a friend now that I'm here at Drackham, but I wouldn't want to attract the Wild Blood Gang's attention too quickly. Perhaps Yasmin can bring some of the hall's members to invite that friend for dinner tonight."

Chapter 828

"Sure, But I didn't think you'd have friends in Drackham though. Where does your friend stay? What's his name? I'll let them know that you invited them to dinner." Yasmin accepted her task without hesitation. She was all smiles as she spoke after receiving a first-grade high-rank pill from Severin.

Severin massaged the top of his nose bridge and had a slightly weird expression as he said, "Well... my friend is a she, and her name is Beryl. She stays at Vermeulen Mansion!"

"Beryl? Vermeulen Mansion?" Yasmin was taken aback. "You're not kidding, right? Are you talking about Beryl Vermeulen, the war god? You're telling me she's your friend?!"

Severin smiled and said, "Just relax. Once you arrive at her home, all you need to tell her is that Severin wants to see her. She'll accept the invitation for sure."

"Okay, I'll do it right now!" Yasmin agreed excitedly.

Zoheb was completely stunned, and he wondered if he had misheard Severin when he said he wanted to invite a war god over. Even if Beryl was his friend, it should have been Severin who ought to take the initiative to meet her, rather than asking her to meet him. It was as if he was not afraid of Beryl getting angry at him!

Severin then went upstairs to proceed with his alchemy session while Zoheb and Yasmin left the villa.

"Dad, don't you think our supreme leader is too powerful? I didn't think he'd even know Madam Beryl!" Yasmin was still reeling from excitement as he walked out of the villa gate.

Zoheb frowned and said, "Is it even appropriate for us to invite her to come over for a drink? And will it be okay for you to meet her without me?"

Yasmin thought about it carefully and frowned. "You're right... I was so excited earlier that I completely forgot how inappropriate it would be. Do you think it's possible that Madam Beryl won't be too happy? Will she even entertain us when we're just a small force? And how can you, the leader of our hall, not show up and invite her?"

Zoheb had a serious yet helpless expression. "But our Supreme Leader didn't tell me to go. Perhaps you can bring Grand-Elder and Second Elder with you."

"Okay. I'm sure our supreme leader knows what he's doing!" Yasmin nodded.

Not long later, she met the grand-elder and the second elder.

"Do you need our help with something?" The grand-elder had a puzzled look. "Is our supreme leader sure about dealing with the Wild Blood Gang? They have a lot of strong people in their ranks, and I can't help but feel a little worried about how things will turn out."

Yasmin smiled triumphantly. "Relax. If he says everything will be fine, then I believe in him. I came to you two because I wanted you both to come with me to Vermeulen Mansion. We're inviting Madam Beryl to drink with us."

The grand-elder and the second elder exchanged astonished glances with each other after hearing that. After a few seconds, the grand-elder finally said, "You're kidding, right? You want us to invite a war god to drink with us? She's a very high-ranking person in society, and there are plenty of people who want to drink with her. How many among those have succeeded? Besides, she's a very aloof person. Are we even able to invite someone like her over?"

"Yeah, stop messing around. If we go there and ask her to drink with us, she might get upset and kill us with one slap!" The second elder smiled wryly, thinking that Yasmin was joking with them.

Chapter 829

Yasmin looked at the two of them and smiled wryly. "Let's go. Our supreme leader gave me this order, and he said that Madam Beryl would come over if we mentioned his name to her!"

Though the grand-elder and the second elder were very worried, they could only follow Yasmin and head toward Vermeulen Mansion. The three of them gritted their teeth and bravely went to the gate.

“Who are you and what business do you have here? A guard immediately stopped Yasmin and the two elders as soon as he saw them come closer.

Yasmin immediately bowed in respect and said, “We’re here to meet Madam Beryl. Please let her know that her friends would like to see her and that we have something important to tell her.”

“Okay then, you may wait right here. I can inform her, but I have no say as to whether she will accept your audience.” The guard glanced at Yasmin before walking in.

Beryl was watering her flowers in the garden when the bodyguard came over and informed her about the situation.

“They said they were my friend?” Beryl frowned. “Hehe, there aren’t a lot of people who would dare to claim that they’re my friend. Let them in. I’m curious to know who these ‘friends’ are.”

“Understood.” The guard walked briskly out.

After a while, the bodyguard brought Yasmin and the two elders to Beryl.

Beryl looked at the three of them and frowned instantly. “I don’t seem to know who any of you are. Why would you call yourselves my friend?”

“Greetings, ma’am!” The three of them saluted.

Yasmin took a step forward and said respectfully, “We might not be your friends, but our Supreme Leader said that he’s your friend. He wants you to visit Tigris Hall for a drink tonight, and he said you’ll agree if we tell you his name-it’s Severin Feuillet!”

“Severin?!” Beryl immediately put down her wine and had a gleeful expression. “Master’s here? I didn’t expect him to come to Drackham! This is wonderful!”

“Master?” Yasmin and the elders were all shocked, and they wondered if they had heard wrongly when Beryl referred to their Supreme Leader as ‘master’!

Beryl glanced at Yasmin. “Wait here. I’ll go get changed!”

She then happily went into the villa.

“Our supreme leader... is her master?” The grand-elder gulped and mumbled blankly in disbelief.

The second elder then said, “I... think... so? She even went to change her clothes just to meet our supreme leader, so it looks like she places quite a lot of importance on tonight’s dinner.”

Beryl then came out after half an hour, having switched her jeans with a sexy red dress and she even put on some special makeup.

“Sorry to have kept you all waiting for so long. Let’s leave.” Beryl smiled and said to them.

“No apologies necessary. I never thought that you’d be so friendly.” Yasmin smiled.

Beryl then remarked, "What do you mean by 'you never thought'? When you put it that way, it sounds as if I'm a ruthless woman."

Chapter 830

Not long later, they all drove back to Tigris Hall. At that moment, the Wild Blood Gang received news of what happened in the afternoon.

"What are your opinions on this situation?" Tulio gathered all the gang's elders and held an emergency meeting to inform them that Darizan had been killed.

"He's dead? How did they find out about his plan?" An elder was unhappy that the plan did not work out.

Tulio said, "I don't know how, but I'm sure that Zoheb would have had to pay a hefty price to kill Darizan. There's a possibility that Zoheb might be injured, and this could become a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for us."

The old man's eyes lit up instantly after hearing that and he knew what Tulio meant by that. He had a smile on his face as he said, "Haha. You're right. Whether or not Zoheb is injured, the fact remains that they have already lost one of the strongest men in their ranks. We stand to benefit a lot from what happened, and we can just go ahead with the plan to kill them."

"But we need an excuse to do that." Tulio smiled slightly. "After all, if we destroy them just because one of their strong men died, then it'll be a stain on our reputation if anyone finds out. We might even be targeted by some forces who want to seize this opportunity to make trouble. After all, some of the other forces are targeting us too."

Everyone felt that it was a good time to make a move, but the only thing stopping them was the lack of a good excuse.

At that moment, a middle-aged man smiled and could not help but suggest, "How about you just tell them that you like Yasmin and you want to marry her? If they say no, we can kill them and force Yasmin to marry you."

Tulio was already in his fifties, so he frowned when he heard that. "Isn't Yasmin eighteen or nineteen? She's pretty, but our age gap is huge! What if they eventually agree?"

The middle-aged man laughed. "Then that's fine too. It's about the same as taking over Tigris Hall anyway. Now that Darizan's dead and Zoheb is getting old, he'll pass the hall to his daughter in due time. Once that's done, you'll have a beautiful woman in your hands and the entirety of Tigris Hall under your command."

"Sounds like a good plan!" Tulio stood up in excitement after giving the plan some thought. "That's settled then! It's time to round up all our people! We don't need to send everyone there though. It'll be enough to send all those who have reached the attainment of level seven profound masters to deal with Tigris Hall."

“Yes, sir!” Everyone stood up and immediately went to prepare themselves.

By then, Beryl had already arrived at Tigris Hall’s headquarters with Yasmin and the elders.

“Madam Beryl! Greetings, ma’am!” Zoheb did not expect Beryl to show up. He was so nervous that his voice trembled slightly and he forgot what to say to her.

Beryl smiled faintly and said to Zoheb, “Pleased to meet you too. Where’s my master?”

“Your master?” Zoheb was stupefied for a moment.

Yasmin immediately stepped forward and explained, “Dad, the ‘master’ she’s referring to is our supreme leader!”

“Oh! Umm... he’s busy refining some pills on the second floor of that villa! He was at it for quite some time. already!” Zoheb then realized that his admiration of Severin had grown even more.

I see. Dont bother him then. I’ll just head over there and wait in the living room!” Beryl smiled and walked over while Zoheb and the others followed behind her.

Beryl did not expect that Severin would take more than two hours to come down.

When Severin came down, he discovered that there were many other higher-ups of Tigris Hall in addition to Beryl and Zoheb

“Master! It’s you! Oh, I’m so glad to see you!” Beryl stood up excitedly. “I never would have thought that you’d come to Drackham! Why didn’t you tell me earlier? I could’ve gone to the airport to fetch you!”
