

After Prison 901

Chapter 901

The fat man who owned the inn immediately shouted, "Save some for me, fellas! This is excellent nourishment, and I'm going to prepare some of it for Mister Severin's group!"

"I'm going to eat more too and avenge my daughter. If you can hear me up there, sweetie, I hope you know that Mister Severin has finally avenged you!" A middle-aged man ran toward the black python's body with a knife in hand.

"Can it really prolong our lives and increase our resistance?" Felicia's eyes lit up instantly when she heard that and she remarked excitedly, "I'll make sure to eat more tonight."

Diane could not help but smile. "Didn't you tell Severin not to stay here when he said he'd help them? You seem incredibly happy right now."

Felicia rolled her eyes at Diane. "I knew that he was powerful, but I didn't expect him to be that powerful. Besides, why would I be unhappy when I'm getting so many benefits by eating this black python?"

Before long, the fat man and his two employees came over while carrying several huge pieces of python meat. He then said with a smile, "Come with me, sir!"

Severin and the others followed him to a big inn. The other residents who were earlier afraid to step out of their homes finally did so after hearing that the black python had been killed. They all switched on their house lights, and the small town was soon back to its vibrant glory.

That evening, several well-respected individuals from the town gathered together to drink and celebrate! Many people cried as they reminisced about the past, and Severin became very emotional too. In hindsight, the drive to Skystream City was tiring but meaningful. At the very least, he had been able to help the people get rid of such a scourge, or else many more would have to die there.

After a good night's rest, Severin and others set off again early the next morning. The people in the town got up quite early and walked along both sides of the town street to see Severin off. The rest of the journey was relatively smooth, and by the afternoon of the second day, a huge city finally came into view.

Everyone stopped their cars outside the city to rest for a moment.

"Is that Skystream City? Wow! It's huge!" Diane was in awe when she saw the huge city.

Severin smiled. "It is. Of the hundred or so cities in Skystream Province, this is the largest and also the most prosperous one."

Lillie folded her hands in front of her chest and said with a slight smile, "It must be the city with the densest spiritual energy then, otherwise, the governor would not have set up the province mansion here."

Megan had a sudden thought and could not help but ask Severin, "By the way, Brother-in-Law, do you think that the four war gods will attend the province governor's sixtieth birthday?"

Chapter 902

Severin frowned slightly and remarked in an unsure tone, "Perhaps they will. But even though the governors of the nine provinces generally don't have a lot of contact or interactions with the four war gods, they will feel obliged to keep up appearances and attend if the province governors invited them." "Doesn't that mean you can meet four apprentices again?" Megan covered her mouth and giggled. Severin said with a wry smile, "You need to keep a low profile for me when we're out, Megan. Don't just mention so casually that the war gods are my apprentices. They are the war gods, after all. They are concerned about the public repercussions. Besides, I'm their master, so I can't be bothering them all the time, and I can't expect them to help me whenever I encounter any trouble. They're busy people."

Megan nodded. "I get it now. If you run into trouble that even you can't handle, then they wouldn't be able to handle it either!"

"We should get going. Our first order of business is to choose a hotel and have some lunch. A four-day-three-night stay should be enough. We'll rest tomorrow, attend the birthday the day after, and then go back home the day after the birthday."

Severin made the arrangements as he thought to himself.

"Hehe, we'll go with your plan then. The scenery during our drive for the past two days was really beautiful, and I enjoyed being on the road." Megan said with a chuckle. She then remembered something and said, "But we didn't spend that much time going shopping, so I'm thinking of doing so after lunch."

Severin was appalled and could not help but say, "Wow, you sure are energetic. Don't you feel tired at all after spending half a day on the road? I'm surprised that you even thought of shopping as soon as we arrived."

Megan rolled her eyes at Severin. "That's because you only allowed us to stay here for three days! I could spend more time shopping if we stay a bit longer."

Severin smiled bitterly and said, "There are many forces here, and the situation is complicated. There are plenty of people who will be attending the banquet, chiefly among them are the four county governors, and many others people from the bigger cities. The province governors will be there too."

"They will?!" Felicia's eyes lit up and she was immediately reminded of something. She then said to Megan, "You should dress a little prettier than usual when we attend the birthday banquet. Better yet, go for something a little sexier!"

Megan immediately frowned and asked, "Why should I? Am I not pretty enough already?"

Felicia immediately said, "You don't know anything, Megan. It's not just those from city mansions that will be attending the banquet. They are probably other powerful people from big cities that are qualified to attend too. I'm sure there are plenty of other county mansions or province mansions who will be there, and it would be best if you can catch the eye of their young men."

Megan was speechless for a moment and she could not help but pout as she asked, "What are you talking about, Mom? Didn't I already tell you that I already like someone? You don't have to be so concerned about me!"

"There's someone you like?" Diane was slightly taken aback, and immediately asked curiously, "Who is it, Megan? Do you have a boyfriend? Tell me! I want to know if I know him."

Megan smiled awkwardly. "I don't have a boyfriend yet, Diane. I just like him. I don't know whether he likes me though, so I'll tell you only if I manage to win his heart. Don't worry about me, okay?"

"But we have to worry about you!" Felicia said immediately. "You're my daughter! I'll have you know that your standards must be at least that of a mayor's son. It'd be even better if he was the son of a county governor or a province governor! Try to avoid some of the young men from ordinary upper-tier families. You're a beautiful woman, and you need to be with a partner who is equal in status."

Chapter 903

"Okay, okay! I know! Ugh, this is such a drag!" Megan replied impatiently to her mother.

"I think you should take a step back when it comes to anything involving her love life, Mom. Whether or not the guy she likes is rich doesn't matter because we already have more than enough to spend for the rest of our lives. If he's poor, we can just let him stay with our family as a live-in son-in-law." Diane comforted Felicia.

"But... but I just want the best for her!" Felicia grumbled.

They soon went back into their respective cars, but unlike earlier, it was Severin and Diane's car that was at the front. After all, they were the ones who chose which hotel to stay, so the other cars merely followed behind them. However, Severin did not expect to be stopped by several of the city's guards when he reached the city entrance.

"Is something the matter?" Severin got out of the car and asked the guard.

The person who seemed to be in charge said with a smile, "My apologies, but anyone who wishes to enter Skystream City will have to make payment in the form of spiritual stones. It's not a big amount. Just three low-grade spiritual stones per person is enough."

Severin did not expect such a rule to exist. That was his first time encountering something like that. However, when he saw that the other visitor next to him had paid the spiritual stones before going did not try to argue with the person and said directly, "There are eleven of us, so here's thirty-three spiritual stones!" He took them out and handed them to the guard.

in, he

"You may enter the city now. Remember not to exit the city for trivial reasons. Payment of spiritual stones isn't required when exiting the city, but you will have to pay up for each time you enter the city." The guard waited until Severin got into the car before reminding him.

"I never expected that we'd have to pay them some spiritual stones. I'm glad you had them, or else we wouldn't be able to enter the city at all." Diane could not help but smile wryly.

Severin then said, "If we don't have them, we could always give them money. Al de spiritual stone costs a thousand a five hundred dollars, so we just need to pay them sixteen thousand and five hundred." <

"Sixteen thousand and five hundred?!" Diane was startled. "It might not be a lot of money for wealthy businessmen and people like us, but it's a huge sum for most people. How will they be able to enter the city then?"

Severin smiled and said, "Skystream City is the most prosperous city in Skystream Province and the city with the most practitioners. It's not the kind of place that ordinary people can enter, and most ordinary people have no business being here anywhere."

Diane nodded when she heard that. "You're right. This is the most prosperous city in Skystream Province, and normal people aren't able to enter. Only the rich, powerful, and influential can enter such a place. Even then, it's not easy for them."

Severin soon stopped outside a hotel.

"Hehe, this hotel looks amazing, Brother-in-Law! Will we be staying here?" Megan giggled when she saw the luxury hotel in front of her.

Severin nodded. "Of course, this is your first time here, and isn't it your dream to visit Skystream City once in your life? Wouldn't it be such a shame if your dream came true but you stayed in a less luxurious hotel?"

Chapter 904

Megan smiled immediately and said, "Hehe, you're the best! Diane was right to choose you."

Diane rolled her eyes at Megan as soon as she heard that remark. "Then why did you initially persuade me to leave him? You were just as insistent on persuading me to be with Edward even when Severin had returned!"

Megan smiled awkwardly. "That's... that's because we didn't see the bigger picture."

Felicia then said embarrassedly, "I'm sorry, Diane. We couldn't have known then that Severin was such an amazing individual. At that time, he was an ex-convict, and Edward was the son of a second-tier family. We were hoping that you could choose someone who can give you a good life."

"Okay, Mom. Let's not talk about the past. Let's just look to the future and live happily," Diane said. She did not want to talk to Felicia and Megan about that.

"Yeah, I know!" Felicia immediately smiled. "The past is in the past, and we need to look ahead. Our life will only get better and better in the future."

"Well, would you look at all those pretty girls over there! There are ten of them, probably!" remarked a man who was among several rich young men that were nearby the hotel. They glanced over and saw Severin's group when the latter were just about to enter the hotel.

A man in a floral-print suit licked his lips and smiled wickedly. "Hehe. 'I dare not look away from beauty such as this; lest while my glance should stray, some loveliness I miss.' These women are all so attractive that there's one for every taste! Tsk, tsk, tsk! Just looking at them is enough to make me feel all raunchy."

One of his rich friends said with a smile, "Such prose! Such poetry! You do have a way with words, Arnie!"

Arnie smiled wickedly. "You and your wretched thoughts. We're only able to see their rear though. I wonder if they all have a pretty face too."

"We can find out if we go up there and have a look at them!" The guy next to him said with a smile, "There are plenty of people in Skystream City, including some very beautiful women. Then again, some look good from behind but have an ugly face. I was on the street yesterday when I saw this hot chick. I was mesmerized by the way her hips swayed from side to side, and I almost drooled when I was looking at her."

One of their bigger-sized friends smiled and asked, "And then what happened, Dave?"

"Then," Dave said, "I nearly laughed my butt off when I went up to look at her face, because she had so many wrinkles that I bet she's at least over sixty years old! She's an old hag, but she dresses like those girls-next-door and swings her hips so sexily when she walks."

"Bwahahaha!" Both the fat man and Arnie burst out laughing when they heard that.

"Come on, let's catch up to them! The guys unconsciously walked faster, and it took them only a couple of seconds to walk past Severin's group. They then moved to one side and turned around to look at the Women

All three men were stunned when they turned to look at the women

"They're all beautiful!" Dave swallowed his saliva and exclaimed, "Holy moly, they're genuinely very good-looking! Except for that one woman who looks a little older than the others, the rest are all young and beautiful

"Yeah! Three of them are much prettier than the others! Man, I can't believe there are so many beautiful women here in Skystream City! Arnie was also a little excited, and he was dumbfounded to see so many beautiful women.

Chapter 905

"Maybe you can treat them all to dinner. I bet they'll throw themselves all over us once they know our background." The fat guy remarked when he saw Arnie's excitement,

After thinking for some time, Arnie finally said, "They dress well, so there's a chance they're not gold diggers. If anything, all ten of them might be married to that man!"

"Whoa! That guy is one lucky b*stard then!" the fatty said. "My women ate all the good stuff after coming home with me, and now they're all plump. I can't be bothered to go home anymore, and I'd much rather have fun outside."

Dave joked, “Don’t your women get angry at you if you’re never at home, Moby? Aren’t they going to give you a hard time?”

Moby said coldly, “Give me a hard time? Please. They wouldn’t dare. As far as I know, they’re more worried about me chasing them out of the home! They know how much their quality of life will drop if they’re kicked out. They’re living the high life right now, and all they do is eat, drink, and laze around all day!”

Dave noticed that Arnie was still ogling the women, so he could not help but smile and say, Just f*ck it all and go up to them if you want, Arnie. You’ll never know whether or not they’ll agree if you don’t try your luck. Besides, the three of us have a strong enough family background that there aren’t a lot of people in Skystream City that we can’t afford to offend.”

Moby encouraged him too. “I agree. If you don’t shoot your shot, you probably won’t have another chance in the future. What if they’re just here for a holiday? What are the chances of you meeting them a second time if you miss this opportunity?”

Arnie immediately understood the point that Moby and Dave were trying to drive across. He immediately waved his hands and beckoned his friends to follow him as he approached the group.

“We’ll take ten rooms. Diane and I will share a room, while the rest of can have your own room.” Severin was chatting happily away with the others as they walked in, and he felt secretly happy when he thought about being in the same room with Diane for the next two nights.

Diane, on the other hand, blushed when she heard that. He could have just booked the rooms without specifically saying that he would share one room with her. It made her feel a little embarrassed because Felicia and Megan were just beside her.

Meanwhile, Sheila felt a little envious, and she wondered when Severin would accept her affection toward him.

“Are you from out of town? I suppose you are since you’re all at a hotel!” Arnie came over and said with a smile. “I’d love to be friends with all of you if that’s okay. You can come and stay at my place. I have a couple of empty rooms back there, so I might as well let you folks make use of them.”

As soon as Moby and Dave heard that, they glanced at each other and immediately understood Arnie’s plan. Those women would almost certainly be happy to take him up on his offer once they knew how rich and powerful Arnie was. He can then take the opportunity to ask for the contact information of those women so he could invite them out for some fun at night. Moby and Dave might even be able to tag along, and for the right price, those beauties might eventually give in to their requests.

Chapter 906

After all, that was not their first time encountering such a situation.

Before Diane and the others could say anything, Moby immediately said, “This handsome young man here is Arnie Pearson, the scion of a second-tier family. If you think about it, it’s quite formidable for a family to be recognized as a second-tier family in a place like Skystream City. An upper-tier family like his is considered to be one of the truly wealthy families.”

However, Severin said with a cold smile, "I'm sorry, but we've never met you, and we're not the kind of people who would want to take advantage of other people's kindness. We appreciate your gesture, but we'd be more comfortable staying in a hotel."

Severin was perceptive enough to know that Arnie had ulterior motives for being courteous to them, but he nevertheless refused politely because he did not want to cause trouble in a place like Skystream City.

Arnie's lips twitched a few times, and he did not expect that Severin would reject him so decisively even after knowing that he was the scion of a second-tier family. Arnie could tell that Severin was probably a wealthy businessman who might be the son of another city's powerful families, or perhaps even the son of a mayor.

Moby pulled a long face and immediately said, "It's always best to think twice before refusing so decisively. You're in Skystream City now. Dave and I are the scions of third-tier families, while Arnie here is from a second-tier family. Are you going to be so rude as to turn down our kind gesture?"

Dave then immediately persuaded. "Think carefully, my friend. We will take offense to your refusal, and there will be drastic consequences to your actions. Conversely, if you accept us as your friends, then your journey in Skystream City will be more smooth-sailing in the future."

Severin did not know how to react to that, and he wondered if the three of them were starting to threaten him. Fortunately, they did not scare him in the slightest.

He merely smiled and said, "I'm really sorry, but I came to Skystream City on some official matters, and I'll be leaving in two days. I appreciate your kindness, but I genuinely don't think it's necessary to stay at your place. I'm just the kind of person who doesn't like to burden others."

"Yeah! We don't like burdening other people, so please leave us alone," Sheila stepped forward and said to them. The three men were cordial in inviting them over to stay at their place, and they even said that they wanted to make friends with Severin. However, Sheila knew that they had nefarious plans and were simply using all that as an excuse to further their goals. One look at them and she knew that they were not decent people.

Moby exploded in a rage, and he clenched his fists with a ruthless expression. He glared at Severin. "Don't be arrogant. You might as well have signed off on your own death warrant if you're not going to show any courtesy to Arnie's kind invitation."

Severin could not help but sigh and say, "I don't want any trouble here, so you should leave right now if you know what's good for you. I wouldn't want you three to regret it once I end up making a move."

"Regret? Haha! You make me laugh!" Arnie snickered and clapped his hands to instruct his bodyguards to surround Severin's group. After Severin was surrounded, Arnie sneered. "Show me how you're going to make me regret this!"

Chapter 907

Severin sighed helplessly when he looked at Arnie's stubbornness. He took a step forward and said, "Are you sure? If you want to court death, then I'll show you what true despair is so you don't go around thinking that you can do whatever you want in Skystream City."

“Haha, you’re one mad lad! Get him, boys! Kill him and capture all his women!” Arnie ordered his bodyguards with a wave of his hand. He fumed when he saw Severin fearlessly making such ruthless remarks to him.

“Charge!” The bodyguards rushed up immediately.

Their attainment was not very low since most of them have reached level seven or level eight profound master. In smaller cities, those who had similar strength levels were usually the leaders of the smaller forces. By contrast, such individuals in Skystream City were-at most-ordinary bodyguards who served upper-tier families.

There were two bodyguards with a higher attainment base than the rest. One had reached level two warrior king, while the other was level four warrior king. Generally speaking, many in Skystream City would not dare to offend those with an attainment such as theirs, especially since Arnie and his two friends were also some well-known figures in the city. Few were brave enough to rub them the wrong way, which removed the need for them to bring those with the highest attainment whenever they left the home.

After all, individuals who were level five warrior king and above were not as common. Severin dashed forward without asking Wendy and the girls to help him. In his eyes, those profound masters could easily be dealt with, and it took him only a few punches to send them all flying.

“Ah, it hurts!”

“I’m done for! My ribs are probably broken!”

The profound masters all wailed one by one in pain, and the only bodyguards who remained standing were the level two and level four warrior kings.

“That guy’s attainment doesn’t seem to be low. You need to be more careful, Khaled!” Arnie warned the head of his bodyguards. He was horrified by the scene before him because the entire group of level seven. or level eight profound masters were so easily defeated by Severin. It showed that Severin’s attainment was at least that of a warrior king.

“Don’t worry, sir! We can handle him!” Khaled, who was a level four warrior king, exchanged glances with the man next to him. They both clenched their fists, produced a surge of spiritual energy, and immediately launched themselves forward to punch Severin.

A fierce tiger made from condensed spiritual energy appeared before the level two warrior king. The tiger was almost as tall as a human, and one could consider it a praiseworthy display of skill.

Meanwhile, Khaled-the level four warrior king-pulled all the stops and showcased his strongest attack. A flying sword formed by condensed spiritual energy appeared and flew right at Severin.

“That’s terrifying!” Felicia and Megan hid behind Wendy and the girls. They could not help but feel a little worried about Severin.

Severin smiled coldly when faced with that attack. Such attacks were trivial in his eyes, and he condensed the aura from his two fists to form a glove. He bent his body slightly, charged forth with both fists, and struck the opponents’ attacks head-on.

“Is he trying to get himself killed? It’s impossible to directly take our attacks on if his attainment level isn’t two or three times higher than ours!” Khaled was shocked when he saw that.

Chapter 908

The other guy frowned too. “He’s dealing with our attacks head-on without using any skills or techniques! Can he even withstand the attack?”

However, a huge roar sounded at almost the same time, and both the huge tiger and the flying sword were smashed into pieces by Severin’s punch. They crumbled into pieces in midair and turned into powder.

“That’s... that’s impossible! How?!” The level two warrior king was so frightened that he retreated two steps back. He shook his head repeatedly, with his face full of disbelief.

“How did he even achieve that?! He couldn’t have been able to withstand that attack if he isn’t at least a level six warrior king! He did it so easily too! Could he be a level seven warrior king?” Khaled was also stunned by the scene before him and could only stand there in a daze.

“Hehe. Time for you to meet your maker!” Severin had no plans to show them any mercy as he dashed toward them and punched both his fists into their chest before they could react.

The two warrior kings were sent soaring into the air from the impact, and a huge hole had already appeared in their chests. Surviving such a huge blow was downright impossible.

“No. that can’t be... Khaled... he’s a level four warrior king, and he...” Cold sweat was starting to drip from Amie’s forehead, and he could no longer keep himself calm.

Moby then added, “If I heard correctly, your bodyguard said before his death that this guy is likely a level seven warrior king. It seems we’ve crossed paths with a very strong individual, and from the looks of it, he might not be from one of those strong reclusive families who came here just to have fun.”

“Yeah, Arnie! What should we do now?” Dave panicked too. They had gotten used to having their way in Skystream City, and they had never encountered someone like that before. After what happened, it was natural for them to feel a little scared.

Arnie’s face darkened and he said to Severin, “I’ll let you go this time, but you’d better not show yourself in front of me again or I’ll make you pay!”

Severin smiled coldly, walked up to Arnie, and slapped him. “I’m the one who should be telling you that. I’ll let you live today, but you’re as good as dead if I ever see your face again!”

He then turned around and said to Diane, “Let’s go, honey. We need to check everyone into the hotel.”

“Okay.” Diane nodded and walked toward the hotel with him.

“How dare you slap me, you son-of-a-b*tch!” Arnie clenched his fists tightly and glared at Severin’s rear figure.

“What should we do now?” The other injured bodyguards had already stood up. After running over to Arnie, they looked at the corpses of the two warrior kings and felt traumatized because of what happened. It was obvious that Severin had gone easy on them earlier, otherwise, they would have all joined the two dead men in the afterlife too.

Chapter 909

“What else can we do except carry their bodies and go home right away?” Arnie then gritted his teeth and said, “He and his ten women are staying in this hotel, so it should be easy to find out more about them. I’ll head home, inform my father, and bring our strongest men over here. My goal today is to end his life.” Moby was just as angry, but he still had the clarity of mind to say to Arnie, “Are you sure you want to tell your father about this? He doesn’t like it when you go out hitting on women. You might succeed in bringing your men to kill that kid, but you might not get the chance to play with any of those girls.”

“That’s right,” Dave chimed in. “Knowing your father, he’ll take one look at those women and know what’s going on. Even if he avenges you and kills that guy, he’ll let those women go instead of allowing you to bring them away with you. They’re all weak women, after all.”

Arnie’s lips twitched a couple of times, but when he thought of the humiliation that he had suffered earlier, he still said viciously, “Damn it! You’re right about that, but all I want now is to kill that kid. He ended the life of our two warrior kings, and Khaled is the strongest of them all too. To make things worse, he even slapped me! In my thirty years of life, this is the first time I have ever been slapped.”

Moby was in deep thought for a moment when his eyes suddenly lit up. “I’ve got an idea! Arnie, when you bring your father and your men to kill that kid, I will secretly send someone to follow those women. They’ll be captured as soon as they leave the hotel, and once you’ve brought your father here, you can just come up with an excuse to leave. to me.”

Dave’s eyes lit up in an instant and he supported the plan. “Perfect! That does sound like a good plan. You can lock the girls up as soon as you capture them, Moby. We’ll finally be able to have some fun with them.”

“Yeah! I have a villa at the city outskirts, so when the time comes, I’ll just lock them there and send someone to watch over them. We can have fun with them whenever we please, hahaha! It’s decided then! * Moby’s felt a surge of heat in his heart when he imagined the girls’ sexy figures, and he was already very eager to get a taste of their bodies.

Dave and Moby came from a third-tier family, and they probably would not be able to handle a level seven warrior king like Severin. However, Arnie had nothing to fear, because his family was a second-tier family. Some of Skystream City’s second-tier families might have a level eight warrior kings among their ranks. along with several level seven warrior kings.

The three of them set off immediately after ending their discussion. Moby and Dave went to gather their bodyguards, while Arnie instructed his bodyguards to carry the two corpses into the car before heading back home.

Diane was still a little worried as she went up to the front desk with Severin. She said to him, “Should we go to a different hotel, honey? Those guys might be gone now, but I’m worried they might come here and cause trouble again later.”

"It'll be fine," Severin said nonchalantly. "I'll just kill them if they show up here and kick up a fuss. I might not like trouble, but I'm not afraid if trouble comes knocking on my door. They can't blame me if they have a death wish, and staying at a different hotel isn't going to make a difference to a second-tier family's scion."

Sheila, who was standing beside him, said, "Yeah! what's more, one of them is the scion of a second-tier family, while the other two are from third-tier families. If they have their minds set on making life difficult for us, they can still locate us quickly even if we change hotels. This is their territory, after all, and I'm sure they're very familiar with the city."

Severin glanced unconsciously at Sheila and was surprised that someone as brash as her could be so

Chapter 910

The receptionist looked at Severin in awe. She found him to be quite handsome, and she had no idea which wealthy family was he from to have so many beautiful women around him.

"Sir, I'm sorry, but we no longer have any ordinary rooms available. Only luxury suites are available right now, but they're on the pricier side." The receptionist said with a smile.

Megan's expression soured as she retorted, "What are you trying to imply by that? Do you think that we're unable to afford a luxury suite? How expensive are they, anyway?"

"One suite costs three thousand dollars a night!"

"That's super expensive!" Megan was taken aback by the price.

The receptionist then explained, "These luxury suites weren't that expensive before, but the price has been driven up because the province governor will be celebrating his sixtieth birthday party. Many who come here from other cities or other provinces are wealthy, so this demand for good rooms in expensive hotels makes the room prices go up."

"I see!" Megan had a sudden realization and did not know what else to say.

Severin then took out a bank card and said, "Don't worry about it. Let me see. We'll be here tonight, tomorrow night, and the night after that, so it will be a total stay of three nights. We'll check out the morning after our third night here."

"Not a problem. So that'll be ten rooms, right?" The receptionist confirmed once more before arranging the rooms for Severin's group. She then respectfully handed the room cards to him and said, "You're lucky to have arrived here a little earlier, otherwise even the most expensive suites won't be available to accommodate your request for ten rooms on the same floor."

Severin nodded with a smile and took the elevator upstairs with the others.

At that moment, Arnie led his men home and returned with an ashen face.

"Dad, Mom... someone bullied me. He slapped me, injured all our bodyguards, and killed both Khaled and Samadhi."

As soon as he returned home, he ushered in the bodyguards who were carrying two corpses and cried as he walked up to his father with his injured party.

“What?” Arnie’s father Ambrose clenched his fists in anger. “Who did it? How dare they disrespect our family?”
