Chapter 56

 "Martha, what do we do?" Serena was really freaked out!

Just now, from the looks of Arabella, it's obvious that Grandpa Phillip didn't give her a hard time!

"Should we go in and check?" Martha also felt something was off, but she didn't know what to say right now.

In the living room.

Romeo was shooting the breeze with Kenneth and Louisa; his eyes were constantly wandering towards Arabella, sneaking a peek at her and engaging with her now and then. These little details didn't slip past anyone's eyes.

Serena was already jealous of Arabella, especially seeing Romeo take extra care of Arabella's feelings. Her nails dug deep into her palms, and her palms were filled with nail prints.

Just then, Louisa suddenly asked, "Bella, what are you wearing on your neck?"

Everyone's eyes turned to Arabella, only to see the crown necklace on Arabella's neck. Everyone was blown away when they saw this necklace.
