

Arabella 58

Chapter 58

“What?? Boss, I know you’re just blowing off steam!” Jones hastily stepped forward. “Boss, are you really tired after surgery on Phillip? Can I massage your legs?”

“Back off, dare you touch the boss’s legs? If the boss chops off your hands later, I won’t stop her!” Jack scolded, then turned his head with a grin, “Boss, how about I massage your shoulders? Loosen up your muscles?”

“Dare to loosen up the boss’s muscles? Aren’t you afraid of being punched to death by the boss?”

Just then, there was a knock on the door.

Jack and Jones looked at each other in an instant, had they been discovered? Or?

“Sweetie, are you asleep?”

It was Louisa’s voice outside the door. Had Louisa discovered something and knocked on the door on purpose?

“Not yet.” The girl’s voice was gentler, but when she looked at her two subordinates, her tone was deliberately lowered. “Take the check and disappear from my sight in ten seconds.”

“Boss.”

Jack wanted to say something but heard Arabella’s ruthless-voice: “Or I will confiscate your bonus.”

He jumped off the balcony,

“wait for me?” Jones saw him run so fast, then turned his head to see the boss’s slightly squinting eyes with a warning light and hastily said,

“three seconds.”

He ran to the balcony. “But there are dogs down there;

come in?” Louisa’s voice came from the hallway, holding the rail; he was obviously very afraid of the dog, of which, that dog was really fierce, barking at him nonstop.

Louisa looked like she could only help him out.

“Boss.”

As the boss kicked him straight down, he fell onto the grass, his butt was killing him! How could the
