

Arabella 135

Chapter 135

“You guys cost the company millions of dollars. I have to call the police for this,” Arabella said calmly. “If I let you guys slide, I’d be aiding and abetting, and I’d be just as guilty as you”

“Ms. Bennett, please spare us...” the head of the purchasing department was sobbing. “I have a happy marriage, and my child was just born... I really don’t wanna ruin my family over this!”

“We have to explain this to the head office. If employees can cause the company to lose millions and then just cry it out and apologize, what kind of chaos would that lead to? How can we manage? How can we lead?”

“Ms. Bennett... The audience comprehended that this matter brooked no deliberation. This can only be blamed upon them, as they chose the wrong path, which is now irreparable.

“We are all adults, Arabella solemnly remarked, “and since the deed is done, we must bear the consequences. If there are any injustices, we can bring them to the attention of the police and seek clemency.”

Despite Oscar’s reprehensible actions, they too are accomplices, leading the company to endure immense losses, and the company is also a victim.
