

Super Rich Dad Chapter 299-300

Chapter 299 - I don't believe it

Cousin Xue Yuning turned her head away, looking like she wasn't afraid of anything, and said to Qiao Dong, 'How can I die anyway, I'm still afraid that you'll clean up? 700,000, what the hell do you think? And you, may I ask if your Qiao family can't afford to live anymore? I smashed such a little piece of junk, and you dare to ask for seven hundred thousand dollars?'

Cousin Xue Yuning continued to question in anger, 'Tell me, did Xue Yuning give you guys the idea that once the seven hundred thousand dollars arrived, the three of you would share the money equally?'

What the hell was this?

Xue Yu Ning's cousin's remarks simply stunned the crowd present.

Xue Yu Ning simply didn't expect her cousin to be this kind of person, if you don't want to pay back the money, then simply say it clearly, why make this scene?

Jiang Hao was even more speechless, saying that he had already shown great kindness by paying for them for more than 13 million, and now there was only 700,000 left for them to pay for themselves, and they were not even willing to do that? If they had to pay for all of the 10 million, they would have to pay for it themselves.

Qiao Dong was also furious, his family had spent a lot of money on something, and now in this woman's mouth, it had become a rag?

‘You shut up!’ Qiaodong said angrily, ‘Rags? How the hell can you say that? I’ll tell you the truth, if you smashed just one thing, your family wouldn’t even be able to pay for it if you sold it! Jiang only let you pay 700,000 yuan, and you’re still fucking around, are you willing to pay the original price for all the things that were smashed?’

Hearing Qiao Dong’s words, Cousin Xue Yu Ning revealed a face of disdain and even snorted coldly, saying, ‘Humph, do you really think we don’t know how to count? Just those things, seven thousand is not even worth, seven hundred thousand? Fine, tell me, what was the original price of the things I smashed up? And why did you let me pay 700,000? You don’t even know how to lie.’

Qiao Dong was so angry that his face turned green, if Jiang Hao wasn’t here today, if this was put in normal times, if these people dared to speak to him like this, I guess he would have called someone to clean them up.

What kind of people are you if you are still explaining yourselves to them?

Qiao Dong looked at Jiang Hao, then he said loudly, ‘Fine, then I’ll show you today how much your so-called seven thousand is worth!’

With a wave of his hand, Qiao Dong called for Manager Wu and instructed, ‘Manager Wu, go and pull out all the information related to all the things they smashed today, I’ll show them today whether we are coveting their bullshit seven hundred thousand dollars or whether they have grown a pair of dog eyes!’

Manager Wu hurriedly nodded his head, and in a hurry, he called away a female employee.

After about ten minutes, Manager Wu and the female employee came back with a thick pile of documents in their arms.

His father put everything in front of Qiao Dong and said in a low voice, ‘Young master, this is the information about all the things they smashed today, there are appraisal certificates and market quotations.’

Qiao Dong nodded and said, 'Good, go and give these dog-eyed things a good look, these things, are they worth seven thousand or not!'

Manager Wu nodded and directly instructed his men to send the items to Cousin Xue Yuning's heels.

Cousin Xue Yuning and Fan Deng frowned in surprise, and then took the things and looked at them with curiosity.

Only when she saw the first page, the expression on Cousin Xue Yuning's face froze.

She looked at the words on top of that document and stammered as she read it out, 'Fine wood carved plaque from the Song Dynasty, Sotheby's Spring Auction 18, Sold for: 3,510,000 Ming Dynasty Silk Brocade River and Mountain Spring Scroll, Guardian Auction 15, Sold for: 2,200,000'

Xue Yuning just saw these two pages and her whole body was dumbfounded.

For just two items, it was already over five million?

'Huh?' Fan Deng, who was at the side, heard Xue Yuying's cousin stammering out this paragraph and hurriedly looked over in surprise as well.

As a result, after he saw so many documents and appraisal certificates, he only felt a sudden buzz in his head, and for an instant, a blank.

‘Is this really true?’ Fan Deng said incredulously, ‘These two pieces are more than five million, then we have smashed so much’

In Fan Deng’s mind, he was reluctant to accept this fact, because it was obvious that if this was all true, then where was the seven hundred thousand he would need to compensate? There was probably no telling how many times that figure was.

‘Oh don’t believe it right?’ Qiao Dong laughed and continued, ‘Below that appraisal certificate is the official website of the auction house, as for the authenticity, you can go and check it out, and you will know the truth from the falsehood then.’

Hearing Qiaodong’s words, Fan Deng hurriedly looked at the bottom of the appraisal certificate, and indeed he saw a web address and a two-dimensional code.

But he was still a bit unconvinced by this thing, after all, it was all something Qiaodong had given himself, what if it was all a forgery by him?

So Qiaodong just used his own phone to check the URLs of the several auction houses on it and proceeded to check them out one by one.

Chapter 300 - Qiao Zhenchuan

Soon after, Fan Deng first looked up the information of an item, but after seeing the information on the auction house’s website, Fan Deng was dumbfounded.

Whether it was the item’s appearance or price, or the name of the auctioneer, it was all exactly the same as the information on the certificates that Qiao Dong had given himself.

And the name was also the same person: Qiao Zhenchuan!

This was Qiao San's real name, and although it wasn't as well known as Qiao San, it didn't stop Fan Deng from realising that this man was Qiao San.

Van Deng panicked and searched for a few more items to compare with the information on their respective official websites, but with each one he found, his face became more and more ugly.

By the end of the day, Fan Deng's face was as blue as a piece of rusted bronze, and his eyes were as wide as bronze bells.

He roughly calculated that if all this was okay, he and his cousin Xue Yuning had dropped more than ten million dollars in one afternoon today.

More than ten million dollars, what had he done?

Fan Deng wanted to cry, he looked at his wife in despair and murmured, 'It's over, do you know what a big trouble you've made?'

Cousin Xue Yuning looked at Fan Deng's expression and knew that things were not good, she was so nervous that she asked, 'Is it true? How much is it?'

Before Fan Deng could open his mouth, he was preempted by Qiao Dong who answered.

'Not much, you have only dropped a total of 13.7 million today.' Qiao Dong sneered and looked at Cousin Xue Yu Ning, saying, 'What, are you satisfied? Surprised or not? Surprised or not?'

‘Thirteen hundred,’ Hearing this figure, Cousin Xue Yuning almost fainted and fell straight into Fan Deng’s arms.

‘No, it’s definitely not true! Hubby, are you sure as well as what you found out is true?’ Cousin Xue Yuning still asked with a reluctant look on her face.

Fan Deng shook his head incomparably frustrated, ‘That’s the official website, how can it be fake? This is a big trouble now!’

Cousin Xue Yu Ning’s face turned pale as she sniffed, and her body felt as if it had been drained of its strength.

‘No, I don’t believe this is real, I see those things are all worn out, how can they be so valuable?’

Fan Deng sniffed and pushed his wife away in some anger, he had no place to vent his anger in his heart and said in a very nasty voice, ‘Are you stupid? All those pieces of junk you mentioned turned out to be antiques, are you satisfied now? You let me smash it for over 13 million dollars, didn’t you? Are you happy now?’

‘I,’ Cousin Xue Yu Ning shook her head with a desperate look on her face, ‘No, I still don’t believe it, if it’s really more than ten million, is he stupid enough to let us lose seven hundred thousand dollars? It must all be fake, don’t worry husband, it must all be fake!’

When Fan Deng heard this, he couldn’t help but be a little puzzled as well, his puzzled gaze falling on Qiao Dong’s body.

Qiao Dong knew that they would definitely ask this in the end, so he smiled, looked respectfully at Jiang Hao and said, ‘Are you guys in over your heads or not? You still haven’t reacted by now? Thirteen million seven hundred thousand, do you think I’m that kind-hearted? Would I wipe out thirteen million in one go?’

Qiao Dong snorted coldly and said solemnly, 'Let me tell you the truth, it was Jiang Shao who gave you the 13 million, but you retarded and blind dogs, not only did you not appreciate it, but you even dared to treat Jiang Shao like that? I'll tell you again, if it wasn't for Mr Jiang and Miss Yu Ning, I would have killed you ten times for what you've done today!'

Qiao Dong's two powerful words caused Xue Yu Ning's cousin's family to stare in awe.

They looked at Jiang Hao with dismayed faces, unable to believe Qiao Dong's words.

'He he shelled out thirteen million? How is this possible?'

Cousin Xue Yu Ning muttered to herself, surprisingly she still didn't believe it and didn't want to believe that it was all true even now.

But not admitting it was just a lie to herself after all, and now that things had come to this point, even a fool would know what was really going on.

Cousin Xue Yuning didn't know what to say, some felt embarrassed, but more than that, she didn't have the face to face Jiang Hao and Xue Yuning anymore, so she silently lowered her head and restrained herself from looking over there.

And Fan Deng felt even more remorseful, now he finally understood what kind of dog he had done before.

He had been so aggressive towards others, but in the end, Jiang Hao was the one who wiped their asses, so even if Fan Deng was hard-hearted, he should have melted.

Besides, Fan Deng is also very concerned about his own face, and now that something like this has happened, he has simply lost all his face.

He had no face to face Jiang Hao.

After hesitating for a long time, Fan Deng gathered his courage, raised his head and spoke softly to Jiang Hao: 'Young Jiang Jiang, I'm really sorry today, I we know we were wrong, everything was wrong for us, we repent, we we are willing to accept any punishment from you!'
