

Forsaken by my Mate

Chapter 12

Nico's POV

Sabrina is angry, which is to be understood in the situation. She figured out quickly I was watching her. I could watch her all day, she moves very smoothly and I cannot wait to get to visit her and see if I can't get her to bend some to my will and accept me as her mate and allow me to mate with her. I hear a knock at my door, and I close down my computer after logging out of the camera in her room. I have the only code to be able to watch her, and I was so glad that she was up and about and looking so cute in the clothes that I had picked out, especially for her to wear.

I buzzed the door open and let them enter. Great, it is Shelby. "What in the hell were you thinking Nico?" Shelby yells at me, and she is pissed. "Why are you bothering me, Shelby?" I will be up in a little bit. I just have a little more paperwork to do, as I was out today" I tell her.

"Yea, out k*****g someone, and then leading them straight to our door. They said war, Nico? What in the hell? I won't be here for any kind of war, Nico. I didn't sign up for this. Why are you just thinking with your d**k? You are going to get us all killed. I thought you wanted to save your pack members, but now you are putting them in harm's way. Do you want us all dead?" Shelby yells at me.

"They will wait on the war end of it. They just want her back. While I have her, we are all still safe, they know she isn't here, but won't put her in more danger by waging war on us. If they kill me, she dies. No one else knows where she is. They will hold off, I know it, and they know it as well. Asher knows me and he won't take the risk, he is very calculated, and he learned from me. He knows that I will have her in a safe place, but one she can't escape from. I will eventually let them have her, but not yet" I tell her.

"How long will you keep her? They are already furious. I know they care enough to actually wage war against us, and I will not let you take me down with you. I won't take the risk of being killed because you want your little mate so much. Start thinking smart Nico, or I swear to you, I will take your pack over. Do you want to lose it? Or are you going to act right? I will not be a part of this war, I saw them, her father and brother were totally serious and those big guys with them too, they would have killed you, but the werewolf council was here. I think that was the only reason that you are still alive. Just give her back, now Nico. You have me, you don't need her. If you just want your do*k wet, it would be my pleasure, Nico. I love to have s*x with you." Shelby said to me, and I growled at her. She stiffened up in surprise and took a step back. I have never growled at her, but she needs to realize that she is NOT a replacement for my true mate.

"Did you just freaking growl at me, Nico? What in the hell are you thinking? You cannot be thinking that she is better for you than!

I keep you up and the pack functioning for years to come, and THIS is how you repay me. By trying to ditch me the second you find your mate. I want to remind you that, you can leave, but your pack members will be staying as this is where they live Nico. They will still be here with me, and they will suffer for your actions. You just try to leave me and see what I do, the pack will be mine, even if you are not here and I will level it to the ground and just leave them if I need to. You will get what is coming to you as well because I will not allow you to be fed me. Ever, I will hunt you down, if it is the last thing that I do, and if I can't have you, your stupid little mate can't have you either, Nico I won't care if I kill you or her, but I bet you will suffer more if I kill her, won't you big guy? So, we WILL still be together, you

WILL take care of my needs, and you will let this stupid little dream of having your mate. Because if it ever becomes a reality, then whatever I do, to punish you, will be on you and not me Nico, you made the deal" Shelby yells at me, and I cannot believe how vile she is. She has never Cared for me at all, other than for what I do for her, and how I make her feel. I wish that I had never met her. She is a disgusting person, and I need to talk to Sabrina and go her route, as I will need help to protect my people.

I heard the door slam closed and I am glad to be alone, but I am not, Shelby closed it, locked it, and is now taking her clothes off.

She comes around to my side of the desk and lays across it, with her thighs spread right in front of me. I remember how Sabrina told me that she feels it every time that Shelby and I are together, and I don't want her to be hurting. I want her to trust me, but this won't be the way for me to get her to trust me, as she will be feeling this,

Shelby leans up on her elbows and gives me a smirk. "You know what I want and need Nico. You need to give me my o****m, just like we do every night. I know you don't want to, but you will just have to get over it. It isn't my fault you found your little mate, but you will be taking care of me. You don't have a choice in it" Shelby lays back onto my desk and opens her legs to me again. I used to enjoy s*x with her, she likes it a little rough, and I was glad to help her out. But now that I know the kind of pain it brings Sabrina, I cannot do

Shelby leans up on her elbows again, and said, "So are we done here? Do you want to go ahead and pack up and leave now? It really is up to you. I could have you replaced tonight if I wanted to, but just remember it is you choosing your mate over your pack. What is your choice, Nico?"

I reach out and push her back down onto my desk, and then get on my knees in front of her, she has won this round. I will explain it to Sabrina. I will try to get this over as quickly as I can. I bring my mouth to her p'y and use my thumbs to spread her open, she is already slick and wet. She enjoyed this argument, and she is ready for me to slide into her now, but I know if I get her closer to her o****m by doing this, then the less pain Sabrina feels, at least I hope so. I drag my tongue up to her clit and her long moan tells me how much she likes what I am doing. I slide my middle finger into her and start moving in and out slowly and I tug a little on her clit with my mouth, and she is squirming on my desk. We have never had s*x in here and I can tell that she is enjoying this a lot. I get her worked up and I am trying to convince myself that I am going to be with Sabrina, and not Shelby. I close my eyes and use my right hand to unzip my pants as my left-hand keeps Shelby ready to go and I apply different amounts of pressure on her clit. My d**k is willing to play along, and I give few tugs with my eyes closed to convince myself that it is Sabrina and line myself up at her entrance, and then slide into her with a quick

Sur thrust. I am trying to convince myself that the warmth around me is Sabrina, but as I am being aggressive with my strokes, I know in my heart that it isn't my innocent mate, begging me to go faster for her, and she starts shaking. I can tell she is about to come apart and push down hard on her clit, and she clamps down on my d**k, and I just go ahead and finish imagining that it is Sabrina taking my seed to give me my pups. I have a smile on my face until I open my eyes and see Shelby with a very satisfied smile on her face.

She sits up after I pull out of her and said, "You made the right choice today, Nico. I knew your pack was important to you. This wasn't so bad, we have always been so good together. No one makes me come harder than you do baby" and she leans forward to kiss me, and I straightened up, so she couldn't reach my mouth. My lips had been on my mate's mouth earlier, and I will not let her take that memory away from me. Shelby frowns at me, and said, "we will discuss that later, Nico. I will see you in bed." She then puts her dress and underwear back on and leaves my office.

I quickly turn on the monitor and pull Sabrina back up, and what I see breaks my heart. She is curled into a little ball, facing away from the camera, but I can tell that she is silently crying at the betrayal. I would call her and explain, but she doesn't have the phone back on the cradle, it is still sitting on the nightstand, and I think the pain would be too fresh for her to talk to me right now anyway.

I sit back down in my chair and look at the ceiling for a minute before looking back at the monitor. Sabrina is now calming down and she covers herself with the comforter and keeps her back to the camera. I hope she stopped crying because knowing she was crying was breaking my heart. I do love her, and I do want her, I just can't seem to figure out a way to have Sabrina and protect my pack. Maybe she should accept her rejection and let her go back to her pack. Before the thought is even complete in my mind, I shoot it down. I will have Jaden tell her that Shelby threatened my pack, and I had to sleep with her, she is my mate, and she will accept that, hopefully, as it is the truth. I know in my heart that she would, as I would be furious if she cheated on me because it was almost the whole reason I wanted her with me, to keep the other unmated males away from her, especially while she was in heat, Shit, her heat, if it was coming every three weeks or so, then she will be on her heat again in the next few days, and I will definitely need to be there for that. I trust Jaden, but this is my mate coming into her heat. I don't want any unmated males around her. Her heat can also help me get with her as well, she won't be able to help herself as her body will override what she is telling her brain.

They get their heat to encourage us to have pups, and her heat will be something that can soften her heart towards me, and I will just have Jaden be on the lookout for it, and I will watch the camera for signs of it as well. I will be with her for her heat, I will be the only thing to provide her comfort in it, and she will be glad for the relief that I provide her. I am hard again just thinking about it, and I literally came 5 minutes ago I will go take a shower and work this problem out on my own, as I cannot sleep with Shelby again tonight. Sabrina wouldn't be able to take it, and really, I don't ever want to touch Shelby again. I just want my beautiful mate in my arms.
