

Forsaken by my Mate

Chapter 23

Bree's POV

I can feel him at my entrance and then he plunges hard into me, and I gave out a long moan. He feels so good inside me. I lower my chest onto the bed and brace my arms in front of me, so I can push back towards him to take him even deeper inside me. Nico starts a vigorous pace as he leans down further onto me and slows for a moment to slowly draw in and then out of me, and he feels so good. Fast or slow, he is my mate and the feelings I get from us being together are like fireworks when I come.

I love Nico so much and each time we are together making love makes me want him even more, and that is the way the Goddess wants it to be. She wants us close and to make children, and to keep our species flourishing. I can feel Nico and his emotions and his love for me pouring into me with each stroke he makes. I can also feel the growls Nico makes as I push back into him allowing him deeper into me and making the possibility of our pups a reality as he continues to work me into a frenzy. He is making my knees weak with my legs shaking and I feel am close, but I never want this feeling to end. I feel so aroused and wish this moment could last forever as he plunges into me again and I cry out my pleasure as I clamp down on him and he cries out his as well as he comes inside me over and over again making him shudder and hold me tightly to him.

I feel empty as he pulls out of me, but he goes to get me a warm rag to clean me off, and then he cleans himself off in the bathroom. We both lay down together with my back to his chest and him holding me to him gently, as if I were the most precious thing that he has. I turn a little to lay on my back so I can look up into his handsome face and I feel lucky, lucky that he is my mate, and I reached up to touch his cheek. He nuzzled my hand, kissed into my palm, and then smiled down at me, and I can feel his happiness and the turmoil that he has inside him.

“What is wrong. I can tell you are upset and struggling? Can I help you with the problem, Nico?” I asked him.

“I love you so much, but I know I can't stay longer than another day or so, I am needed back at my pack. I am struggling as I want to take you back to Stone Moon to your family, but I also need to see you, to know that you are OK and that we will be together again. I am worried if I took you back, I don't mind the ass-kicking I will be getting. I will take it for you, but I won't be able to see you until I get my pack situated. I need to see you and know that you are OK. I just want to keep you here until I get it done, as I feel you are safest here, with Jaden, where Shelby doesn't know where you are” Nico tells me.

“I would be safest with my family, Nico. You know this. I think you should take me home and then allow us to help you. I don't want you going back to Golden Summit. I have a bad feeling about it, and I think you should just let us get our plans together and then come and get your people, Jaden can take care of it in the two days it will take to get a plan together. We can stay together there in my room, and we would be together. I would even allow you to mark me, and I would mark you as well when we got there, so it would be done, and nothing could break us apart I told him, I was hoping that the offer of marking me when we get there would make it irresistible to

“I have faith in Jaden, but I know Shelby will be making it hard on everyone, and I need to make sure everyone is OK. I need all my Date meters to be safe and to get where they are going safely too, it is my pack, and I want to make sure that everything is done well and the best can do for any people. I feel like I am turning my back on them if I don't handle it myself” I told Sabrina, and I felt her stiffen corner of my eye and I don't want him to see it.

“Baby, I would never choose her over you, I chose you when I came here. I can resist her, I can leave her if she gives me the ultimatum again. I do not want to have sex with her again. It is you and me, until death Sabrina. Please have some faith in me, I am stronger than Shelby, she is just a human. What could she possibly do to me? She has no control over me at all, I am an Alpha Sabrina, would be able to beat her at whatever she planned to do. Please look at me. I love you, and I want YOU, not her. I can get this taken care of, but I want you here, where I can keep an eye on you, and she doesn't know where you are to be able to hurt you. You are my only priority, Sabrina. You were given by the Goddess to me, and I want you more than I have ever wanted anything else in my life. Trust me to be able to finish this. I will call Asher the moment I get back and get the plans ready to go. I can be back here to get you and take you to Stone Moon in two days. We can have tonight together, and I can get this done for us. Please have faith in me to know that you are my only love” Nico tells me and turns my face to where he is leaning over me and sees my tears making a trail down the side of my face.

“Baby, you are killing me as I feel your pain. You have not lost me. I am right here, and I will get this taken care of, and then we will

together again” Nico told me and then leans down to give me a kiss.

I don't want to kiss him, as I am really very upset. I can feel it in my heart that if he leaves me, we will be done. Nala links me, “I feel it too Bree, something has happened. He cannot return to Golden Summit. You need to convince him of it, I have a very bad feeling as well”.

I linked her back, “I did try, I even offered to let him mark me when we got there, but he is sure that since she is just a human, there is nothing she can do to break our bond. I am scared Nala, I feel like I will lose him, and now there is nothing that can stop it”. “I will reach out to Roan too, maybe he can get Nico to do the right thing. Still try Bree, I don't know why I feel this, but I feel the same thing that you Nico stops kissing me, as he feels me not responding to it and lays onto his back on the bed and sigh's out in frustration. “Sabrina, why can't you trust me? It will only be two days and then we will be together? Don't you have any faith in me at all, baby?”

“I do have faith in you, but I can also feel it in my gut, I feel like the Goddess is warning me, and Nala, my wolf feels it too. She was going to reach out to Roan as well, for you to just stay with me. I don't know why you can't just listen to me on this. We all feel it, and I already know if you go back, it will be the end of us. Does that not mean anything to you at all? Does what I am feeling not matter to you?

You said I was your priority, but now it is your pack? Only one of us can be a priority to you, Nico. You will be making the decision, but since I still feel it in the pit of my stomach, I know that you have already chosen that you will be going back to your pack. I love you, but I want you to remember this moment. That it was your decision to make, and you CHOSE your pack over me being your mate. I have nothing left to say to you except you are breaking my heart” I told him, and I see the pain of what I just told him cross his face.

“I am not choosing them over you, I just want them to be taken care of Sabrina. Is it so wrong of me to want my pack taken care of?

I want to make sure that they all get where they need to be? I can handle Shelby, why can't you trust me to be able to make my own decisions when it comes to you and her? There is absolutely nothing that she can do to make me pick her, over you. Nothing at all” Nico told me

“Wot even if she is finally pregnant with your baby?” I asked him.

“I know she is, but I don't want to risk it. I don't want to risk it. I don't want to risk it. I don't want to risk it. I don't want to risk it.

and look him directly in his face to let him know how serious I am with what I am saying to him, that I believe what I am telling him.

“There is no need to worry baby, I will have my Gamma there, and I will get this taken care of quickly. I would never cheat on you. I am yours, just as much as you are mine. I love you Sabrina” Nico tells me and pulls me onto his lap, and I continue to cry as I know our fate is sealed. I don't have any hope anymore, other than being rescued from my prison. Nico doesn't believe what I am saying to him, and I already know that he is lost to me, whether he intends it to happen or not, he is no longer mine.
