

Forsaken by my Mate

Chapter 24

Shelby's POV

I picked my potions up and the witch reminded me, that I needed to take the following potion, at the same time next Friday as well, as they only lasted for a week. She said that she would have my next batch ready in three weeks, in case I drank the potion in the 6-day increments to make sure it kept its potency and continued to work well. I am good with it, as if it works it would be more than worth the money that I am spending on it. It is just a drop in the bucket for me.

Thad already drank the first one, and I was surprised at how good it tasted. I waited to see if I felt any different than I normally do, but I don't, I don't feel any different, and I am worried that nothing has happened or changed. I am worried about whether or not the potion is going to work. I knew I had to go ahead and start it now, so as soon as Nico came back, it would already be working. I can't wait on it to work, I need to be prepared for whenever he showed back up.

I am doing my usual trip into the city to meet with Gary, for our usual afternoon together, and we won't have to hurry, as Nico is still gone, and I doubt he will be coming home today. I got there first and got a glass of wine, and into his favorite lingerie set, a little red number that has crotchless panties with it. Gary loves it and I always feel so sexy in it from how he reacts to seeing me in it. I head back into the kitchen to grab another glass of wine when the door opened, and Gary comes into the apartment. I gave him a key almost two years ago after we had been together for almost a year, and I knew I wanted him to be a permanent appointment. We meet up on Mondays and Fridays together when I came into town, without us having to be seen together and rumors get started. I see him catch a glance at me, and he immediately drops his duffle bag and slams the door shut.

I remember when I first met him at a bachelorette party for one of my friends. I was sitting in the chair on the stage, and when he danced on me, I could feel how hard he got while doing it. He approached me after the show while we were all hanging out and he was really attractive. Nico was out of town for an Alpha meeting, so I took Gary home with me that night. Gary was in really great shape, and I found out about 2 months into it, that he was a werewolf too, when he took a sniff of me and smelled Nico on me.

He wasn't happy that I was in a relationship with Nico, but he was willing to overlook that for us to continue to sleep together. Gary had a great body and was really attractive with his dimpled smile, blue eyes, and blonde hair. His 6 pack didn't hurt either and with him being a werewolf his strength was a plus. Gary was really attentive to me in bed and his dancing resulted in us always having a fun time in bed, or in the shower, or against the wall, and he never got tired of me. Gary always looked forward to our time together. I loved how his eyes lit up when he saw me, and he loved to touch me and put my needs even higher than his own.

Gary was willing to make me a priority in his life and had told me before that he loved me a couple of times, but he seemed upset that he had let it slip out to me. He shows me each time we are together that he cares deeply for me. He had lost his mate a few years ago, and he left his pack after his mate died. He just lived in the human world and slept with humans now. Gary doesn't want another mate, he was good with our relationship being like it was.

Gary is across the room quickly and picks me up, and brings a crushing kiss to my lips. I missed him too, and I haven't seen Nico for two days. I really need to get an orgasm soon. I wrap my arms around his neck, my legs around his waist, and I can feel him getting stiller. I listans, against me. I love how quickly he let me know how important I am to him, as he walks backward with me and places me on the island countertop. Gary gives me another kiss before he pushes my top down onto the countertop and leans over to place his mouth on my pussy.

The things that he can do with his mouth I think, as Gary works me into a frenzy and I get to my orgasm quickly. My legs are still shaking, as he rams right into me, as he knows like it a little rough. Gary is pounding into me like it is our first time again, and he groans in pleasure at how I feel to him. That makes me even more excited and rased up a little onto the counter and Gary leans over and pulls a nipple into his mouth through the lace on my lingerie. The feel of his mouth against the lace makes my pussy even more sensitive and I fainted out in pleasure from it. I love getting to sleep with Gary and I decide right now if this all falls apart with Nico, I guess I can just get Gary to come and live here with me. We can be together then, but in my heart, I know I want to stay with Nico.

Gary speeds up and I feel my orgasm coming over me again and I cry out, I tighten up on him and he gives a few more strokes, and then Gary is able to finish too. I feel Gary shudder against me and then smile and bend down to my lips to kiss me and said, "Hey Shel, I was so excited to see you in this, I think I missed that step". I smiled back at him as I know he was glad to see me when he got here.

"Well, I will tell you Gary that you are in luck as I will be here with you for the next 46 hours as I don't have to be back at Golden Summit until Sunday Morning, so we can spend the next 2 days together," I told Gary and I see his eyes light up.

"I was off tomorrow, but I will call out for Sunday so we can spend the whole weekend together. We have never done that before, and I am glad to get to spend extra time with you Shel, we usually only have a few hours together" Gary told me.

Gary helps me off the island and onto the floor and we head to the bathroom, so we can grab a shower. Gary helps me out of my lingerie, and he made me happy by appreciating my form. I watched him as he took his clothes off and I was glad to see his swollen member already ready to go again. I can always count on Gary to want me, he is ready to go at a moment's notice and I know he really does care for me, for him it is more than just sex. I was scared to ask him if he really did love me because I was not ready to leave Nico unless I had to. As good as Gary is, I still am more attracted to Nico, and being Luna for Golden Summit.

The temperature in the shower was perfect and I got in first and started washing my hair. I feel Gary get in behind me, and he starts washing me with my body wash and starting with my breasts. This was the first time that we have had the time to shower together, and it was really nice. I conditioned my hair and then turned towards him and lathered up my hands so I can help him get clean too. I got a firm grip on his cock and start with a slow tug on it, and he groaned as I started moving faster and faster for him. I worked him up and got him ready to cum, and I slowed down, to toy with him.

I gave him a smirk and he leaned down and took my lips in a heated kiss and I opened my mouth to let him thrust his tongue inside and swirl around my tongue. I feel Gary pull on my tongue with his, and I nip his bottom lip as we end the kiss. We rinsed off and Gary gets on his knees to help dry me off and he really does make me feel like a queen, he has always put me on a pedestal, and I feel guilty that I haven't treated him as well as I should have, I always just treated him like he was a business transaction, which was why I continued to pay him for being with me. I will do better for Gary because I do care for him, and that starts tonight.

I pull his arm to get him up from the floor and then wrapped my arms around his neck, and I kissed him with passion as I walked backward, back into the bedroom. I turned and let him get on the bed first and I sat next to him and leaned down to lick his cock from the base, all the way up the shaft to the head, and Gary jumped in surprise and smiled at me.

I look him into my mouth and worked around the head of his cock, before giving a good suck on his cock to pull him further into my mouth. I don't do this very often, but I was still confident in my abilities, as I haven't had complaints. I feel Gary's hands in my hair and pushing his cock up to go further into my mouth and I try to control my gag reflex as he almost hits my throat. I pull him out of my mouth, and I start dimbing onto his tap, hovering just above him. I am already wet, and ready to go, and I reached down to line him up at my entrance I slowly slid down on him, taking him fully into me and I gave a moan in approval of how full it felt.

I start out slowly and I build my speed up, Gary is holding my waist and pulling me down harder, and he rises up as well. I feel the tartar feeling coming on and layout as I cum, and I feel Gary grab my waist harder as my channel tightens up on him and helps him cum as well. I get off of him and lay down with my back to his chest, and he wraps me in his arms and kisses my shoulder.

I could get used to this, but I am still going to wait and see if I could keep Nico. I like being the top woman in the pack, and people respecting and taking care of me there. Even though I can't keep his mark on his body. I love being Luna of Golden Summit. I love Nico too, and I want to stay there with him for as long as I can. I know Gary would wait for me anyway, as he didn't know that he could even be a permanent option for me, and he would be willing to do that. He could have a better life with me, and it is nice having that option, just in case I need it.
