

Forsaken by my Mate

Chapter 25

Bree's POV

I woke up feeling warm and safe in Nico's arms. I lay there for a while thinking and stayed still as I did feel good with his scent surrounding me. I try not to get mad at the situation and realized that this was probably our last day together here at the house, as he would probably be leaving tomorrow morning. I will miss him so much. He tried to charm me into letting him mark me, but I can't take that chance. That was why I made the deal with him that if he would just take me home, and stay there with me, while his pack got taken care of by my brothers, his Beta Jaden, and his Gamma James, I would let him mark me.

I cannot take the risk of him abusing my trust again or Goddess forbid sleeping with Shelby again. He always has an excuse for why he hurts me, and I just cannot allow it anymore. There has to be a line, and I have to be strong and make him realize that I can't just keep allowing him to hurt me and then go, "oops." The last time he did it was right after I told him how much it hurt me for him to sleep with Shelby, and they sleep together every day. I know that she knows that it causes me pain, and that is why she does it. I am the only one who ends up being hurt and punished by it. I can't keep allowing them this kind of power over me.

Nico needs to either choose me, and come with me to Stone Moon, or let me go. I still have that bad feeling in my gut, and I just can't play along and act like I am OK with him going back there when I know that it will end badly. I know she is a human, and can't physically hurt him, but since dealing with her for over two months, I already know that she is a horrible person who will do absolutely anything to get what she wants, and she wants Nico. There is nothing that I would put past her at this point. She will not let me have him, and I can't shake this feeling. I know he thinks I am being paranoid or his pride is just thinking that he will appear weak if he can't control a mere human, but that is not it at all. I am completely scared that whatever she has planned for him will result in me losing him forever, because she will not let him live if she can't get him to comply with her wishes. Or him losing me forever because I told him if he slept with her again, we will be done, forever. I can't see anything else happening that she can control, except those two things. He has failed me before, and I guess I have more faith in how manipulative she can be than him being able to control her.

I feel Nico tighten his arms around me and I guess he can feel me getting upset. I am upset, upset that he doesn't see the forest for the trees. That he doesn't see this looming before us like a big billboard telling us both to be careful. I guess his pride is taking the lead on this. He wants to take care of his people, even though they will not be his people for long. He wants to deal with Shelby, but she wants him more than anything else in her life. This can't end well for me, and I will speak with him again. I will beg him if I have to, but I already know his mind is already made up.

Nico already let Nala know that Nico is going back to Golden Summit and that he had told him to not go back there either. Roan can feel it too, just like Nala and did, Nico is just too f****g stubborn to admit that he really didn't want to lose his pack like that. Well, I hidrottw's flash for hurt, it won't end like that, because if he screws me over again, I don't care what I have to do. I will make bloody sure for of the people go to any of my friends on my ownpack. He can keep his stupid human Luna and his people in his pack. I mean he allowed Shelby to pay to get to be in Luna, he can go ahead and carry on with it. He was OK with it before, he can just keep on doing it, as
