

Her Cold-Hearted Alpha by Moonlight Muse Chapter 111

My World

ALEJANDRO

" It's not fucking too much ? " I asked , looking at the suit that I had selected out earlier from the options that Kevin had bravely brought for me . I'm fucking surprised he had the cheek to choose a few .

I usually always wore black pants , a shirt and a jacket . Done . But today he had brought some waistcoats and shit too , and I had actually spent three fucking minutes to pick something out . Fuck , it was weird to even admit , but I was dressing up to impress a woman ...

I now looked in the mirror , freshly groomed and looking good , I had to admit . Tonight , this was it ... I was making her my Luna , my Queen and claiming her as my mate . "

Need help with the tie , Alpha ? "

Kevin asked .

I shot him a withering death glare . " No. I can fucking manage . " I growled . I didn't wear ties ... well , usually ... This time I would ... and I'd do it myself . I managed after a few minutes , trying to ignore those fuckers , Darien and Kevin , exchanging looks . Both were at least smart enough to know not to approach me .

I finished sleeking my hair back and turned to Darien , who was dressed smartly in a dark grey suit . ' Did you make sure my reservation and everything was complete ? ' He smirked cockily . ' Oh yeah , it'll be perfect .

' He replied . I gave a curt nod and walked out of the room , I was at

Darien's place as Serena said it was better not to see Kiara until she was ready . I could tell how much happier my pack members were for Kiara becoming Luna .

There had been no excitement from them when I had chosen Jasmin , although many approved of her , she had not won them over the way my nympho had . Walking towards the training grounds , I smirked as music filled my ears , satisfied at how brightly it was lit. I didn't want Kiara to be restricted in any way .

The décor was in the lightest shade of pink and ivory .
So , my baby girl was wearing these colours . Overhead , fairy lights and flowers were hung across . There were garlands wrapped around the entire low wall that surrounded the area , with lanterns sitting amidst the flowers . The few trees around were completely covered in lights . The ground was strewn with petals in pinks , champagne and red .
A cream – coloured carpet was rolled out down the centre , lined with lanterns , and scattered with petals as well . There were a few barrels holding flower arrangements set around all over . On both sides were long tables holding lanterns and flowers . To the left was the buffet of food , and to the right was the drink bar .
Straight ahead , the largest tree was illuminated in lights and beneath it was a small table , with a few items on it , including a long thing box that contained something I specifically picked out myself . Under that tree , was where I would mark her ...
There was an open space for dancing , or in the current case , for kids to run around . Wasn't it way past their bedtime ? Upbeat music was playing on a moderate volume and the entire pack who were not on patrol were here .
I wouldn't admit it , but it felt better than the grand event planned for Jasmin and me . " Do you like it ?
Serena asked Kiara what she wanted . She only said that she'd like it if the entire pack could come , everyone . Darien said ,
" I saw that the omegas were all here too , although they were all helping out . Kiara truly was a Queen . I gave a curt nod . ' How many Alphas or Betas have come ? ' I mind linked . ' As you advised them not to . Seven , plus five from the council members . '
Darien replied . " Good . " I said , spotting Kennan and Allen . Scanning the area , I saw Elijah was in a deep maroon suit as he talked to Rafael who was wearing navy , both holding a drink . Seems like none of our women were here .

I walked forward and everyone fell silent . Despite having my aura suppressed , everyone turned to look at me , feeling my presence as the crowd parted . I walked through the centre and stopped at the front near the tree . " You look admirable , my king . "

" Kennan said . I simply gave him a blank cold look and he looked away nervously . " We will proceed with the marking after some drinks and meeting and greeting ? " Allen added . " Yeah , whatever . " I said , turning my back on them .

" My , my , my ... is this our Alejandro ? Brother , you look amazing ! " Raf the fucker said from behind me . I turned towards him , shoving my hands into my pockets . " Shame I can't say the same about you , what the fuck are you wearing ? "

" I said , giving him a once over . Elijah smirked cockily . " You do look a little different , seems like you actually put some effort in . " " I frowned , I was not fucking happy about those punches from earlier . "

" What the fuck is this ? Some fucking dressing up contest that you're all interested in what the fuck I'm wearing ? " Where the fuck was that fucker , Kevin ? This was his fucking fault ... I frowned , seeing the fucker making out with Adam in the far corner . Dick . " You know , brother , you really need to relax . Don't stress out ... You're going to mark your mate today . That should de stress you . " Rafael said with a wink . Darien snickered .

" Yeah , or there are other ways . " He remarked . That made Elijah frown , and course , it made me smirk . Oh , now I have an idea . " True . " I said arrogantly , my eyes fixed on the dickhead . " So , want me to call you dad ? " His eyes flashed , " No thanks . " " Pops then ? Maybe ? " I taunted . " Al ... " Rafael said nervously as Elijah became increasingly and royally pissed off . I would have made a baby joke right now , but I had made it clear it was to remain a secret ... shame ...

" Well , he better get used to it , because like it or not , Kiara is ... " I trailed off , my heart thudding when her scent hit me , and I turned sharply towards the entrance .

Not caring that the three men gave me a curious look , moments later they realised what I had picked up . " He's totally in love ... " I heard Rafael in the distance , but I zoned them all out , my focus on the woman who was not yet in sight . The rhythm of her heart , I knew which one was hers ... her shaky breath ... her intoxicating chocolatey scent ... Everyone fell silent as a soft song came on and all eyes turned to the women who stepped in . Scarlett was in the middle in red .

She definitely was Kiara's mother with her confidence and curves , but she definitely couldn't compare to her daughter . She was flanked by Raven and Serena , I could see a hint of ivory from behind , as they reached the entrance to the training grounds My heart was fucking pounding , as the three women exchanged looks and stepped aside to reveal my fucking queen . She looked ...

There were no words to describe her ... Her gown spread around her , accentuating her slender shoulders , perfect fucking breasts , her hands held against her narrow waist , slim rings on several of her fingers . Her chest rose and fell with each breath she took , her eyes fixed on me as I slowly looked into her beautiful face . It was like nothing else existed .... It was just her and I ... An enchantress working her charm , one whose spell had already captured me completely .

With each step she took towards me , my heart seemed to be thudding as loud as hers . She looked me over ; her cheeks tinted a beautiful hue of pink , her hair tickling her cheek , her ears glittering with her earrings .

She was perfection , beauty and heaven combined . A package of such dangerous temptation that all I wanted was to worship every fucking inch of her body , again and again . I moved forward , closing the gap between us , taking hold of her waist and pulling her against me . She gasped at my move , our eyes meeting . " You look ... out of this fucking world ... " I said huskily .

My nose brushed hers , and her breath hitched . Her scent clouded my senses . " Beyond fucking beautiful . " I raised one hand to her cheek , brushing it softly , as I looked down at her plump , pink coated lips .

" I have to say ... You yourself look incredibly sexy ... . " She whispered , biting her lip as she ran her hands over my chest until she wrapped them around my shoulders . " Good to know . " I replied . Her body was moulded completely against me , and I was fucking feeling the heat rushing south as all I wanted was to kiss her senseless .

I cupped the back of her neck claiming her lips with mine . She gasped against my lips before kissing me back . The sweet taste of her mouth was like a fucking intoxicating drug , and it took my all not to fucking groan in pleasure . Our lips moved in sync , like a dance that we had perfected . She sighed softly and it only made me hold her tighter .

Her heart was racing and I didn't give a fuck that all eyes were on us . She was mine and I was hers . And I wanted everyone to fucking know . She gasped for air , and I broke away , when I smelt the first hint of her arousal .

My eyes darkened as I looked into her vibrant purple ones . I smirked as I bent closer , my lips grazing her ear . " As much as I want to carry on ... Amore Mio ... I'd rather I be the only one to be able to smell how intoxicating you are ...

" I whispered into her ear , letting my tongue flick out . She gasped at my move , her blush only darkening . I smirked in amusement , my nose grazing her cheek . This was how I wanted my life , forever ... with her by my side . Forever .

I was brought out of my thoughts as Rafael came over . " You look beautiful , Kiara . " He said , taking her hand and kissing it gently . He gave me an annoying grin and I knew he was trying to irritate me . Shame .

I knew h e thought of Kiara as a niece for far too long . He wiggled his brows at me and I raised an eyebrow . When he realised it wasn't going to work , he dropped her hand gently . " Thank you , you look good too . " Kiara replied , ever the polite one . I held her close , kissing her bare shoulder softly . My eyes took in the shimmer that coated her body .

I couldn't wait to undress her ... Elijah and Scarlett approached us . Elijah let go of Scarlett and looked at Kiara . I couldn't read the emotions that stormed his eyes , as he held his arms out to her . " Not going to give your dad a hug ?

" He asked quietly . " Dad ... " She whispered , pulling away from me and rushing into her dad's arms . He hugged her tightly , as she wrapped her arms around his neck . " You look beautiful , Angel .

" He whispered , kissing the side of her head . Scarlett watched them with a slightly sad expression on her face , and I realised this was it . For them , they weren't only giving her away , but she would lose that pack link with them . That connection ...

The thought fucking sucked , and I prayed the Moon Goddess never gave me a daughter because I now understood those emotions that I saw in Elijah's eyes , and they didn't seem like something I ever wanted to experience .

" I'll always be here for you , even if you don't need me anymore . Just remember you always have your dad on your side . " He whispered quietly to her . " " Don't say that , I will always need you . " She whispered , her voice breaking .

" Don't make her cry , come on guys . " Scarlett said , trying not to cry herself as she took a deep breath , fanning her face . I clenched my jaw as the father – daughter duo broke apart . Kiara looked at me , her eyes filled with unshed tears and her hand still on her father's shoulder . Ok , I'm going to fucking say it .

Fuck it . For Kiara . I looked Elijah in the eye , before exhaling . " You know I'm way fucking stronger than you ; you don't need to worry about her . I'll protect her with every fucking thing I have .

Probably isn't believable coming from a fucker like me , but you should at least know that when I say I'm going to do something , I do it . I can't fucking guarantee that I'll never hurt her ... but I will try my fucking hardest not to .

She's become my world , my purpose to live , my everything ... I do love her , even if that may be hard to believe . " I said , looking away . Maybe I fucking shouldn't have said it ... I saw Scarlett's smile , as she brushed away her tears .

Rafael's shit – eating grin was annoying , but I made sure my face was as emotionless as ever as I looked at Elijah square in the eye ... KIARA His words sent my heart into a frenzy , my eyes blurring .

He didn't even realise how much he had changed from the first time I met him . I watched him hide his emotions and my heart ached to go to him . I looked at dad , wishing he understood my baby wasn't heartless .

To my surprise , he had a small smile on his face . He took my hand that rested on his shoulders and kissed it gently .

" I don't really doubt that ... I've seen the change Kiara's brought into your life ... and you do deserve to live that life ... you are ... " He took a deep breath as Alejandro looked at us , a flash of surprise in his eyes

" I always knew my Angel deserved the best ... And I suppose she was destined for greatness ... born to be a queen . Your queen . I know she'll be taken care of . So I'll admit it ... that I don't think there is anyone more suited for her than you ...

" Dad said , almost pouting as he said it . 11 Oh , goddess , these men ... I smiled , thinking I actually loved their relationship . Dad looked at me and took my hand , moving it towards Alejandro's .

A frown crossed his handsome face as he glanced at Dad . I think he wasn't expecting that from Dad ... but it was he who had made that first move .

I was so proud of him . His eyes now met mine and he held his hand out , allowing Dad to place my hand in his . Sparks shot through us , as our hands touched . Sending my heart racing , he was perfect , perfect for me . Our eyes met and I smiled . Life felt perfect . Other people began moving forward , greeting and congratulating us . Someone passed us glasses of champagne and I had to admit the evening was off to an amazing start . We even video – called Damon and Liam . I took plenty of pictures and selfies , I even managed to force Alejandro to take a few pictures with me , although he was looking at me in every single one .

” Alpha Alejandro ... Shall we ? ” Allen said , coming over to us . Alejandro looked at me , and I nodded . ” Let’s get this done ... ” He said , placing his hand around my waist and leading me to the tree that stood in the centre , dazzling with hundreds of lights . Allen cleared his throat and I remembered the words he had used last time , I frowned ever so slightly as he began . ” As requested , I will keep this short . Welcome everyone . Today our king will mark his true mate . ” He chuckled , and I felt relieved .

I didn’t want memories of that night to come back ... or for this to go just like that day . Although the memory was no longer as painful , I still didn’t want to think of it . Alejandro kissed my lips softly , as he held me against himself .

I expected Alpha Allen to continue , but it was Alejandro who now turned to me .. ” Do you , Kiara Westwood , daughter of the Blood Moon Pack Alpha’s , agree to rule by my side as my Queen , my Luna and my true mate ?

To take the Night Walkers Pack as your home and your family ? ” He asked . My heart thundered in my chest as I looked at him and he took both my hands i n his , his thumbs caressing my knuckles a she searched my eyes , waiting for my answer .

” I do , I will do my best to do justice to my title and my responsibility as your Queen and Luna , and to accept The Night Walkers Pack as my own . ” I said softly , ‘ And above all ... I accept you , Alejandro Rossi , King of Werewolves as my one and only mate . The love of my life , the beat of my heart and the light of my day . ” A small half – smile lingered on his lips as several people cheered and hooted , and I knew Raven was one of them . ” Then let’s get this shit over with .

” He said softly , a sexy predatorial smirk crossing his lips as he yanked me against him , making me gasp .

” I’ve been wanting to do this for far too fucking long ... ” ” No one’s stopping you ...

” I replied seductively , gripping his upper arms as I tilted my head to the side , giving him full access to my neck . My stomach knotted as he licked his lips . His teeth elongated , his eyes glowed red , as he snaked one arm around my waist .

The other now going to the back of my head , loosely gripping my hair as he bent down . My heart was pounding with excitement , anticipation and need . His scent wrapped around me and I gasped when his canines pierced my skin .

A strong , sizzling current rushed through me , spreading through my entire body like thousands of electrical sparks . Each one erupted when it reached the pit of my stomach . I clenched my thighs together , feeling the pleasure of it drowning me . A sigh of pure ecstasy escaped me , but I didn’t care , nor could I stop it ...

My eyelids fluttered shut as his lips touched my neck , kissing me softly before he extracted his teeth .

Licking up the blood , as he breathed heavily against my neck . I clung to him weakly . If he was not holding me , I would have collapsed .

There was silence around us , only the soft music played and the beat of a hundred hearts . ” My turn ....

” ” I whispered , feeling light headed , I could feel the bond strengthening already . ” Can’t wait ...

” He murmured as my shaking fingers undid his tie and buttons . Goddess , did he choose so many things for me to deal with on purpose ? But I had to admit , he looked so good that I had wanted to jump him the moment I saw him .

He was mine , all mine . Finally , I had his buttons open . My fingers played with the necklaces he always wore . I don't think my mark was going to show up on his neck with all those tattoos . I smiled softly , but it didn't matter .

He tugged my head upwards , looking into my eyes . I saw the flash of guilt in his eyes , before he kissed me deeply . I kissed him back , hoping he could feel my emotions , feel that I was ok with it ... I pulled away , before I held his shirt back , kissing him softly before I bit into his neck , my canines piercing his skin . I moaned softly as I felt him throb against my stomach . The completion of the bond caused a storm of emotions to rush through me .

Emotions that were not all mine .

A very quiet groan escaped him and he held me tightly , I moved back , licking the wound before I kissed it , pouring my healing into it . I looked at his neck , smiling proudly as I saw the mark ; a white – grey wolf , set with purple eyes .

I was wrong ... It stood out .... perfectly ... ' How does it look ? ' He asked in my head , and I smiled . '

Perfect . ' I replied . I could feel his emotions and I knew he could feel mine ; the happiness , the need , the love , the desire ...

He forced his gaze away and reached for the knife that stood on the small table behind him . He took my hand , I smiled gently as he frowned deeply before making a small cut on my palm . He sliced his own a lot deeper before we joined our hands . I felt the strong current of the pack pack link snapping completely into place , and the link opened to a hundred more .

At the same time , I felt my old one break . It was a special and sad moment all at once . But one , that I wouldn't trade for anything . Not now , not ever ... Everyone clapped and cheered before Alejandro stepped back .

His arm wrapped around me as he turned to the crowd , pulling me against his chest , my back to him . ”

I present to you , your Queen and Luna , Kiara ! ” He said before kissing my neck , sending strong sparks coursing through me .

I looked up at the night sky , smiling up at the bright glowing moon , nestled in the middle of the blanket of darkness . I smiled softly , it felt like Selene herself was gazing down upon us ...

Loving You Tonight

KIARA

I stepped forward when I suddenly froze , the shooting pain that seemed to always accompany me when I wore heels stubbornly seemed to have eased . I shifted my weight to the ankle fully .

My heart skipped a beat when I didn't feel that jarring pain that had become a part of my life . ” Are you ok , Amore Mio ? ” He asked , concerned . ” My ankle ... It's not hurting like normal ...

I heard Mom gasp as she looked at Dad . ” Mates strengthen one another ... It could be that your healing is faster now as you are mated to a Lycan . ” She said . I looked at Dad , who seemed too stunned to even say anything . I turned back to Alejandro .

” It doesn't hurt at all ... ” I said softly , feeling shocked . I had never allowed my ankle to hold me back , it had never defined who I was . I was strong then and I am strong now . But with that pain vanishing with each passing second , I felt overwhelmed and it didn't feel real . ” I'm glad . ” He whispered , tugging me back into his arms . a He truly was . As he rocked me gently , his heart thundering like a galloping horse , I could feel his happiness , his love and his urge to keep me protected from everything . ‘ You ... cured me ... ‘ ” There was nothing to cure ...

You were just waiting for me .

‘ He replied , his lips meeting mine in a deep kiss . It was cut short as Raven hurried over , her eyes wide as she did her best to wait for our kiss to end . Her heart was hammering as she looked at me with tear filled eyes . " Really ? " She said . " Really ... " " I said softly . She sniffed and nodded , " That's great . "

She said , before pulling me into her arms for a tight hug . I fought back my own tears as Mom stepped forward . " Congratulations on becoming Luna and on your marking ... My baby girl has grown up . " She said softly , cupping my face as she gently wiped my tears away before looking at my neck .

" It looks beautiful ... It's different . " She glanced at Alejandro , trying to grab a look at his neck . He gave her a cold glare before moving his shirt back , allowing her a quick look . " It stands out

" Mom said proudly . Raven snapped a picture of my neck and I took the phone from her , looking at what was forming to be a crown , with three claw marks . It was dark , completely black with a hint of red that seemed to shimmer . It wasn't fully healed yet , but I knew it would be just beautiful when it was completely healed .

Many pack members , as well as the visiting Alphas and Beta's , came to say congratulations . Some even complimented Dad that they could see his daughter becoming a fine Queen . " Food will be served soon ! " Darien called as Alejandro kissed my shoulder . My heart thudded and I realised the effect he had on me was so much stronger now . We were one ... "

There's one more thing ... I want to do tonight . Well , for now . " He added with an arrogant smirk , making me blush .

I heard a few people laugh and I poked my tongue out at him . " Which would be ? " I asked as I fixed his collar and re - tied his tie . Although everyone was helping themselves to the food , I knew many eyes were on us , or ears .

He went quiet as he took my hands and led me to the brightly lit tree . His brows furrowed as he looked at me with those dark eyes of his . " I owe you an apology " Alejandro , you've already- " I cut in , I didn't need him to apologise in front of his pack , and he already had .

" Not for what I'm about to apologise for . Around fourteen years ago ...
a little girl gave me a flower ... to thank me for saving her ... " He began .
The pain and guilt he felt rushed through me before he blocked it off . I frowned , I knew he meant me ,
but when did I give him a flower ?
He looked u p at me , his eyes softening as he took a deep breath , letting a memory of long ago fill my mind . A memory I saw through his eyes . 2 ) I recognised myself , a child telling him that I was helping him smile ... pushing at the corner of his mouth ... holding out a flower that he tossed aside and stepped on The tears in my eyes ...
I gasped as the memory suddenly vanished and I looked u p into his guilt – filled eyes .
" I'm sorry for that ... Little did I know that same girl would grow up to be the only one who could bring me true happiness . " He said softly , letting go of my hands .
He picked up the slim long box that was on the table . Opening it , he placed the box down and took out one single beautiful deep red rose . My heart pounded at his sweet , perfect gesture as he held it out to me . I took it , staring up into his eyes .
" It won't make up for that day ... But ... even back then , you didn't see me as a monster ... You were brave , strong and so pure – hearted that I didn't think you'd survive this world ...
" He said quietly . ' Survive me ' he added , through the link . My heart ached at how he saw himself , wishing he could feel and see how I saw him . I inhaled the flower , I would cherish i t forever , I knew that much .
I wrapped my arms around his neck , letting my emotions fill him . His eyes softened and h e wrapped his arms around my waist , as h e rocked me gently to the music . ' I love you , ' I whispered through the link
. ' Fucking love you too . ' He replied as I closed my eyes , letting him sway us .

I rested my head on his chest , enjoying the moment . We were lost in one another , no longer remembering that there were others around us . No one told us to come eat , or disturbed us , letting us remain in each other's arms for as long as we wanted ...

" Where are we going ? " I asked as we stopped by a car , thanks to the dazzling flash of light I saw that it was a sleek matt black car . " Let's just say .. to complete our mating night ? " He suggested with a sexy smirk .

I raised an eyebrow despite the desire that pooled between my legs . " Weren't you the one who said you would wait until our date ? " He pulled me into his arms , sending off strong sparks , and I gasped , looking into his eyes .

" I said I'm going to fuck you after our date , I never said I wouldn't make love to you tonight . " He said huskily , making my already fluttering stomach go even crazier . His lips brushed my shoulder , sending a shiver of pleasure through me .

" I'm sure that's not what you said ... " I whispered , trying to focus , when all I could think of was the ache that needed satiating . " Oh ? Well , you just became queen and I intend to dedicate the night to worshipping every inch of your divine body ...

One way or another ... " He murmured , making my breath hitch . My heart was pounding as our lips met in a hungry kiss full of passion and love . " We need to go , before I take you right here . " He groaned , opening the car door and helping me inside .

I looked at the rose I still held in my hand , smiling softly . This is a moment I will never forget ... not now ... not ever ... We had driven around thirty minutes , and I was led into a lavish penthouse .

I swear we looked like a newly married couple , and I felt like it too . The moment we entered the penthouse , Alejandro scooped me up into his arms bridal style and carried me through to the bedroom .

My heart was pounding and although we had sex before ... something about tonight was different . Was it because we were in love ? We were mated and marked ? I wasn't sure , but I knew it would be so much more special .

The room was dimly lit. Behind us , I could see the ceiling to floor windows that gave a view of the spread out city and the glittering lights . I placed my flower on the bedside drawer , as I looked up at Alejandro .

He removed his jacket and waistcoat .

His glowing red eyes locked with mine . The moment he had unbuttoned his cuffs , he leaned over and kissed my lips passionately . Slowly pushing me onto my back as his kisses got more sensual , his hands roaming my waist , he found the zipper and tugged it down .

My heart thumped as his tongue slipped into my mouth , pleasure consuming me . His hand slipped into my dress , caressing my back . I moaned softly as the strong , delicious sparks coursed through me .

I began undoing his shirt buttons , wanting to feel him entirely against me . He cupped my face and neck as he began kissing me down my neck , licking his mark that was almost healed . I shivered in pleasure as he went lower , sliding my dress off as he did .

I managed to get his shirt off , tossing it aside , running my hands over his muscular body . Heat and desire coursed through me as our bodies moulded together .

Oh Goddess , you truly did give me a god ... He pulled my dress down , revealing my bare breasts . His eyes darkened before he moved back and pulled the dress off completely with one smooth pull as if it weighed nothing , tossing it aside , his eyes never leaving me once .

" And I thought you weren't expecting tonight to happen . " He murmured , brushing his knuckles down my hip , I knew he meant the fact that my entire body was covered in shimmering bronzer .

" Maybe I wanted it to happen , I mean , I wanted you . You're the one who was holding out . " I whispered , tugging him by his necklace and on top of me . " Now fuck me like there's no tomorrow . " . "

I intend to .

" He whispered , his body pressed against mine as he kissed me deeply . This was pure bliss . With every kiss and caress , I could feel his need , his want , and his love for me . I closed my eyes as he went lower , cupping my breasts as he licked and sucked on the nipples . I moaned as his tongue traced its way along the curve of my breast and along my underarm , making me wriggle under him , feeling his hard shaft pressing against me . " Oh Alejandro ... " I moaned . He didn't reply , kissing me down my stomach . The slow , agonising kissing only made my core ache even more . I was soaking wet for him and even when he brushed his nose against my panties , I wanted more

I opened my legs for him , but he only placed a soft kiss over my panties , making my breath hitch . " Oh fuck .... " He wasn't done , moving away as he kissed my inner thighs , before he reached up and claimed my lips once again .

His hands stroked my ass and flipped me onto my stomach . Kissing me down my back , his hands cupped my breasts from behind , twisting and pinching my nipples as he went lower .

My ass pressed against him and I was satisfied when I heard him groan . His fingers hooked my tiny g – string and tore it off , making me gasp as the fabric rubbed against me before he tossed the shredded garment aside . " You're fucking wet , Amore Mio.

" He whispered , grabbing my hips and propping me up on my knees . I spread my legs , wishing he'd fuck me . I wanted him inside " Not yet ... patience , sweetheart ... " I blushed , realising he could hear my thoughts and he knew exactly what he was doing to me .

He placed kisses over my ass , his fingers now reaching my core , finally rubbing my pussy , before allowing his fingers to slip between my folds and rub my clit . He licked and sucked my ass , his fingers getting closer to my entrance .

He pushed two in and I cried out as pleasure erupted inside me , his tongue licking me along my ass . "

Oh , fuck Alejandro ... ” I whimpered as he began rimming my ass . His fingers thrust into my pussy at an agonisingly pleasurable speed .

His fingers curled against my g – spot before he slid them out and plunged them back in . The combined pleasure made me arch my back , as I braced my weight on my hands . drowning in a haven of pleasure that only he could give me . ” That’s it ... oh ! ” I gasped as he sped up , his tongue darting into me .

I blushed , but I didn’t feel embarrassed . This was my mate , and I could feel how much this was turning him on . I could feel his self – restraint weakening . I felt myself nearing and I didn’t need to tell him as I moaned in pleasure .

” Oh , fuck , that’s it , baby ... ” He slapped my ass as he moved back , his fingers still inside me as he reached down , wrapping his arm around my waist and pulling me up against him , then making his way to my clit .

He nibbled and sucked my neck , as my cries filled the room . Both hands inflicting pleasure on m y pussy

. I let out a scream of sheer ecstasy when m y orgasm erupted through me , my eyes stinging with tears at the absolute force of pleasure that rocked my body . I tumbled forward on the bed ,

I could hear the sound of my juices as he fucked me with his fingers again . His other finger rubbed my clit relentlessly until I had ridden out the waves of pleasure . He let go , tapping my ass before he squeezed it . My body was still shaking from the immense pleasure that had overtaken me . He kissed my shoulder and back softly , allowing me to recover from my orgasm .

” Oh , fuck baby . ” I breathed as he licked his mark , kissing it softly .

Sending a jolt through me . ” You’re fucking perfect . ” He murmured , flipping me onto my back before he pinned my legs to the bed and kissed me down there . I gasped at how sensitive I was already feeling .

‘ When I’m done with you , you’ll be begging for me to stop ‘ His husky voice came through the link . Just the words sent a throbbing ache to my core , and I moaned in pleasure as he licked my juices up before he began to eat me out .

Only awakening more illicit desire within me . I pulled him up for a passionate kiss before shoving him backwards on the bed . " My turn . " I said breathlessly .

I kissed him down his chest , but I didn't waste time because there was one thing I wanted , and I would have it tonight . I unbuckled his belt and unzipped his pants , pulling them off , with a little help from him

. Dropping to my knees on the ground , facing his crotch . " Aren't you a little impatient , Amore Mio ?

" He breathed . I ran my hand over his hard shaft , pulling his fitted designer boxers down . Oh , he was all mine . I licked my lips as I looked at his thick , long girth . My heart was pounding as I ran my hand over it licking my lips . " Want to fuck my mouth , baby ? " I asked with a small pout , pressing my breasts together

His eyes flashed and I didn't wait for an answer as I licked the tip . He clenched his jaw and I smiled with pure satisfaction as I watched pleasure contort his face . Running my tongue along his entire length .

I loved the feel of every inch of him , feeling every vein and ridge , the way he tasted and throbbed against my lips . I moaned against him , feeling my core throb . He was so fucking huge , and I couldn't wait for him to fuck me all over again .

I took his tip in my mouth , my eyes widening as I realised I could barely take him . He smirked cockily , sitting up slightly so he could watch me . " That's it , baby girl . " He groaned .

I bobbed on his shaft , feeling him throb as his hand tangled in my hair , guiding me , my mouth stretching against him . I breathed through my nose , allowing him to guide me , every thrust hitting the back of my throat .

My hand wrapped around what I couldn't take in my mouth , pumping with the same rhythm . He growled deeply as he began thrusting roughly into my mouth . ‘ Oh , fuck baby ! ‘ I moaned through the link .

His thrusts got faster and I could barely breathe , but all I wanted was to make him come . I gripped his thigh with one hand , I began sucking on him as he thrust into me . ‘ I’m fucking near , baby . ‘ He mind linked .

Then let me taste you . ‘ His eyes flashed , his hand tightening in m y hair as he continued his delicious assault on my mouth . My own core was dripping and I moaned in pleasure when h e finally shot his load into my mouth . I swallowed what I could , moving back as I sucked on his tip , my hand pumping his cock at the same time .

Milking him for all he was worth . My eyes fixed on his face , loving the look of pure pleasure that graced his face . ” Fuck Amore ... . ” He breathed , yanking me up . His lips met mine in a hot , rough kiss .

He lifted me into his lap and kissed me hard , before he dropped back onto the bed and rolled me over .

He throbbed against m e and I bit my lip in anticipation . ” I want you . ” I whispered , my nails digging into his shoulder .

” And I fucking need you . ” He replied , kissing my neck sensually . He sucked on it as he thrust into me slowly . I gasped as he squeezed into me , moaning when he hit the spot , thrusting into me . ” Look at me , Kiara .

” He commanded quietly . I opened my eyes . My heart pounding as I looked into his eyes , one of his hands caressing my hair , which was now half open . Our eyes locked . His other hand gripped my thigh as he held it to his waist as he fucked me .

Our emotions surrounded us like a storm , and it felt like my heart would burst . His love for me ... I had never felt such strong emotions and my lip quivered as I tugged his head down , kissing him softly as he made love to me .

His thrusts became harder , yet he would shift to slow and agonizing .
There was no chasing one's release
, we were simply enjoying and cherishing the moment . " I'll always love you ." He said quietly . " Likewise , my king ." I replied , caressing his face .
When the emotions became too much for him , he buried his head in my neck as he began fucking me faster . Harder . Rougher . Pleasure consumed us as he pounded into me , burying himself deep within me with every thrust .
My eyes fluttered shut as he kissed and sucked on my neck while I neared my release . I met his thrusts with my hips , our movement in sync , my hand twisting into his hair .
The smell of sex was strong in the air , mixed with our scents and only the sounds of our moans and sighs of pleasures could be heard in the room . " Oh , baby , that's it ! " I whimpered , only to cry out as he began pounding harder , triggering my release .
I barely comprehended when he shot his load into me , his low growl of pleasure escaping him as we rode out the waves of our pleasure .
The sizzling aftershocks of my orgasm made me tremble as he hugged me tightly , both of us breathing heavily . " I love you ." I whispered , caressing his hair , locking my legs around his waist , not wanting him to pull out . " I love you too ... something I never fucking thought I was fucking capable of ." He moved his head back and looked down at me . I smiled softly , leaning forward and kissed him softly , moaning as he began thrusting into me once again . fucking young , Amore Mio ,
" The night and I made a promise to fuck you until " you drop . " Game on , my sexy beast . " I teased , licking my lips . He smirked sexily before his lips crashed against me in a hungry animalistic kiss as a low growl left his lips . My heart thudded in anticipation . My beast had truly awakened and all I wanted was to be devoured by him ....

Her Cold-Hearted Alpha by Moonlight Muse Chapter 113

Delsanra

RAYHAN

It had been two days and nights yet still , she managed to escape us . I was one of the best trackers in The Black Storm Pack . Despite being an Alpha , I had the ability to blend in well .

I was fast , sharp and nothing got past me . Well , not until now . This little witch was impressive despite the fact her powers were sealed , but I was beginning to doubt that , especially with how well she was hiding her tracks . That was until now , when we finally rounded in on her . The difference ? I hadn't slept and we hadn't stopped – I'm sure the witch needed sleep more than us wolves . We were now on some rocky terrain , dense with forestry . She was smart to stick to paths near water , but that also meant there would be plenty of trees around . We had been searching high and low , I had a feeling she was retracing her steps too .

The sun would soon set and I needed to find her . The other problem was that there were some Manangal in these woods . We had come across three already . Uncle had said there was a high chance for some to still be out there , and it seemed like it was true .

" Alpha . " Lola said quietly as she landed next to me , passing me a pair of pants as we shifted back .

Lola was the daughter of the current Beta , and she would be my Beta when the time came . She was two years older than me , strong and one of my closest friends .

" What is it ? " " Shall we proceed , or do you plan to go alone ? " She asked , pulling on the oversize shirt

. I flashed her a smirk , " We need answers , I think going alone would work out better . I'll mind link you i f things go wrong . Just be on the lookout , i f she tries to get away , knock her out .

" Got it . " She said , cracking her knuckles . " Really Lola , she's as weak as a newborn pup . Go easy on her . " I said as I walked closer to the faint scent , looking down at the river thirty feet below the cliff edge . " Oh ? Then she shouldn't get past you , should she ? "

" Well ... I have to be a gentleman . I can't go hitting women . " I said lightly , as I gave her a small nod , glancing at the few men who were with us . They knew their job and each one nodded before I jumped off the jagged edge and landed on my feet upon the ground below . Now to find the witch ... I scanned the area , smirking as I looked at the rushing river , the upended tree , some hedges ... Where are you hiding , witchy ? I looked back at the upturned tree roots ... She is only sixteen and is said to be very small . I sniffed the area , getting closer to the tree , a smirk of victory crossing my lips . Oh , this little mouse has nowhere to run t o now ... I saw the piles of nettles and thorns that were piled together and my smile vanished . A sliver of guilt rushed through me as I moved the prickly bushes , tossing them aside . There she lay i n the fetal position , her knees tucked into her chest , her pure white hair , which was patchy with dirt , covered her face . Her heartbeat was very faint , I wondered how I didn't pick it up , but I guess with the rushing river ... and it seemed she was so exhausted that she didn't even hear me approach . She was tiny ... If I didn't know she was sixteen , I would have assumed she was about twelve . Bruises , runes and wounds covered her bare arms and legs . A fresh rash thanks to the nettles added to her already battered body and I stepped back , feeling stabbing guilt rush through me . Did we push her to resort to this ? She knew she was being followed ... Her scent of orchids and ylang – ylang drifted into my nose and I crouched down , reaching out , but before I could even touch her , she jolted up . Her startling blue eyes were wide with fear , a fear that soon turned to anger and hatred . " Stay away ! " She shouted hoarsely . Her voice was soft , but it held strength . Everything I had planned went out the window . I was not going to manhandle a girl who had been through hell from the looks of it ... even if she was a witch . What Kiara said now made sense . " Alright ... I won't approach . We just have some questions . " I said softly , raising my hands in surrender . She glanced at me , then looked away , shaking her head bitterly . She didn't believe me . " We just want to know , what day Endora will attack . " I asked quietly . " First ... Let me go . " " Now I can't do that , can I ... I need an answer first , then you're free to go . " I said softly . " She'll find me and kill me if I answer that , but then again , you dogs wouldn't care if I die , right ? " She spat . For someone so young , she held a lot of hatred . I ignored the insult and ran my hand through my hair . " If you tell us , I can take you to wherever you're going . To safety . " I suggested . Our eyes met and I took a moment to look at her properly . She was a pretty thing behind the bruises and cuts . Severely malnourished but with about fifteen or twenty kg weight gain , she'd look pretty good . " And why should I trust the kind who has abused me ? " She asked quietly . I saw the darkness and pain in her eyes . I wonder , what has she been through ? " I'm not asking you to believe me , I just want an answer ... If Endora attacks , many innocent people will die . " " You mean werewolves . What's wrong with that ? You are all monsters anyway . " I could smell the fear from her , yet at the same time , she was still saying whatever she wanted . " Not all of us , I would remind you that the witches have done a lot of harm to us as well ... but that won't get us anywhere . Look , I won't pretend that I like your kind or pretend that we are going to get on . But we really need to know and what do you think ? Once Endora's done with us , she will let you go ? " I didn't like the fact I was using that line on her , but we were running out of time . " She'll come for you and whatever power you possess ... " I looked her over , I could faintly smell that she was a witch , but there was nothing that showed she was strong or full of darkness .

Perhaps it was the runes , I had heard about witches many do you want to stay her ? ” be asked eetly ”

Because many innocent people will die , family , friends , loved ones the won't stop until she gets what she wants , and that is to de She looked at her hands and I saw the number of cuts that covered them .

She seriously needed to see a doctor .... ” Endora will attack in nine days ... On All Hallows Eve . The night when ” When darkness is at its strongest Halloween . ” I said , how could we have not seen that .... ” But that's not what she needed ...

She is looking for the moment the barrier to the underworld is at its weakest ar She gasped and I looked at her sharply , seeing the runes beginning to glow a deep orange . ” What's happening , are you- ” ”

Don't touch me ! ” She recoiled from my touch as she began trembling . Her eyes were filled with tears .

” 2.39 am . That is the moment she will try to resurrect the dark witches of the past . You need to make sure she doesn't socceed .

That is the moment she will also be at her weakest . She will She whimpered as tears of pain filled her ”

Ok , look , stop . ” ” I said . I knew a spell when I saw one . She was hurting herself , to tell the truth . ” It's fine , I understand- ” ” No ! She will not attack the pack of the Lycan king .

” She broke into hacking coughs , whimpering in pain . I wanted to do something , but there was nothing

Her words hit me and I wondered what she meant . ” She will start her attack where the first witch is buried , the ground near the ... ” We heard a loud hiss and she looked up sharply . A Managal , shit ! The rotting putrid smell hit me and I stood up .

‘ Ray there are too many ! ‘ Lola's voice came through the link .

‘ Don't worry about ime , protect yourselves . I'll manage ! ‘ Just then , I saw two of the creatures come rushing towards us . I turned to the girl who was staring at them , bending down and scooping her up .

My heart skipped a beat when her eyes met mine , pure shock clear in them .

But we didn't have time to stop , I broke into a run . She was as light as a feather . She didn't touch me .

Her arms were wrapped around herself . " How the hell did they get here ?! " I growled , glancing back at them . " 1 " To make sure I never speak .

" Then why- Fuck ! " I hit the ground when a Managal lunged at us , slashing through my back , its disgusting scent filling my nose . Delsanra went tumbling and I looked at the large cliff ahead . Panic filled me , but she stopped rolling a few feet from the edge .

We had nowhere to go . There was the river far below , but that would do us no good ... I stood up , lunging at the first of the Manangals . It lurched towards me , its claws raised .

I glanced back at her seeing another two rushing towards her shifted , ripping it apart before I growled , leaping through the air and knocking them away from her . One fell over the edge and I tore the other one to bits . The taste of their blood in my mouth , I looked at the last one as it rushed towards her .

I jumped forward and bit down on its neck , ripping it apart . Blood splattered everywhere and I shifted back . " Where will they attack ? " I asked . " Only tell me , if you're able to ... " " 1 She looked up at me , her eyes filled with confusion and curiosity . " The Pack of the Deimos Prince .

" She mumbled , gripping her hair , as she screamed in agony . The runes on her body were now turning a burning red .

" The Blood Moon Pack ... " I looked at her sharply , reaching to help her up . " Look , I know someone who can help . " She recoiled from my touch and crawled to the edge of the cliff . Her eyes filled with fear as she looked at me . " I gave you the answers you wanted ...

" She staggered to her feet as she neared the edge . " Delsanra ... If you jump , you will die . " " And if I stay here ... I die . " She countered . I saw the trickle of blood from her nose and realised she was dying anyway .

With the state she was in , there was no guarantee I'd get her back to Kiara in time . I looked at her . Her dirty white hair was blowing in the sharp wind , the setting sun made her hair glow . Mixed with the blood and dirt were fresh tears .

Her plump lips quivered as she looked over the cliff . She was scared ... but she felt it was the best option . That hurt . Why did it hurt ? " Why did you help if you knew it would kill you ? " I asked softly , watching her chest rise and fall as she looked down below .

I moved closer , wanting to pull her away from the edge . " Because you have those you love ... I have no one . " She said , looking at me through her tear – filled eyes . I swallowed , feeling her pain myself .

I didn't get it , but something about this farewell was messing with my head . I had to stop her , surely there was somewhere she could go . " The daughters of Hecate always ask for something in return for helping .

I know ..... I am darkness ... but even then , may I ask for a favour ? " She whispered , her soft voice carried on the wind . I nodded , thinking no , she was not darkness . The setting sun burned behind her and at that moment she looked ... as if she didn't belong to this world ... " Don't stop me . " My eyes widened as her words sunk in , just as she jumped . " No ! " I shouted , rushing to the end as I looked over the deep ravine . All I could see below were clusters of trees and the narrow river filled with rocks far below .

I scanned the area but could see her nowhere .

There was no way she could have survived that fall ... My heart was thudding and although I knew she was a witch ... she had been innocent , another victim . I stood up , my heart pounding and knew I'd never forget that tear – stained face .

I closed my eyes , not knowing why this felt so painful . Pull yourself together , Rayhan . I shifted and ran back the way I had come . I needed to tell everyone what I had learned ...

Her Cold-Hearted Alpha by Moonlight Muse Chapter 114

ALEJANDRO

Heaven . A place I never thought I'd see , until she became mine . My heaven on earth . Last night had been perfect . We fell asleep when the first crack of dawn appeared . I had exhausted my nympho out and I had enjoyed every fucking second of it .

We had awoken at noon and then came round two . After feeding my baby girl and pup , we had just stayed in bed to enjoy some pillow talk before getting ready for our night out . Now here we were , on the luxury yacht I had booked out . After having dinner .

I now had a drink in my hand , as we walked hand in hand to the edge , looking out at the water . I knew she probably couldn't see much , but the glittering lights of the city far out sparkled . She looked so fucking sexy in a shimmering black figure – hugging dress with a thigh – high slit .

Her makeup was sultry with deep dusky lipstick . Her usually straight hair was curled and left open , perfect for me to play with . I guess we were kind of coordinated . I was dressed in a black shirt with a few buttons left open and black pants .

I wrapped my arm around her and inhaled her scent , " I love how I can smell myself off of you . " I murmured , " What do you expect , when you don't let go of me . " She replied , amused . ' Not that I want you to let go of me . ' ' Glad we're on the same fucking page .

' I said through the link , as I kissed her before letting go of her . I downed my wine , tossing my glass

aside and smirking when she jumped as it smashed to a thousand pieces , before turning her and lifting her onto the rail . Her eyes widened in surprise for a moment , but I knew she trusted me completely , as she simply placed her hands loosely on my shoulders . " Tell me , baby , do you want a boy or girl ? " She asked , taking me by surprise . I raised an eyebrow . " "

Boy . " She rolled her eyes , pouting .

" Why ? What's wrong with girls ? " " Nothing ... I just don't want to experience that shit where I'm going to have to hand my girl to some fucker . So yeah , I'd rather never have a girl , to begin with .

" I shrugged , kissing her cleavage softly . She sighed , parting her legs slightly to allow me to step between them . " You're thinking far ahead ... " She murmured , kissing the top of my head . " I fucking have to . So , what about you ? What do you want ? " " I actually don't mind .

" She replied , tugging my head back as she looked into my eyes . " Good to fucking know . So ... will you like ... breastfeed the pup ? " I asked , now frowning as I looked at her breasts . Those belonged to me ...

" Probably , Mom says- ouch !

" She gasped when I pinched them , making her blush . " Alejandro ! " " Kiara ... " I said huskily . Smirking when I saw her blush darken . " These belong to me ... " Oh really ? Well , you're going to have to learn to share . " She replied pointedly , poking my cheek .

" Not sure if I want to ... " I replied huskily , her lush thick thighs . sliding my hands up She had meat in all the right fucking places , and I could spend my entire fucking life just playing with her . She blushed lightly , making me smirk , I knew she had heard me .

We had our walls up often , but times like this ... it felt fucking good to feel each other's emotions . I nestled my head in her neck and kissed her mark softly . She sighed dreamily , running her fingers through the short hair at the back of my head . " Back to reality soon , huh ? " She whispered . I frowned , thinking of what was to come .

" We're going to get through this , and we will defeat Endora . " I murmured , looking into her gorgeous eyes . She nodded , but I could feel her worry and sadness , despite her trying to block it off , " What is it , Amore Mio ? " " People will die , mates will lose their other halves , because of me .

" She looked away and I knew she was fighting her tears . I cupped her face , shaking my head . " No ,

Kiara . Not because of you . Endora is a fucking psychopath who has been at this shit way before you were born . People won't die because of you . Heck , if anything , she's my fucking pathetic excuse for a mother . Our people will fight to protect you and our kind . Never blame yourself for something that isn't in your fucking hands . " I said , hoping she understood . She nodded , but I knew she was a queen who felt compassion for every life . I just hoped , for her sake , that the damage was minimum ... I tugged her head down , tangling my fingers into her hair , as we kissed each other passionately . My eyes flashed and I lifted her down , wrapping my arms around her tightly as I pushed her up against the rail . I gripped her ass as I kissed her harder , feeling myself throb against her . " Fuck . " I groaned , breaking away . " Shall we ... " She asked , her eyes blazing purple as she ran her hand down the gap between my shirt , kissing my neck . I wasn't going to fucking say no . I lifted her up , bridal style , making her smile as she caressed my jaw and kissed me deeply . Less than a minute later , we were inside the bedroom . I pushed her lightly onto the bed , gripping her thighs as I pulled her closer , kissing her roughly . She bit her lip , nibbling sensually , and I knew my baby girl loved me letting loose . She truly was fucking made for me . I loved how she could handle me completely . I looked at the dress she wore , shame I won't see her in it again ... I gripped it from the top , ripping it off her . She gasped , her eyes flying open as she looked at her dress , but I was too busy admiring her fucking sexy body clad in skimpy lingerie which was barely containing her breasts . Just the look of her laying there , propped up slightly on her elbows , had me fucking craving her . I yanked her forward , crushing my lips against hers , her moans only fuelling me further . I grabbed her breasts , squeezing them as I kissed her , before I pushed her back on the bed , licking the skin through the cutouts of her bra . She shivered , running her hand through my hair , her other hand caressing my back . I moved back , tearing her bra off , letting her breasts spring free . Fuck did I love her

I smirked arrogantly as she pouted . " I liked that bra . " " You have my card . Buy a hundred more , because I'll be ripping every piece of clothing off you . " I murmured , grabbing her breasts and sucking on one of her nipples hard .

She whimpered , covering her other one , only for me to push her hand away and play with it . My lips claimed hers in a rough , passionate kiss , running my fingers down between her breasts and over her stomach , feeling her breath hitch before I cupped her pussy . Fuck . I groaned as I massaged her , loving the way her entire body reacted to my touch .

A delicious moan left her lips as I bit into her neck , sucking hard , making her gasp . I broke away from her lips , our eyes meeting for a second before I tore her thong off and began to eat her out .

She tasted so fucking good . She moaned in pleasure as I swirled my tongue around her clit , I knew just how much pressure she liked , making her whimper as I flicked her clit . " Oh , fuck Alejandro .... " I slipped my tongue into her , part shifting , letting it plunge deep into her as she cried out in pleasure .

I knew she loved this , and I had wanted to do it again since that time back at the hospital . I used my thumb to rub her clit . She wriggled under me , moaning in pleasure and it wasn't long until she came , her orgasm ripping through her . " Oh goddess ...

" She breathed , riding out her orgasm before sitting up and tearing open my shirt . She ripped it off me , her eyes blazing . I smirked , slowly undoing my belt as she kissed my neck sensually , her nails digging into my back , scraping down my flesh . Leaving fucking delicious jolts rushing through me in her wake .

She pushed my pants and underwear down , running her hand along my shaft , her lips kissing me roughly .

She moved back , taking my dick in her hands as she began to lick it up and down its entire length , kissing and sucking it as she went . I hissed in fucking pleasure , her hand playing with my balls . Fuck , she knew exactly how to drive me fucking nuts . She moved back , cupping her breasts and pressing them against my cock , squeezing it between her tits . She looked up at me , as she began rubbing my dick between them . Pleasure fucking tore through me and my eyes darkened . Fuck .

She looked fucking hot as hell as she wrapped her mouth around my tip as she began to slide my cock between her breasts faster . Oh , she wanted to play dirty , then I'd give it to her .

I grabbed her waist , pulling her half off the bed and kneeling on either side of her waist as I began thrusting faster , loving the way her large breasts squeezed me . She moaned out in pleasure , sucking on my tip as I fucked her breasts .

I grabbed them squeezing them tighter around my I felt myself nearing . dick as Fuck , she was such a nympho . ' You like that baby ? ' She asked through the link , her voice sounding so fucking horny it was tipping me over the fucking edge .

I reached behind me with one hand , the other still squeezing her breasts , and shoved my fingers into her pussy . She gasped as I began fucking her with my fingers whilst fucking her breasts . Watching my tip fuck her mouth , her lush lips wrapped around them as she sucked on it . " That's it , fuck . " I groaned .

I slapped her pussy , making her whimper as I removed my fingers , grabbing her breasts with both hands once again as pleasure drove me fucking nuts . As I hit my release , an euphoric orgasm rushed through me .

I drew away , stroking my dick and letting my cum coat her breasts and stomach . Her skin was red in areas where I had grabbed her , as well as her breasts and her lips looking sore , as she lay there breathing hard . I moved back , plunging two fingers into her soaking core , fucking her hard and fast , smirking as I slipped my pinkie into her ass . She cried out , her eyes widening before she relaxed , letting pleasure consume her . " Oh fuck ! Baby ... nh ! " Her back arched and I crouched down , flicking her clit with my tongue as her juices squirted out of her , soaking my hands and chin . Fuck , that was hot . I moved back , watching her scream in pleasure . Her eyes were closed , her breasts bouncing . My eyes dipped lower as they fell on her pussy , watching her juices gush out . The sight made me fucking hard . The moment she had rode out her orgasm , I flipped her over onto all fours , slapping her ass as I squeezed it . " Fuck ... " She breathed , I didn't give her a chance to recover as I thrust into her with full force . She cried out as I grabbed her hips , holding her in place as I fucked her hard and fast . " Oh , that's it . " She whimpered . Her screams of pleasure were fucking music to me . I slapped her ass hard , hearing her hiss from the pain and pleasure . Every fucking thrust hit her core , and I watched her ass bounce every time I slammed into her . Lost in fucking pleasure , I relished the way she felt wrapped around my dick . Her hands clenched the bedding as I fucked her relentlessly . I felt myself nearing and pulled out , I didn't want this to end , she whimpered at the loss of contact . I dropped onto the bed , gripping her by her hair as I kissed her roughly . My hand squeezing her ass , she moaned as she climbed on top of me . I stroked her ass , as she gripped my dick and I loved how tiny her hand looked in comparison , as she guided me to her entrance . I slammed her down onto me and began fucking her once more . She rested her hands on my thighs as she bounced on my dick . I gripped her hips , fucking her hard until she couldn't even keep up . She leant forward , bracing her hands on my chest . Her moans were breathless . " Fuck ! " She whimpered . I sat up , grabbed her hair and slammed my lips against hers , kissing her roughly , drawing blood from those plush lips of hers .

Plunging my tongue into her mouth , I ravished every fucking inch . Feeling her tighten around my dick . " Nh ... " She groaned as I slammed into her , feeling myself coming and knew she was close too . " I'm coming ... 11 " Come for me , Amore Mio ...

" I whispered huskily , as I attacked her neck with rough hot kisses , knowing when I was done she'd be covered in hickeys . She moaned loudly as her orgasm tore through her , and I came moments later , releasing my seed into her . my neck . " Oh , Alejandro ...

" She breathed heavily , locking her arms weakly around She groaned as an aftershock of her orgasm ripped through her . " I love you .. She looked down at me , pressing her forehead to mine . We were both sweating lightly , breathing hard , our hearts pounding as one . Her hair was a fucking hot mess , her lips sore and looked fucking lush . I kissed them softly . ' I love you way fucking more . ' I whispered through the link , licking her lips slowly . She sighed softly , sucking on my bottom lip . My dick was still buried deep within her , and I felt myself twitch .

She closed her eyes , as we kissed one another slowly , catching our breath . My phone began ringing and I frowned , ignoring it . Placing soft kisses down her jaw , glad when it stopped ringing . Only for it to fucking ring again . I growled and she ran her fingers through my hair . " It's probably important . " She whispered , getting off my lap , biting her lips as I pulled out . She stumbled a little and she let out a weak giggle as I caught her , pulling her into my lap . " You seriously know how to drain me out . " " 1 " I'm not done with you . " I said sexily . The phone stopped ringing only for it to fucking start again . Something wasn't right . I reached over , picking it up from where I had left it on the charger earlier , and looked at it . Elijah and Rafael had called

... so had Darien ... Rayhan ... the fuck ? ” I’ve had several calls ...
” Kiara said , frowning as she looked at her own phone . ” I had it on silent ... ” I quickly unlocked my phone and called Rafael , who was the last to call . ” Finally . ” . ” Rafael said , sounding dead serious . ”
What is it ? ” I asked . ” Rayhan found the witch . Endora will attack in nine days , on All Hallows Eve and we know the location too .
It’s not your pack Al , it’s Elijah’s . ‘ Kiara gasped as she stood there .
Nine days . That didn’t give us much time ... ” All our fucking plans ... ” ” Yeah , we need to relocate , make sure the families are safe and get a new plan in action .
” Rafael said , sounding fucking dead serious . ” Why there though ? ” ” That’s where some witch was buried , around that pack . Someone she wants to resurrect ... We need to re – plan , I know you were not going to come back until the day after tomorrow ... but ... ” He sounded guilty .
” Yeah , I get it . Don’t fucking stress it . We will be back before noon . ” ” Great ... ” ” What happened to the witch , Delsanra ? ” Kiara asked softly . ” The witch , what happened to her ?
” I asked Rafael . ” She’s dead . ” Kiara turned away , as she stood up and wrapped her arms around herself , I could feel her sadness . I tried not to focus on how fucking fine she looked in nothing but her black heels . Fuck did I want to bend her over and ravage her all over again . ” Fine . See you tomorrow .
” I hung up and stood up , walking over to her . ” She was only sixteen . ”
She said quietly . ” She was a witch and they’re sly as fuck . Don’t feel bad . ” I said quietly . ” She gave us answers though . ” She whispered . I didn’t reply , as I kissed her shoulder and neck from behind .
” I’m sorry about cutting our time away short . ” I said . She shook her head , kissing my cheek . ” No , this has been perfect , and we have plenty more to come .
” She said softly . She gave me a warm smile before she sighed deeply , tugging away and walking towards the bathroom . I watched her , admiring her ass and the slight sway of her hips , my gaze falling to her ankle . In the last twenty – four hours , it had healed completely . She had woken up and twirled on her ankle , exclaiming how it didn't hurt at all . Watching her , I realised how true it was . Apart from her shaky legs thanks to the sex , she was walking well . It had never bothered me , but the fact I knew she was no longer in pain made me happy .

I wish that I could take all her pain , now and forever . I hoped that she never had to carry any burden in life , but deep down I wondered if all those she loved would truly make it out of this alive . For her sake , I hoped so . No matter how impossible that sounded ... No matter what happened , I knew my nympho would remain strong ...

Her Cold-Hearted Alpha by Moonlight Muse Chapter 115

Tension

KIARA

It had been three days since we returned , and we had made our way straight to The Blood Moon Pack .

It felt strange to return here , knowing that it was no longer my pack .

Not to mention the eyes that followed me , everyone addressed me as Queen Luna , I felt strange .

Being apart from Alejandro for even a few hours was difficult , and I realised how important the mate bond was . Not to mention , I felt extra possessive of him whenever a she – wolf checked him out . I didn't have much time to ponder over it . We were busy planning and preparing for Endora . With Grandma Amelia's help , we were searching for the land where the witch may have been buried .

We needed to stop her before she was able to do whatever strange plans she had in mind . I had told

Grandma Amelia , Damon and Liam about my baby , but apart from that , we were still keeping it a secret . Aunty Indy was not doing great , she didn't leave her room and refused to even speak to Alejandro when he had requested it . He almost lost it and would have snapped if I hadn't been there to calm him down .

I knew his patience was wearing thin and I knew that I wouldn't be able to contain him for much longer .

It was now just after training , Alejandro had joined Liam and the rest . I had joined in and without my ankle flaring up , I was faster than ever , not to mention being mated to the Lycan King himself gave me more strength too . I wiped the sweat from my forehead as I bent over .

I was glad training was over for the day , I looked at the three men who were on the floor breathing heavily . Each one looked stunned or in awe . If I wasn't so breathless , I would have found it funny . Not to mention , Alejandro had watched them dangerously as we sparred .

I'm sure they were scared to attack me and had stuck to defence for most of the match . " It seems like our Queen is rather strong ... Let's spar . " Mom's voice came from behind me . My heart thumped as I turned to look at her . I wasn't the only strong female around .

Yes , Mom and I always sparred , but I was never able to defeat her ... and we never sparred in public .

Dad stood by Mom's side , and Alejandro crossed his arms . I bit my lip trying not to admire how good he looked ... my eyes dipping to his defined V and the urge to drop to my knees and lick A growl snapped me out of my thoughts , and I blushed , seeing Alejandro staring at me .

' Keep thinking that , Amore Mio , and I'll fucking lose control . ' His voice came through the link . Even my wolf felt restless at those words . ' I wouldn't mind ... ' " Ahem ! " Mom said smirking , and I knew she knew we were mind linking . ' Maybe later .

' I added , before looking at her . " Seems like your mate's going to be knocked on her ass by mine . "

Alejandro remarked to Dad . " I'm rooting for them both . " He replied . I moved back and looked at Mom

, " Are we doing hand to hand or weapons ? " " Hand to hand should be fine . " She replied , running her fingers through her hair . I nodded and we began circling . Everyone was watching , whilst Raven stood there with a smirk on her face .

" Good luck ladies ! Show these men how Queens spar ! " " Can you not be so loud ? " Damon whispered , prodding her waist . I didn't miss Liam glance between them , frowning slightly as he looked away . I didn't have time to ponder on it when Mom was in front of me in a flash .

I blocked , slamming her to the side . Her eyes widened in surprise before she spun around and aimed a kick at me . Mom and I had always had very different styles . Although Mom taught me , she always went for the offence , I was the type to go for the defence unless I needed to resort to violence . We were a blur of kicks and punches .

Sparring with Mom was like a dance perfected over years of practice . The only difference was , I was stronger , faster and more agile than before . I gasped when I kicked Mom straight in the chest , knocking her back . " Shit ! " I had expected her to block that , Dad was by her side , but Mom raised her hand . Her eyes flashed silver . " I'm fine . That was a good one ... Let's " carry on . I heard Alejandro snicker , and I glared at him as Dad looked at Mom in concern . " I'm fine , baby . " Mom reassured him . " Wow , go Kia ! " Raven whistled .

Dad nodded and stepped away , arms crossed as he gave Alejandro a murderous glare . " For now . Until she knocks you on your ass again . " Alejandro mocked . Mom frowned at him , and I sighed . He loved to annoy my parents a lot .

Then again , he liked to annoy everyone ... I swear by Selene , he is so different when it comes to me .

Mom lunged at me but I blocked her before doing a flip and aiming a kick at her knee . After feigning a punch , I crouched down and kicked her hard in the stomach . She staggered back , coughing , and I really didn't want to hurt her anymore , I needed to end this .

Spinning around , I lunged at her . She raised her arm , but weirdly she was slower than normal ; that or I was a lot faster . I grabbed her by the shoulders slamming her to the ground as I straddled her , pinning her wrists by her head . Gasps filled the training grounds and Mom stared at me completely shocked .

" Wow ... " Liam whistled . " I win ? " I asked stunned , as claps broke out . " You're fast ... " Mom exclaimed , stunned . " There's only one person who I know is " Dad said , coming over as I got faster ...

off Mom , he helped her up . I knew he meant Alejandro . Dad smiled proudly at me before kissing Mom , and I took her hand , letting my healing rush through her . I knew I had probably left a few bruises on her .

" That's my girl . " Alejandro said , motioning for me to come over . I walked over , not missing how the sun glinted off his nipple piercings , making me lick my lips . I wrapped my arms around his neck , and he placed his hands on my ass as he kissed me .

I heard Dad growl the moment Alejandro squeezed my ass . " What the fuck is your problem ? " He asked Dad when we broke away . Liam dismissed the warriors , and I was glad . I did not want a showdown . "

That's my daughter . " Dad said , disapprovingly .

" Yeah , at least she ain't my sister . Alejandro shot back with a cold glare . I sighed , did he have to go there ? >> " Elijah . " Mom said . " Alejandro ... " I whispered , caressing his arms . " Just saying , I don't appreciate anyone telling me what the fuck I should and shouldn't do with my mate . " He growled , glaring at Dad . " I'm not a fucking kid . "

I knew things were tense with the upcoming events , not to mention Aunty Indy was really irritating Alejandro . His patience was wearing out . He also hated Damon around me , something which was hard to avoid considering he was the future Beta of this pack .

" It's called having some damn control in front of her father . " Dad growled . " Dad , come on . " Liam said , frowning . Like me , he knew things were not going to go well if this continued . " Just the way you have control , huh ? " Alejandro remarked .

" Ok , can I not leave you two alone for even an hour ? " Rafael's voice came , and I breathed in relief . "

Shall we get to some actual planning rather than you two just snapping at each other's throats ? " " Stay the fuck out of my business . " Alejandro shot at him . Before turning his murderous gaze towards Dad . " She's mine and what I do to her , is none of your fucking business . I mean , you should know what goes down between mates . Just picture that and ten times more .

" He added tauntingly . I closed my eyes as Dad growled and Mom had to pull him back . I ran my hand down Alejandro's chest , kissing his neck . ' Calm down , my sexy beast ... What's wrong ? " I asked quietly . I knew there was more to it than he was letting on . Everyone was on edge , snapping at each other's necks , but we needed to remain rational . ' Nothing . '

He sighed , wrapping his arms around me , and once again he placed his hand on my ass . He couldn't keep his hands off of me and already told me he loved my ass in yoga pants .

I just hoped Dad wouldn't speak this time . Sure enough , I saw Dad walk off ahead , heading back towards home , his anger rolling off him in waves . Like always , we would shower and then get to planning . With each passing day , things were becoming tenser , and I was worried too . Many of Alejandro's men would be coming here and some already were , working on setting up traps and making it harder to breach the pack .

However , this pack was not built as securely as Alejandro's , and there were too many trees around .

Too many places to hide . There was also the fact that all packs were exposed , and we were riding on Delsanra's words . Everyone had been uncertain , apart from Rayhan and I , both of whom believed her

So the decision was made , Darien would remain at our pack , and Rayhan would head his dad's pack .

Marcel had joined us here last night as well , and although Alejandro didn't trust him completely ,

I did . It was later in the morning , and we had all showered , eaten , and were now in the meeting room , with Beta Aaron , Dad , Rafael , Mom , Damon , Marcel , Liam and Alpha Allen . Although other Alphas would be helping , we were keeping the plan as secret as possible . ” I still think we’re missing something . Something fucking big . ” Alejandro growled , turning his back to the table as he lit a cigarette .

” Like what ? ” Liam asked . ” 1 ” If I fucking knew , I would tell you . ” Alejandro replied coldly , taking a long drag of his cigarette . ” We need to organise the front line ... ” Dad said quietly . ” I need you at the front , Raf ... ” Alejandro said , now glancing at his brother .

” Endora said you couldn’t be influenced ... It must be something to do with having a hybrid for a mother ... You may be the only one able to get to her ... I also need you to get her necklace . ” ” I can face her too . ” I piped in . All eyes snapped to me . ” I’m not risking you at the front . ” Alejandro said , quietly . ” So , you will risk Rafael ? ” I asked . ” It makes sense , Kiara . ” Rafael said gently . No , it didn’t . ” Look , Alejandro ... You saw what happened in that cavern ... You didn’t have a chance .... neither did Marcel . Maybe this was why we were paired , why , a blessed wolf , was born . There must be something we need to do . Maybe Endora is that evil we need to defeat . ” I said quietly . ” I of all people don’t want to say this , but the Queen is correct . You need her in the frontlines . ” Allen said quietly . I knew what everyone was thinking about : My pregnancy . I knew if Allen knew , he may not have agreed either , but I did need to do this . ” I can’t risk her . ” Alejandro said quietly , resting his hand on the window frame , his back to us all . ” I’m willing to forsake everything for her ...

” His voice was thick with emotions , and my heart ached hearing him sound so ... scared .... It was fear in his voice . I walked over to him , wrapping my arms around him from behind . ” You won’t be , you’ll be right there with me .

" I said quietly . I could hear his heart thudding , his restlessness . "

There's a chance you may have got something from Kiara too .... Mates make each other stronger . Maybe now that you're mated to Kiara , there's something you've improved in , something that would help against Endora .

" Mom said . Dad sighed . " We have to admit , the witch is strong as hell ... We need to try to make sure the battle ends fast ... Rafael , Alejandro , Me , Scarlett ... and Kiara will fight in the front lines ... is that fine , Alejandro ?

" I could feel his pain , but he still accepted that Mom and I were not ordinary she – wolves . I knew he didn't want Mom there or me , but living with someone like Mom , an Alpha , he knew he had to step down . I think it was this , that made him realise I had to do this .

" You're asking me to risk her life ? " Alejandro replied , now turning as he looked at Dad coldly , wrapping his arms around me possessively . " I'm her father . How the hell do you think I feel ? I'm being realistic here . You know , we need her ... To minimise the loss of our people .

" " Do forgive me , but Elijah is right , if you're defeated in the front line , do you really think she won't get hurt ? Remember , Endora wants her . " Beta Aaron asked . " I don't think she's going to just walk in and attack . It will be a surprise ... I'm assuming she's already seen wolves on the move .

" Liam said quietly . " I want to be at the front too . " Marcel said . " I have a score to settle . " " Before that , you need to initiate your rogues into your pack . I know you are all fucking happy to be lone wolves , but you need the mind link . You need to become a proper fucking Alpha first . " Alejandro said coldly .

" I don't want to force anyone . " Marcel growled . " Well then give them a fucking option , I'm sure they'll agree . They're already at your fucking beck and call . " " Can everyone just calm down ? Seriously , there seems to be so much anger and restlessness in this room in itself . " Liam said , sighing . Damon nodded .

" Liam's right , I know things aren't perfect , but we need to work as a team . Alejandro , I know you like to work alone , especially in combat . You are used to it .... but we will need a team this time .

Marcel , Alejandro isn't wrong , you need to unite the rogues , and Endora was probably the one who probably instilled in you that becoming a pack was not ideal . If you become a pack you've got some independence . Something she probably didn't want .

" I added . " Kia's right . " Damon frowned , " I think we need to split the powerhouses into two , though

... " " Just in case ... " Liam nodded in agreement . The door opened and Aunty Indigo stepped inside . "

I'm in too . " She said quietly , her eyes held bags under them .

She had lost a lot of weight too , and she looked pale . " Ind- " " Don't ! "

She shrieked before Dad could even finish , " I need to do something or I'll go crazy ! "

" Ok ... " Mom said , softly going over to her . She moved away not looking at Mom . " You're pregnant .

Are you going to risk the pup ? " Alejandro asked . I knew I was pregnant as well , but unlike me , Aunty didn't have any special abilities .

" As if you care , you killed its father already . One more dead , I'm sure you wouldn't even bat an eyelid !

" She spat venomously . That wasn't fair ... It hurt to hear her say that about him when he had done this for her . He had done what Mom and Dad wanted to do too ... he became the bad guy alone ...

But I also knew she was hurting . The room went silent , and a heavy tension fell . Thick darkness swirled through the room . Alejandro's eyes flashed , his aura suffocating everyone but me . " Remember who the fuck you're talking to . He deserved it . " He said coldly .

" That was my decision to make ! " She shouted , her eyes flashing , her teeth and claws elongating . Too bad he was part of my pack . " Alejandro shot back coldly . I tried to prevent him , but he refused to be stopped . Aunty Indy glared at him until she was forced to submit .

" My only regret , I didn't send him off to a more painful death . " She gasped , and I knew those words must have stung . After all , he had been her mate ' Alejandro , baby please ... ' I whispered , pleadingly . But he refused to listen .

" Karma is a horrible thing , Alpha ... I wonder how you'd feel if Kiara suffered like me ! " " Indy ! " Mom gasped . I kept my face passive . She was hurting . She didn't mean that ... She was only trying to hurt Alejandro ... " Imagine if she was pregnant ! And you died ! Then I'm sure none of you would be there telling her to move on and just act ok !

" She shouted . " Indigo stop . " Dad said , he looked pale , but he had his emotions in check . If only she knew how I knew those words were a possibility . How I knew , even if I dare not speak it ... I was scared to lose him ... I knew he'd risk his all ... for our kind . It terrified me day and night , and neither I nor Alejandro dared speak of it . Although , I knew it must have crossed his mind too ... " I may be a fucking monster , but I am not a shithead like that fucker Fred ... You've had enough time playing the fucking victim . He fucking broke you , and you've become a pathetic excuse of who you once were . Fix your fucking self up . " I hate you ! You're a monster ! " Aunty cried , her entire body shaking as she fought against his Alpha aura . Before I could even comprehend what was happening , Alejandro slashed her across her mate mark .

The smell of blood and the splash of blood shocking me to the core . " I , Alpha Alejandro Rossi , exile you from the Night Walkers Pack . Effective immediately . " His cold , emotionless voice rang in the room . My heart was pounding as I realised he had just cut the link with her . I felt the gut – wrenching pull in my chest before the emptiness that followed . She stepped back , the three claw marks dripping blood down her shoulder as the rest in the room remained silent . Everyone was shell shocked and all I could hear were their thudding hearts ... Exiles were rare ... Usually , people joined one pack to another breaking the old tie ... but this method was brutal .

Those marks would always remain upon her and to make it worse , they had destroyed her mate mark ...

One of the only things she had left to remember her mate by . Mom looked pale as she stood there , frozen .

No one moved until Alejandro pushed past both women and stormed out of the room , leaving a deafening silence in his wake ... Moonlight Muse Author

Precious Moments

ALEJANDRO

Her words rang in my fucking head , saying exactly what I was fucking worried about . If I hadn't met my nympho , I wouldn't have cared .... If I was killed no one would have cared , but for Kiara , I had to stay alive . Indigo had become a shell of the woman she once was , and it fucking scared me that if anything were to happen to me ...

Is that what would happen to Kiara ? Just the thought made my blood run cold ... I ran m y hand through my hair , smoking my cigarette . I needed to stop thinking shit like this . " Baby ... " Kiara's sexy voice came as she walked over to me , placing her hand on m y waist as she looked up at me .

Her eyes were full of concern . " Relax . " " I am fucking relaxing . " I wrapped my arms around her and pulled her against m e . Inhaling her scent , my hand resting on her ass . " Why are you so stressed ? "

She asked , now looking up at me with concern in her eyes .

I couldn't tell her what I was scared of ... Yeah , I was fucking afraid . I simply shook my head , despite seeing the flicker of hurt in her eyes . She knew I was hiding something , and I knew she knew .... She hugged me tightly and I caressed her back , kissing her shoulder .

" Talk to me ... " She whispered . I closed my eyes . I couldn't . " I just need to know what her fucking plan is . " I muttered . She moved back , cupping my face . She knew I lied , but she said nothing , kissing me deeply .

I hugged her tight , my cigarette loosely between two fingers in my hand on her ass , the other tangling into her hair as I kissed her . " We will be ok . " She said so quietly that I almost didn't hear . Her heart was pounding . So , she knew what was bothering me without me even having to speak .

I moved back , caressing her cheek before I dropped to my knees and wrapped my arms around her waist , burying my head against her stomach . Kissing it tenderly as I inhaled her intoxicating scent . She wrapped her arms around : my head , caressing my hair .

I hated this feeling of not knowing , I was feeling what every single one of my warriors felt when I threw them into the unknown . I never understood those emotions when they bid farewell to their mates .

I never wanted to feel this hopeless ... But at the same time , if it meant having her in my life , I was willing to do anything and feel anything to keep her forever ... " Ale ... " Rafael trailed off and I moved back , standing up smoothly . Schooling my face into an emotionless mask . I turned and looked at him coldly . " What the fuck do you want ? " " Sorry ... I just ... wanted to make sure you're ok . " He said quietly . I raised an eyebrow , taking a drag of my cigarette . " And why the fuck wouldn't I be ? " I asked .

He shook his head , giving me a small sad smile . " 1 " No reason . A thick silence fell between us before

Rafael scratched the back of his head . " Umm , I'll leave you two to it ... " " I think we all need to unwind

. Maybe we should do something ?

" Kiara said suddenly . " Like ? " Rafael asked , sounding like a fucking hopeful pup . The fuck ? He's like forty plus . " Oh .... I have the perfect idea ... " I looked at her and there it was , that Cheshire cat smile ...

My nympho was up to something and I wasn't sure I trusted her ...

I exchanged looks with Rafael as Kiara giggled to herself , a pout on her face . Yeah , I'm fucking right ...

She's up to shit . " Ouch ! Careful Elijah ! " Scarlett snapped . I clenched my jaw . The smell of burnt onions was fucking up my nose and this kitchen was too fucking tight for six fucking men .

Yeah , this was Kiara's idea , that I , Elijah , Marcel , Rafael , Liam and that Fuckerman should have a fucking cooking competition . How the hell she got everyone to join in was fucking beyond me . To make shit worse , the most annoying fucking women were on the judging panel .

Yeah , Scarlett , Raven the old hag Amelia and then there was Kiara , the exception . Despite this being her idea , I couldn't stay annoyed at her . When she had handed me an apron , I had tossed it in the trash . I was in no fucking way wearing that shit .

" Come on boys ! Get those sexy asses moving ... Rogue Alpha ... do you seriously not know how to turn that on ... ? " Raven remarked . Her annoying as fuck voice grating in my ears . " Fuck . " Elijah murmured , almost bumping into Rafael . " Do I need to do this ? I mean , I'm not an Alpha ... " Damon protested .

Yeah , why the fuck was he here for ?

" Leave . " I remarked , earning a frown from Kiara . " Baby , what are you making ? " Scarlett asked , looking annoyed as Elijah spilt some shit on her cooker . I smirked . " He's cooking shit by the looks of it .

" Almost everyone burst into laughter as Elijah growled at me . Well , it looked like that anyway . What the fuck was that supposed to be ... gravy ? " What about you , Liam , what are you making ? " Raven asked , tilting her head . Liam gave her a small smirk . " Unlike the rest of these guys , I actually know how to make a few bits . I'm not trying to impress anyone ... but it's turning out good . " He said with a small pout as he looked at his baking tray . The fuckerman was making a cake . Men don't make cake ! What the hell was he ? A pussy ?

" Ooo Liam , are you making your Victoria sponge ? " Kiara asked , leaning over the counter , her breasts spilling out of her top well almost . She was hot as fucking hell ..

" Seems like the little prissy is just another princess ... Elijah were you not man enough to raise an Alpha ? Look at that , you have yourself a cake baking boy ." Amelia added . These women sure were brutal . They all began laughing , although Scarlett gave her son an apologetic look . Liam rolled his eyes . " Cooking and baking does not make me any less of a man ." He stated , giving them a look .. " And I think he's actually handling this ... " Rafael murmured . I smirked . Now there was a fucker who really was losing . He had never cooked in his fucking life , and I knew Maria never let him touch shit . Well , he was paying for it now . " What are you making ? A salad ? " I asked , mockingly . " Cutting veg takes skills ." Rafael replied , sucking his thumb after his fucking fifth accident and almost slicing his finger off entirely . " Well , I know all you men seem to talk really big . Let's see if you are actually capable of making dinner . My ... I'm glad you ladies called me to witness this . Six oafs trying to cook ." Amelia remarked , sipping her tea . The four women were sitting at the counter on the stools , and it was annoying as hell . ' Not going to help me , Amore Mio ? ' Nope ... But if you win ... I'll give you something tonight ... ' She replied suggestively . I glanced at her , feeling myself throb . ' You'd give me that anyway ... ' I replied . ' At least fucking guide me ... ' " ' Sorry ... How about you win and I'll dress a sa pretty little maid for you ? " She teased . Fuck . That image was hot as fuck ... " Are you two cheating ? " Raven asked sharply . " No ! " Kiara protested . I looked at the pan that held the grilled chicken , I was trying to make some fillets to create some burgers ... the image of Kiara in a tiny maid outfit was kinky .... ' Fine . You better have a good outfit . ' I growled through the link . She smirked . ' Oh , I know exactly where to get one , sooo you better win . ' I fucking intended to ... I tasted the spices , maybe a bit more salt ... " Oh shit ! " Damon swore as he took his burned onions out of the fucking cooker for the second fucking time . How stupid was he ? I gave him a cold glare , and glanced around at the so – called " competition .

' After a quick look , I think my only competition was either Marcel or Liam .... Marcel was working silently , but he seemed to know what he was doing . Plus , cake boy ... He looked at me and I frowned at him . I forget he's Kiara's fucking twin .... " What you looking at ? " I frowned .

" You were actually looking at me first , Alpha . " He said , with a small smile . I ignored him and got back to flipping my chicken . Music was playing lightly in the background , and I looked around as Marcel pointed something out to Rafael .

Elijah was frowning as Rafael slapped his back whilst Damon and Liam were snickering over the burned onions . I glanced at the women , seeing them laughing and pointing . My eyes met Kiara's and I realised this had actually lessened the tension ...

I knew she had tried to get Indigo to join but she had refused and stayed in her room . I walked over to her , leaning on the counter and reaching over to kiss her lips . Sizzling sparks rushed through me when mine met her plush ones .

She sighed against my lips , her fingers tugging at my necklaces . Raven whistled . " No bribing the judge ! " Scarlett said , waving me back . Kiara blushed , her heart pounding as I gave her a sexy smirk and walked back to my pan , narrowing my eyes at Damon , who had been eyeing it .

" Touch it or try fucking sabotaging me and I'll fucking castrate you . " I growled . Liam smirked as Damon raised his hands in mock surrender . Amelia snorted . " He at least says it as it is . " She remarked to Kiara . " He does . " Kiara replied softly .

I stabbed the chicken , I was definitely going to win this shit . " Looks good , Alpha . " Liam said , looking over my shoulder . I frowned at him , " Alejandro's fine ... " I said coldly .

Why the fuck did I say that ... ? "

Aww . " That pint – sized brat cooed .

Yeah , see , I shouldn't have fucking spoken . ' I love you . ' Kiara's voice came in my head . Same , Amore

Mio ... I did not want to do this shit , but he was Kiara's brother ... He grinned at me , and it was then that

Damon put his elbow on my shoulder .

" Can I call you Al too ? " " No. It's Alpha to you . " I frowned . " 1 "

Alejandro then ? " He said , smirking .

I'm Kiara's friend . " " Yeah , and a dickhead . " I said shrugging him off and taking my chicken pieces out o of the pan . " Should we be honoured that Al is actually cooking for us ? " Rafael remarked . They began agreeing and I just had to picture Kiara in a little kinky outfit to keep my fucking cool ...

INDIGO

I could hear them all downstairs through the open window , laughing , joking and teasing . The pain that clawed at my chest hurt more than I could ever put into words . They said losing a mate was like losing half your soul . And it did feel like that ... it tore me apart from the inside .

The worst part was I didn't even get the chance to ask Fred where I was lacking ... I know deep down it isn't my fault , it was never my fault ... I wanted to believe that ... But was I really completely broken ?

Every time he went to another she – wolf , it broke me ... Looking into the eyes of those women who couldn't even meet my gaze because they knew he was meant to be my mate . I broke into tears , hating how I was stuck i n this vicious cycle . I wrapped my arms around my knees , feeling useless . I had grown up witnessing my mother's recovery from abuse , both physical and mental .

Experiencing it ... I felt so ... weak , too weak to escape . I didn't know when it became my life . But even then , I still loved Fred ... I know ... I know Alejandro , in his own twisted way , wanted to help . He always showed me some compassion . In his own way , he looked out for his pack members , but I hated how he made this decision for me .

Guilt consumed me , remembering what I had said earlier . I could never wish that on Kiara ... In my anger towards Alejandro , I had hurt her too . Even after what I said , El and Scar were still very supportive ; all El said was that he would re – join me in their pack ... Scar had simply told me things would get better , that this was not the end ... I had our pup too ... the only thing I had left of him ...

I broke into tears , rocking myself . How do you get over someone that you love so deeply that you simply take all their crap i n your stride ? There was a knock on the door , I knew it was Scarlett and Kiara by their scent .

The door opened and they stepped inside , I looked at them , similar yet so different . Strong , beautiful women ... Kiara was holding a tray of food , whilst Scarlett held three cans of fizzy . ” ” The boys cooked ... Some may not be edible ... but some is actually really good .

” Scar said as Kiara placed the tray on the bed next to me . I looked up at her , her soft blue eyes still holding all that love and kindness they always did . Why wasn’t she angry at me ? Didn’t I attack her mate ? My eyes stung with tears , and I looked down at the tray . There was a grilled chicken burger with cheese , salad and mayo , a potato salad , some weird meat with some gloopy gravy some strangely burned ... I don’t know what it was , but I was sure it had rice in it ...

Then there was a cheesy pasta and a soft sponge cake . ” What is this ... ? ” I asked , prodding the burned mush . ” Damon’s Chinese rice .... ” Kiara said , sitting down next to me . ” It’s off – putting ... ” I murmured , then looked at the weird meat and gloop ...

” And this ? ” ” ” The Steak and gravy were made by my baby , and he failed big time . But he looked hot in an apron with his sleeves rolled up Scarlett said , sitting opposite Kiara HE and me . TART ” Ok , eat up .

” Kiara said with a small smile .

I looked at the burger , picked it up and took a bite . It was actually nice , a little spicy but tasty . ” Oh , this is good . ” I said , trying to fight m y tears back . I wanted to feel better , but for so many years , Fred had been everything to me ...

He slowly distanced me from my family until I felt that he was everything and all I had ... I missed him so , so much . I couldn't swallow the second bite of my burger and put it down , Scarlett opened a can and passed it to me . I took a sip . Turning away , Kiara took the can from me and wrapped her arm around me . ” Aunty ... please ...

I know things aren't easy , but you will get through this . ” She whispered , ” I'm sorry ... I didn't mean to sound like a bitch ... I'm just ... Fred was everything to m ” You're hurting , it's ok . ” Kiara said , pressing her cheek against mine .

I touched my neck , knowing that those thin scars would remain as they were linked to an exile ... I never thought he'd do that ... But I knew I had hit a nerve .... I poked at the pasta as Scarlett opened a can for Kiara , then took the last for herself .

” You know , the amount of mess they made is stressing me out . ” She said ruffling her red hair . ” And I dismissed the Omegas for tonight ... ” I took a bite of the pasta , it was really good I smiled softly , eating some more , the melted cheese making it easier to swallow .

” Marcel made that . He actually won the competition . Two certain Alphas couldn't take that though ... ”

Scarlett said , laughing . ” I don't even think Dad should have gotten huffy , he did terribly ... ” Kiara said , wrinkling her nose . ” When things get sorted , we need a girl's weekend away . ” Scarlett suggested . ”

Oh , definitely ! That would be great . ” Kiara agreed . ” Mm . ” I murmured . I put my fork down , not wanting anything else .

” At least taste Liam's cake . ” Scarlett urged . I broke a piece off and ate it , ” His mate will be lucky ... He makes amazing cakes like both of you ... ” I whispered . I touched my stomach ; this child will never have a father ... And what was I meant to say to it ?

That your father was abusive and was sentenced to death ? At the same time , I wondered if Fred was alive ... would he have cared for our child ? Or would he have tormented it too ? He knew I was pregnant yet still beat me ...

Maybe I was better alone ... but it hurt ... it hurt so much ... ” We’re always here for you Aunty . ” Kiara whispered , she pulled me into her arms and I simply cried my eyes out , wishing life wasn’t so painful ... I didn’t realise when Scarlett removed the tray and joined our hug .
Will I be able to recover from this ? Shouldn’t mates die together ? How were some strong enough to survive ? All I could see was darkness ... There was n o hope , there was nothing left for me ...

Kiara’s and Scarlett’s comforting voices faded away as I sat there , feeling numb Knowing they would return to their mates But me ? I’d be here all alone .... in the end , I was still hurting , with or without him
. This pain would never end ....

Her Cold-Hearted Alpha by Moonlight Muse Chapter 117

The Night

KIARA

They were both hurting , Alejandro and Aunty Indy . I knew Alejandro was afraid to lose me ... N o matter how much he denied it or wouldn’t speak of it . Auntie’s words about him getting killed and leaving me hit him hard . I had seen it when he stormed out .
Even if he raised his walls , I could sense a person’s emotions . His fear ...
His love ... His concern .... It broke my heart seeing my king so vulnerable . He was always the heartless one , or portrayed himself to be , but now that he had finally let himself love ... we were facing a witch .

One who was powerful and fuelled by dark magic . Strong enough to be a risk to us all ... I was scared too , scared to lose my happily ever after before it had even begun .... I entered my old bedroom after we had spent the last hour with Aunty Indy .

Only to see Alejandro standing there with a towel wrapped around his waist , water trickling down his body and getting dangerously low ... Goddess , I wouldn't mind being those droplets right now ... I licked my lips , my throat feeling dry . My core clenched at how smoking hot he looked .

He glanced at me , strands of his black hair falling in front of his eyes , another one of the things that made me dripping wet ... " Are you just going to fucking stand there , Amore Mio ? Or will you shut the door ? " I blinked , then shut the door behind me , locking it before walking over to him .

" You showered already ? " I ran my fingers through his wet strands of hair ... " I smelt of burnt onions . "

He replied with a deep frown , pulling me against him . My heart pounded as I rested my head against his chest . Desire rushed through me , but more than that , I needed him ... his embrace ... his closeness ...

his comfort ..... " Hey ... What the fuck happened ? " He asked , threading his hand into my hair as he tugged my head up to look at him .

I shook my head , making a kissy face , asking for a kiss . He smirked , bending down and kissing me softly

. " Nothing happened . " I said through the link . My wolf was restless , and so was I . Girl calm down , I said to her , sighing . " Doesn't fucking seem like it .

" " I just ... I'm scared too . " I said , fighting back the tears that I didn't even know were building up . "

Nothing's going to happen , ok ? " He whispered , his deep voice thick and husky as he sat down on the bed and pulled me into his lap .

" When I think of the future .... I feel sick .... like something bad is going to happen . " I whispered . The overwhelming emotions that hit me every time I tried to focus on the upcoming day overcame me once again . He didn't speak for a moment , holding me tight .

" It doesn't matter ... Whatever happens .... we'll get through it ... I promise you , nothing will happen to you . Or to our pup . He said quietly , running his fingers " through my hair as he kissed the top of my head

. His voice held complete confidence . ” Promise me nothing will happen to you .

” I whispered , my heart thudding . I needed that promise , I needed him to tell me . His heart was racing , and it terrified me . ” I promise that I’ll try my best to come out of this unscathed . Endora is my mother , and it’s my fucking job to end this shit ... but I will give it my all to come out of this shit alive . ” His words squeezed at my heart painfully .

Crushing me completely . He didn’t promise me that he’ll be ok ... he only promised he’d try ... I couldn’t speak as he simply held me , his thundering heart felt like my lifeline as I curled against his chest , letting the tears slip down my cheeks . A King and a Queen .

The titles were pretty but never had I realised how heavy the weight of those titles were . It was our duty to protect our people ... no matter the cost . Neither of spoke . He only bent down , kissing my wet cheek .

I wasn’t sure when he made us lie down or when he slipped my shoes off , but the sheer weight of knowing that anything could happen in a matter of days weighs heavily on me ... all I could do was clutch onto the man that I loved so dearly ... All Hallows Eve .

The night had finally arrived . Restlessness , tension and fear rushed through the wolves . Every man and woman displayed it but one – Our king . My Love , My mate . No matter how vulnerable he felt , that was a side that only I felt and experienced when we were alone .

Today , as he stood at the front of the flanks of wolves , ready to lead us to battle ... there was only confidence , power and calmness exuding from him . ” Everyone knows the plan . Remember your positions and remember the aim . Don’t break ranks , don’t panic , and look to your Alphas for guidance . ” Alejandro spoke as he stood before everyone in nothing but a baggy pair of pants .

Everyone listened , their faces sombre and serious . I could sense their emotions ; exhilaration , fear , worry , determination , confidence and pride ... mixed with so much more ...

Marcel had managed to have his men united under him and , unsurprising to most of us but Marcel himself , his people were ready to join his pack and to be recognised as a pack in their own right . The Rossi brothers were truly an exception .

Each one was born to lead , an Alpha .. ” Be prepared for the unexpected and for those who believe Selene’s watching out for us ... then pray to her and ask for fucking strength , because we sure as hell are going to need it .

” He gave a cold smile looking out at the crowds , I could see him under the light but I knew once we were fighting , I’m going to have to use my abilities to see ... I knew what to do , and I’ll be making sure to keep a protective shield around me for my baby .

Thanks to Grandma Amelia , Liam and myself , we had been able to pinpoint the exact location where the witch was buried .

Liam was very intuitive , he always had been , but he was just calmer and quieter than I was . Working together , we had found the most likely spot and had set up some traps . 2.39 am ... that was the precise timing that we would need to deliver the finishing blow .

Before she channelled the power in this very area to resurrect the witches . There had been doubt raised several times about Delsanra’s words . I think my agreeing with Rayhan irked Alejandro a little too , but everyone knew that it was our best shot .

It was a risk that we had to take , and Rayhan had been adamant that this was it . Once Alejandro had finished talking everyone got ready , some meeting and talking to their mates or families , before those who were not going to fight joined the rest in the safe houses . The weather was cold and wet . It had rained on and off through the day and now it was just getting colder . I wore leather pants , a polo – neck top with my necklace hidden inside , and a jacket over .

My hair was pulled into a tight bun on top of my head , and I carried the staff that Alejandro had gotten for me . I looked at the time on my phone . 1.06 am ... Liam came over to me , " Hey . " I said , He smiled at me , and wrapped his arms around me tightly , kissing the top of my head .

" It's going to be ok , alright ? " I looked up at him and nodded , my eyes stinging . That dreaded feeling was wrapped around me tightly and no matter what I did , I couldn't get rid of it , that deep , dark , foreboding feeling that was clawing at me getting stronger with every passing minute . " Cheer up Kia ...

He's going to be ok . " He comforted me . Twins ... I guess we still had that connection . " I'm terrified . " I mouthed to him . I wasn't scared of battle , nor the enemy , but I was scared for my king , who was going to lead this attack . Unlike stories of kings and princes who rode into battle with others to protect him , Alejandro would be the one protecting the others .

He had a full formation in place to protect me .... but for himself ...

nothing . Liam hugged me tighter , his soothing scent calming me . " I'm not far from him . I'll try my best to watch his back . " He said , very quietly , so no one heard . I nodded , " Thank you . " I whispered .

He kissed my forehead and I took a deep breath , pulling myself together . I had to be strong . " Ok , let's get to this . " I said , spinning my staff . I looked over at Aunty Indy .

Mom had tried to talk her out of fighting , but she refused , insisting she needed to do this .

Dad had initiated her into the Blood Moon Pack , but it hadn't helped .

She was still quiet and I could see the pain in her eyes .

Luckily , Mom had persuaded her to fight i n the back ranks . We didn't know what Endora's army would consist of either . Marcel had said she had other witches , perhaps ... we weren't sure ... But if it was witches , then it was going to be extremely hard .

Doctor Callum and Grandma Amelia had prepared some potions and herbs to help against witches , and we had weapons that were made by Alejandro's pack to fight against beasts like Manangals and Wendigos . Weapons that were going to be used tonight regardless of the enemy .

Alejandro came over to me , a small sexy smirk on his face . " Come with me . " He said , taking my hand and tugging me along . " Where are we going ? " I asked curiously . " Patience , Amore Mio. We're almost there . " He stopped after a short while and scooped me up bridal style . My heart thudded , and I wrapped my arms around his neck . I didn't want this moment to end . Ever ...

continued o He kissed my lips softly as he n his way . We were out of the lighted area and I frowned , sensing we were getting deeper into the trees . " Alejandro ... I'm curious .. " " Like I said , patience . " He didn't give away more , and soon I saw a glow up ahead . I looked around curiously until we reached the small opening , and realised we were close to Mom and Dad's house .

By the river , where I used to sit and read my favourite books . Under the very tree that I loved . A smile graced my face as I looked at the fairy lights that surrounded the tree , and o n the ground was a circle of lanterns and red petals .

Petals that reminded me of the rose he had given me on the night of our marking ceremony , the rose that I had placed between the pages of a heavy book t o preserve forever . " What is this .... " " " Just something ... before shit goes down ...

" He gave me that half – smile of his as he gently placed me on my feet in the middle of the circle of lights .

" You know , it looks like you're going to ... " I trailed off , my heart pounding as he went down on one knee . I gasped , feeling a surge of emotions rush through me . I gazed into his dark glittering eyes as he looked at me with so much love that my heart was pounding .

" Not the best of fucking times ... but ... I want you to know ... how much you mean t o me . We've fallen in love ... We've mated and we've marked one another . But ... No matter how much I fucking do , I don't think I can ever show or express what you mean to me ... So I thought , why not do what humans do too ... ? " He took a deep breath and I could hear his racing heart , m y own feeling like it was going to burst . Will you marry me , Amore Mio ... ? I know you're young and there's no rush ... one day ... when you " Yes ! Goddess ! I'd marry you tonight if it was an option ! " I whispered shakily , flinging my arms around his neck and knocking him to the ground . He let out a breathless chuckle , wrapping his arms around me as he caressed my back , kissing my neck and sending a shiver of pleasure through me . " I love you ... " I looked down at him , meaning it from the bottom of my heart . " Love you too , Amore Mio ... " He replied huskily , before we kissed passionately . Sparks ignited between us , and for a moment , everything was forgotten ... We broke apart and he flipped open the box , to reveal a gorgeous , sparkly diamond ring as we sat up slowly . " I know it's not the most ideal ... but you can wear it around your neck if you want ... " I love it ... " I said softly , and I truly did . Many werewolves got married , but most didn't exchange rings as we would destroy it when we shifted , but I loved it ... My heart was roaring as he slipped it onto my finger , glittering beautifully under those fairy lights . " Thank you ... HE He looked into my eyes , smiling softly , and I felt my emotions surfacing once more , but this time those tears were a mix of happiness and sadness . " Tomorrow morning ... we're going to feel better , once all this shits over . " He said softly , brushing his nose against my cheek . I nodded , I believed that . I would believe that no matter what . A distant howl was heard , and we looked u p sharply , my heart racing . The signal ... She was here . Endora had arrived . To Protect

I kissed Kiara fleetingly before we rushed back to our positions . Calming myself for those who were looking to me for strength . I couldn't afford to feel anything but blood – thirst and confidence .

How was it that it had all changed when she came into my life ? I knew I'd be happy as long as she lived ... but I also knew she needed more than just herself to live ... Her parents , her brother , me ... For Kiara , we had to win this .

I unleashed my power , opening my link so that I could connect to all Alphas . Alphas , who would then relay it to their packs . I closed my eyes , taking a deep breath as I focused , reaching far out into the woods that surrounded us .

Honing in on the smallest animal or sound , getting past the hundreds of heartbeats of my wolves . We were spread out , disguised and hidden , then there were backup wolves far away in case we needed it .

There it was , the silent movement of something dark , I couldn't hear any heartbeats or footsteps and my lips curled in disgust . Magic . ' Those in the northeast ... fire blindly in one go . She's there ... ' I linked the Alpha and my pack members who were holding that position . I wasn't sure if she'd have a deflecting spell , but we would give it our all .

Silence followed before I heard the sharp wind whip through the trees and the shouts . They had obviously done some damage . I clenched my jaw , feeling one ... four ... Five men lose their lives .

They were the first line of defence ... I was the second . " We fight for the win , for our loved ones , our packs and to fucking destroy that bitch here and now ! Move !

" I ran ahead , a blur as many shifted . Bloodthirsty growls filled the air and a purple glow encircled us . I cast a glance behind me at Kiara , who was running just a few feet behind me . With Elijah , Liam and Rafael flanking us .

I signalled everyone to stop when I saw it , the darkness that blanketed the forest , pushing against my own aura . Her cold , undisguised , sinister laugh filled the air .

” Foolish ... To think that wolves can defeat me ... It’s good to see you again , son . ” KIARA My heart was thudding as I saw the glowing magic blanket the area .

My eyes blazed and I let my own aura out , I was not going to let her work whatever magic she was trying to . Grandma Amelia had given me some strange tips , but unquestioningly I was willing to listen to them

. Our conversation echoed in my mind .

‘ My only worry is that my power depletes fast ... Now don’t be stupid , like your useless father ! I like to think you’re your mother’s daughter ! Draw your power from your source ... What source ? ... Selene’s of course ...

” The Moon . I didn’t know if it would work , but I intended to find out .

The moon was high u p in the sky

, even if it was the night where witches were at their strongest , the moon was still dazzling brightly .

I heard Endora hiss in annoyance as she turned her gaze to me , her magic pushing against mine . ” You won’t hold out for long ... ” She chuckled . Throwing her arms up , she began chanting .

We moved fast , lunging at her , but her barriers held us off . I couldn’t see i f she was alone or not ; just thick darkness that even my power couldn’t penetrate . I heard shouts and shrieks , feeling several more wolves die .

Each one sent a painful , sharp tug through me . We were already losing men . ‘ Witches ! ‘ Someone from our pack shouted . ” There are about four other witches . ” Dad said coldly .

” And so much more ... ” Alejandro growled . It took me a second to realise what he meant when several ... ‘ things ‘ burst from the darkness .

There was no way to describe them . They weren’t wolves , nor were they Wendigoes , but they looked to be a mix between them both . What terrified me most was the intelligence within their eyes .

" Look , daughter of Selene ... Look at what I can accomplish ! " Endora shrieked . I didn't have time to reply , springing forward and engaging the first .

' Alpha Marcel said to let you know that some of the Wendigo's are wolves ' that were thought dead ! '

Someone told us through the link . We were all inter relaying , making sure everyone was in on stuff .

Obviously , it made sense why she didn't make the rogues band together as a pack .

Marcel would know if someone was dead or not . Sure , she could use magic , but it would have been harder for her . ' Leave the Wendigo's to the rest . Let's focus on Endora .

' Alejandro's words came through the link as I deflected an attack , blasting the thing back . Unlike the usual mindless , blood – thirsty beasts , this one had the mind and fighting skills of a trained wolf ..

' Got it ! ' I shouted , cutting one of their heads off . SCARLETT It was a mess .

These Wendigo's were nothing like the others . They were practically stronger wolves ... Looking at them standing on two feet ... their speed and their agility , I felt sick to say they reminded me of ' Lycans . Yes , they weren't exactly like Alejandro , but the disturbing similarities worried me .

I could feel the impact of their hits , feel the bond break when we lost someone . ' Damon ! Careful ! I do not want Monica coming for me ! ' I growled , watching him take on two beasts . ' I can handle myself , Aunty Red .

' His confident smile came as he ripped through a Wendigo . ' He's a big boy Scarlett . ' Aaron's voice came . I shook my head at the father and son . I was about to shift when I felt unease settling in . I sensed her before I heard or smelt her .

A witch ... " Ah ... take out the leader , the rest will fall A whispery voice came .

The next thing I knew , I couldn't see anything as heavy darkness surrounded m ' Scarlett ! ' Aarons panicked voice came . ‘ Be careful ! ‘ I shouted , only to feel a block . I couldn’t hear anyone through the link anymore .

‘ Aaron !? Aaron ! ‘ Nothing , I felt something rush at me and barely jumped out of the way . We were in some whirling section of darkness and I could feel the barrier that was stopping anyone from entering . It was then that I finally saw her , her long red hair swirling around her , her gold eyes glowing , and the smile of pure malice on her face . ” One to one is fair , right ? ” She asked . I saw the runes that covered her body wondering what they meant . ” Do you really think killing us is the right thing to do ? ” I asked coldly .

” Who knows ? ” She brushed off . She whispered a spell and I lunged at her , she blasted me back , flames wrapping around me , burning my skin . I bit my lip , drawing blood as I dared not let anyone feel my pain .

Not my pack , nor Elijah . I was stronger than this . I wouldn’t scream . No matter how agonising this was , my body was shrieking in agony as I tried to wait to heal myself . I forced myself to shift and lunged at her .

She tried to blast me back but she hadn’t expected me to be able to shift already . It seemed she didn’t realise I was a fast healer . I slammed her to the ground , ready to rip her head off , when I was torn off her and thrown against the swirling barrier .

I hissed in pain , feeling as if my entire back had been shaved by jagged sandpaper . The smell of my blood filled my nose as I stumbled to my feet and lurched at the witch . She sent another blast of fire , knocking me back . How the hell was I supposed to attack her when I couldn’t even get close to her ?

I got to my feet , my grey fur matted with blood and the strong smell of burnt flesh . My eyes were blazing silver as I looked straight into her glowing ones .

The rage and determination ripped through me as I pounced ...

INDIGO My heart tore in fear when I saw Scarlett being wrapped in that hurricane of darkness . No ! Not Scarlett ! The strong urge to protect her overcame me . I was not going to lose another loved one ! I was rushing towards the darkness , when a strong hand gripped my arm and yanked me back . " What are you doing ? " Marcel growled . I glared at him . I didn't know him enough to judge , but right now , I didn't need a Rossi telling me what to do ! " Don't tell me what I can and cannot do ! " I growled back . " Scarlett needs me ! "

He let go of me to rip a Wendigo apart , slicing through it with one of his long twin blades . He was actually an impressive swordsman , something you wouldn't see often in wolves , but right now it was helping against the Wendigo's long dangerous claws that were like twelve -inch knives . " You can't go . " He muttered and I knew instantly someone had told him to watch out for me . I turned , about to run off when he grabbed me by the back of my shirt . " What the actual fuck ?! " I shrieked , glancing at Dad , who was fighting one of the Wendigos . Elijah hadn't been happy with him joining , but he had refused to back off , saying he would not stand by when his children were fighting . He also refused to leave Scarlett alone ... but now he was tired ... I looked around assessing the monsters , so far there were at least thirty ... I don't know how she had an army that even Marcel hadn't known of , but she had I glared at Marcel . " If you had kept an eye on your rogues , this wouldn't have happened ! " I spat . He frowned at me , " Really ? Seriously ? We're going to blame throw now ? Not all these Wendigos were rogues ... And besides , rogues mean lone wolves . I was not accountable for all of them ! " He growled back . " I'll go to Scarlett ! " I snapped , " I don't need a Rossi to tell me what to do ! " He frowned but let go of me . I ran towards the blazing whirlpool , only for strong arms to lift me up as we went barreling through . A burning pain screamed through me as the heat of that whirling force – field melted through my skin and flesh .

I screamed in agony , knowing those arms were protecting me from the worst of it . Suddenly it was gone . I gasped for breath , my body crying in pain . Realising we had made it in . ” Fuck you all !

” The red – headed woman hissed , I saw Scarlett shifting back to human form , her entire body covered in burns . I could see the blood and melted skin . I looked at the man who was carrying me , and I saw Marcel’s eyes blazing as he set me down , lunging at the witch .

” Oh , look what we have here , a Rossi . ” She scoffed , blasting him back . He ducked , shifting and sprang at her , this time despite her ball of flame he knocked her to the ground . I took the chance and rushed to Scarlett .

” Hey , you ok ?! ” ” Why are you here ?! ” She growled at me , her anger and worry clear in her eyes . ”

Because ... ” I said ... Because you’re my sister ... I couldn’t say it , I had always pretended she didn’t mean all that much to me , but it wasn’t true .

” Because I wanted to ! ” I shot back . I grabbed one of Marcel’s discarded swords and ran towards the witch . A burst of flames slammed me back . I rolled away , getting to my feet only to see Scarlett shifting once again , mostly healed .

Thank the goddess for her abilities ! As one , we ran at the witch whilst she chanted a spell , Marcel managed to rip one of her arms off . I saw flames wrap around him as he growled , and was thrown back , the witch fell to her knees . Her runes now glowing .

” How dare he ..... How dare you all ! ” She shrieked . We blocked and ducked her attacks , but the place was tight ... ” Scarlett ...

” I murmured . ‘ I heal well . I’m ending this now ! ’ She said confidently through the link . My heart thumped . Everything felt like slow motion from there ...

The fleeting happiness to fight alongside my sister ... A sister I always admired but never dared to admit .

My true queen ... The look of determination on Scarlett's face ...
The all too well – known fact that she was reckless ... The way she went forward , ignoring the witches ' chanting . No ... don't risk it Scar ..
The words never formed on my lips as I watched Scarlett continue forward , extremely fast , even when a ball of magic flames was thrown at her , illuminating the darkness in flames .
I saw Scarlett knock the witch to the ground , watching the blast rip her off and throw her to the ground .
It was happening so fast ... but no ... it can't I lunged forward just as the witch moved her hand back .
Magic swirled around it , aiming for Scarlett's chest as she lay there battered in her human form . Her body was shaking as she tried to get u P. Not my sister ...
I heard a faint shout from Marcel ...
The clang of metal hitting the floor as the weapon slipped from my hand ... I couldn't think of anything but the fact I needed to protect her , to repay the debt to the woman who had always protected me
since I was a child ...
The one who shielded me from everything , My Queen , my Goddess , my protector ... My sister .
