Together As A Family

KIARA

" Oh , he is adorable . " Maria said as she carried Dante , planting a kiss on his forehead . I smiled . " Thank you . " Although they had all seen him before and we had been here for the last five hours , everyone was still gushing over him .

The men had gone out for a few hours and had returned in time for dinner . We were all in the luxurious lounge of the Rossi mansion . Only when I came here did I realise how wealthy the Rossi's were ; even Alejandro's luxury mansion did not exude the same level of elegance .

Leo was sitting on one of the large sofas enjoying himself playing on Rayhan's Xbox , and Raihana had told him he could take it back home too , stating that Rayhan no longer needed it . Speaking of Rayhan , he had video – called earlier and I had managed to say hi to Liam too . Alejandro hadn't really talked to Rayhan .

Even when Rayhan had found out he was awake , he had kind of ignored him , but today they'd had a conversation and I was glad it broke some of the ice between them . Well , from Alejandro's side anyway . Looking at Leo ,

I could tell that he looked healthier than he had back in the caverns . He had even started school and apparently was doing well . He had first been home – schooled for three months , then sent to school . I hoped he got the life he deserved .

His brown hair was cut . stylishly and his eyes seemed to hold more life than before . " Yeah , enjoy having him . He's all Raf's tonight . " Alejandro remarked . Maria simply gave a small , polite smile . " We will enjoy having him .

" She said quietly . I hoped she realised Alejandro was not as bad or as scary as she thought .

She had at least told him she was glad he had woken up . I had also never asked Alejandro exactly what went down between him and Selene , although he had in passing mentioned meeting her .

It seemed like it wasn't something he wanted to discuss and I respected that . Besides , if he was hiding something , I'd know . This was just something he needed time with .

" You shouldn't have made so many dishes . " I said , rubbing my tummy . I had indeed eaten far too much . " It's the first time you're coming to ours as my sister – in – law . " Maria stated with a small smile . " That's not fair .

You're already classing them as married , when your dad didn't even let me have you until we actually got married . " Rafael grumbled . " Gross Dad ! " Raihana exclaimed , cringing . I smiled in amusement .

" Well , that was my dad's choice , and they are marked , so it's the same thing . " Maria retorted , kissing her mate's cheek . Rafael actually looked gutted . " Do you know how hard it was ... ? " " We really don't want to know the fuck remarked . about what was hard and not . " Alejandro Marcel smirked . " No idea how you were born first ... " He remarked as Rafael faked a hurt look . " I agree with that one . " Alejandro agreed . " Leave him alone .

" I scolded . Poor Rafael looked like a puppy who had been kept from his special treat . Well , in a way , he had ... I suppressed a giggle at that . " How did you two meet anyway ?

" Marcel asked . I knew he had been rather reluctant to come , but Rafael had been very proactive in making a bond with him . He was the one who got Leo set up in school as well . " Mating ball . " Rafael said , looking at Maria with dreamy eyes .

" Dad ! You're getting gross ! " Raihana said . " I don't get why kids think it's fucking fine to call the parents cringy when they are disgusting little fuckers themselves . " Alejandro remarked , taking a few gulps from his can of fizzy .

" Actually Uncle , I'm a good girl . " She replied defensively . " I don't believe it . " Alejandro said stubbornly . " Well , believe what you want . Do you awful ? " know that all the men in this pack are " " Men ? Raihana you're sixteen , you shouldn't even be thinking of the men . " Rafael replied , narrowing his eyes . Well ...

I sure thought of Alejandro despite him being sixteen years older ... " Dad , you should be worried about Rayhan , not me . " She complained , coming and sitting next to Alejandro . " Right Uncle ? Boys are worse , right ?

" " Yeah , agreed . You got that right , he's definitely a boy , not a man . " He mocked as Raihana snickered at her brother's expense , high fiving her uncle . The poor guy wasn't even here to defend himself . a I shook my head , smiling slightly .

It was clear Raihana and Alejandro had a bond that was getting stronger . I liked that , unknowingly , he was letting people in .

Alejandro put his arm around me and kissed me softly . ' What's on your mind ? ' ' You . ' I replied , kissing him back . My heart was pounding as sparks rushed through me , and I had to bite back the moan that threatened to escape .

' What's wrong , Amore Mio ? ' His voice came through the link as he pulled me close , his hand raking down my back . Oh , goddess , I couldn't wait till tonight ... ' Nothing at all . ' I replied , sounding breathless .

He smirked against my lips , moving back as he licked his lips slowly . All I wanted was that tongue all over me ... Even though we could barely keep our hands off each other , Dante didn't make it easy for us to simply relax and let loose .

It was a short while later , Leo and Raihana had left , leaving just the adults in the room . Rafael had a game of cards on the table and the three brothers were playing as Maria had placed drinks for them . Both of us were not drinking as we sat beside our mates and I fed Dante under a shawl . Despite me wanting to spend the night with Alejandro , I was going to miss Dante .

It would be the first night he'd be away from me , although Maria had assured me it would be ok . " This is something Alejandro and I wanted to give you . " Rafael said , leaning under the table and taking out a file .

I looked up as he passed Marcel the file . The man frowned as he took it and flipped it open . " I can't accept that . " He said , placing the file down and sliding it back towards Rafael . " Seriously , don't be fucking stubborn . " Alejandro growled .

" He's right , you are our brother and this belongs to you too . " " It doesn't . Your dad ... didn't even know about me , so I don't have a right to " anything that belonged to him . "

" He thought you were dead . " Alejandro said , frowning deeply . I knew he would always feel guilty for killing his father , something that had been spurred and brought on by Endora .

A woman who had ripped this family apart , but now watching them all together bonding over a game of cards , trying to give their brother his rights . It made my heart warm at the picture , I wish I could take a picture of this moment , three brothers simply enjoying each other's company ... you to " And he would never have allowed : be taken away from us .

" Rafael said , softly . " Marcel , you're our brother , this is yours and Leo's rights . Don't take what he deserves away from him . " Marcel grunted in disapproval . " I don't get why you are even i ying . Do you realise we'll never be recognised as a pack ?

In fact , I'm confused as to why you didn't try to get me to join your pack , but then again ... someone needs to watch the rogues . " You know that shit ain't the reason . Alejandro replied , frowning . " If it's to keep those fuckers in line ,

I have many ways . You're already their leader , a leader i n your own fucking right ; we Rossi's are Alphas and having our own packs makes perfect sense . Now shut the fuck up and accept that shit , or Raf you can just put it on Leo's name .

" Maria blinked at every time he swore but I simply smiled . Past his crude language , he didn't say anything wrong . Moreover ,

I was proud of him for being selfless and being such a perfect king . I watched him play another round , the way his angle jaw looked so good ...

His trimmed beard , those kissable lips ... His earring glinting i n his ear ... He had bulked out again . Since waking up , he was back to training and was really busy with pack business and financial work , but he was still always there for us . I often woke up at night and he'd be making Dante settle down . He was really hands – on , although he said he wouldn't change any diapers .

I mean , h e did try , until Dante almost pissed on him and he had sprung across the room saying he did it on purpose . I really wanted to say it was coincidental , but he always seemed to feel sick on Alejandro too ... But the scene had been funny , someone who didn't run from wolfsbane , poisons , enemies or danger , but he had run away from a baby and a stream of wee ... So , I excused him from diaper duties , but I knew one thing for sure : These two were really going to be something together .

" Did you hear about the witch who was killed up north ? " Rafael asked suddenly .

The mood suddenly became dark and Maria tensed . Her brother had died in the battle against Endora , leaving his pack without an Alpha . Her father had taken over again until her nephew returned from Alpha training in a few months .

The battle was dubbed The Battle of Hecate's Betrayal . I found it extreme , considering we couldn't blame the goddess of witchcraft for the misdeeds of a few of her kind , but it was what people were saying and there wasn't much we could do to stop them . " That ain't going to make shit any better . " Alejandro remarked .

I felt uncertain , wondering what the future held .

The feeling of something more approaching flashed through me for a split second , but then it was gone . " It won't , but witches deserve it . " Maria said quietly . I could feel her pain . I had lost many too , s o I understood .

" Rafael said , wrapping his arms " Mari ... around her . " 1 She shook her head , " This was their own fault . If the coven had kept their kind in check , this wouldn't have happened . We reap what we sow , Karma will surely play its part and deal vengeance upon them . " She stood up and came over , her eyes softening as she looked at Dante , who I had just finished feeding and had fallen asleep . " Shall I take him ? " I nodded , kissing his juicy cheeks a few times . I knew he'd be safe , but it was still a little hard to part with him . I gave him one final cuddle and Alejandro raised an eyebrow . ' He'll be fine . ' He said through the link , and I nodded . I knew he would .

" Well , I'll let you boys carry on for a bit . " I said , standing up . I wanted to dress up a little for him tonight . ' See you soon ... ' Alejandro said . I could sense the carnal lust that was radiating from him and through the bond . I could feel his eyes on me as I left the room . ' Do not come , until I tell you to . ' I replied . ' That's my line .

' His husky reply came . Well , bring it on , because tonight ... I was going to let him ravage me as he wished I looked in the mirror , satisfied with what I was wearing . I had chosen a tiny lacy black lingerie set , with stockings and garters . I had covered my body in shimmer . Applying smoky heavy eye make -up and deep red lipstick .

My nails were painted red and I had curled my hair . My heart was pounding because since he had been back this would be the first time that I had planned something . I took a deep breath looking myself over .

I had always felt confident in myself , but with Alejandro and the way he looked at me , my confidence was sky – high . I looked over my tattoos that went nicely with the look , my breasts that were spilling out of the lingerie that I knew would be torn to shreds before the night even begun , examining my wider hips , brushing my fingers over my mate mark .

This was the woman I was meant to be . I turned away and looked at my phone , sighing softly . I had texted Raven for a bit , whilst I set up some candles a short while ago . She acted like she was doing ok , but I knew that wasn't the case . She even said she had to go as her dad was calling . I was worried for her , even when she came to visit Dante . She was acting ok , but it scared me because she was somehow . hiding her emotions where even I couldn't sense them properly . (FLASHBACK) " ... going to buy you a mockingbird and if that mockingbird doesn't sing ... " Raven trailed off , as Dante fell asleep in her arms .

She looked at me , her eyes sparkling with emotions .. " He is so cute , gosh , he's the baby version of chocolate and marshmallows . " She whispered , bringing him over to me . I kissed him softly as I took him and settled him into his crib , pulling Raven down next to me on my bed . " So , how are you feeling ? " " Perfect . " She said with a confident smile .

" Do you really think something like that would put me down ? " My heart pulled painfully at her words . She wrapped her arms around me . " Can you stop stressing about me ? Look , you need to emit positive energy for little Dante .

" I wish I could , but it hurts that my brother just left without even saying goodbye to her ... that I slept with her other mate . I felt like a horrible friend , I really did ... but I also knew she would never blame me .

No matter what , I was on her side . I'd be there for her , now and forever . (END OF FLASHBACK) I pushed the thoughts away . Now wasn't the time to delve into that . I looked around the room . It was lovely , with a huge round bed , lush carpet , and the lighting was perfect . We were in the outhouse at the back of the mansion .

Rafael had joked that it might be for the best . Although I had been so embarrassed , Alejandro had shamelessly smirked and said he agreed that it was a good idea . He had mind – linked me a few times , but I had told him to be patient .

I was a little worried about my baby and messaged Maria , who told me he was still fast asleep and not to worry . That she was like another mother to me and to rest assured that Dante would be ok . Deciding to try to believe that .

I finished the room with some petals on the bed and put on some soft music . Satisfied , I mind linked Alejandro . With a smile , I went and sat on the bed , crossing my legs one over the other , as I waited for him Moonlight Muse

Under The Candle Light

ALEJANDRO

Kiara had left , and although my mind was on her , I tried to focus on the game . I was winning ... I think so anyway . " And I win . " " Marcel said , showing his hand . Raf groaned tossing his cards down , and I smirked , showing my hand . " You mean I win .

" I said , arrogantly . " Fine . You're damn good . " Marcel replied grudgingly . " You both are , you should really have some sympathy on your elder brother . " Raf complained , picking up his glass . I have no fucking idea why he was so weird . " You're a fucking weirdo .

" I remarked . " You still love me . " He grinned . " Shouldn't you be minding Dante ? " I asked , ignoring his comment and lighting a cigarette .

Avoiding smoking around Dante was probably the next hardest thing to do , after not getting enough time with Kiara . Although I was sure the fucker could heal , I mean , Kiara could heal him every other month ... The smoke wouldn't affect him ... But damn , I was taking Elijah's shitty advice seriously .

" I will mind Dante , don't you worry , me and Maria will handle him . You just worry about having fun . " Rafael smirked .

" I will have fun , so make sure no one disturbs us . " I frowned . Marcel smirked as he sat back drinking his gin .

A distant look crossed his eyes , a broken hint of a smile on his face . " To be in love ...

" The room fell silent and Rafael looked at him . " What was she like ? " He asked hesitantly , I could tell he was upset just asking that question . " Beautiful ... kept telling me something wasn't right about Endora ... " He didn't continue and I could tell the pain was still strong.

He looked down , downing his drink . Rafael reached over , placing a hand on his shoulder . " I won't say it gets easier , because I can never understand or comprehend how you must be feeling , but we're here for you . " Yeah . Pretty much .

" I said . I didn't know why I said it , but just the thought of losing Kiara hurt like I was being ripped to pieces all over again . " Brothers . " Rafael said proudly . Marcel and I rolled our eyes . " Seriously , don't get mushy . " Marcel grunted , clearing his throat . " Yeah , what's with that shit ?

" I remarked , taking a drag on my cigarette . Rafael chuckled . " Totally brothers . " He said , and it was then that my nympho mind linked me . I stood up after downing my drink . " My queen awaits . "

" Have fun ! I'm sure she's going to love that little surprise ! And remember , I'm willing to babysit Dante ANYTIME you visit ! So visit more often !

" " Yeah , I might take you up on that offer , but first , get through one night with him . I'll ask you tomorrow how it went . " I replied as I walked out , a mocking smirk playing on my lips . You better give him hell , Dante ... I tossed my cigarette to the ground in the garden as I made my way through to the back and towards the outhouse . I wondered why Rafael even had this place .

My heart skipped a beat as I remembered something from nearly a decade ago . ' I've made an outhouse especially for you , Al . Please visit your old brother ... I swear you will have your own place , the kids , or me and Maria .

We won't bother you ... Just come visit ... I miss having you here , Al ... ' Fuck ... So this ... I didn't know how to feel . No matter how badly I treated him , he was always fucking looking out for me . I built impenetrable walls around me but he still tried to get through .

He was a brother that anyone would be lucky to have . One I sure fucking wasn't worthy of ... I glanced back at the house , thinking maybe I could take him up on that offer to babysit often . I smiled ever so slightly , turning away .

The moon shone down and the lights glowed behind the windows , I knocked on the door to the outhouse before opening it . I stopped in my tracks at the scene before me . Her delicious scent of hazelnut chocolate mixed with something addictive was blending in with the smell of the candles that she had lit.

My eyes didn't take in anything else , landing on the goddess that sat on the bed . Leaning back on her hands , her breasts fucking begging to be touched as they spilled out of the skimpy lace bra that could barely contain them ; her narrow waist , rounded hips , and those fucking thighs that I wanted to spread apart so I could fucking have my way with her ...

She looked beyond fucking perfect , I swallowed hard as pleasure rushed south .

She licked those plump red lips of hers as her eyes met mine . " Like what you see handsome ? " She asked seductively . Fuck . Yeah . I do . I didn't need to confirm that I was loving the view before me , but it was her next words that snapped my self – control .” Then are you just going to stand there , o r are you going to bury that sexy face of yours between my thighs ?

” I had the door shut and was in front of her in a flash , grabbing her by the neck . My lips crashed against hers as I pushed her back on the bed , straddling her . She grabbed me by my shirt , tearing it open . Our chests were pressed together .

The pleasure that fucking consumed me was stronger than I could explain . The sparks running through my veins were like electricity travelling through water . Her soft , plump lips were fucking divine ; the sweet , delicious taste of her mouth was driving me crazy .

The erotic moan that left her lips , partially muffled by me , made me fucking throb . I broke away , breathing hard .” Ravish me , my beast .” She whispered . Her purple orbs were blazing with desire and lust as she raked her red nails down m y chest . The sting of delicious pain mixed with pleasure as she drew blood made me tighten my hold on her neck . She was snapping every fucking ounce of self control I had .

” I fucking intend to .” I looked her over , taking in how fucking good she looked , my eyes flashing red . She was mine to fucking devour , to mark and to claim . I grabbed her breast , squeezing it , loving the way it felt in my hand . My lips kissing and sucking every inch of her neck . She cried out when I bit into her neck , right over her mate mark . The scent of her arousal swirled around me like a fucking drug .

Her hand ran over my dick , making me throb harder . She began working on m y pants and I grabbed her hands , pinning them to the bed with one hand , kissing her down her chest and over her stomach . She sucked her stomach in , shivering under my touch , her heart pounding as she sighed softly .

I kissed her along the band of her lacy panties , teasingly brushing over her hot core before I reached up and tore her bra off roughly . I licked my lips before I flicked one of her nipples teasingly . One hand now slipping down to her panties ,

I ripped them off roughly , making her whimper as I tapped her soaking pussy . Fuck , she was dripping wet . My fingers massaged her smooth pussy , loving the way she fucking felt .” Let’s see how fucking good this tastes .” I murmured , making her eyes widen as I looked down at her boobs . She gasped the moment my fingers plunged into her dripping core at the same time that I sucked on her breast hard .

She moaned loudly , her hand twisting into my hair , pressing me harder against her breast as I finger fucked her and sucked on her nipple . I felt the warm liquid fill my mouth . It was sweet , creamy and interestingly good .

I smirked , pulling away before taking her other one in my mouth , her flushed cheeks only satisfying me more ..” Tastes fucking good don’t you think ?” I murmured , kissing her lips , plunging my tongue into her mouth . She moaned as she sucked on my tongue . I groped her breasts , enjoying the trickle of milk that ran down my hand . Tonight , I aimed to make a mess in every fucking way possible .

I could feel her juices trickling over my hand as I continued to fuck her with my fingers . I moved back , watching her beneath me , looking at her pussy as I thrust into her hard . I went down on her , taking her clit i n my mouth .

The double pleasure making her cry out loudly . It wasn't long until she came , and I slipped my fingers out , lapping up her juices . Fuck did she taste s o fucking good ... I lifted her thighs , running my tongue between her ass , rimming her sensually before I plunged it into her pussy , making her moan .

Despite her entire body trembling from her last orgasm , her fingers tightened in my hair , i n the need for more . " Fuck Alejandro ... " I didn't stop my assault , alternating between fucking her pussy with my tongue and playing with her clit . " Fuck ! " She moaned , pulling me back roughly . She lithely slipped her legs from my shoulders . " I want to taste you too .

Her voice was breathless as she tugged me onto the bed , pushing my pants down . I gripped her hips , flipping her around , I was not fucking done . I positioned her on my face as she pulled my dick out and licked its tip . I groaned as I began eating her out once more .

The pleasure she was giving me as she sucked on my dick made me tense . My mind was a fucking haze of pure euphoria . The sensation of her breasts rubbing against my abs ... the way she rolled her ass against my face .

I loved her confidence , the way she knew what she wanted and got it too . I ran my hands down her stocking – clad legs . Fuck , was she beyond fucking hot . Another orgasm ripped through her and she pulled away from my cock , relishing in her pleasure .

The sound of her breathless moan of pleasure only made my own release near , a s she pumped it slowly , trying to get her breath back before she wrapped her mouth around it once more . This was fucking heaven . I groaned , thrusting into her mouth , tapping her ass hard as I parted her ass cheeks . I rimmed her , her fucking moans and whimpers of pleasure only fuelling the burning need within me .

I was nearing and I tugged her back , flipping her so she lay on top of me , her back against my chest as I sucked on her neck . Guiding my dick towards her pussy , hissing in pleasure when her hand wrapped around it and she positioned it at her entrance .

I gripped her hips , looking a t her back , narrow waist , her tumbling curls cascading down her back and that fucking ass that I fucking loved ... She arched her back , as she bounced on my cock . My eyes fixed on her ass , which looked so fucking hot as she rode me .

Her tight core driving me crazier . I fucked her harder and faster , my hands grabbing her breasts , making her cry out . I could feel the pleasure she was feeling , feel her love , desire and pure need for me t o fuck her senseless . " I'm coming , oh fuck ... " She moaned .

I sped up , ramming into her , hitting her spot as I held out ; waiting for her to come before giving in to my own release . I was o In the brink , but the urge to pleasure her was still at the front of my mind . My fucking queen . The woman of my dreams , one I was fucking lucky to have . I felt her contract against me , and the moment she screamed in pure ecstasy , I let myself go , filling her with my cum . I pulled her back against me , kissing her neck sensually , my hands roaming her body , massaging and caressing it , giving her a moment to recover .

She turned , straddling me as she played with my necklaces , kissing my lips before she began leaving a trail of pleasure down my chest . I looked down at her , wondering if she'll notice it She tugged on my nipple , making me throb against her core as I squeezed her ass .

She did the same to the other one , and was about to kiss me down my abs when she paused . I suppressed my smirk , watching as she brushed her finger over my chest . Seems she had found it ... " This ... " Her eyes widened as she stared a t my chest before looking up at me .

" I always wanted to ... I just never got the chance . So , I got it done earlier when I was out with the boys . " I said with a small smirk as I sat up , still holding her tightly . Her eyes glistened as she wrapped her arms around my neck tightly .

" I love it . " She said softly , kissing my lips before she looked down at my chest again .. On my left breast , I had gotten a tattoo with the words ' My Nympho Queen Kiara , ruler of my heart , body and soul ' Her fingers tenderly brushed over it .

" I got the fuckers name too . " I remarked , holding up my wrist , ' Dante ' was written alongside one of my previous tattoos . She smiled pulling me close by my necklaces . Seems she likes to treat them like my fucking leash , not that I minded . I was hers . " They're beautiful

" She said , tracing her fingers over my face , her heart thudding as she fought back her tears . " Don't ... I only want you to cry out of fucking pleasure " I murmured . " These are tears of happiness . How did I get so lucky to have found you ? "

" I think I'm the one that got lucky , but I'm going to fucking embrace it .

" I kissed her neck passionately , not leaving even an inch free from my touch . I gripped her ass as I thrust my dick into her , ready to go once again . Tonight , neither of us were going to sleep . " You really are perfection ...

" " She whispered before kissing me passionately . No , she was perfection . She was the one who fixed me when I was fucking broken . She was the one who had thawed my fucking heart of ice . She was what was missing for all of my fucking life .

The light , the air , the very lifeline I needed to survive and to escape the darkness that had once drowned me . I fucked her with everything I had , letting her feel every ounce of what she meant to me . Tears streamed down her cheeks as she held onto me tightly , and I knew she could feel it .

My love for her . Once upon a time , I was a cold – hearted Lycan . She was a compassionate princess . We were worlds apart , but somehow , we came together . We became something more , something so fucking special that no words on this earth could cover how I felt about her .

She was my all and I was hers . I didn't need to say anything , because I had already laid bare my soul to her . I love you , Amore Mio , way fucking more than life itself . Moonlight Muse Author

Epilogue TWO YEARS AND EIGHT MONTHS LATER ***

KIARA

" Can someone put the tinsel on the stair rail ?! " Raihana shouted . I looked over at her , the eighteen – year old was not impressed with getting the décor done . Maria had decided we would go away for Christmas , and since it was the holidays , Rafael had decided against bringing any of the Omegas to work .

It was a time to spend with family , he had put it , and I agreed . So here we were , doing it all ourselves . Not that I minded , I loved all of it . As werewolves , our main goddess was Selene , but outside of that , we still liked to participate in certain celebrations of other gods and religions . Christmas was not one to miss . After all , who wouldn't mind some festive feelings . " I will , Raihana , relax . " I told the younger woman as I reached up to the ceiling from my ladder to finish setting the fairy lights .

She had come of age and the next mating ball , there was a chance she may find her mate . Or as her father was praying , hopefully not until she was twenty – one . She was currently studying , he wanted her to finish her studies before finding a mate and possibly getting pregnant .

" You need to slow down , Amore Mio. " A husky voice that belonged to my one and only came from behind me . ' I thought you like it fast . ' I replied through the link . ' Oh , I fucking do . ' His reply came , as he scooped me up off the ladder and spun me around .

I shrieked at the sudden move as I clung to him . " Baby ! " I kissed him despite my pounding heart . " You're going to give me a heart attack ! " " I'm sure I won't ... I mean , if you haven't had one with all those orgasms I give you then you're safe ...

" He replied huskily , a sexy smirk on his lips . Goddess ... Nearly three years had passed , but I swear the way I felt about him never changed ... Every day I only seemed to fall deeper and deeper in love with him . " Uncle Al ! Dante isn't listening ! " Leo's annoyed voice came . " You made him babysit ? " I frowned , smacking his chest to let me down . As I jumped out of his arms , in turn , he slapped my ass , sending pleasure to my molten core .

He winked at me , biting his lips . Knowing exactly what effect he had on me . " He's twelve , old enough .

" He stated , turning to his nephew , who stood there glowering as he held out his arm that was healing , but we didn't miss the bite mark ... " I said , rushing over to heal him . " Oh no ... IT " That fucker is a vampire , I swear Alejandro growled as he walked off to find his son . Leo smirked .

" Thanks , Aunty Kia , but it's cool , it'll heal . " He said , tugging free . Like always , he never wanted to be healed , saying it would heal naturally and he was man enough to deal with a few bites ... Something Dante dealt out very generously . " Is Rayhan not coming ?

" Raihana asked her mother , who had just walked out of the kitchen , looking forlorn as she looked at the phone in her hand . " Nope , he said he needs some downtime travelling before he returns to take up his Alpha duties . " Maria sighed .

" It's ok Mom , we saw him when he came for the last festival . " Raihana said as she hugged her mom . " For a few days ... " Maria sighed . " Soon he'll be home for good . " " I said confidently . " Yes , and I'm sure he'll come for the mating ball . " Raihana agreed .

" It's been three years ... and he still hasn't found his mate , you know he's skipped a few mating balls . " Maria sighed . As she picked up the box of baubles . " Alejandro was thirty – four when he found me , some things can't be rushed . " I said encouragingly , as I wrapped the tinsel around the stair bannister .

" That's true . But with the tension between ... you know it's a scary world . " Maria whispered , turning to look at me , her eyes filled with worry . Her fingers were tight o In the deep blue metallic bauble she was holding . I frowned .

She wasn't wrong ... with every passing season , the hatred and tension between the witches and werewolves in the country had increased tenfold . Even the coven that was a branch of the main base in Salem had set up many bases across the country . Luckily there weren't many witches as strong as Endora , the only reason things hadn't gotten worse was that Endora had been a hybrid ; a part wolf . As well as Alejandro's constant work to keep the other packs in control and refrain from war . Still , witches and werewolves clashed often .

" He is strong . He will manage any witch h e comes across . " I said confidently as I made my way up the stairs , wrapping the tinsel tightly . My mind drifted to the Alphas who had left for training . Unlike Rayhan , who visited most holidays .

Liam had only come home twice and sadly he didn't even see Raven who had moved to Aunty Angela's pack . To this day ,

I wasn't sure what happened to make her leave , but she had moved only a few weeks after Liam left . I was also stunned that Damon hadn't even made his move , but they didn't talk about it , and I was too busy doing my part as queen . I was in contact with all three individually , mainly Raven , but the group chat we once had was silent . No one left it , yet no one talked on it , and that hurt . Alejandro and I spent some holidays with my family , some with his , and sometimes both of our families together . Grandma Jessica had passed away over a year ago , it seemed the loss of her mate was not something she was able to recover from . Even though Grandad had been a chosen mate , they had marked each other and had created that bond . The feelings were still strong , even if not as strong as a true bond and she had not been able to survive . I sighed softly , turning as Dante came running , holding

" Alejandro ! " I growled . " That fucker's a thief . Don't blame me . " " Alejandro's reply came as he snatched the packet of cigarettes from our son . " You should keep them out of reach then . Marcel remarked as he and Rafael walked in from outside , where they had been setting up the lights , a thin layer of snow covering their coats . " Exactly . " I stated . Maria simply hid a smile , although she wasn't as scared of Alejandro anymore or didn't dislike him as much , she was still wary . Speaking of Alejandro his bond with his brother had grown too ... He now smacked them both over the head , as Dante hurried up the steps towards me . His red eyes rimmed with those pretty eyelashes staring intently at me . His mop of black curls fell in front of his eyes .

Oh , we was such a cherub . H " Mama ! Daddy dumb . I smiled as Alejandro growled . " " Spoiled brat . "

" What did Daddy do ? " I asked picking him up . " Did you bite Leo ? " " Dante denied vehemently . " Bite ? No. Oh , he understood alright , I could feel the guilt rolling off him . I sighed . " This father and son ...

" I walked down the steps , placing him down when Dante tilted his head and patted my stomach . H " Two baby . " My eyes widened as I looked at Alejandro , my heart thudding .

We had recently planned to have another one ... but ... everyone fell silent , and even Leo was listening curiously as Alejandro came over to me , crouching down as he placed his ear next to my stomach . His hands " coincidentally ' landed on my ass .

No one spoke , everyone's hearts thudding in anticipation . " Well fuck ... " $ I looked down at him , my own chest rising and falling heavily . " " Is there ... " "

" He aint wrong ; it's so fucking faint though ... barely catchable ... But you are pregnant and there are two . " Alejandro said , standing up . His eyes wide as they met mine , he cupped my face before his lips met mine i na passionate kiss .

I could feel his heart racing , as was my own , we kissed deeply before breaking apart . " Congratulations . " Rafael said , grinning i n excitement . " I hope it's a girl ! " Raihana said excitedly as everyone congratulated me . " No way , boys . " Alejandro said firmly .

" Baby girls . " Dante stated as he tugged at the tinsel . Everyone fell silent again , and I looked at him .

I knew Dante had some aspect of my power as well as his fathers . He still wore the amulet to suppress his aura , but when I took it off , it was clear that it was growing stronger . It wasn't the first time he had predicted something . It awed and terrified me that he seemed so much more advanced than my ability was .

Raihana was the first to shriek in excitement , and Alejandro just looked stunned .

" Well , I guess you two will have another two to attend your wedding . " Maria smiled . We had planned our wedding for next December . I simply nodded , my stomach fluttering with the nerves wondering if Dante was right , was I carrying two baby girls ?

" Ok guys , shall we get back to decorating ? Dad can you help ?! " Raihana complained , casting me a smile . " Yes , I think you men need to pull your weight . " I added . " We did do the outside . " Marcel stated unhappily . " You should go sit . " Alejandro told me before scooping me up and carrying me to the lounge . " I'm fine , seriously ! " " You should obey your king . " He said , arrogantly .

I rolled my eyes , " Shouldn't you obey me ? " " No , I should worship you .

" He replied kissing me softly . Like always he took my breath away . I didn't argue as he placed me on the sofa and , instead of going to help , he dropped onto the sofa and placed his head in my lap . I smiled as I ran my fingers through his hair .

This was a position he loved , one he often took after a long day of work , and one I knew he'd miss when my belly began growing . " Damn I love the fucking view from here ... " He remarked pinching my nipple . " Ouch !

" I gasped , pouting despite the fact that it sent pleasure coursing through me . I looked down at him , as he smirked back at me . Reaching up , he tangled his hand in my hair . " This time , I'm going to be by your side , every fucking part of it . " He whispered , his face now serious as he tugged me down for a loving , passionate kiss . I smiled as we parted , my heart warming .

" I know you will . " I whispered , just as Dante came toddling in and clambered on top of Alejandro's stomach .

" My mama . Go . " His pudgy little hands pushing Alejandro's face away . " That fucker ... " " Daddy pucker . " We both went silent , staring at our adorable little devil . A frown on his juicy little face as he glared at his dad . " Did he just ... ?

" Alejandro murmured , for once , completely shocked . " Well ... he learned from the best .

" I burst out laughing as Dante wrapped his arms around me . " This kid ... " Alejandro chuckled before wrapping one arm around me , the other around Dante as he buried his face against my stomach . " My perfect fucking family ...

" He was right , this was our perfect family . My heart combusted with so many emotions as I sat there in his embrace , my fingers threading through his hair , the other around my little boy . We had gone through so many trials to be together , we have overcome so much , but in the end , it was all worth it . This was worth it .

Bonus Chapter – 131

A Winter Day THREE DAYS AFTER CHRISTMAS ... ALEJANDRO I looked at the little boy who I was meant to be looking after for the entire fucking day . With Kiara pregnant again , I knew she needed some time away , so she , Serena , Kevin and some other she – wolf had gone out for the afternoon and evening .

At first , I thought this shit was going to be easy ... But now , three hours in , I was regretting offering .

How the fuck was I supposed to focus on paperwork when this fucker just demanded attention twenty – four fucking seven ? The snow had gone , but the weather was still foggy and cold .

I glanced up at the sky through the open French doors of my office , the dark cloudy sky only promising more gloomy weather . Dante was outside playing tag with Darien . " Al ! " Darien called . " What ? " " Dante's got a request .

" " I want Mgonalds ! " Dante chipped in . " Please , Daddy . " please ? How the fuck do you say no when he says " Didn't you just have food ? Darien , didn't Claire fucking feed him ? " " He's an Alpha pup , Al , he's probably hungry again " Darien replied with a shrug .

" Uncle Dawien , please Mgonalds ... " I massaged my head . How the fuck did Kiara put up with this daily ? I mean , sure , he's fucking cute but ... I smiled slightly as he came over to me . Fuck , I love him . I lifted him into my lap and kissed his forehead , ruffling his hair .

His request wasn't that fucking hard ... " You want McDonald's ? Let's get that shit then .  " No shit , I want food . " He said frowning . " I replied with a smirk . " Yeah , that too . " " Mama eat too ? " He asked hopefully . " Mama's gone out . " I replied , wondering what my nympho was up to right now ...

" Let's go now . " Dante stated , sliding off m y lap .. I stood up , glancing at Darien . " Get my Mercedes , let's go into town for fucking McDonalds . " I lifted Dante onto m y shoulders , making him laugh in excitement . W " Make sure you don't hit his head ... " Darien remarked with a smirk . I gave him a cold glare .

I'm not fucking stupid ... Half an hour later , we were sat inside McDonald's , because this little fucker wanted to go inside so he could get a fucking balloon .

I don't get it , I even said I'd buy him ten fucking balloons . Helium ones or whatever shit , but no , he wanted this specific balloon I raised my eyebrow , looking at him clutching the stick that the balloon was attached to . What the fuck was so good about it ? It was simple as fuck with some drawings on it . " Daddy no balloon ! " He said possessively , hugging it tightly . " I don't want your fucking balloon kid ; I was just wondering why you wanted it so much .

" He looked confused as he ate his third happy meal . Darien and I had a few meals i n front of us , so we were already getting looks .

Not that I fucking cared , I was just trying to keep my aura suppressed . I could smell the nervousness and fear rolling off some of the humans , whilst some females were staring at us like we were fucking eye candy .

I cast a murderous glance at a group of young women who were looking over at us before returning my attention t o Dante , who was clearly enjoying being here . " Daddy , after this , I go shop . " He announced . I raised an eyebrow . " Oh yeah ? Who fucking said ? " " I said . " Arrogant little brat . Darien snickered ,

" He's truly your son . Besides , why not ? There are still some good stalls up and around this area . He was getting bored without Kiara anyway . " He took a large bite of his big Mac and I gave a curt nod . " Yeah , guess it might kill some time .

" Fuck I was missing her already ... " You know you can mind link her ... " Darien added . " It's her time and I don't want to " 1 fucking distract her ... " He smirked . " 1 " You really are a good mate . " " Shut it . " I growled . " Daddy I full now .

" Dante stated . " Finally , let's get the fuck outta here . " I was about to stand up , when two women walked over . " Aww , he's so cute . What's his name ? " One of them asked me . " Oh my ! Look at his unique eyes ! " The second one exclaimed .

I wasn't new to this shit , but I still raised a n eyebrow . " None of your fucking business . " I replied coldly . They looked scared , yet like always , they were still fucking stupid enough to trail their eyes over me .

I let a little of my aura radiate off of me , satisfied when they backed away . " Excuse us , ladies . " Darien said quickly , lifting Dante into his arms . I didn't wait for an answer , making my way out first . I hope wherever Kiara was she was not getting fuckers chatting her up

Fuck the urge to talk to her was too much and I gave in . ' Not too busy , are you ? ' I mind linked . ' Wow , baby can you mind link all this way ? ' ' We're actually in the same city , your son wanted McDonald's . ' ' Aww , and miss him . } you listened . That's so cute . I miss him.

' And you don't miss me ? " Yeah , I was fucking jealous . ' I always miss you , even when you're just on the opposite side of the room . Her soft , husky voice came through the link . Now that was more like it . ' Good , cause that's how it fucking should be . ' I replied .

' It always will be . ' Her reply made me smirk , ' Oh and one more thing my sexy beast , I've planned a little something for the two of us tonight . Serena will mind Dante and I want you to meet me at the location that I will text you at 9 pm .

' ' Oh yeah ? Well , I'm looking forward to it . ' Just the thought of spending the night out with her made me twitch in my fucking pants . Darien snickered . " So , you couldn't resist and linked her right ? " " None of your fucking business . " " " Well , I know you did . "

Why the fuck did I bring him along ? I glanced at him as he momentarily got distracted wiping Dante's face . Yeah , that's why . Fucker . " Stop cursing me in your head and let's g o check out the market stall . " , It was a short while later , and we were walking along , looking at the stalls that were set up for the Christmas market .

Overhead , the Christmas lights that have decorated the town for the last two weeks were still up . They would probably be removed once the new year started I didn't even fucking realise . I glanced at Dante , who was happy in Darien's arms .

" Uncle , I want that . " He pointed at some random shit . I glanced around . There was nothing here that I'd even get for Kiara ... I mean , there was nothing good enough . Fuck , I did want to get her something ... One thing I knew about my nympho was that she did not care about the price of something , she preferred meaningful gifts ... Yeah , I was thinking about how to . please my fucking goddess , and I don't mean in the bedroom , because that was one place I know I did fucking great . I smirked arrogantly at the thought , only to be brought out of my thoughts by Dante pointing at a painted artwork that hung off the side of one of the stalls .

I frowned , looking at what was supposed to be a witch holding an orb on a large piece of fabric , her eyes glowing and her black hair flowing around her . " Wayana ! " " That doesn't look anything like Raihana . " I replied , frowning slightly .

I hated witches , even though my mother had been one , but we all know I fucking hated that bitch too . " Yes , Wayana . " He said stubbornly . My irritation grew , but before I could speak , Darien spoke up . " Ok , how about we get some candy floss ? " I knew he could sense my anger . We had Jost so much shit thanks to those witches ...

" Oo yes ! " Dante said , happily forgetting about the artwork . They walked off ahead and I glanced at the image . Yeah , that no way in hell looked like Raihana . The sun was setting and the lights seem to glitter even more .

I slowly moved on , easily spotting Darien and Dante , thanks to Darien's height , and wandered over to a stall where an older man was engraving keyrings and necklaces with names . " Hello , son ! Can I help you ? Would you like one of my pieces ? " I was no one's fucking son . I gave him a cold glare , looking back at his small collection . My eyes landed on a pair of bracelets with woven bands .

" I'll take these . " " I said curtly . Yeah , I was going to get something cheesy as fuck . " Ah , a lovely choice . Now , what are the names you want on these ? " " Kiara and Alejandro . " I said . " And add Queen to Kiara and King to Alejandro . " He nodded .

" I can do that in a jiffy ! What lovely names , Alejandro means Defender of Mankind ... Did you know that ? " He chuckled . " Hmm " I didn't bother replying , I knew the meaning but never thought shit about it . " And Kiara means light . Beautiful names ...

I looked up sharply . That name suited her so fucking perfectly . She was the light , in every fucking way ...

" I " Ah , this is going to look rather lovely ... " The man was talking to himself and was content enough that I wasn't replying . Once he was done , he wrapped them in a piece of red tissue paper and passed them to me . I paid him , telling him to keep the change , and walked off without waiting for a reply . I couldn't wait to see my queen tonight ...

KIARA

Night had fallen and I waited in the rented villa I had booked for Alejandro and me . I was only wearing a tiny black G – string and a black silk gown on top . After spending the entire day getting pampered , I was looking forward to spending the night with Alejandro .

The hot tub was ready , set with wine , chocolates and candles . Soft music played in the background , as I ran my hands . through my freshly curled hair . The moment the doorbell rang , my heart skipped a beat , and I rushed to open it . His scent hit me before I even had it fully open .

I couldn't even speak as he had pulled me against him , his lips claiming mine in a dominant and bruising kiss . The two guards that had accompanied me during the day , kept their eyes straight ahead as they flanked the front door . Alejandro kicked the door shut , lifting me up as I locked my legs around his waist , tugging him closer as I kissed him back with equal passion .

We both fought for dominance , the delicious sparks of pleasure and desire rushing through us , as my core throbbed hard . As always , he won't relent , his tongue plunging into my mouth before sucking on my own tongue hard . I broke away gasping for air , but he didn't stop , his lips finding my neck as he kissed me sensually , sucking on the most sensitive part right over my mate mark . A wanton moan escaped my lips , and he growled lowly . " Fuck Amore Mio you know you drive me fucking crazy . " He said huskily , looking down into my face .

The look of pure carnal desire in his eyes made my core throb . My stomach fluttering like crazy , I ran my finger down his jaw , admiring the god before me . " How about you give in to that feeling ... because tonight is all about the two of us .

" I whispered seductively , running my tongue up his neck , feeling him tense as I kissed and sucked his most sensitive spot . " You might fucking regret those words when I'm done with you . " His eyes flashed red .

" I seriously doubt that ... " I murmured , unlocking my legs and gracefully sliding to the ground . Tugging free ,

I led the way through to the back where the hot tub awaited . Knowing his eyes were on my ass , I teasingly slid my gown up , swaying my hips sensually , hearing him mutter a swear . I smiled amused . He was a king who treated me like a queen , and I loved it ...

knowing that I was the only woman he had eyes for . Pushing the door open , I stepped into the steam – filled room , the candles adding that warm romantic touch . I walked over to the edge , sliding the gown off my shoulder . I let it fall off me and drop to the ground . Looking over my shoulder ,

I gave him a teasing smile . " Do join me , my king . " I said , stepping into the tub before I turned , giving him a view of my breasts as I moved back , leaning against the edge of the tub . His eyes didn't leave me as he stripped off his clothes .

My core throbbed as he pulled his shirt off , revealing his muscular body . I licked my lips with anticipation , my eyes not leaving him . There was something so hot about watching a man undress The moment his trousers were gone , my eyes raked over his muscular legs and down his hardened dick in his tight boxers . Oh , he really was sex on legs . One , I just wanted to fuck day in and day out . " I can hear your thoughts , Amore Mio.

" " Good , then you know exactly what I want , and how I want it . " I replied softly . His eyes flashed red as he slid in , my pussy clenching as he closed the gap between us and pulled me onto his lap . " Hell yeah . " He murmured , claiming my lips in a passionate kiss once more .

" So how was your day with Dante ? " I asked once we had broken apart , very aware of my nipples grazing his chest . " It was good . He's a smart little fucker who knows exactly what the fuck he wants , just like his mama .

" " " I'm glad , because in the future , if his mate is as stubborn as you , he is going to need it . " I said , tracing my finger along his lips , reaching over for the two wine glasses with the other hand . " I tried ... thinking I could do it without you , but I couldn't . Fuck , you were all I could think of .

I was a fucking idiot to think I would be able to live without you . At least Dante will know the importance of a mate , that he would need them by his fucking side , cause I sure as hell will teach him that . " He replied , his hand stroking my back as he took one glass from me .

Leaning closer , he kissed me over my breasts , flicking my nipple with his tongue teasingly . I sighed softly , pleasure rushing through me . He forced himself back and I clinked my glass with his before we both drank some .

" I'm glad ... because I don't think I would have survived without you in my life ... I pray when the time comes for us to leave this earth , that I go first or we go together . I whispered . " His eyes flashed red , his brow furrowing . " Don't ... " " " I'm just saying ... "

He looked away , and I could feel the emotions from him . My heart thudded . What was it ? " Alejandro ... " He sighed , looking up at me . my " When I was in a coma and : stopped , when I met Selene ... She gave me two options ... "

I heart My stomach twisted . What did he mean by two options ? My heart was racing and my stomach clenched . Yes , he had told me once that he had died , and Selene gave him a second chance , but I never knew this ... " What were they ? " I asked , fear consuming me .

" One was that she would shorten your life and I could live that time on earth span with you . The other was that you could forget me and live happily , then I would just move on to the afterlife . " " Shorten our life ? " How much time did w e have ? I didn't care as long as he was with me , but .. No , he didn't . My heart thumped as I stared into his eyes.

Alejandro , you chose the second option , didn't you ? " He looked me in the eye , and I didn't need him to say it out aloud . My eyes stung with tears as I placed my glass down . " How could you ?! Were you willing to leave and have me forget you ?!

" I smacked his chest , anger filling me . " I ... how could you ! " " Hey ... Your happiness is everything ... Dante needed you . Ten years on this earth was not enough ... We would have met again , but I didn't want him to grow up a fucking orphan ...

She said you'd forget me and live happily and I- ' 11 " How dare you ! You are my world , Alejandro ... " My heart clenched as the memories of that night returned to me , the night doctor Callum said he was no more ... I hugged him tightly , my heart banging against my ribs , my eyes stung with tears . He stroked my back , hugging me tightly . " I'm sorry ... but you two mattered more ... and if you were promised fucking happiness , then there was no need for me .

Fuck Kiara I shouldn't have mentioned this shit . " " No ... It's good you did ... " I whispered , gripping his shoulders tightly . Just the thought of him leaving me was so ... Promise you will never leave me . 11 " 1 " Oh , I don't fucking intend to .

" He smirked , and I felt better . The truth in his voice was crystal clear . " Seems like I need to get your mind of all that shit . " " Yes , you do . " I replied with a pout , locking my arms around his neck . He smirked arrogantly .

" Oh , I know the perfect way to make you forget everything and see fucking stars , Amore Mio. " He whispered . Not waiting for a reply , he pulled me close , his lips crashing against mine in a passionate kiss . His dick throbbed against my core , and I knew tonight was going to be perfect .

I couldn't imagine life without Alejandro , and as much as I had gotten upset over his decision , in his position I would have done the same . I deepened the kiss , pouring all my emotions into it , hoping he could feel exactly how much he meant to me . His hand was threaded through my hair as he led our kiss , and I knew he understood . Moonlight Muse
