

Read Married At First Sight Chapter 2846

Married At First Sight Chapter 2846-Zachary told her that Jasmine said that she wanted to bite Josh's arm from time to time, and Josh asked him in private.

Serenity: "..."

She just wanted to eat the chicken legs, not the arms.

Julian envied the sweet lives of Josh and Jasmine. He also hoped that he and Kiera would be as happy and sweet as Josh and Jasmine in the future.

After ending the call with Josh, Julian fell into deep thought.

Should he confess directly?

How about buying a bouquet of flowers for Kiera later?

He was afraid that after Kiera received the bouquet, he would find it inedible and a waste of money.

After struggling for a few minutes, Julian finally made an internal call to his secretary in the company and told the secretary, "I want a bouquet of roses. You go out and buy them for me now. I will take them away after work."

The secretary received this assignment without any surprises.

Anyone with a keen eye could see Julian's love for Kiera.

It's just that Kiera was in it and hadn't realized it yet.

The secretary didn't need to ask to know that the rose bouquet Julian wanted was for Kiera.

"Mr. Bucham, okay, I will go to the flower shop now and buy a bouquet of roses for you. I promise not to delay your business."

Julian blushed slightly but nodded calmly.

He rarely did such things.

It's always a bit embarrassing.

This was not the first time he sent flowers to a girl. During that time, when he pretended to pursue Elisa, he sent flowers to her every three days. Even though he often asked people from the flower shop to send them to him, he also sent them personally.

Maybe it's because he had no feelings for Elisa. He didn't feel embarrassed when he sent flowers to Elisa.

All he knew was that he was acting.

But Kiera was different. Kiera was the girl he really wanted to marry and stay with for the rest of his life.

He was nervous and cautious.

Sending flowers to Kiera had different meanings and different feelings. He would feel shy and blush.

Fortunately, he was the only one in the office, and no one saw his blush.

The secretary was a native of Yonburg and knew where there were flower shops and which flower shop had more beautiful flowers.

He quickly bought Julian a large bouquet of roses.

When he came back with a large bouquet of roses, the secretary became the focus of the company. When he walked by, everyone would look at him twice.

The secretary came to the general manager's office holding the bouquet as if nothing had happened, raised her hand, and knocked on the door.

"Come in."

After Julian finished processing a few of the most important documents, he began to tidy up his desk, arranging his suit jacket and tie, making sure to appear in the best possible condition in front of Kiera.

The secretary pushed through the door, holding a bouquet of flowers.

The secretary said, "Mr. Bucham, I bought the bouquet you asked for."