The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2543-“Kid, get over yourself! I’m warning you. My dad is the Western Boss with countless martial artists in the Emperor and Almighty State working for him! If you dare to harm me, my dad and the Farmers won’t spare you,” Felton shouted and attempted to intimidate Leon with his father’s name as Leon approached.

Considering the Western Boss’s power and influence, he did not think that Leon would harm him unless he had a death wish.

Unfortunately, this would only apply to others and Leon was an exception.

“The Western Boss? I don’t know if he will spare me, but I know I’m not sparing you right now!” Leon scoffed in contempt.

Western Boss would be no match for him, so he did not take Felton’s threat seriously.

Ignoring Felton, he lifted his leg and intended to break Felton’s legs to show him the consequences of his wrongdoings.

“Don’t!” Felton was terrified. He did not expect Leon to not fear his father and the Farmers.

However, he was a martial artist in the Intermediate Emperor State and would not possibly sit on his thumbs when Leon planned to break his legs.

Enduring the pain in his wounds, he rolled off the ground to narrowly dodge Leon’s attacks.

After that, he leaped into the air and darted away without hesitation.

After the earlier exchange, he realized that Leon was much stronger than him and he was no match for Leon. To avoid getting further injured, he instantly decided to catch Leon off-guard and run away.

Perhaps this was his only way to safety.

“Running so soon? No way!” Leon scoffed and charged after Felton.

“What are you two doing? Stop that brat now!” Panicking, Felton shouted at his guards.

He knew that Leon was much swifter than him and it would be challenging to get away.

Thankfully, he brought two bodyguards along with him and so long as they helped to stall, he should be able to get away.

“Yes, sir!” The two guards who were injured by Leon felt slightly better after resting for a few minutes. Following Felton’s order, they darted toward Leon without hesitation to stop Leon from going after Felton.

“Out of my way!” Leon narrowed his eyes coldly and waved his arm. A wave of powerful spiritual energy overwhelmed the guards.

However, they seemed determined to stop him and blocked Leon with their bodies despite knowing they were no match for Leon.
