

The Ex Husbands Revenge

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2556-“That’s a good idea! Felton, that’s a great plan!” The Western Boss slammed his palms against the table in excitement.

He could tell the value that lied within the Cynthion Group and if the Farmers could obtain it, it would be easy for them to rule over the western region.

This had been his dream for years. If that was the price, ruining his reputation for getting involved in a fight between youngsters seemed to be a small price to pay.

A strange look appeared on the Southern Boss and he opened his mouth hesitantly.

In the past, he thought of the same thing as them and tried to take over Cynthion Group. In the end, he failed and even caused the downfall of his family in the process.

The Western Boss and Felton were clearly repeating his mistake. However, he hesitated for a moment and chose not to stop them.

He came to the western region to gain the Western Boss’s support in fighting Leon and the Tompsons. Since they started plotting to take over Cynthion Group and make Leon their enemy, this worked perfectly in the Southern Boss’s favor.

Moreover, the current situation differed from what he faced before.

He failed in taking over Cynthion Group mainly because Leon was protected by the Thompsons and the Spears were eliminated as a result Without the help of the Thompsons, the Spears might not have been defeated by Leon alone.

However, the situation at the moment was different. Leon had come to the western region alone and was no longer under the Thompsons’ protection.

Though Leon had an all-powerful Potential Energy Force, there was no way he could defeat everyone with it.

The Western Boss was formidable and with all the powerful martial artists at his disposal, Leon might just perish in the western region so long as the Western Boss went after him at all cost.

Once Leon was dead, the Southern Boss could get the Western Boss's help in going against the Thompsons or return to the southern region to start over again.

Everything would be much easier and all issues would be resolved.

His spirit was instantly uplifted and hope rose within him.

Though he initially intended to escape, he decided to stay and observe if he could use the Western Boss against Leon.

"Felton, how about this? Arrange for someone to find out where Leon stays. I will send a martial artist in the Almighty State and two others in the Semi Almighty State to capture him. You can do as you please with him then!" The Western Boss made his decision swiftly.

"Sure," Felton said.

had the ability to get to the SemiAlmighty State within a short time, he would only be able to defeat those in the same power level.

Now that the Western Boss had arranged for a martial artist in the Almighty State and two other in the Semi-Almighty State to capture Leon, there was no way that Leon could get away.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2557-"One in the Almighty State and another two in the SemiAlmighty State? What good will that do?" The Southern Boss sneered.

He knew Leon's true power and even if the Western Boss challenged him to a fight, he might not be able to defeat Leon, not to mention sending three martial artists in those levels.

There was no way that they could capture Leon. However, he did not warn or stop the Western Boss or inform him about Leon's strength.

Once the Western Boss learned about Leon's terrifying strength, he might give up on targeting Leon or the Cynthion Group.

This would go against his interest.

He planned on letting the Western Boss fail and once he came to resent Leon, there would be no way for him to stop. Once that happened, he could work with the Western Boss and the Feaks to eliminate Leon.

"Felton, it's getting late! You are injured, so go back to your room to rest. We will revisit this tomorrow!" The Western Boss did not notice the strange look on the Southern Boss's face and was oblivious that he had walked into a trap.

"Hang on! Dad, there's something else that I need to tell you!" Felton said thoughtfully.

"What is it?" the Western Boss asked in confusion.

"It's about a heavenly herb! Jaxon presented a heavenly herb to us all..." Felton explained about the Rainbow Flower.

"What?" Both the Western and Southern Bosses were shocked.

They both knew the value of a heavenly herb.

Spiritual herbs had always been rare in both the southern and western regions.

Hence, they were both surprised that a heavenly herb would surface in a small bouquet.

This was surreal and they would not believe it had they not heard from Felton.

"That's great! The Feaks actually found a Rainbow Flower! The odds are on my side!" The Western and Southern Bosses were both overjoyed and exchanged excited looks.

of no use to them. However, a heavenly herb was different.

A heavenly herb could help martial artists in the almighty state enhance their power and if they obtained the Rainbo Flower, they might both be able to get past the bottlenecks in their training and ascend to the Peak Almighty State.

Instantly, the two were over the moon.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2558-“Dad, I wanted to purchase the Rainbow Flower for you, but Leon was interested in it as well and offered 650 million for it. We have to beat him to it.

We can't let him have it,” Felton added, before proceeding to explain what happened. i “Hm... Alright! I will go to the Feaks tomorrow and speak to Elder Feaks! I'm sure he knows what's the wise choice here!” the Western Boss said confidently.

The Rainbow Flower could enhance his power and there was a big chance that he could even get to the Peak Almighty State with it.

Hence, he was determined to obtain it.

Though Leon clearly had the money and was willing to pay for the Rainbow Flower, he was merely an outsider and had no power in the western region.

So long as the Western Boss exerted pressure directly on the Feaks, they would surely sell him the Rainbow Flower and he was not at all concerned about it.

“Yeah, I think so too.” Felton nodded.

“I hope so...” Watching the confident looks on their faces, the Southern Boss narrowed his eyes sharply.

He shared the Western Boss's thoughts. If the Rainbow Flower could greatly enhance martial artists' power, he also wanted it.

Once he obtained it, he could easily ascend to the Peak Almighty State and that would make retaliating on Leon and the Thompsons much easier.

Hence, the Rainbow Flower was the key. Unfortunately for him, he had no power or influence in the western region.

There was no way that he could get to the Rainbow Flower before the Western Boss and Leon.

After several exchanges with Leon, he could tell that Leon was a cunning man despite his age.

With Leon being interested in the flower as well, the Western Boss would certainly face challenge in getting to it before Leon did.

It would be fine if the Western Boss got lucky enough to obtain the flower, it would be fine. However, he could never allow Leon to obtain it.

Once Leon obtained the Rainbow Flower and got stronger with it, it would only be more difficult for him to seek revenge against Leon.

This was hardly what he wanted.

A sharp glint flashed in his eyes and he decided that he would do everything in his power to stop Leon from obtaining the Rainbow Flower to prevent the situation from getting out of control.

“Alright. Felton, go back to your room to rest! Southern Boss, let’s go get some rest as well,” the Western Boss said calmly.

He clearly did not see Leon as a threat and considered the Rainbow Flower his by right.

With that, Felton, the Western Boss, and the Southern Boss all returned to their respective rooms to rest.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2559-The next morning at a five-star hotel, Leon woke up early because of the Rainbow Flower.

According to the time set by Jaxon, he drove out of the hotel and toward Jaxon’s mansion, hoping to follow him to his grandfather.

Outside the mansion, Leon parked his car and strode in.

“What’s this smell?” As soon as he reached the gates, he caught a whiff of the scent of blood.

Paling, an ominous feeling rose within him and he darted inside.

There was a mess and countless traces of fighting in the yard.

In the center lay a few guards in a pool of blood. The blood had long dried and the guards had stopped breathing.

Shocked, he muttered, "What's going on?"

He hurried over to check if any of the guards happened to be alive.

Unfortunately, they had perished.

"Damn it! How can this happen... Did someone sneak in to rob the Feaks for the Rainbow Flower last night?" Leon was stricken.

He had just arrived and did not know what happened, but he knew just how rare the Rainbow Flower was.

Upon seeing the guards' bodies, the first thought that crossed his mind was that someone came for the Rainbow Flower as that seemed to be the only explanation.

"Wait, where's Mister Feaks?" Leon snapped out of it and started looking around for Jaxon.

Though he had already guessed that this was a massacre, he only saw a few bodies of the guards and Jaxon was nowhere to be seen. He prayed that Jaxon was lucky enough to survive, but reality was cruel.

In the middle of his thoughts, he soon spotted a young man dressed in white laying in a pool of blood not far away.

It was none other than Jaxon.

"It's over... Who on earth did this? How vicious..." Leon hurried over and his heart sank when he confirmed that it was indeed Jaxon.

During the bouquet last night, Jaxon presented the Rainbow Flower to the public.

The Feaks were a family of doctors who had earned a reputation for themselves. As the eldest son of the Feaks, Jaxon was known in the elite community and everyone who was present in the bouquet, including Felton, knew that there were rules to things.

Even if some of them wanted to obtain the Rainbow Flower, they could only do so via proper channels and should never commit murder or robbery.

Killing had never been tolerated by the Dragon Corps and even if some of them had the idea of stealing the Rainbow Flower, they would only dare to use tricks to force Jaxon into handing the flower over out of fear for the Dragon Corps.

There was no way that they dared to kill so many people.

Hence, Leon could not quite figure out who took Jaxon and the guards' lives.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2560-Leon was furious. "How vicious! It was the jungle's rule, but massacre and robbery could not be forgiven.

If the culprit merely wanted to obtain the Rainbow Flower, it would not be as unforgivable. However, whoever did it murdered many innocent people viciously, making them as horrible as any of the criminals on the criminal list.

As a member of the Dragon Corps, Leon knew that he was responsible of upholding the good. On top of that, the Rainbow Flower was concerned.

On both official and personal accounts, he could not stand idly by and allow the culprit to get away.

He suppressed his anger and crouched down next to Jaxon to check his body, hoping to find hints about the culprit.

"Oh, is this a defensive tool in the Emperor State?" Leon lifted Jaxon's clothes to examine his injury when he spotted a black armor.

The armor was strangely flexible and soft with a faint wave of true energy inside.

Leon touched it and soon realized that it was a treasure in the Intermediate Emperor State.

This was likely given to Jaxon by his family to protect him.

Unfortunately, the culprit was far too formidable and the armor clearly failed to fend off the attack.

The culprit tore through the armor's defense with a single blow, leaving a distinct palm print on Jaxon's chest that likely took his life.

This was a fatal injury.

Leon continued to examine Jaxon when he suddenly noticed a faint heartbeat.

"Heartbeat? Is he alive?" Leon froze and was instantly overjoyed.

He initially thought that Jaxon had perished like the guards. To his surprise, the armor succeeded in fending off some of the impacts and Jaxon was lucky enough to survive.

Leon was pleasantly surprised.

Not daring to delay, he tapped on a few points around Jaxon's chest to protect his heart and prevent the injury from spreading.

Once that was done, he prepared to start reviving Jaxon.

However, before he could do so, something unexpected happened.

Just then, a black luxury car raced through and stopped in the yard. The car door opened and an old man in his seventies, a middle-aged man, and two other formidable-looking old men stepped outside.

The first old man who stepped out was none other than the head of the Feaks, Roman.

Behind him were Romeo and two other elders of the family.
