

Chapter 887 Expand Pearl Company Again

With Tristan's help, the Williams Group's matter was perfectly resolved.

Pleased and satisfied, Liam accompanied Julie back home.

The moment they returned home, Yesenia walked up to them and demanded in an anxious tone, "Julie, how did it go? Did you gain a firm foothold in the marketing department?"

Julie shook her head and said, "Mom, I have resigned."

When Yesenia heard this, her face changed drastically. Eyes blazing with rage, she glowered at Liam and cursed, "Liam! Is this your so-called solution? You fucking loser! Even if Julie only stayed with the Williams Group as a regular employee, she could still earn one million a year! I really want to kill you!"

She continued, "And you too, Julie! You worked so hard to get a position in the Williams Group, and you just suddenly resign? I really don't know what's going on in your head!"

Frowning, Julie took out the bank card that Tristan had given her and said, "Mom, I have

Chapter 887 Expand Pearl Company +120 Points at most thirty million in this card!"

Yesenia's anger disappeared when she heard the amount on the card. Her wide gaze fell on the card in Julie's hand, and she couldn't take her eyes off it.

Julie beamed at her mother. "Thanks to Liam, I've got thirty million now. Mom, you have wronged Liam! You should apologize to him."

Those words effectively doused the elation coursing through Yesenia, and she focused on Julie again. Snorting, she asked, "Why? I'm his mother-in-law. Why can't I teach my son-in-law a lesson?"

Yesenia didn't want to apologize to Liam, so she framed her insults as her merely disciplining him. But her tone was considerably less condescending.

Then, Yesenia asked Julie what had happened in the Williams Group.

After she had been updated on everything that happened that day, Yesenia looked at Liam with a mildly approving gaze and said, "Liam, not bad! At last, you finally did something good. All the food you've been eating in our family hasn't been for nothing!"

Still basking in the joy of her victory, Julie said, "Mom, I have thirty million now. The Pearl Company can stay afloat. Moreover, our Pearl Company has signed a contract with the Red Murray Group. As long as we manage the company well, we will definitely be able to have a good life."

When Newell heard Julie's words, he and his son stepped forward. Smiling softly, he said, "Julie, neither my son or I have the potential to be promoted in the Williams family. It just so happens that Pearl Company now needs funds and connections. We can provide you with those two things."

As Newell spoke, he and his son shared a glance.

The expression in their eyes were indecipherable to anyone but the two of them.

In truth, the two of them only offered to help Julie because they wanted to get closer to her. They knew that if they developed a close relationship with Julie, they would be able to realize their plan.

Yesenia was of the opinion that Newell's offer was perfect, so she urged Julie to agree. "Julie, what are you waiting for? Agree with them!"

This time, Julie looked to Liam for his opinion. After all, Liam had played a major role in getting her the thirty million. So, it was only fair if she allowed him to decide if she should sign a contract with Newell and his son.

Smiling faintly to himself, Liam stared at Newell and his son.

He saw through them and knew they had ulterior motives. But he would ensure he exposed the two of them to everyone eventually.

Liam was acute. It was easy for him to identify someone who wasn't being completely truthful.

However, he chose not to tell Julie and Yesenia about his suspicions. He wanted to force Newell and his son to expose themselves before punishing them. In this way, he could solve the problem once and for all.

Liam didn't care that Newell could use this opportunity to cause Julie's company a few losses.

As far as Liam was concerned, the Pearl Company was insignificant. It was just a paltry sum.

Therefore, Liam nodded to Julie and allowed Newell and his son to join them.

After getting Liam's approval, Julie drew up a contract and handed it to Newell for his signature.

As Newell perused the contract, Julie told Liam, "Liam, I will also give you a part of the shares! After all, it's because of you that I was able to get the thirty million."

Yesenia scowled immediately and shouted, "Julie, why? Liam didn't invest anything in your company. Why should he get shares from it?"

Julie frowned at her mother, but she refused to be swayed. "Mom, it's none of your business! It's my decision to make."

When Yesenia saw how determined Julie was, she had no choice but to let the matter go.

After that, Julie, Liam, and the others discussed their future plan for the company.

During their conversation, Liam fell into a trance. He felt as though he had traveled back in time to when he used to run the Kingland Group.

The familiar feeling made Liam's heart race.

His eyes darkened, and he couldn't help but think that it was time for him to take back what belonged to him.