

Chapter 891 Liam Has Come!

A regular SWAT team might have second thoughts upon hearing what the security guard had said.

After all, the Hoffman family was a big name in Salem, feared even by local authorities.

But Liam's SWAT team didn't back down. They were there at the Von Merri Hotel under a five-star general's order to make arrests.

Liam scoffed, "So, the Von Merri Hotel has fallen this low! Let's handle these thugs."

The SWAT team was eager to move. At Liam's command, they drew their batons and swiftly moved in.

This team was the elite, unbeatable even by the toughest criminals, let alone a few hotel guards.

The guards stood no chance against the SWAT team's skill.

In seconds, the formerly arrogant guards were down, groaning in pain. With nothing in his way, Liam was unstoppable.

"Let's head upstairs," he commanded confidently.

The SWAT team led the attack on room 808.

As soon as Liam arrived, he noticed Cowan sneaking near the door, obviously on the lookout. A wave of anger surged through Liam.

Cowan, spotting Liam, was seized by panic. He wanted to run, but he was soon surrounded by SWAT team members.

Liam's grip on Cowan was fierce, his eyes blazing with a fierce intent.

Cowan, aware of Liam's reputation for being a strong fighter, was visibly shaken. "Liam, what-what are you going to do? You can't do this here at the Von Merri Hotel..."

But Liam didn't let him finish. With a swift kick, Cowan was sent flying through the door and crashing onto the floor inside the room.

In the room, Klein had just undressed, wearing nothing but a pair of underpants, and he was visibly aroused.

However, he was startled by the sudden disturbance.

"What's happening?" Klein's voice quivered as he took in the sight of Liam and the SWAT team. Fear gripped him.

Julie, regaining her composure at the sight of Liam, threw herself into his arms, tears streaming down her face.

"Liam, Asher's been taken by them! Cowan sent me a message, threatening me with Asher's safety!" she said to Liam.

Julie was on the brink of giving up, but luckily, Liam got there just in time.

At that moment, Julie truly saw Liam's strength and dependability.

She felt with him around, no problem was too big to handle.

Seeing Julie's tears, Liam felt a mix of anger and concern. His eyes hardened.

Yet, he softened his approach for Julie, gently caressing her shaky back, and whispered softly, "Julie, I'm aware of what's happening. I've reached out to my contacts to locate Asher. Don't worry, Julie. Asher will be safe."

Liam then turned to the SWAT team members.

They quickly understood the message and restrained Klein and Cowan on the floor.

Liam gently let go of Julie and turned his attention to Klein and Cowan. His voice carried an unending thirst for vengeance.

"Tell me everything about Asher. If you keep quiet, you won't like what comes next!"

Klein was utterly lost. He had no clue about Asher's abduction and shook his head in protest.

"Liam, I swear I'm not involved in your son's

Chapter 891 Liam Has Come!

+120 Points at most disappearance! You can't just arrest me like this. It's against the law! Just wait, I'll sue you for this! Liam, you're bound to go to jail!"

Liam gave Klein a cold look, then suddenly slapped him across the face.

The force of the slap chipped Klein's teeth.

In shock and fury, Klein clutched his face and yelled, "Liam, you're looking for death! You're in deep trouble. Your fate was sealed in my grasp!"

Without a word, Liam's expression remained cold as he continued to punch Klein relentlessly.

Soon, Klein was a bruised mess, trembling on the floor, too scared to utter another word.

Cowan, witnessing Liam's ruthless beating of Klein, was terrified. He muttered to himself, "If Liam could do this to Klein, what would happen to me?"

Desperate, Cowan pleaded, "Liam, please, I'm sorry! I know about Asher being taken away. I'll tell you everything. Just forgive me! I took someone's money and handed Asher over to a gang member. I don't know what happened after that. Liam, I admit I was wrong. Please, let me go. I found out Asher is Julie's son and wanted to use that to threaten Julie!"