

Triplet Alphas Gifted Luna Novel chapter 132

3 - 21 Jealous Alphas

Thea and the triplets took the girls back to their room.

"Thea, are you doing okay?" Alaric said in mind link on the walk.

"I'm worried, but I guess if the girls say this is what we need to do, things should work out, right?" Thea thought.

"The girls adore you. I can't imagine that they'd tell you to do something that would hurt you," Kai said in mind link. 3

"Yeah," Thea thought. Then she remembered the girls said if they didn't do this Alpha Jett would kill her mates. Anything she had to endure was worth it to keep them safe.

"Hey, we're all going to be okay," Conri said in mind link.

Thea nodded.

"Thank you for your help tonight," Thea said as they tucked the girls into bed.

Arella was about to say something to Kai, but he stopped her.

"Don't worry," Kai said. "I'll get you the canines we rip out." 1

Arella smiled. "Thank you, Alpha Kai."

As soon as they shut the door to the girls' room, Alaric pinned Thea against the wall.

Butterflies shot through her stomach, and heat pooled low inside her. Alaric's hand went into her hair and pulled her head to the side.

"You are mine," Alaric said into her ear, soft and low. It would be a menacing sound to anyone else, but to Thea, it was sexy. He nipped her ear. "Say it."

"I'm yours," Thea whispered. She knew the triplets would need to claim her after the Alpha meeting. She felt their possessiveness and jealousy growing all night, but she expected Conri to be the aggressive one. She was pleasantly surprised it was Alaric being the aggressor.

Alaric's teeth worked their way down to his mark on her shoulder, nipping as he went.

Kai and Conri stood on either side of them. Kai found the seam in Thea's dress and ripped it open. Thea gasped. It looked like the dress had a slit in the side clean up to her hip. Kai's hand went under the newly formed slit and inside her panties. 2

Thea's hand went to Kai's forearm.

"Not here," she whispered, looking down the hallway of the Delta team block like she just realized where they were. Her Delta team guards split to either end of the hallway.

Kai grabbed one of her wrists, Conri grabbed the other, and they pinned them to the wall. Kai leaned in and put his mouth by her ear.

“We’ll have you here if we want,” Kai said deep and low. “You are ours. This pack house is ours—every inch of it. Just like every inch of you is ours. We’ll take you anywhere, anytime we please. Say it.” 3

Thea shivered in pleasure, and she knew her panties were soaked. Kai was always so stoic, so confident. He never needed to mark his territory. Tonight was different. Kai had never been like this with her. He usually goaded her into dominating him, but she could tell he wouldn’t back down from this. This was Kai being Alpha. With her. After the pressure of convincing a room full of Alphas to join their cause, it felt so good to have her mates be in control. She could relax.

“Say it,” Kai repeated.

“You can have me anywhere, Alphas,” Thea said, voice breathy. “Anytime you please. I’m yours.”

Kai gripped her panties and ripped them off. He pocketed them then slid his hand back inside her dress. His fingers found her warm folds slick.

“Are you wet for those unmated Alphas or us?” Kai said in his deep, low voice.

“You,” Thea said. “Always you.”

“You looked cozy with those unmated Alphas before dinner started,” Conri said.

Thea felt their jealousy and possessiveness flare as they thought about it. The Alpha in them needed to feel her submit entirely to them and only to them. See only them. Want only them. She liked this side of them. She wanted more. She needed more.

"Did you like it when I touched them?" Thea whispered, goading them. "When I held Alpha Stoll's arm?" <sup>2</sup>

Alaric's canines started to grow in his need to claim her. He bit down on his mark. "You're mine," he thought. Thea grew wetter.

Kai's grip tightened on Thea's wrist, and he slid his fingers inside her. "I'll make you forget about them," Kai thought to her. "You'll be screaming my name so loud the goddess will hear it on the moon."

Thea whimpered in pleasure as Kai moved his fingers inside her.

Conri growled and wedged himself behind Thea. He lifted the skirt of her dress to her waist and spread her legs with his foot. He unzipped his pants, thinking, "Mine, mine, mine."

Kai took his fingers out of Thea and brought them to her mouth. "Open," he said. Her lips parted, and he stuck his fingers in her mouth. "Suck your juices off like you're sucking my cock." She did. He pulled his fingers out and kissed her, assaulting her mouth with his tongue until he couldn't taste her anymore. He pulled back, leaving Thea wanting more.

Conri grabbed his cock, rubbed it all over Thea's wet pussy, dipped inside her, then brought it dripping wet to her backside. She was ready for him. She arched her lower back, tilting her hips to give him better access. He pushed against her, backed off, pushed again, and slid in. He wrapped his arms around her waist and latched onto his mark.

Alaric retracted his canines, licked the punctures, then freed himself from his pants. Conri held Thea from behind while Alaric lifted Thea's legs to wrap around his waist. He closed the distance between them, sliding into her pussy.

"You better be wet for us," Alaric thought. "No one else."

"I am," Thea thought. Her arms went around his neck. "I'm always wet for you. Only you."

Thea didn't feel quite complete. She looked at Kai. She wanted to break that stoic facade and get to the most primitive, primal Alpha within. She wanted the animal.

"Did you like it when I leaned in and whispered in Alpha Stoll's and Alpha Ledger's ears?" Thea thought. "When I was close enough to feel their heartbeats in their chests? The blood pumping to their Alpha cocks?"

Kai undid his pants, eyes on Thea's. He took her hand and put it on his hard length. He slid it under her dress and against the skin of her waist.

"These are the only cocks you're allowed to feel," Kai thought.

"I can't help it if other Alphas want me," Thea thought, goading all three of them.
