

Triplet Alphas Gifted Luna 154

3 - 43 Alpha Ford's Pack

"That felt too easy," Conri said as they drove back to the school.

"I told you Alpha Brian Jones was good," Thea said.

"Yes, you did, my love," Alaric said. He kissed her temple.

"On to the last one? Alpha Ford to take over Mead Moon?" Thea said.

Mead Moon shared a border with New Dawn, the school, Crater, and Alpha Ford's pack, Moonbeam. Alpha Ford didn't have as many warriors as the other packs. His few warriors met them outside Mead Moon, and soon they parked in front of the pack house.

Alpha Ford tossed their dead Alpha's body on the ground in front of the gathering crowd.

"Where's the next Alpha?" Alpha Ford said.

A minute later, a twenty-four-year-old man, taller and more muscular than the rest of his pack, came walking through the crowd.

Alpha Ford gave the same speech as every other Alpha that night, while Thea funneled her magic and Earth energy into him.

"I won't give you my pack," the guy said.

"Then I challenge you for your pack," Alpha Ford said.

The fight didn't last long. The guy didn't have practice or discipline. He spent his time abusing slaves, not training with qualified fighters. Alpha Ford was a disciplined, studious man. He may have lacked the best trainers growing up, but his intelligence and ability to think on his feet filled in the gaps.

The Alpha power transferred to Alpha Ford. He felt the boundaries of his pack expand to include what was formerly Mead Moon's land. He connected to all the formerly Mead Moon pack members and mind linked them, knowing there would be slaves locked up and not with the group outside. He spoke out loud too and gave a similar speech as all the other Alphas. Slaves are freed. Omega title is abolished. Anyone who doesn't accept and abide by the new rules will be punished accordingly.

"This is the start of your new lives," Alpha Ford said.

A few warriors challenged him. They lost.

Thea felt darkness in a few of the people. She whispered in Alpha Ford's Beta's ear to mind link him which ones.

Alpha Ford called those people into a group. "I understand you're used to a certain way of life," he said. "Will there be a problem with the new rules?"

"No, sir."

“See, you say one thing, but your body language says something else,” Alpha Ford said. He motioned to his men. “This group to the dungeons. We’ll wait to see if anyone comes forward to accuse them of crimes, then deal with them accordingly.” His men took them to formerly Mead Moon’s dungeon. They came back with a group of newly freed slaves who had been locked up in the dungeon. “The rest of you, follow my Beta to your new home.”

The other Alphas huddled up.

“That wraps it up for today,” Kai said.

“Thank you all for answering the call,” Conri said.

“Thank you for including us,” Alpha Darwin said. “This is an amazing thing you’re doing. None of us could have taken it on alone. I’m honored to be a part of it.”

The other Alphas voiced their agreement.

“Keep us updated on how it’s going,” Alaric said. “Transitions can be difficult. We’re here for you. Let us know if you need anything.”

The Alphas nodded.

“The threat is neutralized,” Alpha Sharpe said. “I’ll pick up Misty from New Dawn on my way home. Thank you for your hospitality and for protecting my daughter.”

“Of course, Alpha Sharpe,” Thea said. “We’ll miss having Misty around.”

The Alphas got in their vehicles and drove off. Thea grabbed Alpha Stoll and Alpha Ledger and asked them to stay behind. They went with Alpha Ford, Thea, the triplets, Xavier, Delta team, Alpha Ulric, and Beta Walter to Alpha Ford’s pack, Moonbeam.

Alpha Ford mind linked his pack to tell them to gather in front of the pack house. He made a speech about what had happened and what was going on. After watching Alpha after Alpha give speeches and take control of other packs, Ford had a good idea of what an Alpha was supposed to be. They were nothing like his father had been. Quick to adapt, he projected that aura easily.

“Things will be different around here,” Alpha Ford said, his voice carrying to everyone. “We’re doubling our numbers and our land size. We will need more people to work for the pack. We will need more warriors to patrol our new land. More importantly, we will prepare ourselves for the coming Great War.” He gave a brief explanation. “Every pack member will train every day from now on. New Dawn has graciously offered two of their elite Delta team members to get us going with a training program. Please welcome and follow Jayden and Ryder.” He motioned for them to join him. “The floor is yours,” he said to just them.

Jayden and Ryder took Alpha Ford’s place in front of the pack, and Alpha Ford walked to Thea and her group. As they addressed the crowd, Thea pointed out the pack members who felt dark to Alpha Ford.

"They won't challenge you for the pack," Thea whispered. "They just want to abuse weaker pack members. Keep an eye on them. Or make sure they're never in a position to hurt someone."

Alpha Ford took note of the people and put it in his mind to watch them closely. He had had his eye on them anyway. They were former buddies of his father, living the party life with him.

"There will be training and conditioning every morning and afternoon," Jayden shouted to the crowd. "Pack warriors will have additional training during the day. People with aptitude or the desire may get advanced training and join the pack warriors. Will someone lead the way to your training field?"

A warrior from Moonbeam raised his hand. The group followed him. 1

"Shall I give you a tour, Luna?" Alpha Ford said. "You can assess as we go."

"Absolutely," Thea said.
